A Record Breaking Weekend for Kassie Mowry and Force The Goodbye in Texarkana

By Britany Diaz

Showdown Productions hosted the Texarkana Showdown on January 24-27th at the Four States Arena in Texarkana, AR. Kassie Mowry and Force The Goodbye, better known as Jarvis, dominated the competition. The duo won the $44,716 added, Bullseye Bullion Derby, with a time of 14.067, earning $7,482. Mowry rolled her time to the $103,020 added BlackStar Ranch High Stakes Race #1, earning $10,817 for their win. Mowry also rolled her time to the $150,100 added A Dash Ta Streak High Stakes Race #2, earning another $14,250. Mowry entered the $17,500 added Heber Springs, AR Red River Ram Open 4D, where she rolled her same time to win another $1,277. The format allowed Mowry and Jarvis to run only one time and earn a weekend total of $33,826! The duo also set the new arena-record with their time of 14.067. The record was previously held by Bert Skimehorn with a 14.070.

The Showdown Productions format was unique. The futurity and derby consisted of only one run, resulting in a large payout. Contestants had the opportunity to declare if they wanted to keep and roll their time to the Open High Stakes Race #1 and/or the Open High Stakes Race #2 after their first competition run. If they tipped a barrel or wanted to improve their time, they could come back and run again in the Open High Stakes Races. Most races make you declare whether or not you will roll your time before you make your first competition run. This format allowed contestants the opportunity to make less runs for a chance at a higher payout.

Force The Goodbye, owned by Michael Boone, is a 6-year-old gelding. This horse has been a force to be reckoned with since his futurity year. Mowry and Jarvis have won some of the largest futurities, derbys and even have NFR go-round wins. Mowry describes Jarvis as efficient. "He is a pretty forward horse. I think that is always good in a closed off pen like Texarkana and Vegas. He isn't a setty horse, so he keeps his momentum in the turns. Jarvis is a lot more mature and does it more on his own now. I can trust him to be dialed in and not looking off. He will go to his spot if I bump him too soon or still turn if I bump him too late. He is forgiving and honest," share Mowry.

It takes a special horse to handle all of the different set-ups. Mowry shared, "Jarvis is incredibly good-minded. We joke around that he is simple minded, but in a good way. He is happy and never makes a fuss about anything. He is kind and curious, not a scaredy cat. He has been able to handle a lot at a young age. I have had other horses that can win what he wins, can run faster, but his mind is gold. That's what makes him so special and fun. There isn't a lot of behind the scenes things to make him run like he did at Texarkana. He just wants to do it. It makes it fun for me. He wasn't the most naturally talented colt, but he tries hard, means well and wants to please you. That is why he is what he is."

Mowry was the big winner at the Showdown Productions race held in Texarkana in September as well, where she banked over $90,000 in a few days. Mowry shared, "I like the format. I like being able to run my horses one time. I do not believe in running their legs off of them. I feel like that is why they are fresh and run hard when I do take them. It is nice to be able to make that one run, but have the option to come back and run again if there is something you want to work on or get a better time. Where else can you go and run a non-incentive or aged out horse for that kind of money?"

It has been a great opportunity. The ground was phenomenal. I won it at the top of the ground, but the futurity horse that won was at the bottom of the ground. The times were consistent from start to finish. Showdown Productions was very accommodating to all of the contestants. The arena was great and we all enjoy an opportunity to run at a good race for this much money. It was such a competitive race, a long-time arena record was broken."

We see Mowry over and over again in the winners circle. She shared, "I pay attention to what is going on around me, but if it doesn't affect me, I don't let it effect me. I focus on my horses and the job at hand. I appreciate the opportunities that are given to us. It can be easy to get caught up in different things, but instead of paying attention to things that don't affect me, I put my time into making my horses better. I try to encourage my horses. If they make mistakes with good intentions, I try to move on and not make a big deal out of it. I try to evolve with each of my horses to make

There is no doubt we will see Mowry continue to win with her

It's Saaul Good for Dale Long at Texarkana Showdown Futurity, Wins $21,880

By Tanya Randall

One run was all it took for Dale Long and Saaul Good ("Sully") to pocket $21,880 at the Texarkana Showdown, held January 24-27 in Arkansas.

