Judge Buy Cash AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year

As the 2010 rodeo regular season winds down the AQHA/PRCA/WPRA Horses of the Year were selected once again. With all new recipients, it was a changing of the guard. Since most of the readers are also horse people and involved in breeding we thought we would bring a little about all the horses but of course we have to start with the Barrel Horse of the Year, Judge Buy Cash, or Jethro as he is better known.

Owned by Frank and Lynne Mays and ridden throughout the year by Brenda Mays, Judge Buy Cash is on his fourth trip to the NFR. With a late summer push, Mays and Jethro pushed their way all the way to #4 in the world and go into this year's NFR with momentum. Judge Buy Cash is by multiple NFR producer, Judge Cash, and out of a mare that traces to some of the old foundation lines. In fact a little research on her will show you the names John Hancock, Leo, Joe Reed, King, Vandy, Skipper W and several other horses right at the front of the AQHA Stud book. On the top side, Judge Cash traces back to one of the most influential race and performance sire, Dash For Cash. Judge Cash himself ran an amazing 34 times over 5 years winning one or more races in each of those years, won $115,936 and earned a speed index of 110. On top of producing barrel horses, he has produced over $1 million in race earners as well and after all that is still going strong at the age of 23. It is no wonder Jethro seems to get better as the year goes on. Judge Cash's bottom side traces to thoroughbred Mito Paint, who shows up in a good number of race pedigrees, and also traces back to Sugar Bars and Leo. Like most top horses, Jethro was bred to be good and has

Vegas Gold Buckle Gala Set

The Third Annual Gold Buckle Gala is Nov. 29 at the South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa Ballroom in Las Vegas. Doors open at 6 p.m. This year's event will honor eight-time World Champion Larry Mahan as a Legend of ProRodeo. Mahan was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 1979. Along with six all-around world titles, Mahan claimed bull riding gold buckles in 1965 and 1967.

This year, Mahan served as a member of the In Country Television team, which broadcast Wrangler Million Dollar Gold Tour Rodeos presented by Justin Boots and other top PRCA events.

The Gold Buckle Gala is an annual fundraiser for the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, located in Colorado Springs, Colo. The event helps kick off the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, Dec. 2-11 at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

Evening festivities include dinner, entertainment, dancing and silent and live auctions. To purchase tickets, call 719.528.4748 or 719.528.4714. The deadline to RSVP is Nov. 19. Visit www.prorodeo.com for coverage of the event.

Babcock Ranch Liquidation

-- Based on a Journal telephone interview with Tim Jennings of Professional Auction Services, it's possible that the buyer for the nearly 200 horses from the Babcock liquidation will be announced later today.

"We had interest from potential buyers from Italy, Mexico and all over the world," Jennings said. "There were seven bids, three that qualified."

Jennings was waiting for the United States Bankruptcy Court or the Eastern District of Texas, Sherman Division, and the bankruptcy trustee to finalize the paperwork on the accepted bid.

As the Journal told you last week, the bankruptcy trustee for Babcock Ranch at Valley View, Texas, has ordered an immediate sale of the ranch's horses as a group, which will also now include the stallions Trashadeous and Cowboy Smarts. This whole-herd sale replaces the previously scheduled dispersal sale, which was set for mid-October.

Trashadeous is by Be Aech Enterprise and out of Miss White Trash by Mr Gun Smoke. The 1987 stallion has earned more than $131,103 in National Reining Horse Association competition.

Cowboy Smarts is a 1998 sorrel stallion by Smart Chic Olena and out of Clarks Hilda Bar by Clark's Doc Bar. Cowboy Smarts was the 2007 AQHA Select reserve world champion in reining. He was third in AQHA Select reining in 2006. He was the AQHA year-end high-point reiner of 2007. --Courtesy of The American Quarter Horse Journal, September 30, 2010

Beyond the Bit Seminar

So much to Learn! Would you like to expand your knowledge on bits and their effects on your horse? Join Canadian Bit/Spur Maker Dave Elliott October 16, 2010 at the Northern International Livestock Exposition (NILE) Billings, MT and October 17, 2010 at the Montana Equine Women's Finals at Miller's Horse Palace. A $2700 added Open Women's Event with barrel racing, team roping, and breakaway roping.

