The Checkered Flag Dropped-Randee Prindle & Red Man Jones Ruled NBHA World Finals Champions

By Hope Raley

The 2025 NBHA Open and Senior World Championships presented by Circle Y Saddles in Perry, Georgia concluded this past weekend, and it was Missouri cowgirl Randee Prindle and her superstar gelding Red Man Jones who stole the show. The 7-day barrel racing rendezvous, this year themed as “The Checkered Flag Awaits” was held at the Georgia National Fairgrounds October 27-November 2nd and included two long go-s, redemption rounds and a round 3 finals, as well as a pole bending slot race. Barrel racing enthusiasts from all over the country traveled to the Peach State to try their odds at over $111,000 in added money, 10 Circle Y Saddles, 10 Gist World Championship Buckles, Go Round Buckles, Briefcase lottery, and many more prizes.

After making her first trip to the NBHA World Championships last year and winning reserve world championship in the 1D, Prindle vowed to go back this year with one goal in mind- 1D Open World Champion. After a fourth-place finish in the first round, Prindle admitted that “Scooby” (Red Man Jones) felt short and not as fiery as normal. She opted to run in the second round to free Scooby him up which resulted in a 1D win for the dynamic duo in round 2 and the finals (round 3). They saved their best run for last, clocking the fastest run of the week, a 14.394, ghosting the rest of the 1D by almost half-a-second; second best in the 1D being Chloe Gray aboard Guys On Firewater with a 14.802.

Prindle has owned her 13-year-old counterpart since 2015, and though they had a few rough years running up the fence on first barrel, once they got everything smoothed out, they were unbeatable, and the rest is history.

Scooby is by Jud Little Stallion Brownie Jones and out of Dinkys Purple Rain by Dinkys Red Man. He and Prindle have dominated every facet of the barrel racing industry, their biggest accomplishment being winning the 2020 The American Semi Finals and now the 2024 NBHA World 1D Championship. The duo pocketed $18,576 for their valiant efforts in Perry. In fact, within only a matter of 8 days they totaled over $60,000 in barrel racing earnings.

“I won the Future Fortunes Bonus Money for being high point in the Future Fortunes at their events and that paid $40,000, then at Gifford, Illinois Scooby won all three days and made $3,324 there. Then count in the $18,000+ we won in Perry, that made for a great week of barrel racing!”

Although there is a lot of success behind their name, it doesn't go without some challenging times.

“Running Scooby is like riding a rollercoaster,” explained Prindle. “When he's feeling good, all I've got to do is get him to his spots and let him work. Other days it is a full blown ‘you better operate because if not, he's running around like a chicken missing its head.’” Prindle is a proud member of the NBHA and has really enjoyed the past two years that she has made the trip to World Championships. “Doing good and the winning aside, I love the NBHA shows and how efficiently and well ran they are. The organization is great, and the people and production is very accommodating and make everyone feel welcome.”

Hall Wins Second Straight AQHA World Championship

By Julie Mankin

There wasn't a single other barrel racer under 18 years old running a Senior horse at the AQHA World Show. But that didn't deter fifth-grader Dusky Lynn Hall.

The tiny jockey from Huntsville, Texas – who's already raced her way to $1 million-plus just as she's turning 11 years old – won her second straight Senior Barrel Racing World Championship and $6,873 in Oklahoma City, but this time on a different horse. Against the likes of Pete Oen and Lance Graves.

Last year, Hall was the champ aboard Troublenvrlooksogood ("Dexter"). He's a First Down French son – a dark palomino – that runs to the left barrel first, but spent the summer recovering from an injury. So this time, it was all "Wally," a golden palomino named Aint Seen Famous Yet. They ran a 16-flat in the long round against roughly 70 horses, then came back in the top-15 finals with a 16.100 to win the Golden Globe, the roses, a jacket and free feed.

