Kassie Mowry & Goodbye Sophie Sweep Ruby Buckle East Futurity, Win Open Average

By Tanya Randall

All-time leading rider Kassie Mowry and her homebred mare Goodbye Sophie dominated the Futurity and topped the Open 1D Average at the Ruby Buckle East, held October 23-26 in Memphis, Tennessee. Mowry and the 4-year-old mare added $70,128 to their records.

"She was my one bullet in Memphis," said Mowry. She left her AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") at home to rest after placing third at The Texan Barrel Race the weekend before. "I really wanted to be home, but I told myself she deserved to go. She hasn't been a priority this year. I'm so glad I went! She made me so proud."

Prior to Memphis, Sophie had won $298,761. She was the Lone Star Shootout Futurity Champion, Ruby Buckle West Reserve Champion, Royal Crown Rock Springs Reserve Champion in the Breeders and Open futurities and was third at the Old Fort Days Futurity.

"I know she's only won two futurities, but I'm so proud of her," she said. "I think she's won like eight go-rounds at big futurities, like Royal Crown. She's that caliber of a horse. She can definitely run the times."

In Memphis, Mowry and Sophie squeaked around the barrels after a slip at the second.

"She kind of got long, like went by it, and she realized it and

THE RUNDOWN w/ Kassie Mowry

Goodbye Sophie, 15 h.

BIT: Rope nose combination. "It was actually the first combo I used on her in the (BFA) Juvenile. It wasn't enough for her then. She ran too free for that combo. I've been wanting to change bits on her for a while because I feel like now I have her starting her turns too soon with that metal nose-band combo. I'm not able to lift her as much as I need to now that she's taking the initiative to start her turns. I don't need to do that for her. I just need to give her a little lift going into them to keep her rounder. It's hard when they're winning to make a change, but after I hit a barrel at the Pink Buckle, I felt like it was because of what I was feeling and what I needed to make the move." Daily riding in an Ed Wright Pretzel and warmup with a Loomis."

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine ESP wool-top felt

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Classic Fits on front

SHOEING: Lite steel rim on front and rear

FEED: Nutrena Pro Force Fuel

HAY: Cubeit alfalfa cubes and Grass pasture

SUPPLEMENTS: Forco, salt, Assure Guard Gold

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Exercise.

SPONSORS: EquiBrand (Classic Equine & Martin Saddlery), Signature Equine, Western Hauler

THANKS: Always grateful to have an opportunity like that. I do love the Buckle races and the crew behind them.

came back through herself really hard," said Mowry, who won the round in 14.846. "The ground just gave a little bit, and I thought I was going to hit it. (The slip) kind of spun her toward (the barrel) leaving it. It also made us really tight going into the third and I sat down too soon. I barely got around it. I was so glad those weren't plastic barrels because they would have been on the ground. I was really surprised that it didn't end up on the ground. And she clocked. The girl always takes care of the clock."

Although Mowry was concerned with making a clean run on the bottom of the ground, Sophie erased her doubts.

"She was flawless," she said. "She never felt like she was in danger of hitting a barrel. She was last on the ground. I was worried that she wouldn't handle it as well. That's when she tends to have her slower run because she is smaller. She just showed me not to doubt her."

Sophie also slammed the clock in 14.720, which gave her the average victory by three tenths of a second.

"I was so surprised I got around them and then when they said my time..." Mowry mused. "She's just a special horse. She'll walk flat-footed into the arena every time and then literally leave me in the alleyway. She's really explosive and powerful, and she loves to run barrels. She's made that really fun. I feel like she's a good teammate, always working with me."

Mowry collected $63,214 from the owner's and breeder's share of the winnings. Sophie's sire The Goodbye Lane received $6,914.

Mowry bred Sophie, who is out of Claire Powell's Dash Ta Fame mare Famous Sophie.

Sophie and Percilla, dam of CP He Will Be Epic. Goodbye Sophie was one of four embryos that resulted from an ICSI breeding to The Goodbye Lane.

