Winning Ways Continue For Blaise Bercegeay & SBWFeelinThePressure at Stopanio Memorial, Legends Of The South

By Tanya Randall

Blaise Bercegeay and her exceptional 5-year-old gelding SBWFeelinThePressure (“Gauge”) have won more than $160,000 the past two weekends. They followed up their Triple Crown 100 Crown Round Championship at the Jingle Bell Classic in Perry, Georgia, with a Legends Of The South Slot Race Championship at the 14th Annual Rob and Teresa Stopanio Memorial, held December 26-29 in Ocala, Florida.

“Don’t ask me to talk about my run because I don’t remember it,” laughed the 30-year-old from Summit, Mississippi. “It happened so fast!”

Bercegeay and Gauge bested the Slot Race field by more than 3/10ths of a second to win in 12.855. The victory was worth $60,000. They picked up an additional $7,352 on the weekend.

Bercegeay and Gauge also picked up a $10,000 bonus for winning both the Triple Crown and Legends of the South slot races.

Gauge, who is the leading earner for his 1.5 million dollar sire No Pressure On Me, is out of proven performing and producing JL Dash Ta Heaven mare FeelinTheFirewater, owned by the Matthews family’s Mission Ranch and raised by their good friend Stephanie Wheeler. The gelding was a multiple futurity finalist with Wheeler’s son Brian before selling to Bercegeay, his fiancé, in June.

Bercegeay was raised by her late grandparents Fred and Elaine Boyd on their cattle ranch. The cattle foreman’s wife barrel raced and Bercegeay was captivated. It wasn’t long afterward that the Boyds divested their cattle in favor of horses.

“We bought one horse for me to ride and then ended up selling all the cows,” Bercegeay recalled. “We went to the Dixie National in Jackson, and they had a horse sale. We bought 19 head of horses, and we didn’t even really know what a horse was! I still have some of them that we bought out of that sale that day!”

The high seller they purchased that day was actually a Paint western pleasure horse, so Bercegeay actually started out slow, really slow.

“I started doing the slow thing, but eventually I taught Star how to do the barrel pattern,” she chuckled. “We were going to see how fast Star was! She ended up not being fast enough!”

Through their local NBHA district, Bercegeay was able to get lessons and find better step-up type horses to teach her the art of barrel racing.

Her grandfather’s competitive nature soon landed Bercegeay in Martha Josey’s fold. Bercegeay credits Josey’s disciple Barbara Eastep for turning her into the barrel racer she is today.

“I have to give her all credit in the world for my riding and up-bringing, and learning how to take of a horse,” she said. “She lived here and helped us for years. I’d go to school and come home and have lessons with her three to four times a week. She had a horse named Charlie that I would ride every day. I remember being very aggravated about it, but now... I think about all the time. There are things that I learned then that I still do today. She was a huge, huge part of my success.”

The family also had horses with Zack Thompson in Texas. It

Rob & Teresa Stopanio Memorial & Legends of the South Slot Race Notes:

- In a cool side note to the $340k payout event; the producer of the barrel race Angie Hammock won both rounds and the average of the futurity on her son of Ima Talented Guy, Ima Jolly Guy.
- Hammock produces the event in memory of her parents Rob & Teresa Stopanio.
- Hammock’s horse, Ima Jolly Guy is by Ima Talented Guy. A Frenchmans Guy son out of Kay Blandfords amazing mare Talents Dark Angel. An interesting part of his breeding; he is out of a Burrs First Down mare who happens to also be the dam sire of Force The Goodbye who carried Kassie Mowry to the 2024 World Championship!

was aboard El Nino Money, a 6-year-old gelding that Thompson had trained and futurityed, that Bercegeay got her first big win at the Josey Jr World in 2004 at age 9.

“That win gave us a lot of confidence,” she recalled. It also served to further her own competitive nature, one that her grandfather was happy to foster by purchasing several great horses through the Josey Ranch.

“He wanted the biggest and the best,” she said. “Martha helped us find a lot of horses.”

One of those horses was the great Red Man Bay, who carried Bercegeay to NBHA Youth World titles in 2005 and 2007. Later on she got Little Oakie Dash and Easily Smashed Toast that had each carried Josey to numerous wins.

