A Reason To Celebrate – Ashley Schafer’s Fiesta By Design Wins Pink Buckle Futurity, $146,188

By Tanya Randall

Ashley Schafer’s Fiesta By Design (“Mitch”) may only have half as many runs as other the other 2024 futurity standouts, but he’s rapidly making up for lost time in the arena with a $146,188 haul for the $4.105 million Pink Buckle, held October 6-13 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The 5-year-old gelding, who has overcome both surgery and illness, topped the $925,000 Pink Buckle Futurity for $110,250, placed third in the $1.375 million Hay Chix Open average and placed in a round of the Platinum Performance $300,000 Owner/Rider sidepot.

“I’m grateful for the opportunity,” said Schafer, who wanted to thank the Pink Buckle group. “They’ve really changed the industry.”

Bred in the names of High Point Performance Horses’ Jason Martin and Charlie Cole, Mitch was actually a gift to Schafer, who was riding their Dash Ta Fame, Firewater Fiesta mare HP Fiesta Fame.

“I was literally sitting on her at a jackpot in Santo (Texas) when Jason called me,” Schafer recalled. “He said, ‘Charlie and I talked about it, and we want to give you an embryo out of that mare.’ I was in tears! I was so excited! He said, ‘We don’t care what you breed her to, but if you want to breed her to any of our stallions, we’ll give you the stud fee also.’ Of course, we chose Slick (By Design).”

Like all of Schafer’s personal horses, Mitch was started under saddle by her husband Seth and pointed to a 5-year-old futurity career.

“I always run my personal horses as 5-year-olds because that’s how it’s stacked up now, where I don’t have too many of my own in a year,” she explained. “I’ve ran so many of mine as 5-year-olds, if I tried to run one as a 4-year-old, I would end up with three (futuraity horses) that year.”

Mitch didn’t start his patterning until early in his fourth year, but it wasn’t long before Schafer was hauling him to exhibitions.

“I started hauling him pretty early for no more time than he had on the barrels,” she said. “He was just working so nice and wanted to do everything right, I didn’t know what else to do with him. I took him a couple different times and just go slow. I wasn’t trying to get a clock on him or anything. I’d just take him and cruise him through.”

Although Mitch doesn’t physically look like most of the horses that she rides—“He’s very racy. He’s like a greyhound,” Schafer noted—Mitch’s natural style fits her perfectly.

“Some horses you have to work with them to get them to use their body correctly,” she said, “but for Mitch he just naturally uses himself in a way that I want a horse to use themselves. He puts his butt in the ground, keeps his front end up and pulls himself around a barrel very naturally.”

His training mostly consisted of proper placement.

“When I needed to work on something it was more foot placement or getting up further into the turn or giving himself more room,” she said. “It was more positioning.”

Schafer already knew that Mitch was going to be one of her best horses for 2024 when she noticed the extra fluid in his hocks last October.

Although Dr. Don Lee at Double X Equine said Mitch’s condition was likely maintainable without surgery, Schafer opted to manage Mitch through the OKC Rookie Futurity—the only one he’d been paid into to date—and schedule surgery immediately following the event.

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine ½ felt with a wool bottom

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Flexion on front

SHOEING: Bar shoes on front, rims on behind; shod by Seth Schafer

FEED: Bluebonnet Omega Force

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Equi-Boss Performance Chelator Minerals, two pumps of NeutraBac pH every morning, DAC oil, MVP Gastro-Plex paste pre-run, Electro-Cell electrolytes.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER, occasional body work

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: He’s turned out every day. I ride three to four days a week. He doesn’t get worked on the barrels much at all. I do the four corner exercise to keep him strong, using the muscles that he would need in a run. Right before an event, I’ll work him on the barrels.

Mitch had a successful debut, placing in the second round and finishing 15th in the aggregate at the OKC Rookie Futurity.

“He literally won, almost to the dollar, the cost of the surgery,” Schafer chuckled. “That’s how good of a boy he is!”

The surgery was December 12, and Mitch didn't run again until the Select Stallion Stakes Futurity in Chickasha, Oklahoma, at the end of March. After he placed in the 5-year-old division of the Old Fort Days Futurity, Mitch surprised Schafer with a second round win at the Royal Crown at the Lazy E in late May.