"I figured we were going to freeze some and when I called her, she was like, 'No! Put them all in!'" laughed Mowry. "They all four worked. We basically drew straws on the recip mares themselves. I sent hers back and I foaled mine out. I got two fillies, and she got two colts. The other filly I got is the one I sold to Jess Lewis, Last Kiss Goodbye."

Mowry is really excited for Sophie's future as a broodmare too. "I've always wanted a good mare for my breeding program," she said. "So far, she's marking all the boxes. Hopefully, she'll be a little producer for me. I'm excited to start breeding her this next year."

Sophie even made a tiny contribution to Mowry's fourth NFR qualification when she ran in the second round at the Caldwell Night Rodeo so Jarvis could have a rest.

"I wasn't happy that I had to do that," Mowry admitted. "I just got thrown in a bind and had to do it. It was literally one hour between runs; it was hot and the ground was deep. It was a big pen. It was a no for me to run him back like that."

People have asked Mowry if she plans on taking Sophie with her to the NFR.

"She still hasn't ran in front of a crowd," she said. "I want to leave her a baby as long as I can. I don't love just throwing them out there, especially with all these derbies. Hopefully, Will and Jarvis will have it covered."

Sophie will finish her futurity career at the WPRA World Finals and BFA World Championships. Mowry will leave for the NFR shortly after getting home from BFA.

A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

After taking third at the Texan Barrel Race in Abilene, Mowry opted to leave her superstar Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") at home. The 6-year-old gelding, by The Goodbye Lane out of VF Forcit First, by Burrs First Down, is still derby eligible, but Mowry thought it best if he got a break.

"As much as I would love to take Jarvis to everything I can, I just won't," said Mowry. "He probably would have done well if he had gone, but I think the reason he does well is that he doesn't run at everything he can."

Like when he showed up at the richest rodeos over the summer and dominated, thereby earning himself AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year honors.

"That was amazing," said Mowry. "I don't know of a horse that's ran more 16s on a Standard (Pattern). It didn't matter where I went. He just laid it out there. He just really blew me away. I was mostly there for my rodeo count and building his confidence as a rodeo horse, and he was like, 'No! I'm here to win!'"

Carlee Otero & Blingolena NFR Ready With Ruby Buckle East Derby Win

By Tanya Randall

Four-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Carlee Otero and her talented 6-year-old gelding Blingolena (“Sly”) picked up $47,504 at the Ruby Buckle East, held October 22-26 in Memphis, Tennessee. Otero and Sly topped the Derby aggregate by nearly fourth tenths, finished second in the Open aggregate and picked up checks in both rounds of the Owner/Rider Sidepot.

Otero’s owner’s share was $38,826. Jeff and Andrea of Busby Quarter Horses earned $9,504 for their late 10 million dollar sire Blazin Jetolena and for having bred Sly, who is out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Dash Of Bling.

“He likes it there,” said Otero, who calls Perrin, Texas, home. “He did good there last year. I thought it would be a good setup as a preview for Vegas. He did super, super good.”

Otero purchased Sly in the spring of 2023, and the Brett Monroe-trained gelding proved to be a very quick study in the world of rodeo. In his first season on the road, Sly won $79,056 and took Otero all the way to 19th in the 2023 World Standings.

This year, they succeeded in making the National Finals Rodeo. “It got pretty dang tough,” said Otero. “It’s just crazy to me, what it took to get to the Finals. Right whenever we were getting confident, we were reminded not to get too confident in where we were standing.”

Otero finished 14th in the WPRA World Standings with $112,910. Sly was responsible for all but $1,600 of her earnings.

“He was literally the only one I had in the trailer,” she said. “I didn’t have anything else. I just thought if it’s meant to be, it will be.”

She went to a few rodeos that she hadn’t the previous summer, so at the very least, she figured Sly would have more seasoning experience. When they hit barrels, the second to last weekend of the season, Otero thought her NFR ambitions were over. Her husband Michael, an NFR calf roper, refused to let her give up on the dream.

