Molly Otto Dashin On Fire to a Lone Star Shootout Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Molly Otto and Dashin On Fire turned in two extremely consistent runs to win the $25,000-added, 186-entry 70 Ranch Performance Horses Futurity at the 4th Annual Lone Star Shootout, held January 1-5 in the Circle T Arena at Hamilton, Texas. The victory was worth $14,313.

"I was really proud of her," said Otto, a former National Finals Rodeo qualifier and trainer from Grand Forks, North Dakota. "I still feel like she's not running very hard because she's not that confident. I felt like she tried really hard to be brave."

Otto and Mesa were second in the first round with a 15.364 and third in the second go with a 15.340.

"She really tried to go out there and do her job, not lean on me and do what she was supposed to do," Otto continued. "She's kind of a little tough to ride because she is so fast but then she turns out from underneath you. I feel like I'm trying to stay on at every barrel, fighting for my life!"

Bred by Todd Matte, Mesa is a 5-year-old daughter of the late champion sire Firewater Ta Fame, out of the Bully Bullion, Dash For Perks mare, Dash To Honor. Dustin and Katie Lindahl gave $10,000 for the mare at the 2022 Heritage Place Winter Mixed Sale as an unstarted 2-year-old.

The Lindahls are best known for their homebred Teasin Dat Guy ("Chewy"). Under their ownership, Chewy was trained and campaigned by Otto as a futurity horse before qualifying for the National Finals Rodeo as a 5-year-old. This past year, Chewy helped Emily Beisel qualify for the NFR after being purchased by 4M Equine.

Mesa went through much of the same program as Chewy. Otto put 60 days of pattern work on the mare in November and December of her second year before sending her home for a break. Otto got her back in late summer of her third year.

"I worked her on the pattern at home, and then came down to Texas and started exhibiting her," Otto explained. "This last winter, spring, she was clocking some really fast times down here, but I didn't think that she was mentally ready to handle the pressure. So, I asked Katie if we could wait and run her as a 5-year-old."

When Otto sent Mesa home for the summer, she asked the Lindahls if they could continue to haul the mare and possibly add her to their mounted shooting string for more exposure.

"I think it helped a little bit," Otto chuckled. "She's not a very confident horse. At BFA, I told Katie that I didn't think I could get her around the barrels at all. When she's scared, she turns really tight."

"At OKC (her second futurity), she was still whinnying for her friends before my run! And she's been hauled a lot! She got hauled as a buddy for my rodeo horse last winter. I hauled her along just trying to build her confidence."

Otto tested Mesa's confidence when she opted to skip exhibition day for this week's Texas Classic, also held in Hamilton, while she went to Odessa, Texas, to run in slack of the Sandhills Stock Show & Rodeo.

"I figured that she's been in there three times now, and it was only a couple of days ago," she said. "Hopefully, she'll remember the arena. I don't really do a lot of tuning on her. I'm pretty much, 'Hey, don't turn the barrels out here...' Just bring her by them and

As of this writing, Mesa was fine, clocking a 15.458 to place fourth in the first round of the Texas Classic for $1,318.

"She's really changed a lot in the last couple of weeks," said Otto. "Now, it's like she knows barrel racing is her job, and she's not scared. It's getting kind of fun, knowing that she's going to go out there and work. I feel like I'm starting to be able to ride her like a

Mesa currently has futurity earnings of $36,971 through the first round of the Texas Classic. She won her biggest check to date, $20,000, for placing fourth in the OKC Slot Race. Mesa also placed in the second round of the Rookie Futurity before winning the Lone Star Shootout.

Jordan Driver Takes TRHeavensIlluminated to Second Lone Star Shootout Title

By Tanya Randall

TRHeavensIlluminated (“Cyrus”) became the first horse to win Futurity and Derby titles at the Lone Star Shootout. The 2018 gelding won the inaugural Futurity, held in Stephenville, Texas, with trainer Mollie Montgomery aboard and claimed the Derby Championship at this year’s event, held January 1-5 in the Circle T Arena in Hamilton, Texas, with his owner, rider Jordan Driver in the saddle.