"I was really excited," she said. "I always knew Mitch had what it took to be a winner. I've always felt it in him. Here I was at his fourth futurity, and he won a round. I was just beside myself. I didn't expect him to do it that quickly, coming back from that surgery. I knew he was running against horses that had been running all spring and were really nice. He surprised me."

In June he picked up checks at the Run At The Rose and Colorado Classic but caught a bug on the trip. Although he rallied to finish four at the Ruby Buckle West Futurity in Salina, Utah, the bug resurfaced once he got home. Unfortunately, his recovery from illness cost him a trip to the richest Royal Crown Race in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

Mitch made his second return to the arena at the Fizz Bomb Classic, where he tipped in the first round but came back to win the second. That experience highlighted Schafer's biggest challenge with Mitch—riding him to his ability and instead of like a competition green colt.

After the first round at the Fizz Bomb, her husband Seth gave her a pep talk.

"My husband was like, 'Ashley! I knew you were going to hit that first barrel from the eye! Why did you ride him like a green colt?'" she said. "I needed to trust my horse. Seth gave me a big pep talk. He said, 'You need to ride that horse like the winner that he is. Trust him and ride him with confidence.' I did and we won the next round. I have to stop treating this colt like he's green because he's such a good horse. Ride him with confidence even though he doesn't have many runs."

At the Pink Buckle, Schafer and Mitch were out early in the first round in draw 66. Schafer knew she needed to capitalize on having top of the ground.

"I was pretty nervous," she admitted. "I felt a lot of pressure going into that run because I know how nice he is. I knew he had a great opportunity, and I just didn't want to mess him up! I had to have a real pep talk with myself about not riding him like a colt. I just really tried to be confident, took some deep breaths and tried to ride to my spots."

Mitch had a beautiful, smooth pass that cut the clock off in 16.732.

"He was really correct and really smooth," she said. "He's so fast in his straights. I could just feel how explosive he was. I knew he was

The nerves were back for the second round as Schafer knew a big win was on the line.

"I had a little different game plan going into the next round," she explained. "I knew my chances of winning the round were really slim because I was bottom of the ground and the time to beat was really fast. I had a little different strategy. I had to tell myself, 'You're going for the average, but don't override because you're going to catch barrels.'"

Schafer also wanted to avoid overriding on the bottom of the ground where trying to be too aggressive will often cause mistakes.

"If I'm bottom of the ground in a situation like that I want to be as smooth as possible," she said. "I was really just trying to focus on a nice smooth run."

Although they had a few sticky spots on the ground, Schafer and Mitch turned in a 17.003 to win the aggregate.

"I was really happy to get around them," she said. "I did get him a tick early at the first, but the nice thing about Mitch is he's very forgiving. He let me pick him up and move him around that barrel. It did cause him to hesitate on the back side so he couldn't leave as hard. I think that's where he lost most of his time. Even leaving the third, after watching the video, you can see him struggle getting his footing right. I think because we weren't just flying and trying to make big moves that he was able to keep himself upright."

Mitch's career earnings now surpass $215,000. Schafer has the Ruby Buckle East, AQHA World Show, WPRC Cardholder Race

Force The Goodbye Wins 2024 Nutrena Horse of the Year by AQHA

After another amazing year of barrel racing for Kassie Mowry, her main mount throughout the 2024 rodeo year, Force The Goodbye (Jarvis) was voted WPRA/AQHA Horse of the Year.

The 6 yr old brown gelding by leading barrel sire The Goodbye Lane and out of the Burrs First Down mare Vf Forcit First has already earned an astounding $1.113 million in his career. He is the #2 money earner sired by the $10.8 million sire The Goodbye Lane.

He earned his first checks at the 2021 BFA and has just been racking up the earnings since. Winning futurities, derbies and rodeos consistently ever since. At the 2023 NFR, Force The Goodbye showed he could hang with the best of them winning both Rounds 8 & 9 running near arena record (13.11) times of 13.30 & 13.37.

In 2024, Force The Goodbye rolled through the mid summer rodeos, including winning an unbelievable $43,370 the last week of July. Over the summer he won Kennewick, WA, Bremerton, WA, Gooding, ID, Canby, OR, Utah Days of 47 Rodeo in Salt Lake City, UT, Ogden, UT, and Bigfork, MT. Through the winter and spring Jarvis added the Rodeo Austin and San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo title to his resume.

The always consistent Force The Goodbye has consistently been close to arena records at the rodeos this year catching the attention of anyone who closely follows rodeo. Force The Goodbye is owned by the late Michael Boone, who always had a great eye for good horse flesh.