“Whenever I hit that barrel at Mandan (for the Roughrider Cup) and Omaha,” said Otero, “I thought that’s it, ‘Let’s just go home.’ Michael was like, ‘I’ve got you entered in three more rodeos and we’re just going to go.’ Of course, it was Mona (Utah) and the two California rodeos (Poway and San Bernardino). I did not want to go out there, but I’m glad we did!”

Otero and Sly made a clean sweep of their final three rodeos to secure their spot in Las Vegas. Now, with the Pink and Ruby Buckle races out of the way, it’s full speed ahead on Vegas prep. She’s also working on getting with her newest acquisition, HB Firewater Vanila (“Leroy”), another Brett Monroe-trained gelding.

“His style works for me,” Otero said of Monroe’s training. “He gets them really bendy and following their nose around. I tend to square them up and get them stiff, so it turns into a happy medium.”

Her first run on Leroy was at the Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas, a common NFR prep arena.

“I think it will be a good fit,” said Otero, who plans on running Leroy at the pro rodeo in Lubbock, Texas, this weekend and the

Tiany Schuster Wins $37,153 in Two Days at Elder Dodge Shootout

By Britany Diaz

2024 has been an amazing year for Krum, TX, cowgirl, Tiany Schuster. She just qualified for her third National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas and this past weekend, she was the high money earner at the Elder Dodge Shootout, held in Athens, TX with a note worthy $37,153. Schuster took a team of four horses to compete on the NFR sized pattern with hopes to build confidence that she is ready for December.

The Elder Dodge Shootout kicked off on Friday with Round 1 of the Open. Schuster and Admire My Fame won 2nd with a time of 13.797, earning $1,996. Famous Micguyver was right behind, winning 3rd by running a 13.845, winning another $1,663. Show Mance, (Tiany's favorite baby boy), finished the evening for them, winning 7th with a time of 13.936, earning them a cool $665. The power team won $4,324 total from Friday's Open race.

While Tiany wasn't sure if she would come back the next day for Saturday's race, some help and motivation from longtime friends, Kelly Tovar and Julie Plurde, gave her the extra push. "Julie helped me get entered and gave me a pep talk to go and well.... Kelly just got me going!", laughed Tiany.

Tiany and her big geldings came back Saturday evening for Round 2, running in the High Roller 3D and rolling their times to the Open, along with all sidepots/incentives available.

Admire My Fame, a 5-year-old, 16 hand chestnut gelding, sired by Carrizzo and out of the producing mare, Admire My Fire, took the early lead in the High Roller at draw #18, clocking a 13.861. When the final horse ran, Admire My Fame, finished 4th in the High Roller, earning $4,154, along with a 5th place open check of $1,161.

Next out the gate was the legendary, Show Mance. He was hot on his youngster, stablemates heels, with a 13.865. Tiany claims it was the 2nd barrel that cost Show Mance. "We were a little long there. It's OK though. Little pens aren't really where we normally come to play. We just have to get in that groove and that's why we were here, to get there," said Tiany. That run still earned the them a respectable 5th place in the High Roller, earning $2,967 and another $903 in the Open.

It was Famous Mic Guy Ver who would take center stage at draw #122 out of 190 competitors, running a 13.655, to take the lead and win the High Roller, earning $7,418, along with another $2,332 for winning 2nd in the Open! Famous Mic Guy Ver, a 9-year-old, 16.1 hand gelding, was the biggest winner on Tiany's trailer at the Elder Dodge Shootout. Schuster plans to start with him at the NFR. She said, "Everyone loves Micguyver. He is the most perfect horse in the world, but he is like a Harvard, over-achiever. He likes everyone to see him and knows he is pretty. He worries a lot and wants to try harder so he can be seen. He is definitely a preppy boy. We love him and appreciate all he has done for both Edwin and myself."