Long, a Pennsylvania native now residing in Valley Mills, Texas, and the 4-year-old gelding, owned by Benette Little, won the RP Recoil N Strike Futurity, worth $7,425. They collected $7,726 for third in the Black Star Ranch High Stakes on Friday, $6,000 for sixth in the Dash Ta Streak High Stakes on Saturday, and $729 for fourth in the Red River Dodge Open with their carryover time.

The outcome was better than expected given Long's circumstances leading up to the race.

"Oh my gosh! It was an absolute disaster!" he laughed. "I had truck problems on the way there, so I had to have someone come get me with their truck to get me to the race. I was sick on top of it, so I was just trying to stay focused. The week before I hadn't gotten to ride because I was at the American (Central Regional) with another horse."

Long, who won the aggregate at the Central Regional with Nancy Adkins' Slick Lane Ta Fame, said he had to "trust his training."

"I had never been to that pen before," he explained. "I used my exhibition to get a look at the pen and get my approach to the first barrel. I was like, 'You've got a good horse. Trust the training. Be there for the jockey you need to be and stay accountable for your actions.'"

Sully delivered a 14.247.

"He made the prettiest, smoothest first and second barrel ever," Long said. "Then he kind of got a little caught up around the third leaving it, but he never slowed down. He just kept his feet moving and made it work."

"I knew he had made a good run. I know when he makes a good run and is going fast. I wasn't sure that he made THAT run because I'd never been there before. I didn't really know what was (a good time) there."

It wasn't until the derby horses were running that Long realized how good their run was.

"I think it really set in when Sharin (Hall) and (Hello) Stella made their run. I've known Sharin for years and have ridden for her. I know when Stella makes a good run, and she made a picture perfect run. When I was just a tenth off of it, I was like 'Whoa!'"

Bred by Webb Ranch, Sully is by Winners Version out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Wild French Lady. He sold as a yearling at the 2021 Breeders Dynasty Sale, commanding a $13,000 bid from Kelsey Treharne.

Little bought him sight unseen from Treharne just a few months later, in early 2020. She sent Long to fetch the unbroke 2-year-old, and when they were just two miles down the road, Sully put his front feet in the trailer manger and knocked out the window.

"He had his front feet hanging out my trailer window!" Long explained. "Luckily, it was just his front feet, and he didn't get any further! We knew he was a winner when he came out of that with the tiniest little, superficial scrapes!"

Long broke Sully to ride and had him lightly started on the pat-

THE RUNDOWN w/ Dale Long

Saaul Good "Sully" 14.3 h, 1,000 lbs.

BIT: Schoneberg short shank with twisted square with four links of chain in the middle

SADDLE: Seven Saddle with a fiberglass tree

SADDLE PAD: 3S Custom Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine and/or Professional Choice on all four

SHOEING: Rims on all four; shod by Long

FEED: D&D Nutrition at night

HAY: Alfalfa in the morning, Coastal Bermuda 24/7

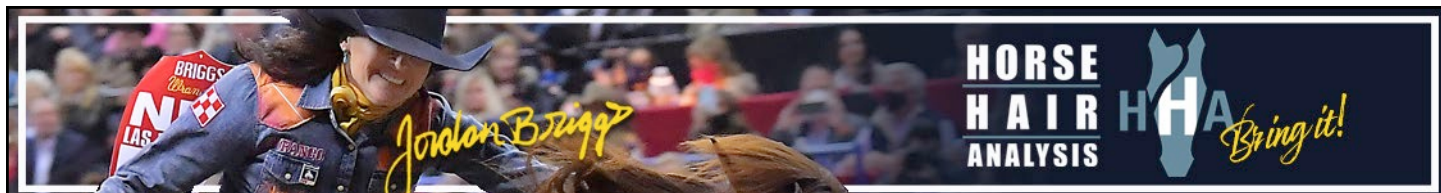

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP GastroPlex, Exceed 6-Way, Amino 15X

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track, MagnaWave, BEMER

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "It's really just keeping him fit. It's not too much training. He's not hot by any means, but he's like the energizer bunny. It's giving him enough of a workout that he doesn't build up too much energy that he's too fresh to focus on his task."

