Red Running Meter si 89

Dr Meter Reader si 90 x Bet A Monk TB (Red Monk)

'05 Sorrel Gelding, 15.3 hands

A willing, kind horse. He is soft laterally and vertically and does one rein stops, sidepasses both ways, yields hips and forequarters. He tries hard to please, very responsive to your feet and moves very collected with quickness. Has been ridden outside, moves out well and goes up and down hills. He rides gentle and smooth - about anyone will get along with him. He is currently being trotted around the barrels and loves to work the pattern. Red Running Meter should go about any direction and do well. $3200

The MN Lakes Barrel Race and MN QH Racing Association teamed up this past weekend to debut a $1000 added money sidepot to benefit retired race horses. Saturday early afternoon in the open ceremony and after months of planning, Announcer Mike Connolly talked about the details of the program and horses who would be competing while Producer Jess Bergem ponied in a 3 year old filly fresh off the track all tacked up in her race gear. Behind Jess filed in the twenty four retired race horses who would compete in the event. Included were stakes winners, maidens who never came close to winning a race and horses with earning from zero to tens of thousands. Top 5 competitors where awards jackets and checks totaling $1360.

Headin' For Home

By Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

You can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink!" Probably everyone has heard that saying at some time or another. And it's true about horses and about people, too, especially where God is concerned in people's lives.

You can't beat your family and friends over the head with your Bible to make them believe what God said. Quite often those people closest to you are the hardest ones to witness to.

God desires that all men be saved (1 Timothy 2:4) and He has told us to spread the Good News of salvation. Christians don't have to live in fear of death. Christians can live an abundant life that Jesus died to give us. Remember if you've asked Jesus to be Lord of your life and come live in your heart, He will never forsake you. It says in 1 John 4:4 that "He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world." There's nothing that God can't fix.

So pray that your loved ones will come to a saving knowledge of God through someone or something. Be there for them ready to answer any questions they might have. You can drop little seeds now and then and tell how God has helped your life. But don't badger them or cause hard feelings. You'll know when to back off. Give them to God. To help you learn and be able to witness more effectively, sign up for our free teaching CDs that we make every week at our Bible study. Maybe you can get some of your loved ones to sign up for their own CDs or give them some of yours. We send them out all over the country free of charge.

Just send your name and address to Mike Morrison Ministries, PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717 to get on our mailing list and learn how to live a higher life!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own non-denominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