And not to be left out... late in the draw at #180, Shines By Design, ran a 14.159 to win the High Roller 2D, adding $4,451 to Schuster's weekend earnings, which totaled $37,153!

The Elder Dodge Shootout gave contestants an opportunity to win big and compete on an NFR sized pattern. Tiany Schuster and her geldings have been slowly showing up in a big way all year long. She took the opportunity to expose her horses to a pattern similar to what they will compete on at the Thomas & Mack. Tiany shared, "The remarkable part is that if you would have taken away the High Roller money won, I still would have won around $20,000. I placed all over and didn't even win first. Skyler Nicholas won both rounds of the Open on Friday and Saturday. That is quite the compliment to the producers of this event. It was run fast and was efficient. If you needed help, they were a phone call away. They had the ground groomed the best they could and just ran everything as smooth as possible."

Schuster laughed, "I have been gone all year rodeoing, so I felt like a novice barrel racer entering these events again. This was the third event I have entered since I have been home and I felt like I had to learn how to get entered and what classes to enter again. I took the four horses that I felt were ready to go, I was comfortable taking and would not be worn out. I hoped to use this event as an opportunity to see who was capable of clocking to be prepared the best I can for Vegas. I am happy it went well, but try not to get too excited in my heart. This will help me in my preparation and future choices and hopefully good decisions for Vegas. It is impossible to replicate the mood, crowd, setting and atmosphere that the NFR has, but it is neat that we can get runs on a similar sized pattern."

"Famous Mic Guy Ver and Admire My Fame are the two that I have been going back and forth on as I prepare for Vegas. Show Mance is more of a big pen horse, but he also showed me that he needs to be on the trailer as he placed top ten both days as well. I have high hopes for my younger horse, Shines By Design, as well. I tipped on him the first day, which resulted in three stitches, but he came back and made a nice run the second day," shared Tiany.

“Famous Mic Guy Ver is just a fan favorite. Show Mance on the other hand, likes to eat apples, get the job over with and go watch cartoons with the kids. Admire My Fame is so fun to ride. He needs constant reassurance and is always turning his head back to make sure I am still there. Shines By Design is the new kid on the block, always trying to show off and demands attention,” shared Tiany.

Tiany Schuster is now a three-time NFR Qualifier. She laughed, “three has always seemed to be my lucky number. We draw position #3 aaaa wholeee lot. We place third a lot. I finished third in the average at the NFR, finished 3rd in the World Standings, ...the Canadian Finals, you name it, three seems to be my number. So hopefully, my third year, will be a really great year. Even if it doesn't go well, I try to make light of it.”

We are excited to watch Tiany and her team in December. She is thankful for her God given horses and those that stand beside her all year; Professionals Choice, Arthamid, Adequan, Renovo, Outlaw Equine, and the crew at J & J Productions. Still in shock and a little speechless, she said, “Wow, what a weekend, this win was totally not expected.”

World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi Sweeps Mountain States Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Rodeo is a roller coaster. No one knows this better than three-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, who nabbed both the year-end and aggregate titles at the Mountain States Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 25-26 in Loveland, Colorado.

After her record-breaking 2023 season in both the rodeo arena and futurity pen, Tonozzi watched her winning horses go down like a row of dominos. First, her tried and true Babe On The Chase ("Birdie") injured a suspensory ligament. Then her 2023 futurity champion ChitiChiti BangBang ("Maybelline") had her promising rodeo season cut short due to pneumonia and an injury forced the retirement 70 Ranch Performance Horses' SR Industry Titan to full-time stud duty.

"It's been a rough year," said Lampasas, Texas, based barrel racer. "This year was less than stellar. This summer started out really good with Titan winning everything. I thought, 'Oh man, we're back on track!' That went downhill. I felt like I was constantly getting teased."

At the start of the Caldwell Night Rodeo in Idaho the second weekend of August, Tonozzi was 15th in the WPRA World Standings. By the end of the week, she was without a sound horse and 20th in the world. She packed up and went home to regroup.