Driver and Cyrus collected $9,060 for winning the 98-entry, $7,500-added Double X Equine and R Barrel Horses Derby. They picked up $15,464 with carryover times to the High Roller, Open and other sidepots for total earnings of $25,024, not including outside incentives.

“It paid super good,” said Driver. “I was so glad I was able to go. Cyrus loves Hamilton. The ground was awesome, and the weather wasn’t bad. They ran it off amazing. I love going to J&J Productions. If there’s one close, I definitely try to go to it.”

Driver, who finished 25th in the 2024 WPRA World Standings, was using the Lone Star Shootout to prepare for the upcoming winter rodeos. She was out at the Sandhills Stock Show & Rodeo in Odessa, Texas, Monday afternoon in slack and leaves on Tuesday to go to California for the invitational San Diego Rodeo on the baseball diamond at Petco Park.

“Those were his first runs back since a week before Thanksgiving,” said Driver, a senior sports management major at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas. “I was really pleased with him.”

They were second in the first round to Dusky Lynn Hall and KD Baby Driver but came back to win the second round with an arena record-breaking 14.915—later broken by Dusky Lynn Hall and Troublenvlooksogood—even with a bow off the third barrel.

“The first day he got in on me a little bit (at the third),” she said. “The second day I think he was running so fast that the only way he could turn it was to step off a little bit. He just kept running!”

She got a congratulatory text from Cally Thomas Kindred, the granddaughter of Harry Thomas, who raised Cyrus, by 9.8 million dollar sire JL Dash Ta Heaven, out of his homebred champion performer and producer TR Dashing Badger (“Dolly”), by Mr Illuminator. Driver noted that Kindred told her that Dolly’s jockey, Jill Moody, had always told them if she blew off the third barrel it was always going to be one of her faster runs.

“I thought that was really neat,” said Driver. Cyrus sire, too, was known for setting arena records with swoop of the third. “I honestly think it’s faster sometimes. It’s a good thing he knows where the alley is because half the time we’re not even close to it!”

Driver purchased Cyrus in October of his fourth year. Having purchased another horse from Mollie Montgomery, she had taken interest in Cyrus’ progress. After watching his exhibition in person at the 2022 Lone Star Shootout, Driver knew that she wanted him and told Montgomery if he ever came up for sale, call her first.

Although the fit wasn’t instant, the two gelled significantly after two years together. They finished third at the CNFR, made the Cinch Pro Rodeo Playoffs and won the $100,000 first-place check at The Texan. Along with another CNFR qualification—she’s

Youth Taylor Armenta Excels at Xtreme Arizona

At the Xtreme Million Arizona in Tucson, AZ the young phenom Taylor Armenta rode her lightning fast cow bred, Hes Got Cat Style to another title and a whopping $25,760! Added with her winnings on her other mount Jh Big City Goodbye, her weekend total was an amazing $32,507! We caught up with Taylor to get a little more info about her and her big win this past week!

BRR: Can you walk us through your winning run that won the Xtreme Million?

Armenta: He felt really soft and bendy and super responsive that run. His first and second were smooth and fast, heading to the third he must've seen something or the barrel blended in with the wall, we were running straight at the barrel. I'm lucky Thor is so broke, I picked him up and he made this quick move to the right, then turned that third so fast. Not sure how he did it but it was definitely cat quick. His favorite thing to do is to run home so he always shuts that clock off.

BRR: Can you walk us through your other runs for the weekend on Hes Got Cat Style?

Armenta: The first performance started off a little rough. The arena is a small set up with barrels on the fence, he was a little too rate-y and we hit the first and second, I pulled him up and we walked the rest of the pattern. After that run, we went to an outdoor arena and set up a barrel and just really worked on getting him light, moving his rib cage and shoulders. I re-entered that evening, and we had a really nice run, but he tripped on the second and pulled the reins out of my hands, which cost us some time, but it ended up working out cause I placed third in the 2-D in the million and won some good money. The last performance, we had a really great run he ran a 14.7 but got the third barrel unfortunately I would've ended up placing 4th in the million, so that was a costly barrel for us.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about Hes Got Cat Style's career up to this point and share some of his big wins?