The little girl was part of a big production in the arena and an interview following her world championship. The Halls had built a 1,500-square-foot trophy room inside their indoor arena, but it's

THE RUNDOWN w/ Dusky Lynn Hall

Aint Seen Famous Yet "Wally"

BIT: Cameron Schoneberg short-shanked three-piece

SADDLE: Master "The Dusky Lynn" – a 10-inch hybrid

SADDLE PAD: Saddle Right

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast

SHOEING: Steel rims on front, bare hind feet

FEED: Seminole's Wellness Sport Horse

HAY: Free choice alfalfa and 3-acre pasture

SUPPLEMENTS: TLC Animal Nutrition's Flex Fuel and Equi-Bone; Valley Vet's apple electrolytes; Equinety, MVP's Mega-Cell; Succeed oral paste and GastroGard as needed

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Halls own a coldwater salt spa, an Equiscope and a Bemer.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Dusky Lynn long-trots or lope circles on all her horses daily; Dusky rides each periodically to check for softness and soundness. Wally needs an exhibition at each new venue to trot through and look around.

SPONSORS: Succeed, Master Saddles, Saddle Right, Iconoclast, TLC Animal Nutrition, EquiFlow Nebulizer Serum, Valley Vet Supply, Signature Stall Mats, Fastest Time Wins, Western Dove Tack, MVP, Healthy Equine Therapy, Recellerate, Metrix Logistics Group

full. So, the Golden Globes are in the house.

"When the AQHA called me last year to say my daughter had a qualification to the World Show, they asked if she was going to enter," recalled Dusky Lynn's mother, Dusky Hall. "And I asked, 'Do you give ribbons?'"

When the AQHA sent Hall the payout, she was all in. Outrun 70 horses to earn $7,000? You bet. It was a no-brainer to enter this year, too, since Dusky Lynn's 2023 world championship had automatically qualified her for the '24 World Show.

Wally is by the magic Frenchmans Guy/Dash Ta Fame product Aint Seen Nothin Yet and out of a race-bred mare going back to Beduino, First Down Dash, Jet Deck, Laughing Boy and Rebel Cause. He was actually bred and born in Gillette, Wyoming, where in September he broke the arena record at the Fizz Bomb Classic. That was part of a six-week trip taken by mother and daughter to Wyoming and Nebraska with three horses.

"If I had a 10-horse trailer and put 10 on there, she'd run all 10 every place we would go," said Hall, whose daughter has five tough horses. Incidentally, one of those is a mare named VF Eysa Famous – she's also the dam of 5-year-old Eysa Slick Eddie, on whom Bailee Snow won the reserve world championship in Junior Barrels the same week.

Monk and TNR Wannaseemycan Can Win AQHA Junior World Championship

By Julie Mankin

After her standout futurity year, the quick-footed 5-year-old bay mare TNR Wannaseemycan (“CanCan”) clocked the fastest time of the Junior Barrel Racing at the AQHA World Show to take the championship and $3,812 back to Texas.

Dacota Monk, 35, had hoped to win the title on her last year, but a 4-year-old with no exhibitions and barrels set near the fences isn’t an easy combination. They only placed. This time, the race was in a different arena. Plus, CanCan has plenty of big wins on her resume now, including last year’s Breeder’s Challenge Finale and go-round wins at the Ruby Buckle in Utah and the BBR World Finals.

“She’s pretty special,” Monk said of the mare owned by Suzonne and Billy Franks. He and his sister, Brittainy Hill, started the filly as a 3-year-old, “She’s always wanted to turn really bad, but has gotten really honest lately and I’m trying to ride her differently and go for it, instead of like it’s an average thing.”

CanCan is by the Dash Ta Fame son Eddie Stinson and out of an Ivory James daughter. Ivory James is by Corona Cartel and out

THE RUNDOWN w/ Dacota Monk

TNR Wannaseemycan “CanCan”

BIT: L&W lifter, because AQHA rules excluded her steel-nose combo

SADDLE: Treeless by Circle Y

SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: Steel rims all the way around

FEED: Rice bran

HAY: Free-choice alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP products, Equinety, Optimize

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Swimming twice per week at Caliber Equine, salt water spa

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Long-trot in the pasture and sometimes breeze; work once a week on barrels with some pole drills

SPONSORS: JW Brooks Custom Hat Company, B. Tuff Jeans, P&P Custom Designs, Double X Veterinary Services, MVP, Wild Gold Omega3 Camelina Oil, Equine Pet & Human, Reata Equine Hospital, Hart Trailers, Classic Equine, L&W Bits, Red River Equine, Caliber Equine, Equilume, MJ Balm, Equinety

THANKS: The Franks, for keeping me on her and letting me take care of her.

“This win is a little more special because we’d gone through a dry spell where she was struggling with some health problems,” said Monk, who’s earned some $80,000 at futurities this year on CanCan’s full sister. “Like, when I went to warm her up for the Ruby Buckle, a week before the World Show, she came up lame with an abscess. So we pulled her out. It’s nice to have her firing again.”

