Manning Dominates CFR, Wins 2nd Canadian Title

By Julie Mankin

Taylor Manning of Ponoka, Alberta, just 20 years old, drove to Edmonton for the Canadian Finals Rodeo on Oct. 2-5 knowing she was down in fourth place in the Canadian standings and some $13,000 behind the leader.

A year prior, her left-barrel-first horse Little Sexcee Cowboy (“Archie”) had clocked really well there but hit some barrels. So, Manning just tried to keep it clean – but that didn’t mean safe! The pair won or placed second in a staggering four out of five rounds to clinch the average title by a half-second and rake in $55,358 cash plus a saddle, two buckles, ring and a watch.

The sweeping Edmonton performance gave Manning her second Canadian championship by more than $15,000 over Texas’ Jackie Ganter (Manning also won the title in 2022 aboard Bringin The Bling).

“I’m pretty happy with my horse,” Manning gushed. “He worked pretty awesome.”

The top three money-earners in Edmonton were all riding sons or grandsons of Frenchmans Guy. Manning’s 8-year-old Archie is by the Frenchmans Guy son Guys Casanova Cowboy (out of a Holland Ease mare) and out of JC Simply Sexcee by Merridoc crossed on an Easy Jet/Azure Te mare. Ganter was on the Frenchmans Guy son Guys French Sail (out of an Easy Jet/Truly Truckle/Tonto Bars Gill mare) and out of a Designer Red daughter. And Tiany Schuster was aboard Famous Mic Guy by Frenchmans Guy out of a Dash Ta Fame daughter.

With a mission to stay clean, Manning knew the final two runs would be on the same day. But she also knew she’d already broken an arena record on Archie this summer running him at a second rodeo on the same day. Shout out to the Edmonton crew who provided consistent ground conditions despite having to wait to move dirt in until after the Monday night hockey game – in time for the open arena Tuesday morning at 9 a.m.

“At Edmonton, I just wanted to make sure I took one run at a time and make sure my timing was good,” she said. “Archie really likes the indoor pens. One thing I love about him is that he’s always honest; he will never lean in or short me. He’s more of a free runner.”

Sure enough, they won the final round with the second-fastest time of the entire CFR.

“I was so nervous,” Manning recalled. “I knew before that last round, all I had to do for the championship was keep the barrels up. I said to Mom, ‘Sometimes that’s harder to think about!’ But I just tried to make sure I was very alert, riding, and that I stayed with him every stride. I tried to use my body around the barrels and keep him running all the way around the barrel.”

Archie is so laid back that Manning said most often when she walked by his stall, he was laying down, sleeping. And she said, for years, he didn’t really like being hugged. But he’s getting better about that!

Taylor's mom Shelly is a barrel horse trainer whose mentor was Rayel Little. She purchased Archie as a weanling from Rayel and Grant Little, and she and Taylor trained him with help from Rayel along the way. Taylor figures Archie won about $50,000 at 5-year-old futurities and then she switched him to the left barrel first. The duo had huge success at the derbies this season, bringing his lifetime earnings over $200,000.

"I love the Littles' program," said Manning, who will spend the winter in Texas getting her colts ready for futurities. "My goal is to train like Rayel one day. She's amazing. She could make a donkey win."

If you are fond of a horse and wish to do him a real favor - train him well. Teach him good manners, good habits, both in the stable and under the saddle. You need never worry about the future of such horse if for any reason, you may have to part with him. You assure him of friends wherever he goes. Perhaps the greatest kindness you can do any horse is to educate him well.

Prindle & Red Man Jones Clean up in Texarkana

By Julie Mankin

Randee Prindle of Gilman City, Missouri, was virtually unbeatable at the three-day Lucky Dog race in Texarkana, Arkansas, Oct. 4-6, to take home $5,887 – and her horse has a unique story.

In Texarkana, her 13-year-old bay gelding Red Man Jones (“Scooby”) laid down a 14.266 on Friday to win the Open for $1,619, then a near-identical 14.262 on Saturday to win it again – plus she rolled that time into the Alpha Dog High Stakes race for that win – to rake in $3,262. And at the bottom of the ground on Sunday, they still clocked a 14.657 to place seventh, which also won Prindle the Open average, the Pack sidepot, the Adult sidepot and a final $1,348.

Prindle, who raced four-wheelers competitively growing up, had purchased Scooby as a 4-year-old out of the BBR auction. Prindle changed his nickname because he’s so goofy, she said. But about every other run, Scooby was running up the wall. A vet finally discovered he had an old suspensory injury.