Armenta: We bought Thor when he was 8 from Patti Carlile. She had quite a bit of success in our area locally she usually won the 1D or placed right at the top with him. I'm not sure if he was just maturing at that time or if it was a combination of himself and I as a team, but he just really turned into an elite barrel horse. He has won the 1D at several big races and super shows, won the whole 1D by himself many times, lots of slot race wins, won the American qualifier in Las Vegas but my most memorable wins are the Las Vegas Super Show 1D average; where he placed 2nd the first round and won 2nd and 3rd go rounds, winning the Xtreme Million in Tucson, winning Buckles and Barrels for Bailey 3rd go in 2022 and running the fastest time of the weekend out of 2400 runs. I could easily say the SouthPoint in Las Vegas is his favorite arena, he has won a lot there.

BRR: What did you do this past couple weeks to have your horse at his best?

Armenta: We had gone to the All In in Las Vegas for Race One so when we got home from that, he got a little rest and then I just really just kept him legged up those two weeks before the Xtreme Million. I did a little slow work here and there but mainly I just kept him off the barrels just to try and keep him fresh and loving his job. I like to do Equiscope treatments as much as I can while competing, Carrie Deck with Healthy Equine Therapy did several treatments in Vegas and when we got to Tucson Dr. Sharp and his wife, Whitley Sharp, gave him a couple vitamin jugs and did Equiscope treatments throughout the weekend.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Equiscope, laser therapy, Berner blanket and wraps pre-run, chiropractic adjustments and acupuncture as needed. When we're traveling, I use PHT sheets and leg wraps, cloud boots on all 4 feet. When stalling I like to sweat legs or use Rocket legs poultice and cold water therapy, we also pack feet to pull out any soreness.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Exercise 4-5 days a week, slow work on pattern as needed.

THANK YOUS: Huge thanks to Dr. Josh Harvey and Outlaw Equine rehab crew for bringing Thor back from a near career ending injury and continuing to keep Thor at top of his game. Dr. Wolfe for Chiropractic and anything Thor needs at home. Healthy Equine Therapy and Sharp Sports Medicine for Equiscope treatments and anything else needed while on the road. Thank you to my Mom, Dad and family for all their support and giving me every opportunity to succeed. Cory Mars for all the time and knowledge you have shared with me and Patti Carlile for continuing to help me with Thor. Last but not least thank you Thor for this amazing journey you have taken me on.

prior to entering the arena?

Armenta: I ride with Cory Mars weekly or sometimes a couple times a week. She has a really good eye for things that might be costing us some time and really helps keep my horses sharp. I've been riding with her since I was 8 and she has been a game changer for me. Also, making sure I'm putting the work in, keeping my horses fit, doing treatments and vet work as needed makes me confident going into an event- knowing that I've prepared myself and my horses. My dad is also a huge part of my mental preparation, he keeps my mind mentally tough, and he helps me stay focused on being a winner.

BRR: How did you get started barrel racing?

Armenta: I come from a Rodeo/barrel racing family. I went to my first proroдео when I was just a few days old and my dad won the bulldogging and I am a third generation barrel racer so I really had no other choice than to be a barrel racer! I started doing lead line on my aunts barrel horse when I was a little over a year old then my Nana bought my first pony when I was two years old. My mom said I would always climb the fence at the arena and scream at her to let me on her horse with her when she was riding so they finally got me my own horse. I also had a stick horse that I rode everywhere and I would set up little barrel patterns and run them all the time I did that so much I wore the stick off at an angle. Barrel racing is in my blood and what I have loved since day 1.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Armenta: My dog Rodeo (he goes everywhere with me when he knows the rig is leaving he does not leave my side), my lucky underwear and my beats headphones.

BRR: What is the funniest thing your horse does?

Armenta: Thor has a huge personality (which we say he got from Patti) one of the funniest things he does is he will follow you around in his pen while you're cleaning stalls, and he will come stand next to you and lift his hind leg up and look back at you until you start scratching him on his belly and under his leg, then he'll switch legs and demand you to do the other side. He will also answer you when you call his name, I can yell "Thor baby" and he nickers to me.

Buncha Dinero For Hayle Gibson Stillwell at California Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Hayle Gibson Stillwell and her precocious 5-year-old mare Buncha Dinero (“Piper”) dominated the California Circuit Finals Rodeo, held December 29-31 in Red Bluff.