CanCan has a couple of years of derbies left, and can run at Incentive events until she’s 8. They also pull embryos when they can, and have one thus far that was bred to JL Dash Ta Heaven.

“I really want to take more futurity and derby horses to the World Show and get more involved in the AQHA,” said Monk, who lives in Emory, Texas, with his wife Paula and 15-year-old daughter Alisa.

Trash To Treasure -- McKenna Coronado & Duallys Real Dream Take Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

McKenna Coronado and her wicked mare Duallys Real Dream ("Trashy") came within one-tenth of a second of sweeping the Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 1-2 in Heber City, Utah. She will join year-end champion Ashley Castleberry at the NFR Open at Colorado Springs next July.

In their third circuit finals qualification, Coronado and Trashy topped the first two rounds and finished second in the third and won the aggregate by almost three-tenths to earn $10,595. "I ran three 16.8s on a (WPRA) Standard (Pattern)," Coronado said. "That's probably the fastest I've ever ran on a Standard, back-to-back-to-back."

Coronado was happy to have her mare feeling great after battling soundness issues throughout the summer. She stayed religious with her pre-run therapies to keep the mare's muscles warm and loose for each run at the circuit finals.

"I guess it worked because she liked it this weekend," she said. Coronado's family raised Trashy, who is by her late father's cutting stallion Dual Dreams, a son of Dual Pep, out of her mother Rebecca's race-winning mare Really Platinum, by the Thoroughbred For Really.

"Her mom and dad have both passed away so Trashy is all that we have left," Coronado said. "She got the name Trashy when she was younger because she was absolutely terrible. She couldn't pick up her right lead to save her life. Her legs would go flying in the air. She wouldn't stop. In order to stop, you would have to run into things. She would dig a hole to China. She still will if you give her the opportunity. Luckily, she's dropped most of the trashy traits she had when she was younger."

Even after National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kelli Thouvenell had trained Trashy for barrels, Coronado was still leery of riding the mare.

"I disliked Trashy, and I refused to ride her," McKenna admitted. "My mom and Kelli both agreed that Trashy was coming home and I was getting grounded from my other horses. I had to figure it out. It took me a few weeks, but I fell in love with Trashy. She just packs me, and I keep accomplishing goals that I never thought I would reach."

Although she ran Trashy a little her senior year of high school but made the mare her main mount as she started her professional career.

"She's the reason I got my pro card," Coronado said.

Rodeo wasn't Coronado's initial calling. She started out showing cutting horses like her parents.

"I was showing a cutting horse even before I could ride myself," she said. "I would show in front of Greg Smith at the horse shows. He'd hold my head so it wouldn't flop everywhere! That's what I did for the longest time. I didn't start rodeoing until partway through my seventh grade year. Even then, my parents weren't too convinced about rodeo. They wanted me to stay cutting. It ended up paying off. I got to high school rodeo, and I did well at both state and nationals in the cutting."

With the circuit finals win, Trashy has Coronado in position to rodeo a little more, but she said that Trashy's health will dictate how much she will travel.

"She did give me a pretty good jump with how well she did at the circuit finals," she said. "I'm just going to ride the wave and see how far it goes. If it goes good, I'll keep going. I've got some other horses that I hope can step up and be her backup. I don't plan to run her everywhere. She's got some issues, and I plan to do everything I can to keep her sound."

Coronado also has a big future step coming this fall.

"I'm getting ready to start vet school," she said. "It's a whole new

THE RUNDOWN w/ McKenna Coronado

Duallys Real Dream ("Trashy") "She got her size from her dad, not her mom. We tease that she's the wiener dog. She's really small and short and she's got a long belly and long back!"

BIT: L&W Combo

SADDLE: Coats

SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: Aluminum on front, steel rims behind

FEED: Bluebonnet Omega Force

HAY: Homegrown alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum Performance CJ & Longevity

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Shockwave, thermal blanket, EquiVibe daily, MagnaWave. "She gets anything she wants, actually."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I exercise her every other day and the days that I don't she gets out in the arena or on the EquiVibe. I rarely ever work the barrels. She tends to do better if I just leave her alone and keep her happy."