SPONSORS: Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals

THANKS: Long wanted to thank Benette Little: "This is the third year of her trusting me with her horses. I'd like to thank her for the opportunity," Rick and Melanie for providing his home away from home, 113 Equine and Dr. Chris Ray and his family, friends and sponsor MVP. He also wanted to thank Showdown Productions: "Having the opportunity to win this amount of money with the one-run format---we're very appreciative of having these events to go to."

tern before he returned to Pennsylvania for the summer. Sully got the summer off at Little's before returning to Long in September of 2022.

He said he knew that he had a contender on his hands after the first 30 to 60 days of riding.

"When I got him to the point that I could go lope around and do the things, I knew," he said. "He was just so willing, even if there were some bad days. He never held a grudge. He was always willing to go to work and wanted to please you. He just moved so lightly and effortlessly on his feet very quickly."

Sully made his competitive debut with an eighth-place finish at the BFA Super Stakes in November 2023. He earned $18,463 in the first month and a half of his career. Prior to the Showdown, Sully earned reserve titles at the Golden Buckle Futurity and subsequent Breeders Challenge qualifier in Waco, Texas. His career earnings have now surpassed $55,000.

THE LONG WAY

Dale Long grew up on a farm in Summerhill, Pennsylvania, where horses were occasionally used for work.

"I have a more 'driving' background, you could say," he quipped. "I grew up showing animals and I saw barrel racing at the county fair and wanted to try."

The family had one horse for trail riding, and they weren't too keen on Long turning it into a barrel horse.

"Nobody wanted me to barrel race because they didn't want me to make the family trail horse hot," he explained. "I would sneak my cones out in the field to go practice. Finally, my dad finally took me to show, and ever since, we've been hooked. We've just slowly worked our way up the ladder."

After he graduated high school, Long interned with Adam Roper in Virginia. While attending horseshoeing school in Purcell, Oklahoma, he met Little while working at the Jud Little Ranch.

Long split his winters in Texas and summers in Pennsylvania for a couple of years, working and riding with different trainers like Sharin Hall when his obligations allowed. After more people showed interest in his training abilities, he made the move a little more permanent.

He currently trains horses in Valley Mills, Texas.

SR Mista Mumba & Jordan Harrell Throw Down at 2nd Annual Aloha Acres Put Up or Shut Up Futurity

By Tanya Randall

SR Mista Mumba, ridden by Jordan Harrell for Dirk and Rhonda Thagard, were the best of the 75 high-stakes futurity entries at the 2nd Annual Aloha Acres Put Up or Shut Up Futurity, High Stakes and Open, held January 26-27 at the Foothills Equestrian Nature Center (FENCE) in Tryon, North Carolina.

Their run of 14,943 was worth $11,520, plus $974 from a carry over to Friday's Open.

"His run was really good," said Harrell, a barrel horse trainer from Hazelhurst, Georgia. "I've been struggling with the first barrel a little bit. We did get a good approach going into that and he was firing really hard. I did pull off the first a little bit and had to get over for the second at the last minute. It messed me up a little at the second because I lifted and then pulled. When I pulled, I almost hit it, so I was lifting again. His third was really smooth and he really fired going out. It felt like he clocked really good."

Bred by Stock Ranch, Mumba is by white-hot freshman sire RR Mistakelly, who has sired multiple futurity champions with 10 money earners of more than $110,000 from his first crop to enter since November 15, 2023. His dam was the Dash Ta Fame mare Flying To Fame.

Shortly after his birth, Mumba's dam colicked and was rushed to surgery. She couldn't be saved. Thankfully, a nurse mare took to Mumba instantly and raised him as her own.