Tied for second place in the voting are DM Sissy Hayday and DM High Roller. DM Sissy Hayday is a 4 time World Champion and the first $3 million earning barrel horse. DM High Roller had a strong finish to the 2024 rodeo season that pushed LaTricia Duke to her first NFR.

Kelly Bowser and Quarento Tres Dominate at the Pink Buckle

By Britany Diaz

Kelly Bowser and Quarento Tres took advantage of the large payouts up for grabs at the $4.1 million event at the Lazy E in Guthrie, OK on October 6-13. This year marked the seventh year for this prestigious event, having started in 2018 with $1 million in guaranteed payout. Bowser and Quarento Tres, better known as Opie, were consistent, winning an event total of $146,647 in two runs!

Bowser and Opie ran in the derby, which added $470,000 to the 1D and $180,000 to the 2D. They ran a fast time in Round 1 of 16.781, placing 3rd, and winning a total of $12,925. $10,340 went to the owner, $1,293 went to the stallion, and $1,293 was for the breeder. They got a little quicker in Round 2, running a 16.717, placing 2nd and winning $16,450; $13,160 for the owner, $1,645 for the stallion and $1,645 for the breeder. The duo held on to the #1 spot in the average and the Pink Buckle Derby Champion title, running a time of 33.498 on two, winning $47,000; $37,600 to the owner, $4,700 for the stallion and $4,700 for the breeder. Bowser and Opie won $76,375 in the derby alone.

The Pink Buckle offers contestants the ability to roll to a number of sidepots and the $1,375,000 added Open 4D race. The Open was an equal payout of $343,750 to each Division. Bowser rolled his times to the Open, which literally paid off in a big way. The team placed 4th in the 1st Round, earning a total of $7,734; $6,188 to the owner, $773 for the stallion and $773 to the breeder. The teams time of 16.717 in Round 2, placed them 4th again, earning another $7,734 in total payout. Running two 16.7's on a standard is not an easy task, but this team stayed solid, winning the Open Average with a combined time of 33.498 to win another $30,078; $24,063 to the owner, $3,008 for the stallion and $3,008 to the breeder. The duo won a total of $45,546 in the Open.

Quarento Tres went through the Pink Buckle Sale, making him eligible to compete for the $100,000 added Sale Graduate Incentive. The team's time in Round 1, earned them $7,500; $6,000 for the owner, $750 to the stallion and $750 for the breeder. In Round 2, they placed 2nd, taking home another $3,163; $2,530 for the owner, $316 to the stallion and $316 to the breeder. The team won their third aggregate average championship of the week, earning another $14,063; $11,250 to the owner, $1,406 to the stallion and $1,406 to the breeder. The Sale Graduate Incentive allowed the team to win a total of $24,726.

Quarento Tres, is a 15.2 hand, 5-year-old gelding, owned by Chad and Mandi West from Terrell, TX. He was bred by Blessed River, Ltd from The Colony, TX. He is sired by, Tres Seis, who is one of 50 Pink Buckle Stallions, whose offspring is eligible to compete, as long as their nomination is paid in annually. This incentive allows both the stallion owners and the breeders the ability to make good money, as well as the owners. In this situation, the breeders and the stallion owner each won $14,664, while the owners won $117,319! This is the Pink Buckle dream coming to fruition.

Bowser shared, "Opie just rolls with everything we throw at him. It doesn't matter if it is big pens, small pens, inside or outside, he does his job. He has been this way his whole life or since we have had him. Chad and Mandi West bought him at the BBR sale as a long 2-year-old. Earlier he had gone through the Pink Buckle Sale, but they no-saled him." This is not Opie's or Bowser's first big win. The duo had been making a name for themselves since the start of their futurity year. "We won second in the BFA Slot Race last year. He didn't get to compete part of his futurity year because he had chronic Lyme disease, but started to get better towards the end. He actually placed down a ways in the Pink Buckle futurity last year. He is a very tough horse. He runs free and is very honest. He is so easy to be around, hauls like a champ, and is gentle."

"I was confident in Opie when we got there as he had won a few barrel races before we headed out to Oklahoma. I made a tack change, putting a head setter on him prior to the Pink Buckle. He can sometimes be a little too free to the first, so it helped him come back faster," said Bowser. "I usually don't get nervous, but about fifteen runners before me, I did get a little nervous. One horse before me, before I gathered up my reins, it went away, Opie went in strong, and the rest is history."