SPONSORS: Classic Equine and Charlie 1 Horse

THANKS: Mom Rebecca and her late father Michael as well as her brothers. "I know without them I wouldn't have Trashy and wouldn't be able to do what I'm doing." Kelli Thouvenell "I feel like I call her on a daily basis, and she saves me. Whether I'm panicking or celebrating, she's always there."

chapter that I'm looking forward to. I just finished my Bachelor's and this month I find out where I get accepted into vet school."

If all goes as planned, Coronado will be doing her part to ease the shortage of equine veterinarians.

"I was raised on a horse ranch and it's just in me to be around horses," she said. "My goal is to go into surgery and have a surgical center one day."

If you are fond of a horse and wish to do him a real favor - train him well.
 Teach him good manners, good habits, both in the stable and under the saddle. You need never worry about the future of such horse if for any reason, you may have to part with him. You assure him of friends wherever he goes. Perhaps the greatest kindness you can do any horse is to educate him well.

Katelyn Lide-Scott & Watch The Freak Fly Capture Turquoise Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Odesa, Texas, barrel racer Katelyn Lide-Scott capped off a banner 2024 season with a Turquoise Circuit Finals Championship in Camp Verde, Arizona, November 1-2. She will be joining year-end champion Shannon Griffin, who moved from third to first in the circuit standings, at the NFR Open at Colorado Springs in July. This was Scott's second Turquoise Circuit Finals. Although thanks to COVID restrictions in 2020, she said it feels more like her first trip.

Living in West Texas, Scott has often switched between the Turquoise and Texas circuits. The distance between her home and the rodeos in New Mexico and Arizona aren't much different than having to drive east for the majority of Texas rodeos.

"This year I really decided at the beginning of the year, I just thought I'd like to make the circuit finals," she said, "and, yeah, it was amazing!"

She also has great hauling partners—Jana Bean and her niece Madison Bean.

"It's kind of special because Jana's gotten both of her girls to the NFR Open," she chuckled. "Madison made it last year and I made it this year."

Scott's $8,159 circuit finals title came aboard her 10-year-old mare Watch The Freak Fly ("Baby Cakes"). Scott had taken the mare and her gelding Streak N Liza ("Twiz") to Camp Verde but opted to ride Baby Cakes once she saw the draw for the first round.

"I had really planned on running her the first round, but then I found out I was top of the ground, I for sure wanted to run her," she said. "I knew it was going to be deep after practice. It was good ground; it was just going to be deep toward the bottom. I knew she would handle being at the top better."

They won the round with the fastest time of the rodeo, 17.39. "She smoked her first barrel," said Scott. "It felt fast to me, but you never know until they call the time out. I was just floored. She made a great run."

Knowing that she would be on the bottom of the ground for the second round in the matinee performance, Scott contemplated riding Twiz but opted to stick with Baby Cakes.

"I opted to stay on her because she did so good," she said. "She powered through the bottom. I knew she made another nice run but had no idea that it would win the round."

They had their second win of the rodeo with a run of 17.55. Since Baby Cakes had taken her that far, she ran her again in that evening's performance.

"She made another great round," she said. "I safety-ed up a little at third, but she was awesome!"

Baby Cakes, who was bred by Sara Hamilton, who owned both her sire View Me Flying and her dam Freak Nasty, by Brimmerton, came from Tammy Balch and was used by her daughter Brooklyn. Scott's sister Lorissa Merritt, who had ridden the mare some years back, had Baby Cakes in to sell.

"My sister called me and said, 'I think you need this horse, and if you're not going to buy her, I think I'm going to buy her,'" said Scott, who made the purchase in late January 2023. "I only got to run her a couple of months before she got hurt. I was off of her a whole year. I didn't get back on her until May of 2024."

By the time Scott was running Baby Cakes again, her rodeo path had changed dramatically. Although Letta Trouble Do It, the horse owned by Laura Avery that she'd planned on running all summer got hurt and had to have surgery, she continued with her plans to enter the WPRA's Western Regional and its Calgary Stampede qualifier.

THE RUNDOWN w/ Katelyn Lide-Scott

Watch The Freak Fly, "Baby Cakes" 15 h.

BIT: Boutin Bit 7" Lifter

HEADGEAR: None. A long tiedown or martingale for slow work.