They also raised a few horses—Bercegeay won $17,304 on her homebred 10-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding, BR The Tonka Taxi at Ocala—and even cloned Red Man Bay.

“I own five or six broodmares, and I do raise some,” she said.

Mostly, it’s her competitive horses and Wheeler’s futurity horses that take up most of her time today.

“I have six or seven that I ride,” she said. “I have some that I just take to jackpots. Everybody has their role around here. Brian is the 2-year-old rider. He breaks them and starts them. I’m the saddle girl! When I’m done exercising my older horses, I try to help Brian a little bit.”

Bercegeay and Wheeler actually grew up just 60 miles from each other and met at the NBHA Youth World in 2007.

“No one had ever heard of him, and he shows up at the NBHA Youth World and wins the first two rounds on Frenchmans Mocha,” Bercegeay chuckled. “I won the Finals on Red Man Bay. I always joke with him. No one remembers who wins the go-rounds!”

They’re getting married on February 14 in Jamaica, but in the meantime, there are more barrel races to attend. They’ve got the Ashley Brooks Memorial race in Memphis, Tennessee, this weekend. “Gauge deserves a month off so he’s not going anywhere until the end of January,” she said of her big-money winner. “I’m going to take some other horses that need to go and Brian’s main concern in the futurity.”

After years trying, they (Wheeler & Bercegeay) finally had a winner together in Jingle Bell Classic Futurity Champion Designer Legs.

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ is the first product I have seen work in aiding airway/lung health and help clear up a cough. I use Breathe'O2 paste for pre-run support, it also helps clear the airway, allowing him to breathe easier and work harder."

Champion Barrel Horse Breeder Barb Westover Passes

We were greatly saddened to hear of the untimely passing of Barb Westover on December 29. She leaves a legacy of great horses that will influence generations of barrel horses. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends. The following article appeared in the June 1, 2021 issue of Barrel Racing Report.

Continuing A Legacy

Barb Westover of Egan, South Dakota, isn't big on the spotlight. She'd rather the spotlight belong to the horses she's raised. She's like her mother, Frances Loiseau, in that regard.

"She was a remarkable woman," Westover said of her mother, who forever changed the barrel racing industry with her breeding program. "She named the first Frenchman horses because the Loiseau name is French. I can remember saying to her at a futurity, 'Do you know how famous you are? It's Frenchmans this and Frenchmans that.' She said, 'I'm not famous. The horses are.'"

Lately, it's been Westover's horses turn to take the spotlight. Horses from Westover's breeding program, a continuation of her mothers, has dominated two of the marquee aged events of 2021.

Westover's program has produced Ms French Walla Walla, the Ruby Buckle Guthrie Futurity and Open Champion, and French Streaktovegass, sire of Old Fort Days Futurity and Derby Champions M R Smashed N Vegas and M R Repete Pete.

As with her mother's great Hall Of Fame mare, Casey's Ladylove, Westover's favorite horse to ride at shows as child—"In the four-horse relay, I was always last because she was so fast, she'd always catch up!"—her program started with a cornerstone mare—PC Frenchmans Flirt, whom she got from her mother as a weanling.

Flirt was a product of her mother's partnership with Pat Cowan, which is why she bears the PC initials before her name. The 1992 mare was by Sun Frost and out of Frenchman's Lady, by Laughing Boy, a son of Lightning Bar. Frenchman's Lady, of course, was out of Casey's Ladylove.

"We really didn't know what we had when we started," Westover chuckled. "I had Renee Kenney started her and we went to a few futurities with her. We did good but only went to a couple. After we got done with those futurities, I brought her home and started riding her."

Westover rodeoed and jackpotted on the mare for several years and didn't breed her until she was 15. Brian Fulton was a family friend, and when she saw a picture of the new stud he bought, A Streak Of Fling, she knew she found her sire.

"The first and only was A Streak Of Fling," said Westover, who added she flushed the mare so she could keep running her. "The first two were French Streakofbling and Frenchmans Streaker. My goal was to keep one and sell one to help pay for the breeding bill."

French Streakofbling, known as Flirty or Bling, was sent to another family acquaintance for training, Hallie (Melvin) Hanssen.