Bowser, from Swanton, OH, is a veteran to barrel racing. He has been doing this for over 50 years and has had a lot of success and losses along his journey. This was Bowser's largest win as far as money won. He is also the 1994 AQHA World Champion, Congress Champion and has placed at many large races. "This is the biggest stage, with the most horses competing that he has won. It is exciting to see him add these accolades to his resume," shared Bowser's wife, Danielle.

"The ground was really good. I didn't see too many slips, which you are going to have at any race. I like the Black Widows as it keeps the ground good and the drag times short," said Bowser. "I know the producers here try hard and they did a super job. The office workers are so nice to deal with and are the real superstars. They give us so many opportunities. We don't get to run for this kind of money anywhere and it is really life-changing." The big win made the Bowser's 16-hour drive home much easier. He would like to express his thanks directly to the Pink Buckle group.

This is a memorable win for Bowser. He shared, "This event is special. We got to see and spend time with so many people that we don't see that often. All of the vendors and stallion owners along the side of the arena, were neat to see, some giving away free stallion fees. We got to ask questions about some of the products and I loved getting to watch all of the horses run. Everyone was at the Pink Buckle. Running on a standard makes it a horse race."

Bowser is always willing to share his knowledge, "I told a young girl from our area that when she gets out there, do not let all of the hype deter you anywhere. Just do what you have been doing at home and you will be good. A lot of people get into that predicament where they see everyone that they have heard about, so they want to go faster than what they are able. Come up with a game plan and stick to it. Don't change it when you get there." He also shared, "Don't ever give up on your dreams. When things get tough, stick with it."

"When Opie and Kelly were on their way to Oklahoma, I was speaking to the owners about his winnings. Chad keeps meticulous count of Opie's winnings, hoping to get him to $100,000 in life-time earnings. After the second-go and we saw how much money he had won, we knew that $100,000 goal was blown out the window," shared Danielle Bowser. "It hasn't really sunk in yet."

Mariah Earles & her 5 year old Cfour Lil Rickie G Win $159K at Pink Buckle!

By Julie Mankin

Amateur barrel racer Mariah Earles has never had a WPRA membership, but she earned more in two runs than just about anyone has, ever. It happened at the Pink Buckle, aboard Earles' 5-year-old "little dragon" by Feel The Sting (Dash Ta Fame x MP Meter My Hay "Stingray") out of a half-sister to Ivy (Conrado) Saebens' NFR mare Cfour Tibbie Stinson.

Mariah and her husband Pat purchased Cfour Lil Rickie G ("Rickie") from her breeder, Kelly Conrado, as a 2-year-old out of the 2021 sale. On "Rickie" at the '24 Pink Buckle, Earles clocked a 17.171 and then a 17.194 to place 15th in the average of the big futurity which, with owner incentives, paid $14,863 total.

Those times weren't fast enough for money in the Open. But her 34.365 on two dominated the Amateur Futurity (for another $22,000), placed second in the Sale Grad Open (for $12,875), and won the Sale Grad Futurity (worth $27,500). Including all the money that also went to the breeder and current stallion owner, Rickie earned a whopping $88,838 total on those two runs. And add that to the staggering $70,000 cash paid by 70 Ranch Performance Horses for winning its Feel The Sting incentive. The total including breeders and stallion money ended up at a stunning $158,838. Earles was the fastest at the Pink Buckle on two who was riding a Feel The Sting baby and had a contract on another Feel The Sting foal for 2025. In total, Earles herself took about $141,000 cash home to west Texas.

"It's a huge high," said Earles, a native of Midland who now lives outside Abilene. "I'm investing the money. We're calling this the house that Rickie G built, and I'm hoping now we can build a covered arena so I can train year-round."

Earles, 32, had always trained her own horses, but they were older. She had never entered a futurity until 2018. But she'd always loved Feel The Sting, and her husband knew it.

"What I love about 'Stinger' is his conformation, and I'd always loved Stingray – nothing remains to be said about her and Sherry," said Mariah. "It was incredible the heart that mare had; the grit; the try. And I loved her versatility – that Cory also roped on her at the BFI."