The Redcrest, California, team won the three-run aggregate by almost a half-second to join Kathy Petska, who had the year-end title well-in-hand, at the NFR Open in Colorado Springs in July. “That was a goal of mine,” said Stillwell, who finished No. 41 in the WPRA World Standings in 2024. She also finished second in the year-end circuit standings after Piper added $9,916 from Red Bluff. Going into the Circuit Finals, Stillwell was unsure which horse she would ride—her rodeo veteran RDC Dancing To The Lead (“Fancy”) or Piper.

“I didn’t choose until the morning of the first round,” said the owner of Cowgirl Canna CBD. “I chose Piper just because my confidence in her is extremely high. We’ve been on a roll lately. I had kind of given Fancy some time off, so I figured my timing and confidence wasn’t going to be there.”

Stillwell tempered her expectations due to the mare’s age and her own experience at last year’s circuit finals.

“I had expectations going into my circuit finals last year and it didn’t go so well,” she admitted. “I just wanted to be in the average. I wanted to be clean.”

Piper set the pace in every round but the third in which she finished second with runs of 13.59, 13.33 and 13.47.

“I sent her in the first round, and gosh, she felt the crowd,” Stillwell recalled. “She hit all her spots perfectly, just automatic.”

The next day, Stillwell opted to pony Piper during the jackpot barrel race before the rodeo.

“Holy moly! She made a scene in the warmup pen like she always does. I thought, ‘Yep, she’s ready! She’s going to fire tonight!’ She was electric in the second round, just took charge from the back. She fired hard and just loved it,” she said.

In the third round, Stillwell got in her head a little, obsessing over a clean run, but Piper took over for her anxious rider.

“She took control again and didn’t let me get in her way and clinched the average,” she said. “When I saw her time and how close she was to winning that round, I was like ‘Wow! What a fairy tale ending to this year!’”

Stillwell raised Piper out of Rambunchie (“Ruby”), a race-winning Thoroughbred daughter of G1 Stakes Winner Bellamy Road. She found the mare while ponying racehorses at the track in Ferndale, California. The gritty little mare reminded her of Fallon Taylor’s World Champion Flos Heiress (“Baby Flo”) “She reminded me of Baby Flo from the start, just a little 15 hand Thoroughbred,” Stillwell recalled. “She daylighted the field out of the gate. They thought she bowed and luckily for me I got her bought for what I had in my wallet at the time. It was like $1,100!” It was thin soles rather than a bowed tendon that hampered Ruby’s performance at the track. After some time off to grow better hooves, Stillwell started the mare on barrels.

“She just took to the barrels right away,” she said. “She placed at some rodeos. She’s run 17.2s to 17.4s on Standard Patterns. She just kind of been a freak.”

How Ruby got bred to Piper’s sire PC Frenchmans Hayday (“Dinero”)—“It’s a funny story,” Stillwell confessed.

“I was at the racetrack, watching the races,” she said. “There was a stallion auction going on and it was about to end. I had had a couple of drinks and ended up buying three breedings. I didn’t even have a broodmare! One of the breedings was to Dinero, which was the only one I kept and used. I decided that I might as well flush

Ruby and that’s how we got Piper.

“I really hate to admit it, but all of my really great horses have been alcohol induced!”

Although Piper started off on the lazy side, she found her fire as a barrel horse.

“She started off really lazy, but she was born broke,” Stillwell said. “I have her first 10 rides on video. Her very first ride we left the roundpen and went on a trail ride. She’s just a pleaser. She always wanted to try hard. She’s extremely smart. She was extremely lazy and at one point I thought, ‘Oh, she might just be a rope horse.’ I was roping on her and branding and she didn’t show the fire. I hadn't put her on the barrels yet, but then when I did, she took to it like a duck to water.

"When she learned the game, that put a whole new fire in her. She's extremely passionate as my friend Stephanie Fryar said one day when she saw her warming up. She's very expressive and likes to be seen. We used to make jokes that her mother cleared warmup pens...well, Piper does the same thing. They're just Thoroughbreds. They go in there and want to play and rip around. They don't like to be told no. I try to not go in warmup pens because I know that's how she's going to be. She'll rare up, buck a little bit, play. She just has fun, and if she does that, I know she's going to run."