Tonozzi finally caught a ray of light one Sunday morning when Pete Carr called and offered her Sir Epic, a 6-year-old futurity and derby standout for Kassie Mowry that now belonged to his step-daughter Morgan Bagnell.

"Pete and I have been friends for a really long time," said Tonozzi. "He asked if I wanted to take Sir. I guess he found out that I didn't have anything to ride. I was like, 'Yeah! I will take Sir!'"

With earnings of nearly $290,000 as a 4- and 5-year-old, the gray gelding by 2.3 million dollar sire JL Sirocco, out of So Very Epic, by Epic Leader, had been on the market. Current NFR qualifier Tiany Schuster placed on him at three rodeos this spring and then Kelly Allen ran him for a spell.

"(Pete) had him on the market for a while," Tonozzi explained. "He was like, 'I don't need to sell him. You want him? You want to sell him or keep him and make him better for Morgan later on... Take him and see what you guys can do.' I was like, 'You are light in the darkness for me today. Thank you, Pete!'"

It took Tonozzi a couple of runs to figure out the insanely talented, but challenging gelding.

"He is different," said Tonozzi, who called Allen, Schuster and Mowry for help at times. "He's a little bit different than my riding style. I think he was probably a little bit different for Kassie and everyone else too. But he's a winner and he's really fast. That can make up for a lot."

Tonozzi and Sir placed at the Breeders Challenge Finale, placed at the Stephenville, Texas pro rodeo at the end of the 2024 season, placed at the first two 2025 season Texas pro rodeos and won more than $76,000 at the Pink Buckle before the Mountain States Finals.

Unfortunately, Loveland introduced Sir to the not so fun side of rodeo.

Tonozzi, who was the leading barrel racer going into the circuit finals, was first out in the first round. After a strong slip at the first, Sir fell at the second, pulling his rear leg boot down below his fetlock. Tonozzi pulled up and rode out of the arena. When she got to the alley, the judge informed her that they were cancelling the barrels for the performance in order to fix the ground.

"It was a little harry there at the beginning," said Tonozzi. "I commend the judges for stopping it immediately and not running another barrel racer. Historically, they would have run two or three more before stopping it. I'm super proud of them for calling it im-

THE RUNDOWN w/ Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi

Sir Epic ("Sir") 16.1 h, 1,300 lbs.

BIT: Tonozzi switched bits during the circuit finals. She started out with a Schoneberg straight shank with a three-piece mouth with a donut in the middle. "I didn't feel like it was going to be enough," she said, before switching to a Kerry Kelly Hemi with a chain port. "I'd never ran him in it. I thought this might be really dumb, but I think this is going to work. He felt great in that, so I ran him in that again in the third round." Warmup in an Ed Wright Pretzel.

SADDLE: Double J Pozzi Pro

SADDLE PAD: Professional's Choice Cowboy Felt

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice on all four

SHOEING: Aluminum on front, steel rims on the back

FEED: Purina Impact Professional

HAY: Top of the Rockies alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy-Gen Mag Max and Intensive Hoof and Conquer Tranquility.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I just keep him fit. I may lope him or trot him through the barrels once a week if I'm going to go somewhere. He's pretty easy."

SPONSORS: Teton Ridge, Conquer Equine, Professional's Choice, Purina, Oxy-Gen, Top Of The Rockies Alfalfa Cubes, Double J Saddlery, Tanner Equine, Roper Apparel & Footwear, RenoVo, ArthramidVet, The Horse Education Company, Schwalbe Trucks, Mac Truck

THANKS: Mountain State Circuit Director Shelly Vossler. "She was kind of thrown into it and she's done an incredible job. She really cares about the barrel racers and works hard at it."

the Cowboy Channel, the contestants were pleased to have safer footing for their first round post-performance.