Conrado bred Rickie before selling her dam, Cfour Winnie Me Lots. She is by Darkelly (First Down Kelly x Shawne Kate) and, like Tibbie, out of Little Fancy Granny. "Racie," an eclectic mix of foundation quarter race horse and Thoroughbred blood, was Saebens' winner as she was growing up, and was Liz Pinkston's backup horse at the NFR. Fifteen-year-old Tibbie, the 2016 Nutrena/WPRA Barrel Horse of the Year under Saebens, is now owned by 88 Ranch Performance Horses.

"I've heard that Rickie carries some of Tibbie's traits, especially her personality and her confidence," said Earles, who wanted a different colt at the 2021 sale that went too high. "My husband saw something in Rickie that he absolutely fell in love with. He's the one who wanted her to come home with us, so he's getting all the credit for picking her out."

Earles said that because the mare wasn't very big and because she herself was so new to futurities, she chose to campaign Rickie as a 5-year-old. It paid off.

"Kelly put a really solid foundation on her," said Earles. "The legwork was already done for me. When I got her, she was a breeze to train. She was actually the most natural horse I have ever started. The 'want to' was there to run and to turn. She just wanted to please."

Conrado has been super supportive, Earles continued, saying he was always a call or text away.

"I called him Sunday after I got a text saying I won the $70,000 incentive, and I was crying," she said. "He was having a hard time understanding me, but then he got a little choked up, too. He's very proud of her and excited for me, too."

Earles only had the upcoming Stinger contract because she lost a mare that was supposed to fulfill it last year. The fill-in this time will be a barrel-racing mare by Whoze Your Daddy. Next year, Earles should also have a foal on the ground out of Rickie by The Good-bye Lane.

"Rickie made me realize a horse chooses its own style and I need to adapt to that," Earles said. "The success I've had is from letting her be the individual that she is. Her first turn is so tight that I have to really let her go in there as hard and fast as she wants, and even get by it. If I don't, it'll get tipped either with my toe or her hip leaving it. That's how close she gets!"

Earles' ultimate goal is to rodeo on Rickie, and she's tested the waters a little, having already clocked a couple of 13.7-second runs at Northside.

"She loves rodeos," gushed Earles. "It really amps her up and she's like a different horse. She loves to go places and see people and the louder the crowd, the happier she is. She's a joy."

Ilyssa Riley and Money Cash In at Texas Circuit Finals

Winning Average; Tiany Schuster Wins Year End

By Hope Raley

Texas barrel racer and 2023 WNFR qualifier Ilyssa Riley's 2024 season didn't go as planned, but after making the decision to go home after the Calgary Stampede and let her horse rest, Riley finished off the year strong with an average win at the 2024 Texas Circuit Finals held in Waco, Texas.

Riley and her main horse, Mistys Money Blurr "Money", had a good start to their 2024 rodeo season, winning their set in Houston and getting qualified to the Calgary Stampede- neither of which had she done before. "We loved Calgary and our time spent in Canada, even though crossing the border gave me anxiety," laughed Riley. But after some time spent in Canada, Riley could tell that Money wasn't feeling himself and made the decision to head home and get her guy back on track.

Although the season wasn't her richest yet, Riley still qualified to the Texas Circuit Finals in the 6th spot. Money and Riley were solid all week, placing in every round and getting the average win. This win was even sweeter to Riley because this year she was able to run Money at the circuit finals after having to stay off him last year due to Money recently having surgery.

"Money really likes Waco, so I was excited to run him here at the circuit finals. He was solid all week and although I think his runs could have been a little sharper, he always gives me his best and gets the job done. For him to place in every round was so special to me." Ilyssa will represent the Texas Circuit at the 2025 NFR Open held in July at Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs, Colorado along with year end champion Tiany Schuster.

Alyssa Gabrielson and Rare Kelly capture Badlands Circuit Finals Average; Lisa Lockhart Wins Year End Title

By Hope Raley

Gary, South Dakota barrel racer and barrel horse trainer Alyssa Gabrielson started the 2024 season in hopes of seasoning her main horse, Rare Kelly “Kelly”, at some rodeos to get his toes wet in the rodeo atmosphere. “My plan was to enter where I wanted to go and enjoy the process along the way,” explained Gabrielson. Admitting that she didn’t get to go as much as she wanted, notifying turn out more than she showed up to run at times, Gabrielson was grateful to find out that she and Kelly were able to accomplish their goal of qualifying for the Badlands Circuit Finals, held every year in October in Minot, North Dakota.