Biting your horse and how the bit works along with the study of osteopathy will be presented in a 3 part Seminar. Dave Elliott: "We need to understand what the horse needs. We know that he can turn inside out all by himself in a pasture and not fall down. We have to communicate with him through the bit. He must be in proper balance. We can't pull him off balance or interfere or create resistance in his lower jaw. If he stiffens his lower jaw his neck and shoulders get stiff, which is not natural and hinders his performance." Education from the length of the cheek piece, to the mouthpiece, leverage ratio, and the anatomy connection from the lips to the tail and how your hands affect everything will be covered. "If you can change the way you think, you can change the way you control your hands."

The Montana WPRA will be hosting the seminars. October 16, 2010 at 9:00am - 12:30pm and 3:30pm - 6pm. October 17, 2010 at 12 noon. The total cost is $50. Please Come One and All to join Mr. Elliott as we broaden our knowledge of the Bit and Beyond.

Finalists Announced for PRCA Vet of the Year Award

The PRCA is proud to announce the five finalists chosen out of an accomplished field of nominees for the 2010 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award, presented by Purina. The winning veterinarian will be recognized at the PRCA Contract Personnel Banquet on Nov. 30 in Las Vegas and also will be honored Dec. 4 at the 52nd Wrangler National Finals Rodeo at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

The award was created to recognize dedication to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock by veterinarians across the country. It was made possible by a new partnership with Purina Mills to sponsor the award.

"Purina greatly appreciates the opportunity to partner with the PRCA in honoring the nominees and their dedication to the care and welfare of all animals, and in particular, rodeo livestock," said Dr. Randel Raub with Purina.

The field of 12 outstanding nominees was narrowed to five distinguished veterinarians and they are William C. Anderson, DVM, Haltom City, Texas; Dr. Charles Graham, Elgin, Texas; Dr. Ben Konishi, Alamosa, Colo.; Dr. Norm Swanson, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Dr. Gregg Veneklasen, Canyon, Texas.

"All of the nominations were of exceptional quality, absolutely outstanding, and that made it very difficult to make a decision," stated Doug Corey, DVM, ProRodeo Hall of Famer and Chairman of the PRCA Animal Welfare Committee. "It makes me proud to be associated with the PRCA and to know that contestants, committee members, stock contractors, judges and others think so highly of the veterinarians they work with."

Photos of the five nominees may be viewed on ProRodeo.com and are available upon request. For more information, call PRCA Director of Industry Outreach Cindy Schonholtz at 719.440.7255.

In second place in the voting was 2009 NFR Average winner and the current leader of the 2010 world standings, MP Meter My Hay (PC Frenchmans Hayday-Miss Meter Jet, Bar Tonto Jet) with rider Sherry Cervi. Owned and raised by Mel Potter and Sherry Cervi this yellow mare lit up the 2009 NFR and didn't slow down in 2010, racking up close to $180k this year so far. Stingray, as MP Meter My Hay is better known, is a cross of two rodeo legends, her sire is a full brother to Bozo, French Flash Hawk, and out of a close relative of Cervi's great horse Hawk (Jet Royal Speed), so these greats combined to continue their legacy.

Coming in third in the voting was Sugar Moon Express with owner/rider Lindsay Sears. This amazing team is not new to anyone who has followed barrel racing for the past several years. Martha, as she is affectionately known, and Sears have been on a roll at the end of the year and will go into the NFR with a bunch of momentum. Martha is also by barrel racing royalty, Dr Nick Bar, an NFR qualifier, and out of the full sister to Martha Six Moons, a perennial barrel horse sire and broodmare sire.

One quick fact a person can't miss looking through these top three horses are their strong NFR connections. All three were definitely bred to be headed to the NFR and with these 3 and 12 other tough horses headed to the NFR it ought to be one heck of a week.

