Kylie Ward and Namgis D15 Triumph in BRN4D Classic Equine Slot Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kylie Ward, one of the younger members of the legendary Youree-Ward barrel racing family, introduced the cow-run cross bloodlines of Stan Sigman's Namgis Quarter Horses in dramatic fashion, winning the BRN4D Classic Equine Slot Futurity, held during the second go of the open portion of the event, held Jan. 3-6 in Buckeye, Ariz.

Aboard Namgis 15 ("Wolfie"), Ward clocked a 17.345 to win the $20,000 first-place check. The duo also finished third in the futurity average for an additional $5,660.

"I ran a 17.5 on him in the first round on him and I had a little bobble at the second," said Ward. "I knew if I turned that second barrel a little bit better we'd be in business. I wasn't worried about speed at all. If he gets around them, he shuts the clock off."

Ward said the 4-year-old gelding, by AQHA Champion stallion Bucks Hancock Dude out of the AAA mare Central Station, by First Down Dash, is a perfect blend of his sire and dam.

"Wolfie is a natural athlete," said Ward, who also picked up $11,887 on the Youree-Ward owned Cash And Fame for placing second in the slot race and finishing fifth in the second go of the futurity. "He has the best of both worlds. That stud put his mind on him and the mare put the speed."

She didn't have him long when she knew had a futurity hopeful "The breaking process they've got at the ranch is wonderful," she said, giving a nod to Doug Schrutka. "Two weeks into it, he knew exactly what his job was. It's because he was so broke. Every one of those horses that I have are so broke and willing to listen."

Ward started riding for Sigman early last summer. Raymond Hollabaugh, who trains calf horses for Sigman, suggested he speak with the Youree-Ward family about his barrel racing interests.

"He knew the barrel racing industry was where the money was at," Ward said of Sigman, the former CEO of AT&T Mobility. "He wanted his stud recognized in the barrel racing industry. By the end of the trip, he was willing to give me a chance at it. It was a beginning for both of us to make a name in the industry."

Now, all three of the Ward sisters—Janae, Cassie and Kylie—are training futurity horses, marking a return of the legendary Youree-Ward family to the arena.

Grandparents Dale and Florence Youree are legends in the business with Dale being one of the most successful trainers, riders and clinicians and Florence taking over the ambassadorship of the sport after an accident made the risk of riding to great. Their daughter Renee and her husband James carried on their winning tradition.

"We're really excited to all be getting back into (the futurity business) now," said Ward. "Florence and Dale, my grandparents are as into it as ever, supporting us. My mom, she's like the agent of all this, she got all this together. She helps me whenever I need help. It's an absolute team effort."

At 84, Dale still rides two to three horses a day, said Ward. Her dad on the other hand has hung up his spurs and works fulltime for Halliburton.

"Dad doesn't ride much at all anymore," she said. "If we ask for help he's always willing. Sometimes he just has an extra way of looking at it, a refreshing point of view. We're out there every day doing the same routine and he can come out there and say, 'why don't you try this.' He's a lot of help when he's out there."

Ward is currently hauling four horses for Sigman and has four 3-year-olds for next year.

"Stan Sigman is the best supporter and owner that I could have found," said Ward, who is grateful for the opportunity to make a name for herself in the industry as a trainer. "I've got involved with

Cervi and Stingray back on the Rodeo Trail

Anyone watching the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo barrel racing a couple weeks, saw Stingray (Mp Meter My Hay) and Sherry Cervi take a spill on the second barrel during Round 6. In case you were worried about how they are doing, Stingray is healthy and doing fine. In fact, Stingray and Cervi ran on Monday, January 7th at Odessa and are ready for the winter rodeos.

Dena Kirkpatrick, Jolene Montgomery, and Bo Hill offer 2 hour Clinic Online

Barrel horse trainer and clinician Dena Kirkpatrick will be joined by futurity trainers Bo Hill and Jolene Montgomery for a two hour clinic tackling training problems and sharing some new ideas with viewers at the So Buckeye Equestrian Center in Buckeye, AZ. The Clinic will be held Wednesday, January 9, 2013 from 6-8 pm Mountain Time. The clinic is available for a LIVE only webcast online at www.visworks.com for $7.95.

If you aren't in Buckeye, Arizona for the barrel racing action January 10-12th, the historic Greg Olson Futurity, Derby, and Open 4D starts Thursday, January 10th at 9am MST. It will be live and available for 30 days for post race viewing for $7.95. Sign up early. Visit www.BRN4D.com for a complete schedule.

Hales & Singletary Win Charger Bar Handicap

Owned and bred by Christian and Ru Anna Singletary and Joleen Hales, Tres Of Linda won the first major American Quarter Horse stakes race of the year thanks to a flying start and a gutsy finish in the Grade 2, $100,000 Charger Bar Handicap on Sunday at Los Alamitos.