“It was super deep after they fixed it,” she said. “They didn’t have time to pull it back together after they ripped it. The second round ground was really good. They ran some really fast times.” She commended her husband Garrett for helping with the ground. “Garrett was instrumental in helping them get it right,” she said. “Everyone was at a loss and didn’t really know what to do to make it right. He stepped in and got it done.”

Tonozzi and Sir steadily improved with each run, tying for second in the first round, taking third in the wickedly fast second round and winning the third round despite another slip coming into the first barrel.

“Sir is not very rodeo seasoned,” Tonozzi said. “He’s going to have a few slips here and there just trying to figure out what rodeo ground is all about. I was also last out. There were bulls loaded in the chute and he was looking at them.”

Tonozzi, who finished the 2023 season No. 21 in the World Standings with $77,099, is hopeful the winter buildings will help further season Sir.

“He will run in there with his ears pricked and not paying a bit of attention, so I don’t know what he’s going to do in the big outdoor pens because of that,” she said. “I figured if we could have a good winter and keep things together inside, get a little bit more rodeo seasoning under our belts, maybe he’ll get it figured outside.”

It’s not a process that she’s unfamiliar with during her 20-plus year professional career.

“It’s a never-ending fight to stay on top. When you’re winning, you just think it’s going to go on forever and I’m never going to have to worry about anything again. It will just keep coming. Unfortunately, that’s not how that works.”

Thankfully, she’s had some great horses, like Sir, come her way from time to time.

“Lately, I’m thinking I’m a better jump rider than trainer,” she laughed. “I used to hate jump riding. But when you get to jump on horses like Titan, who was trained by Troy (Crumrine) and Sir, who was trained by Kassie (Mowry), those are fun. They’re pretty much ready to roll. Just a few little adjustments and you’re ready to roll. These are fun jumps. They’ve already done the hard work.”

With $8,135 from the Montana States Circuit Finals, Tonozzi already has $10,000 banked for the 2025 season and has a trip to the lucrative NFR Open in July, where she’ll be joined by hauling partner Andrea Busby, who finished second in the circuit standings.

(Note: Circuit Finals money will likely be missing from any current 2025 world standings as they do not count for winter rodeo qualifications and will be added later in the season.)

WPRA Announces 2024 Justin Best Footing Award Winners

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association is pleased to announce and congratulate the following rodeo committees who have gone above and beyond this past year to ensure safe ground for the animal athletes of rodeo, specifically the barrel racing horses. Every year since the early 1990s the WPRA and Justin Brands have honored rodeo committees in each of the 12 circuits with the Justin Best Footing Awards.

The Justin Best Footing Awards® program was created when Tom Feller, director of event marketing for Justin Brands, approached the WPRA about partnering on a program that would focus on the health and well-being of the animal athlete. Not only does the program keep animal athletes performing at the top level, but it also recognizes the hard work and time rodeo committees put into making their ground as safe as possible for the barrel horse and all rodeo livestock.

This award is determined by votes by the WPRA membership and Circuit Directors and represents our members' voices saying "thank you" for a job well done. The WPRA recognizes the top three rodeo committees in all 12 circuits as well as the most improved ground committee in each circuit. Committee awards provided by Justin include cash bonuses (ranging from $400-$1,000), plaques and, at certain award levels, a pair of Justin exotic boots. In addition, names of each winner for each of the 12 circuits are put into a drawing for an additional $1,500 bonus from Justin. The following rodeo committees will be recognized at the WPRA Star Celebration in Las Vegas on Dec. 5 at the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Congratulations to the following rodeo committees being honored in 2024 and the WPRA thanks you for making your ground safe and consistent.

WPRA Announces 2024 Committee and Contract Awards

With the regular season behind us we turn our attention to what could be considered the reward season for not only our Top 15 but also all the personnel and committees that have gone above and beyond this past year.

The WPRA Board of Directors have selected their 2024 committee and contract award winners that have worked tirelessly behind the scenes to make it all happen and have helped keep the Association alive and well for the past 76 years. Each winner will be officially recognized during the WPRA Star Celebration at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada, on Thursday, December 5.