Don't forget to look through the other pedigrees of the horses in the other events! It is always interesting to see how the best horses in the rodeo world are bred for each year. In the steer wrestling, Dashes Dapper Star, owned by Wade Sumpter and Ken Lewis, is a grandson of Dash For Cash and displays a good mix of thoroughbred blood and Leo and Jet Deck. Third place winner Rocks Eye Opener (former Horse of the Year) is also a Dash For Cash grandson. In the team roping, Ra Sonoita Silver owned by Turtle Powell is a combination of many great performance sires. He is a grandson of Playgun, and along with that mixes the bloodlines of Doc Quixote, Jackie Bee and Sugar Bars. In the heeling, Fine Snip Of Doc owned by Jade Corkill took top honors, this bay gelding is double bred Doc

O Lena and double bred Eddie 40 and is a grandson of Colonel Freckles, he was definitely born to chase cattle! In the tie down roping, Eightys Sport owned by Spur Resources 1, displays a mix of foundation running blood being a grandson of Easy Jet and showing Sugar Bars, Top Moon, and Leo twice in his first four generations and it shows in how he can close the gap on a calf. Lastly, in Steer Roping, Skips Harlan Tyree owned by Rocky Patterson is a mix of Skipper W, Win Or Lose, Harlan, and Two Eyed Jack, that is also a potent mix of performance. From looking through the fine pedigrees of these champion horses it is definitely easy to see that superior horses produce superior horses and the quarter horse is still the ultimate all around horse.

AQHA/PRCA Horses of the Year All First-Timers

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – There will be an all new class of superstar horses on display at the Dec. 2-11 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas, including one named Vegas.

His full, registered name with the American Quarter Horse Association name is Ra Sonoita Silver, but owner Turtle Powell calls him Vegas. This seems fitting enough, given that Powell splurged four years ago – paying Terry Thompson $25,000 – to get a team roping heading horse he believed could give him a chance at a gold buckle in that Nevada city.

Vegas is the 2010 AQHA/PRCA Team Roping Heading Horse of the Year – his first such award – and Powell arrives at the Wrangler NFR in third place in the world standings.

“Without him, I would be struggling,” Powell told the ProRodeo Sports News. “I would be in the bottom half, 20 to 25. When I didn’t have him, it was very hard for me to make money. Probably 75 percent of it is him. You have to have a really good horse. He’s awesome. I wouldn’t be where I am without him.”

Travis Tryan’s Precious Speck “Walt,” who won the heading horse award four times (2003, 2007-09), was voted into second place posthumously, ahead of brother Clay Tryan’s Bear Cash Partner “Syndicate.” Walt died April 24 of an aneurysm at the Clovis (Calif.) Rodeo.

For the first time since 2003, all of the AQHA/PRCA/WPRA Horses of the Year are first-time selections, a rather notable changing of the guard.

Jade Corkill’s Fine Snip of Doc “Cave Man” was named the Team Roping Heeling Horse of the Year, ending a four-year reign by Baileys Copper Doc “Diesel” (2006-09), owned by fellow Nevada Randon Adams. Diesel finished third in this year’s balloting behind Travis Graves’ Startime Diablo “Super Star.”

Dashs Dapper Star “Wick,” owned by Wade Sumpter and Ken Lewis, was voted the Steer Wrestling Horse of the Year, ahead of Bailey Tokum “Pump Jack” and Rocks Eye Opener “Jessie,” the legendary Canadian horse owned by Lee Graves who won the award in 2007 and 2009.

Eightys Sport “Sweetness” was second in the Tie-Down Roping Horse of the Year balloting last year, but moved up to the top spot in 2010 by earning more than $90,000 for the cowboys who rode him, a list that includes three Wrangler NFR qualifiers: Clint Cooper, Trent Creager and Fred Whitfield. The 16-year-old gelding is owned by Karen Herbst and Spur Resources 1 in Whitesboro, Texas.

Rocky Patterson will take the Steer Roping Horse of the Year, Skips Harlan Tyree “Pops,” to Guthrie, Okla., next month when he attempts to repeat as world champion at the Clem McSpadden National Finals Steer Roping. Pops out-poled White Hot Ike “Bulls-eye,” owned by Chance Kelton, and Tonk Champ “Champ,” owned by Chris Glover.

Judge Buy Cash “Jethro,” owned by Frank and Lynne Mays, and ridden by Brenda Mays, is the Barrel Racing Horse of the Year.