"That was the first experience we had with the futurities," she explained. "My goal was to send her to Hallie to get her going so I could go to the barrel races. I had no idea that I was going big time. Hallie would call me and tell me how good she was doing. One day she called me and said, 'Barb, we need to enter her in the Fizz Bomb.' I remember telling her specifically, 'Hallie, I'm not that big of a money person. I don't think so.' She said, 'No Barb, you need to enter this horse.' So, we late entered her and she won $3,000. In that day that was a lot and it went on from there. She rodeoed on Flirty for a year and did really well on her, then I got her back and went to some things on her."

Flirty end up being a multiple futurity finalist and won close to $20,000 at aged events.

The first national superstar from the A Streak Of Fling, PC Frenchmans Flirt cross was 2007 foal French Streaktovegass, who won five futurities as a 5-year-old futurity horse before winning the BFA Derby that same year. A multiple pro rodeo winner with several different riders, French Streaktovegass had a breakthrough year as a sire of multiple futurity winners in 2020 before his untimely death last fall.

The late stallion French Streaktorodeo was from the 2008 crop. He was an aged event champion, Canadian pro rodeo money earner and American qualifier. Sadly, he too, is gone.

Westover said there were 11 foals from the A Streak Of Fling, PC Frenchmans Flirt cross, with two passing on as young horses. There was never any thought of trying another stallion on the mare.

"I thought, 'No, this is working, and they were in demand,'" she said. "They're nice horses, but they're not toys. They are serious horses. They have a mission to do their job."

In addition to Flirt, who still rules the place at 29—"She's beautiful. She still looks like she's 10 or 12"—Westover also has the 10-year-old mare French Streakin Izzy, a multiple futurity finalist with aged event earnings of more than $20,000, and the stallion French Streakin Jess, the Greg Olson Memorial Slot Race Champion and multiple futurity finalist with earnings of nearly $50,000 as a 5-year-old. All were trained and campaigned by the Hanssens.

"It was Lee and Hallie's vision for us to be where we are today. We bred the mares and chose the stud, but it was their vision to go big time like we are today. We owe so much to them. It's not just a partnership anymore. We're family."

Westover has been crossing her A Streak Of Fling, PC Frenchmans Flirt daughters on the Hanssen's late stallion, The Kandyman. Just recently, Izzy and Flirty dropped fillies by the son of Tres Seis and Famous Silk Panties.

On the other side of the equation, French Streakin Jess was a futurity champion sire with his freshman crop and a multiple futurity finalist sire through his sophomore class.

She said she's just been "in awe" of accomplishments of the horse from her program. "I cannot express the feeling I have for all their success," Westover said. "I kept saying to myself, 'Mom would be so happy'... but she knows. I keep saying that to my siblings, 'Wouldn't Mom be happy.'"

Valley Vet & WRC Announce Official Partnership

Valley Vet Supply®, the leading online retailer of premium animal health products and supplies for livestock, horses, and pets, is proud to announce its partnership with the Women's Rodeo Championships (WRC). As part of this collaboration, Valley Vet Supply® has been named the Official Vet Care Supply Retailer of the 2025 Women's Rodeo World Championship—the richest women's rodeo in the world. This prestigious event will take place in Fort Worth and Arlington, Texas, from May 12–14 and May 17, 2025.

The partnership will bring WRC fans closer to the Valley Vet brand through prominent signage at both Cowtown Coliseum and AT&T Stadium. Additionally, the collaboration will feature custom campaigns across both brands' digital and social media platforms, amplifying engagement with fans.

As an added perk, all new WRC members will receive an exclusive $20 discount on purchases over $200 via email when they create a Valley Vet account.

"The care and well-being of our horses and equine athletes are top priorities for every cowgirl, making this partnership with a company that shares that commitment a perfect fit," said WRC Commissioner Linsay Sumpter-Rosser. "Many of our athletes rely on Valley Vet as a trusted resource, and we couldn't be more proud to welcome them into our family while providing additional benefits for our competitors."

The WRC offers the largest annual prize for a women's rodeo event, with a total payout of over $802,000 at the 2025 WRWC. The WRWC will return to Texas in May 2025, with the initial rounds held at Cowtown Coliseum from May 12-14 before concluding in Arlington at AT&T Stadium on May 17 alongside the PBR (Professional Bull Riders).

Since launching in May 2018, the WRC and its partners have awarded more than $3.75 million in new money to women's rodeo athletes.