Honored this year with the Mildred Farris Secretary of the Year Award is longtime WPRA member Cindy Rosser. Rosser was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame as a WPRA Notable in 2022. She joined the Girls Rodeo Association (GRA) now the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) in 1969 and served 20-plus years on the Board of Directors.

She grew up horseback and rodeo has remained her life's work. A staunch supporter of the WPRA for decades, Rosser has worked every facet of the rodeo business. From a competitor winning the California Circuit Barrel Racing title in 1982 to helping put on some of the biggest rodeos in the PRCA, she had a hand in rodeo production all her life.

In 1986 she was named the PRCA Secretary of the Year, in 1998 she was selected as the NFR Rodeo Secretary and in 2012 was the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo secretary. In 1995, she was named the Coca-Cola WPRA Woman of the Year, in 2015 she received the Lenora Reimers Heritage Award through the WPRA, in 2019 was honored with the Tad Lucas Award from the National Cowboy Museum and in 2020 won the Donita Barnes Lifetime Achievement award from the PRCA. She can now add the Mildred Farris WPRA Secretary of the Year Award to her list of accomplishments.

Rodeo historian Gail Woerner will be honored with the Lenora Reimers Heritage Award in recognition of her work in preserving the history of the WPRA, specifically regarding barrel racing. In 2023, she finished her book titled The History of Barrel Racing in Professional Rodeo. The book highlights the contributions and history women have made to rodeo, from the early days when there was no standard barrel racing pattern and few standard rules to the big money and big business sport of today. Woerner has long been one of rodeo's foremost historians, having written hundreds of articles about the sport and books covering everything from roping to riding. Now, she has brought the history of women's barrel racing into the spotlight it deserves.

Family has always been a cornerstone of rodeo and the WPRA recognizes the importance of family with their Lifetime Family Heritage Award. This year's recipient is the Flynn Family – Lynn, Denny and their daughter Ari-Anna. Lynn Manning Flynn qualified for the NFR three times and was the WPRA's Rookie of the Year in 1979; Denny is a 10-time NFR bull rider and was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2010. Ari-Anna joined the WPRA in 2011 and won the average title in the barrel racing in the Texas Circuit qualifying for her first Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo. She also competes in breakaway roping.

Rodeo committees have long been the backbone of the rodeo industry and without the hardworking rodeo committees, the industry would have a hard time existing. The WPRA is thankful to every committee who continues to elevate the sport to new levels. With the increase in added money the WPRA has added a new category now called Mega Rodeo of the Year, which includes rodeos adding $25,000 or more. Winning this inaugural award is Rodeo Austin, while the standard awards went to: Price County Rodeo – Phillips, WI (Small Rodeo of the Year), Jerome (ID) Country Fair & Rodeo (Medium Rodeo of the Year) and Killdeer (ND) Mountain Roundup Rodeo (Large Rodeo of the Year).

The WPRA would like to congratulate each of the award recipients as well as those that were nominated for these prestigious awards.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When my dad passed away, he left me one of his most prized possessions. I was honored. It is a 1948 (I asked Mike) McCormick tractor! What a beauty! I remember doing a lot of haying with it in my very younger years. And then it served me well working up the arena I rode in. It's been sitting at the end of my indoor arena for a long time now. It was running excellent when I parked it there. I wonder if I can remember how to start it? Probably not. If there ever was an Owner's Handbook, it has been lost.

When Mike was flying, he had a POH (Pilot Operating Handbook) for the airplane and referred to it often. It was essential. At church on Tuesday, Mike referred to the Bible as our end times POH. Boy did that go off in my spirit!

The Bible, and only the Bible, is our guidebook, instruction book, direction book, protection book, prosperity book, healing book, restoration book, and the anything else we will need book, as the time for Jesus' return get's closer.

Open it up. Read it. Obey it. It's God's POH for His children!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