HORSE: Firewater Five "Shotgun" 2002 Sorrel Gelding

BRR: What did you learn throughout 2010?

BLANCHARD: I am in school studying to be to be a sport psychologist, so I spend a lot of time learning about the mental toughness of athletes. One of the things I learned was the importance of goal setting. I set 9 goals prior to this season and it was important for me to do so, and I reached 7 of them. My main goal this year was to win the College NFR and I wanted to make the NFR in the same year. I wouldn't have had the extra drive I needed to accomplish the things I accomplished this year if I wouldn't have set those goals in the beginning of the year. I also learned that if my horse is hurting or my horse isn't clocking, I just need to go home and get my horse right. My vet knows him and it is the best bet for me and my horse to bring him back home. This year I also learned how to rodeo in a way that is best for me and my horses. I entered a lot of rodeos this year but I turned out of a lot too, in order to keep my horse healthy.

BRR: What are your plans for your horses between now and the Finals?

BLANCHARD: I am going to be working on getting my horse in the best shape possible and also working on myself in the best shape possible. Also, I will be working on my younger horses including Victory. Finally, we will be making all our plans for the NFR, we have a big family so we have a lot of people to get out to the NFR.

BRR: What is your game plan for the NFR.

BLANCHARD: My goal going into the NFR is to win the average. During the year, I asked Rod Lyman what it takes to win the average at the NFR and he told me to just go do my job every night, so I started practicing for that. We have a local arena that has a similar setup to the NFR, so I will be going there to practice and prepare. We have such great friends, we will have people with us helping with the horses while we are there.

BRR: What horses are you going to ride at the NFR?

BLANCHARD: So far, Firewater Five & Pure Victory Dash

- THE RUNDOWN: LINDSEY EWING

HORSE: Classy French Paint, "Opie"
1998 APHA Sorrel Gelding

BRR: What did you learn during your first full rodeo season?

EWING: This year was more for the experience. I was learning how to enter; where to go and not to go. Overall, it was just a learning experience for me. It is a lot tougher being gone and on the road than you would think, you start to get homesick some. Living in a trailer and driving all night can be hard. Along with that keeping the horse sound and happy is a challenge.

BRR: What are your plans for 2011?

EWING: I am trying to get into San Antonio and Houston and I ended up in 52nd for the year so I need to get up in the 2011 standings to get in position for those rodeos. I will go hard at the beginning of the year and since I only have one horse I will see how he handles everything and how he is feeling. If I need to, I will stay closer to home later in the year.

BRR: Tell us about Opie.

EWING: Bill & Deb Myers raised him. Kristie Peterson selected him out of the Myers sale, Kristie and Jordon then rode and trained him. Jordon won all kind of awards on him. Carly Ward from Pennsylvania bought him from them 2-3 years ago and ran him at high school rodeos successfully and I got him this May. He had a good break for almost a year before I got him so he was ready to run barrels. He is just an easy horse.

Headin' For Home

By Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Horses, like people, are gifted in different ways. Some that don't make good barrel horses make great ranch horses. You have to find what they're good at and then help them to be the best they can be.

God has given us each many talents and He wants us to use them for His Glory. He is patient and doesn't give up on us. If we mess up, He is quick to forgive if we are truly sorry and ask his forgiveness. See 1 John 1:9. And like us, horses have attitudes, too. Some of these attitudes are evident just in watching a horse. You can tell you'll have issues to deal with if you see a horse going around with ears laid back and rolling its eyes. With people, what's inside them will eventually come out. Jesus Himself said, "For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks." See Matthew 12:34.

Read Galatians 5 and see how we should walk in the Spirit and not be controlled by fleshly influences. Let people see we have the fruit of the Spirit within us. It's love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

We all enjoy being around people who possess these traits in their personality and if we seek to have these fruits of the Spirit, we'll live in great peace and more enjoyment of life.

Even if they own a Bible, some people won't read it so they form their opinions of God's Word by watching how Christians act and what they say. Remember that you are the only Gospel some people will encounter in their lives so make it count. Keep your faith strong by reading and hearing God's Word. Ask God to help you know His will and do it. Ask God to help you realize all the talents and gifts He's given you and show you how to use them for the glory of God and the good of His people. He'll help you!