Alyssa and Kelly, a 2019 gelding by Darkelly and out of Man Its Getting Hot by Rare Bar, won three circuit rodeos in 2024 including Huron, South Dakota, Maynard, Minnesota, and Buffalo, Minnesota. They also placed at a few other circuit rodeos over Cowboy Christmas including Belle Fourche, South Dakota 4TH of July Rodeo which hosts the best barrel racers and barrel horses in the WPR. Besides Rare Kelly, Gabrielson also rode two other horses that helped to get her to her first Badlands Circuit Finals appearance, although not her first circuit finals berth. She and her trusty

If I ask for extra room or steps around a barrel at home, that is how he will run, so I try to keep it “perfect practice”. He wants to stay broke and sharp so otherwise I just really like long walking loose or loping through the fields.

old guy, Odie, qualified to the Great Lakes Circuit Finals 3x before he was sold to his new home, however not before he could pull some of his own weight for the team in 2024, aiding in their first trip to Minot. Another horse that Gabrielson ran in 2024 was Yellow Momma (RF Led Me To Fortune) a 2016 mare by Guys Special Leader and out of Mommas Fortune by Tres Fortunes. Yellow Momma won second at Sioux City, Iowa, Harding, Minnesota and placed at a handful of other rodeos.

Gabrielson made three solid runs at the Badlands Circuit Finals, all aboard Rare Kelly. They placed 6th in the first round, 4th in the second round and won the third round with the fastest run of the circuit finals. Admitting that Kelly warmed up fresh that day, Gabrielson knew she had nothing to lose, knowing that Kelly was going to fire hard, and it was only a matter of if she could keep up with him. The pair finished at the top of the pack in the average with a total time of 42.57-seconds on three runs.

Gabrielson will represent the Badlands Circuit along with year-end champion, 18 time NFR Qualifier Lisa Lockhart, at the 2025 NFR Open in July at Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Carolina. Following the storm, the event had been rescheduled for October 30-November 2 in Mill Springs, North Carolina at the Tryon International Equestrian Center and Resort.

WCRA and its partners look forward to bringing Rodeo Carolina back to the region in Fall 2025.

In the wake of Hurricane Helene, Tryon International has been instrumental in the region's recovery, currently serving as a staging area for FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency), a community food distribution basecamp, and a 10-acre North Carolina Emergency Management Field Hospital. First responders also occupy Tryon International's lodging and facilities with an indefinite departure date.

All ticket purchasers will receive a refund from ETIX.com, Tryon International's ticketing partner. All refunds will be processed automatically and appear on your bank statement within 20 business days.

All Rodeo Carolina entry fees will be refunded to athletes through NextGen Rodeo (transaction fees do not apply). No further action will be needed. Refunds should be applied in the next 7-10 business days.

Rodeo Carolina Leaderboard points will be applied to the 2025 Rodeo Corpus Christi Leaderboard; athletes who do not want their points applied to Rodeo Corpus Christi can email eventsecretary@wcrarodeo.com and receive a refund on their nominations (transaction fees do not apply) or apply them to a VRQ Bucks gift card for the full value. The deadline for refunds or VRQ Bucks is October 15 at 5 p.m. CT. Rodeo Corpus Christi is scheduled for May 7-10.

The 2024 VRQ Points Champion Bonus will now conclude on May 10 at 2025 Rodeo Corpus Christi. For more information, email eventsecretary@wcrarodeo.com.

We appreciate the understanding of our competitors, partners, and staff, and our thoughts and prayers are with everyone in the region affected by the storm.

Athletes who have questions can contact WCRA at eventsecretary@wcrarodeo.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The news is depressing. War! Fires! Hurricanes! Floods! It's awful! But if you are a child of God, you are on the FIX IT team! You and me.

God did not pick us to be here, in the end times, to point out darkness. He put us here to shine as lights! He is on the inside of us and we should be glowing!

Mike was teaching Bible study the other night, and he was telling about Israel's 3 layers of protection. The Iron Dome, David's Sling, and the Arrow. While he was describing them, I heard in my heart, "You have a three layer protection team. The Father. The Son. The Holy Spirit!" That's AWESOME!

And as His children, we should be praying for all these disasters and evil. We have authority over every one of those things, so together we can interrupt their effect. In the natural, we can help. In the supernatural, we can win!

Let's get with it, church! It's time to shine!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