The gelding was started under saddle by Austin Grazier and began his barrel training with Sabra O'Quinn while he was at Stock Ranch in Bozeman, Montana. The Thagard's bought him as a 2-year-old and he moved to Texas with O'Quinn. With O'Quinn devoting her time to building her place in Texas, the Thagards sent Mumba to Harrell in March of 2023.

"He's been very trainable," Harrell said. "Even though he did get a little late start, he did come on very quickly. He's been a good horse the whole time."

Mumba had earnings of $9,604 prior to the Put Up or Shut Up event, including a $3,550 futurity victory the weekend prior at Brandon's Barrel Bash in Ocala, Florida. The 4-year-old's current earnings are nearly $21,000.

Rylee Jo Maryman & One Cupa Tees Sis Top American Contender East Regional

By Tanya Randall

High school junior Rylee Jo Maryman from St. Francisville, Louisiana, and her 8-year-old mare One Cupa Tess Sis (“Ruby”) picked up a $14,476 championship at the American Contender Tournament East Regional, held January 25-27 in Lexington, Kentucky.

Ironically, Maryman wasn’t sure she even wanted to go to Lexington because Ruby wasn’t working quite right. Turns out the cutting-bred mare is just very opinionated about wearing protective gear on her legs, as in, she doesn’t want to.

“I had been experimenting with her,” explained 16-year-old Maryman. “When I started her, she didn’t like the boots that I would put on her. She didn’t like split boots or bell boots.”

After running bootless for most of her career, Maryman decided to try using them this past December.

“She actually qualified (for the Contender Tournament) in boots, but she was three tenths off,” Maryman said. “She had won the race the day before out of 400 at Memphis at the Lucky Dog. But something wasn’t right; she never ran good after that. We got her looked at and nothing was wrong with her.”

Even after pulling the boots back off, Ruby’s runs still weren’t her best.

“I pulled the boots off of her the weekend before Kentucky,” Maryman said. “She still wasn’t what she normally runs. I honestly thought we shouldn’t go but I think it just took her a while to realize the boots weren’t there.”

They were fourth in the first round after a small timing issue at the first barrel.

“The first run I knew she could be faster, but I didn’t think she could be THAT much faster!” she exclaimed. “I dropped a little too early going into the first barrel in the first round, and I had to shoot her by to keep from hitting it. I knew if I fixed that she would come back and run better.”

They were more than three-tenths fast with a victorious 15.178 in the second. They also led the aggregate going into the final round. Their last run was their best, a 15.096 to win the event. “The second run we blew off the first a little bit in the second round and we didn’t do that in the third run,” Maryman said. “I think that’s what the difference was.”

Maryman grew up in a rodeo family—her parents Joe and Casey both roped—and has been competing since she was two. In addition to running barrels, Maryman is an all-around cowgirl who ropes, runs poles and ties goats. She competes in high school rodeos as well as open, amateur.

This was her second attempt at making it past the American Contender Regional. The difference, she says, was Ruby.

“I haven’t had the opportunity with her until this past year,” Maryman said. Her family purchased Ruby, a daughter of One Cupa Cats, out of Im W Tees Sis, by Sugar Trix Leo, as a 2-year-old. Unfortunately, the mare was plagued with a bit of attitude and injury.

“John Hawthorne broke her for us,” she said. “He had her about 60 days and said she was a bronc.”

Sarah King patterned the mare to the right barrel first. Once Maryman started running Ruby, they struggled with the first barrel. Even after Ruby had kissing spines surgery in October of 2022, she still wasn’t working correctly to the right.

“She didn’t come back the way I thought she should have,” Maryman said. “She ran good for a little while and then she started not working again. There was nothing wrong with her, so I swapped her to the left and never looked back.”

Every Second Counts - WPRAPartners with Alan Woodbury on New Timing Devices – BY A NOSE

With a new year comes new opportunities. The Women's Professional Rodeo Association Board of Directors is pleased to announce its partnership with Alan Woodbury on his latest innovation BY A NOSE.