SADDLE: Shiloh Finalist

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star with a Back On Track liner

LEG GEAR: Not brand specific, usually Classic Equine

SHOING: Rims on front, plains on back due to previous injury

FEED: Just enough grain for supplements

HAY: Alfalfa and coastal Bermuda

SUPPLEMENTS: Elevate SE & Vitamin E, Platinum Performance, Re-Vita + CBD, Gastro Snax and Liquid Gold; GastroGard on the road.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT Blanket, Back On Track Blanket

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I like to ride my horses every day. Not often do they get days off. I practice a lot. Maybe not for them, but for me. I do go around the barrels a lot. I'm that girl!" she laughed.

SPONSORS: "The Lord above keeps me afloat! My dad (Henry Lide, DVM (retired)) is still a huge part of my support. I think I still owe him for a tube of GastroGard!"

THANKS: Veterinarians Randy Lewis in Abilene, Taylor King in Gardendale.

"Truth be told without them I don't know what I would do. I've got a great shoer, Jeremiah Prescott. He's been shoeing for me since 2009." Also thanks to her sister Lorissa—"She's the reason I have the horses I have." Husband Cody—"He's always behind me. Baby Cakes and Twiz are a lot and they're excited to run barrels, so he will tighten me up and then goes and videos."

clients, Scott qualified for Calgary and started her 2024 rodeo Odyssey.

"I rodeoed hard in 2018 and 2019," she said. "I knew that you have to keep entering. After Calgary, I was like, 'Yeah! I'm not going to turn out of anything! I get to keep going!”

Scott and Twiz made it all the way to the Championship Round, finishing third, so she stayed out.

“Once I’m away from home, I’m fine,” she said. “I just kept entering. I even entered some small rodeos and ran my sister’s horse. I just had a ball! I was also doing well so that helps too!”

Sitting No. 33 in the 2024 WPRA World Standings, Scott had a chance to get into some of the bigger winter rodeos like San Antonio and Houston, but it largely depends on who is double qualified ahead of her. She’ll know more once the entry parameters are posted.

“Lord willing, I’m going to enter, but if you’d asked me back in April, May, even June, I would have no idea,” she said. “I really thought Laura Avery’s horse (Letta Trouble Do It) would be the horse I ran this summer. I really had no idea. The other two (horses) really stepped up. It’s been incredible!”

FWSSR Increases Added Money & New Drag Policy for Barrel Racing

The Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR), working in cooperation with the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA), will increase added money and implement a new drag procedure during the FWSSR PRORODEO Tournament WPRA-approved barrel race at the 127th edition of the legendary event January 17 through February 8, 2025.

"The Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo appreciates its longstanding relationship with the WPRA and its contributions to the sport of rodeo," said FWSSR Rodeo Director Cal White. "We are delighted to recognize the value the women bring to the FWSSR PRORODEO Tournament with an increase of more than $30,000 to $153,000 in 2025 for both barrel racing and breakaway roping, the only two ProRodeo events strictly for women. This is a part of the Tournament's overall purse increase of 25% from $1.2 million in 2024 to $1.5 million in 2025. We also join the WPRA in its objective to provide the safest, most even competition surface possible for contestants and animal athletes alike and barrel racers will see significant improvements in 2025."

In addition to continuing its policy of hand-raking between each run, the FWSSR will now drag after every four barrel racers with two tractors. The Show will also continue to chisel or deep rip the competition bed surface in between performances, as well as monitor and apply water as needed, followed by a grooming drag before, during and after each performance to ensure a level competition surface.

"The WPRA is pleased to work with the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo to add a drag during the barrel race helping to continue to elevate the sport to the next level,"

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Oh boy, are we ever in a time! No matter where you look, except in the Bible, there are many discouraging words! Danger at every turn! Deceit, lies, fear, and so much more. It can be exhausting to go through a day! Ah, but God!

We can overcome these times in two ways. In Acts 20:24, Jesus is headed for Jerusalem, not knowing the things that would happen to Him there. But He said, "None of these things move me!" THAT should be our response to negative circumstances! We will not be moved!

And, the second is this. Be a light everywhere we go. When we run into a bad deal, be a light. When we hear bad things are happening, be a light. When people are murmuring and complaining, be a light. Light overcomes darkness always. Light cannot be put out! Don't be like Linus in the Peanuts cartoon. He always has a dark cloud hanging over him. Or Eeyore in Winnie the Pooh. He is always groaning, "We'll never make it!" YES WE WILL!

We are overcomers! Enjoy your week!