She gave him four months off to heal, and was five months pregnant when she started running him again. A couple of people at a race, then, were aghast that she was riding him pregnant. Turns out he’d been a buckner. But she didn’t know, because the injury had kept him from showing her. After Randee had her daughter, Kayla, Scooby went back to bucking occasionally.

“He’s a goofy horse,” she said. “You don’t get after him, either. He’s just being himself. One day, warming up, he might take off across the parking lot bucking. The next day, he might warm up like a pleasure horse.”

But even with no pain, it would take Prindle another two years to get Scooby to walk in the gate, much less turn the first barrel. She had to slow-lope him to first for what seemed like forever. Finally, one day, he figured out he could do it.

“By the time he turned 9, I could send him and know he was going to turn the first barrel,” she said. “He’s pretty cool. Now he has this wicked first barrel – I can send him and drop the rein and just stay out of his way.”

Prindle placed at Odessa’s rodeo last winter on Scooby. And she may take him to some indoor rodeos this year, but said outdoor rodeo ground won’t work for him, since he has zero slow gears and virtually gains speed around each barrel. Last June, however, he had some bacteria in his guttural pouch that ate into an artery and nearly killed him.

“He needed surgery, and the vet told me it’s a ten-thousand-dollar surgery,” Prindle recalled. “And he told me the surgery only has a 50/50 chance of saving him. So, I said, ‘Here’s my credit card. Swipe that sucker and go on.’”

Scooby is now back to his old self, you could say. By the way, he doesn’t just buck in the warm-up pen.

“I think back in the day, people knew he’d either win first or buck,” Prindle said, laughing. “One time he made a smoking run and started bucking two strides out of third – and still placed. At Rapid City once, he broke the arena record and as soon as he passed the timer, he tried to buck because he didn’t want to slow up.”

Once, at the BBR, Scooby broke in two in the warm-up pen as she put her foot in the stirrup, and spooked someone else’s horse, who read her the riot act. Then he clocked the fastest time of the weekend.

“He doesn’t even look broke enough to ride around,” she admitted. “But he will run three barrels!”

Prindle, whose daughter is 8 now, said she’s had some big offers to buy Scooby, but he’s going to die on her place.

BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

4M Equine Ranch Elevates Support for WPRA and Barrel Racing with Generous Commitment

4M Equine Ranch is excited to announce a significant step in its ongoing support for the Women's Professional Rodeo Association and the sport of barrel racing. 4M has committed to donate the entry fees for all barrel racing competitors at future WPRA circuit finals events in all 12 regions.

"We believe in empowering these incredible athletes and supporting the sport we all love," said Darrell Martin, 4M Equine Ranch owner. "By covering the entry fees for these finalists, we hope to alleviate some of the financial burden and allow them to focus on what they do best: competing."

4M Equine Ranch continues to champion the growth of barrel racing and looks forward to cheering on all the competitors at the championship events.

"The WPRA is excited to continue to make advancements in the rodeo industry, and the support and partnership provided by 4M and By A Nose is astonishing," commented Vice President Heidi Schmidt.

"The WPRA looks forward to expanding the use of By A Nose at WPRA approved rodeos and events, and we wholeheartedly thank Mr. Martin for his generous donation of the ladies entry fees at all circuit finals."

The innovative By A Nose timing system will be in use at an expanded number of regional races in the future. Martin has partnered with By A Nose developer Alan Woodbury to promote the new technology that increases accuracy by utilizing four lasers instead of a single beam to capture a competitor's finish. To learn more about By A Nose, visit their website here: <https://byanose.com/>

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm sure every one of us have prayed for something and it looks like it just is not going to come to pass. We've done our homework. We've prayed in faith, using the Word of God as our foundation and yet, it seems to be eluding us.

We know that Matthew 21-22 promises, "And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." And John 16:23-24 agrees with that, "And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it to you." So, we have the word on answered prayer, right?

I heard the best word picture to cement this hope in us. If you've ever had a real Christmas tree, you know how beautiful and green they are. They smell wonderful! BUT. In just a few short weeks, the needles fall off and it is very obvious that it is dead. It was dead when we put it in the tree stand, it just LOOKED alive.

Well, when we pray, God hears us and answers us. The devil will start lying to us. "No, you aren't getting your healing, your financial help, etc. Just look. Nothing has changed!" Oh, but it has! God said so! Just remember that tree. From the day it was cut, it was dead. From the day you prayed, it was yours!

God is so good!