BY A NOSE is a new timing device that Woodbury has developed for the world of barrel racing, specifically in the professional realm. The term By A Nose comes from horseracing and that is where the idea of this new timing device came about.

BY A NOSE was developed, designed, and produced from research and data. Woodbury has closely followed barrel racing and horse racing for over 40 years. He recognized a need for a more accurate barrel racing timing system early on. A few years ago, he was at the track in Ruidoso, NM, when he met the expert who analyzes film, (and horses' NOSES,) to determine race winners.

Woodbury hired him to travel the country, filming over 700 barrel racing runs at major rodeos. Using state of the art technology, the runs and their times were analyzed to record timer heights and nose heights both starting the run and finishing the run. From these numbers, Woodbury designed a timer tripod with a standard height and WITHOUT adjustable legs. This tripod is easy to set up and is ALWAYS THE SAME HEIGHT. He was also able to determine the nose height range of horses crossing the eye. From this data, he designed a canister to sit on top of the tripod that uses four eye beams spaced at specific measurements to catch the differing heights of noses... all sizes of horses, running with heads up or heads down.

The WPRAP Board of Directors have been working closely with Woodbury over the past year.

"When Alan called a year ago to come look at the prototype for these timers, I went into that situation not really knowing what to expect," stated Heidi Schmidt, WPRAP Vice President. "It was pretty incredible to come out of that meeting with an extreme sense of excitement. Witnessing something that could revolutionize barrel racing timing and the industry was something the WPRAP Board needed to see immediately, so we arranged for Alan to present the product to the board at our 2023 Spring board meeting in Colorado Springs."

The team saw the fruits of their labor at the recently completed Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo in Great Falls, where BY A NOSE timers were used.

"We were excited to put the BY THE NOSE timers into action at the Montana Circuit Finals," stated Dillon McPherson, Montana Circuit Director. "They definitely created a buzz and everyone from contestants to spectators were interested in learning more about them. They were well received by our circuit members, and we are anxious to get more in the field during the 2024 rodeo season."

The WPRAP Board of Directors believes the Montana Circuit Finals was just the tip of the iceberg and are excited to use these at more events throughout the 2024 rodeo season. Currently there are a few prototype units being used successfully with 50 more in production that are planned for WPRAP distribution. Woodbury hopes that sometime in March, there will be 100 more units available to purchase.

This timer was designed with colored lights on the back of the canister to indicate when the timer is on, lined up, ready to time, timing in progress, and back to ready to time. It's EASY and as long as someone is paying attention to the lights and the battery has been charged, it shouldn't miss a time. In addition, the BY A NOSE timing system has its own wi-fi that will transmit times to an app that can be downloaded to a phone, etc. When changes or upgrades are needed with the system, the app will update automatically.

"In the WPRAP, hundredths of a second can change lives, and it is the WPRAP's responsibility to provide to its members the most accurate timing system we know of," said Schmidt. "The WPRAP Board is very excited to move ahead with BY A NOSE and help get these game changing timers in the hands of contractors and other contract personnel."

As more information becomes available including where these timers can be ordered, the cost, WPRAP plans for implementation at rodeos, etc., an update will be shared at that time.

Don't cling to a mistake just because you spent a lot of time making it.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's time to get out of diapers and into the armor of God! Hebrews 5:13-14 and Ephesians 6:10-18. Has your walk with God become stale? Do you read one devotional a day and attend church once in a while? Has the extent of your prayer life been reduced to one word? "HELP!"

Now, don't get me wrong. God is listening to you constantly. But what is He hearing? Are you constantly crying and whining like an infant? If so, it's past time to grow up. We need to put on the whole armor of God and fight!

We have authority in the name of Jesus and we need to use that name on every evil thing that's trying to happen. Yes, you and me!

Luke 10:19 says, "Behold I give you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you." God needs us. We speak His Word over all the wrong in this world we live in and we win!

But we have to be ready to do battle. And that won't happen hit and miss. If we truly want to see change in our bodies, our family and our nation, then put Him first. Our victory will be sure!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