Ridden by Rodrigo Aceves and trained by Scott Willoughby, Tres Of Linda broke cleanly from post four at odds of 9-1 and right away started battling with Onemoreglassofwine in the 400-yard dash. Tres Of Linda took the lead with about 150 yards to go and from there she needed all her might to hold off the fast closing Thisfeatureisspecial in the final yards. Tres Of Linda covered the distance in :19.770 while earning her fifth win in 11 career starts. The 4-year-old daughter of Tres Seis earned $50,000 for the win to take her career bankroll to $142,061.

"This is a race that I've always wanted to win," said Ru Anna Singletary. "We met Joleen on an Internet racing group many years ago. We started meeting at the Quarter Horse sales and now we stay together at Ruidoso Downs in the summer and we keep some of our broodmares at her place. She's originally from California, but she lives in Medill, Oklahoma, and owns Texoma Quarter Horses there where she stands several stallions. She's the one that had the breeding to Tres Seis and she called me one day to see if we were interested in partnering and breeding our mare Lindas Dasher to Tres Seis. That's how we got Tres Of Linda and it was her breeding to Tres Seis."

Tres Of Linda enjoyed an outstanding sophomore campaign in which she finished second or better in five of seven starts. She won the Adequan Los Alamitos Derby Challenge and she qualified to the Grade 1, $1,000,000 Los Alamitos Super Derby, where she finished in fifth-place.

"She stumbled at the start of the Super Derby, but she stayed with them in the Derby for the first 300 yards," Willoughby said. "Those tough boys (Deniro and Hez Our Secret) were too much for her at the end. She broke as good as I've seen any horse break this year in the Charger Bar and that was huge for her. It was going to take a great horse to catch her. This was a tough bunch of mares – the best in the nation. Flame N Flash was in this field and she ran second in the Champion of Champions. Tres Of Linda can be a little flighty; she can be a little nervous. We took our time to get her ready last year and she seems to be carrying her weight a lot better this year. She's maturing and that has a lot to do with it. She's gotten better each year."

It seems like Tres Of Linda is winning the races that her mother, Lindas Dasher, came so narrowly close to winning during a productive racing career in the mid 2000s. Lindas Dasher's only stakes win came in the Huntington Beach Overnight Handicap, but she finished second in the Governor's Cup Futurity (RG1) and Derby (RG1), Ed Burke Memorial Futurity (G1), PCQHRA Breeders' Futurity (G1) and Las Damas Handicap (G2).

"Lindas Dasher came in second in so many graded stakes races so to win one with her daughter is a special thing," said Christian Singletary. "It's special because of the class of horses that she was facing: Flame N Flash, Getit Together, Thisfeatureisspecial and all the other great runners in this race. We sat there and looked at all of them and we couldn't throw any of them out. All we could say was that if she got out of there that we knew that she would give us her everything. She had time off coming into this race, she was rested and relaxed. She just gave us a great start for the year 2013."

Tres Of Linda is eligible to compete in the trials to the Grade 1 Los Alamitos Winter Championship on Sunday, January 27. Her schedule could also include the Grade 1 Mildred Vessels Memorial Handicap and she's eligible to the Bank of America Racing Challenge.

"We'll take it as it comes," Christian Singletary added. "Hopefully she's feeling good and comes out of this race in great shape for the Winter Championship trials. Hopefully she qualifies to the Winter Championship and then we'll see what happens from there."

Trained by Paul Jones for Mauro Eli Zaborowsky, Thisfeatureisspecial played the role of bridesmaid again at Los Alamitos. The talented 6-year-old mare was second to Fredaville in the Merial Los Alamitos Distaff Challenge last August and was second to Flame N Flash in the Mildred Vessels last year. She probably would have won the Charger Bar Handicap if this was a 440-yard race.

"She was coming after us," Tres Of Linda's jockey Rodrigo Aceves said. "I'm just thrilled that we got to the finish line before it was too late. My horse is tough to beat when she leaves like she did tonight."

Walker Wins Futurity with Hill's CP Konea

By Tanya Randall

Vauna Walker, Pingree, Idaho, made two incredibly consistent runs of 17.238 and 17.258 aboard Shelia Hill's CP Konea ("Coco") to win the BRN4D Classic Equine Futurity, held Jan. 3-6 in Buckeye, Ariz. The victory was worth $9,999.

Walker said her first run felt smooth. Something happened at the second barrel on their second run, but she wasn't quite sure exactly what it was.

"Something happened on the second barrel," laughed Walker. "I think we were getting in kind of close and I was getting in position to try to miss it, and she kind of spiked it really hard. It was a funny little thing she did but it kind of flung me forward. Everyone was teasing me. I was kind all over her and she just kept running. She's a fun little horse."