San Diego Rodeo Invites VRQ Leaderboard Athletes to Compete at 2025 Event

The WCRA has announced an exciting new opportunity for athletes ranked on its leaderboard, powered by the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). The San Diego Rodeo has extended invitations to the top-ranked athletes on the VRQ Leaderboard to compete in the 2025 event. This prestigious rodeo, hosted at Petco Park from January 10-12, marks its second edition in 2025 and boasts a trailblazing $800,000 payout.

Since its launch in 2018, the VRQ has been the driving force for qualification to WCRA major events, showcasing top athletes who have competed in rodeos such as Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo, Women's Rodeo World Championship, Rodeo Corpus Christi, Rodeo Carolina, and more. The platform has also played a pivotal role in awarding over $19.7 million to rodeo athletes, solidifying its impact on the sport.

"This marks a significant milestone for us, as it is the first time a major rodeo has remained independent while embracing our global qualification platform," said WCRA Vice President Scott Davis. "We launched the VRQ six years ago as a points-based system that considers any ride or run, at any event, regardless of status or sanctioning body. Today's announcement is a significant step in our mission to make every ride count. The athletes on the VRQ Leaderboard earned their spots through diverse competitions, and this invitation to San Diego highlights their achievements."

Top athletes in the current VRQ Standings (Rodeo Corpus Christi Leaderboard) as of December 19, 2024 in each discipline will be extended an invitation to compete for their piece of the $800,00 prize money across nine disciplines which includes – bare-back riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping (heading and heeling), tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding.

The following athletes from the VRQ Leaderboard accepted the invitation to compete in the San Diego Rodeo:

BAREBACK RIDING/NICK PELKE

SADDLE BRONC/ISAAC DIAZ

BULL RIDING/JOAO HENRIQUE LUCAS

TIE-DOWN ROPING/BLAKE CARTER

STEER WRESTLING/CODY DOESCHER

TEAM ROPING HEADER/JAKE SMITH

TEAM ROPING HEELER/BUDDY HAWKINS

LADIES BREAKAWAY/KARRIGAN CAGLEY

LADIES BARREL RACING/JORDAN DRIVER

In 2024, the San Diego Padres, in collaboration with C5 Rodeo Company Inc. and Out-Riders, hosted the inaugural rodeo at Petco Park. Petco partnership, rooted in a shared passion for rodeo, aimed to bring an authentic Western experience to downtown San Diego. Petco Park's open-air setting provided a unique and vibrant backdrop, blending traditional rodeo culture with the city's dynamic atmosphere.

"We see tremendous value in the objectives of the VRQ, which is why we've invited their top athletes to compete in our rodeo next month," said Rodeo Organizer, Josh Shockey, Outriders Presents. "Our goal is to produce the best rodeo possible, and this invitation opens exciting new doors. We look forward to exploring how the VRQ can play a role in future qualification opportunities for our event."

Currently, the VRQ serves as a groundbreaking platform for rodeo, capable of considering results from any rodeo or single-discipline event with publicly available results. The platform has already attracted more than 27,000 registered users, showcasing its growing influence and inclusivity in the rodeo world.

Since launching in May 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $19,700,000 in new money to rodeo athletes. Respectively, each event using the VRQ for qualification remains subject to its independent official Ground Rules. All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the VRQ should visit app.wcra rodeo.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Change is coming! What change? Well, for one, we are all getting older! Thank you, Jesus! Mike has helped me so much with this. He told me to just embrace the age I am. Oh.

His counsel is this. When you are in your teens, don't worry about being 80. You aren't there yet. And really, you won't know what needs to be done in that season, or even what you will like to do, until you have arrived there. And what's the point of wishing you were 40 again? It's not going to happen! I can tell you that 40 was easier barrel racing than it is now.

I made a run on Mighty a few days ago and I'm still marveling at the parts of me that didn't like it! My neck, my hands, my arms, my back, my hamstrings... who knew they were taking such a beating 10 years ago? LOL! That's why I marvel at some barrel races moving the senior division to 45. What a joke!

Times change. You and I change. Looking back is okay if you are learning from your past. But it's best if we do what God instructs us in Phil. 3:13-14. It tells us to forget those things in the past and go forward. We have a new year ahead of us. 2025, here we come, some just a little faster than others!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