She didn't intend to run Piper at as many rodeos as she did, but the mare rose to the occasion when she needed her.

"When I asked her to run, she definitely showed up," she said. "That was not my plan this year. It just sort of happened with horses on the trailer getting hurt. I didn't have anything but her and she just stepped up."

Stillwell is looking forward to having Piper and Fancy in her trailer for 2025. She's currently waiting to see if she gets into Rodeo Houston and will likely start her rodeo season at the Arizona pro rodeos before the big circuit run in California this spring.

"I'm going to go like I've been going and let the horses tell the story," she said. "They all feel good right now. That's been the struggle in the past as we get out on the road. As long as they're happy and healthy, we're going to give her a chance. I'm very excited to have Fancy and Piper on the trailer. Now that I know the rodeos they like, I'm hoping to not have to travel as much if I can capitalize on those rodeos."

Barrel Racing Legends Lost

The end of 2024 and beginning of 2025 we have lost several legends in the world of barrel racing. They all influenced the modern barrel racing world immensely and will all be greatly missed. Below the information for Florence, Pat and Fay was courtesy of The Women's Professional Rodeo Association Facebook page. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all their families and friends. . . .

Florence Youree

Florence Youree - April 19, 1933 – Jan. 2, 2025

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Youree Family on the passing of their matriarch Florence Youree, who passed away at her home in Oklahoma at the age of 91.

An integral part of the history of the Women's Professional Rodeo Association, she was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2019 in the notable category. Florence (Price) Youree joined the Girls Rodeo Association (GRA) now the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) in 1951 and she hit the ground running both inside and outside the arena.

On the competitive side, Youree was among the top 15 a total of six times and won the WPRA all-around title in 1966 but it was her services to the GRA/WPRA in an administrative capacity that she really made her mark in the sport. Youree served the association as a director, then President from 1960-64 and then secretary-treasurer where she made the biggest impact. It was during that time that Youree worked to get the barrel racing included at the National Finals Rodeo as one of the main events. With the help of 1990 ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductee Clem McSpadden and Oklahoma Chamber of Commerce manager Stanley Draper the barrel racing became a featured event at the NFR in 1967.

Youree was fortunate to have competed at the NFR in 1967 and her legacy has been passed down to her family with daughter Renee Youree-Ward making the NFR in 1985, granddaughter Janae Ward-Massey in 2001-2003, winning the WPRA World title in 2003, and another granddaughter Kylie Ward Weast qualified in 2018. Youree also influenced her younger sister Sherry Price (Combs) Johnson to become a barrel racer who won a GRA world title in 1962 aboard Star Plaudit, a ProRodeo Hall of Fame horse. Johnson joined Youree as a ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductee in 2023 and passed away a few weeks following that honor.

Youree and husband, Dale, produced GRA All Girl rodeos, was the first to host barrel racing camps, training many future WPRA World Champions and they started the Oklahoma Youth Rodeo Association. They also started the Barrel Futurities of America (BFA) that changed the barrel racing landscape and Youree served as their president for 18 years. Dale passed away in 2022 at the age of 93. May She Rest In Peace. (courtesy the The Women's Professional Rodeo Association Facebook Page)

Pat Hutter

The WPRA would like to send their condolences to the family of Pat Hutter, who passed away last night. Pat, of Springdale, Arkansas, was the long time Barrel Futurities of America (BFA) Secretary and also was the secretary of the WPRA World Finals when they were held in Tulsa, Oklahoma. In addition she served on the board of the Rodeo of the Ozarks in Springdale, Arkansas where the rodeo stadium was named Parson Stadium in honor of her family who donated the land where it was built. The Parsons family was recognized in 2015 with the WPRA Lifetime Family Heritage Award (Pat (far right) photographed with WPRA President Carolyn Vietor and Joe Beaver at the 2015 Top 15 luncheon). May she Rest In Peace.

Fay Ann Horton Leach

The WPRA sends their prayers and condolences to the family and friends of Fay Ann Horton Leach who passed away suddenly on January 6 at the age of 88, just a month shy of her 89th birthday which would have been on February 2. Horton Leach was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2023 in the notable category after her impact on the Association as a founding member, competitor and board member.

While Horton Leach never won a world title in barrel racing, she was always in the mix qualifying for nine consecutive NFRs (1959-1967). She would finish third in the world in 1962 behind Sherry (Combs) Johnson and Wanda Harper Bush.

Like many cowgirls during this era, they competed in many different events with calf roping being one of her favorites. In fact, she broke her mentor's streak of six consecutive titles in calf roping when she beat Bush for the world title in 1957. She would add three more of those titles in 1959, 1963 and 1971. She won the all-around in 1960, the flag race world title in 1964 and one that might surprise everyone was her bull riding title in 1966.

In the mid-1960's Horton Leach was elected to the GRA Board of Directors and served stints as both the barrel racing and calf roping director.

May She Rest in Peace

Marilyn Clark

The barrel racing industry recently also lost Marilyn Clark of Sky Ranch in Ocala, Florida who owned On The Money Red for a good share of his stud career and raised some amazing barrel horses including Designer Red and Speed Money. Designer Red blood carries through his son Slick By Design today in the barrel racing world.

Historic Saddle Brands Tex Tan, Hereford, and Imperial Return Home to Yoakum, Texas

Saddle brands Tex Tan, Hereford, and Imperial have returned to their roots in Yoakum, Texas, through an acquisition by Welhausen Legacy LLC, the parent company of Circle Y Saddles, Tucker Trail Saddles, and Reinsman Equestrian.

This a significant milestone, as Tex Tan, originally founded in Yoakum in 1919 by Philip Welhausen, is once more reunited with its historical heritage. The homecoming is particularly meaningful given the deep ties between the Welhausen and Kaspar families.

Welhausen Legacy LLC operates under Kaspar Companies, a fifth-generation family-owned business located just 10 miles away in Shiner, Texas. Carl Welhausen took over Tex Tan in 1929, and is the great grandfather of Jason Kaspar, CEO of Kaspar Companies. This acquisition represents not just a business triumph but a heartfelt tribute to both family legacies.

"We are thrilled to bring Tex Tan back to its rightful home in Yoakum and to the Welhausen family," said Jason Kaspar, CEO of Kaspar Companies. "This acquisition is a celebration of history, craftsmanship, and our commitment to the Yoakum community."

Welhausen Legacy LLC is dedicated to preserving the heritage of the rich saddle making tradition in Yoakum, Texas. With Tex Tan, Hereford, and Imperial in their saddle lineup, they aim to honor and reinvigorate these brands' fabled legacies of craftsmanship, durability, and innovation, for Western riders all over the world.

Rooted in faith and community, Welhausen Legacy remains committed to serving riders with exceptional products built to last for generations.

About Welhausen Legacy LLC

Known as the parent company of Circle Y Saddles, Tucker Trail Saddles, and Reinsman Equestrian, and a subsidiary of Kaspar Companies. Rooted in over 100 years of tradition and innovation, Welhausen Legacy is dedicated to crafting world-class saddles and equestrian products for the Western riding lifestyle.

About Kaspar Companies

A fifth-generation family business headquartered in Shiner, Texas, Kaspar Companies has evolved and expanded into diverse industries while remaining grounded in the founding principles of quality American workmanship and honest business practices. Other subsidiaries of Kaspar Companies include Bedrock Truck Beds, Texas Ammo, Horizon Firearms, and Texas Precious Metals.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We were having a business meeting a few days ago. Every year we ask God about any changes He would like to us make for the next year. Being me, I don't ever want anything to change, so I find myself hoping there won't be any! LOL!

But, since none of us have arrived at perfection, change is inevitable. Sigh. So, there are a few changes that we believe God is moving us toward. I expressed my hesitation. One of the board members said, "It's like a trapeze artist, there comes a time when we have to let go to get to where we are going!" That caused quite a lot of discussion! I mean, can't these people see that I would NEVER let go???? Heck, I wouldn't be up there in the FIRST place!!!

The discussion continued that our very good God is right there to catch us if we miss it. 2025 can be a great year! Or a mess. If we let God lead us, and we follow Him without hesitation, we'll get to where we are going in victory. We will be obedient to "Fear not, for I am with you!" Isaiah 41:10.

Ready, set, here we go!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