Walker was nervous before both of her runs because of the mare's spooky nature.

"She acts like she's scared of everything before you go in there but once she goes through the gate she never looks at another thing," said Walker. "I really had to get used to that. Usually when a horse is looking like that they'll see the banners and get distracted. She seriously makes me nervous before we go in, but it's just because of her anxiety. I just ignore it and she goes in and runs barrels."

Coco, a 4-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Crystal Cashanova, by Sir Cashanova, is a sister to CP Private Dancer, the a mare that Walker trained and ran for Hill two years ago. CP Private Dancer is Hill's rodeo horse now.

"That's why Shelia is so excited," noted Walker. "She loves these horses."

Hill purchased Coco as yearling from her breeder Cody Hyde.

"Cody was just reminding us about when we came out that spring when she was born," related Walker. "Here were all these robust colts and she was about the size of a Labrador. She was little, little, tiny thing when she was born."

Walker is happy to see Hill's horses have success.

"She is so supportive," she said. "She trusts our judgment, and that makes it so much easier. It's just been really fun. You can make your best plans but it doesn't always work out. But, she's been smart about the horses that she's bought. It's just working out really nice for her."

A registered nurse, Walker is now working part time.

"I have so much more time for my horses," said Walker, who lamented that her training partner, husband Randy, still has work full time. "I'm going to go to a lot of futurities this year."

Born and raised in Slippery Rock, Pa., Walker was taken with beauty of Idaho and the Western lifestyle after a camping trip out West as a child. She came back for college and never left.

Ironically, a little bit of her Pennsylvania history found her at the BRN4D Classic Equine Futurity when she ran into former Pennsylvania resident Jack Reddick.

"He was the first person that I knew that ran barrels," said Walker, who didn't take up the sport until she moved to Idaho. "I trained and showed horses for an Arabian farm."

In another twist of fate, the most influential horseman in Walker's barrel racing career was the legendary Dale Youree, whose granddaughter Kylie Ward won the Slot Futurity with Namgis D15.

"When I started barrel racing, I read book from cover to cover that was written by Dale Youree," she recalled. "It had a great influence on the way I see horses and our training philosophy."

Selling at the 2013 Black Hills Stock Show Horse Sale on Friday, January 25th

LOT #37 - HUNK OF LUV

2008 Gelding by High On Corona out of Dealing For Dee (Futurity & Rodeo Money Winning Barrel Horse)

We are bringing one of our best. Hunk is running barrels and heading steers and has been started on the poles. He has been clocked a handful of times and is doing awesome. He is big and strong and can move. He will eat a barrel up. Natural rate, very gentle and quiet. You can do anything you want on him. Paul Greimsman is heading steers on him and he will make a rodeo horse. Doesn't hurt that he is flat gorgeous. He is also eligible for a pile of futurities and is paid in full to the Future Fortunes. You may come try him at the ranch prior to the sale with appointment.

Pierce Steals Show at Texas Circuit Finals

By Julie Mankin

It was the Carlee-Pierce-and-Mary-Walker show over the weekend at the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo in Waco.

Heading into the Finals, defending 2011 Texas Circuit Champion Brittany Pozzi had the lead for her second straight year-end title over Pierce. Unfortunately for Pozzi, the Heart of Texas Coliseum is becoming "The House that Dillion Built."

Pierce nearly "40 percented" a tough field in Waco riding Rare Dillion, who won the Texas Circuit in 2008 and 2010 for former owner Annesa Self. This year in Waco, he carried Pierce of Stephenville to victory in the first round, placed second in Round Two and won the third round (he clocked the two fastest times of the rodeo) to earn a whopping $6,171 and his third title, along with the rodeo's average championship.

Riding 5-year-old Ima Super Fly Guy on whom she had a good year at the futurities in 2012, Pozzi earned just $2,541, which allowed Pierce to beat her for the coveted title by just $863. Pozzi, however, will earn the other trip to Oklahoma City as the reserve circuit champion in Texas because Pierce won both the average at the rodeo and the year-end title.

After the stellar performance of "Super Fly" in Waco (he and Pozzi finished third in the average), you may see Pozzi riding the flashy palomino at the early winter rodeos, as well.

Waco was also good to newly crowned world champion Mary Walker and Latte. The duo also placed deep all weekend to earn a second-best $4,901 -- including winning the second round by more than three-tenths of a second.

The Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City takes place April 4-6 and is produced by Express Lazy E Sports Productions. It boasts more than $525,000 in prize money and bragging rights. Should be good watching -- in addition to Pierce and Pozzi, the field includes NFR toughs Lisa Lockhart, Christina Richman, and Christy Loflin -- as well as defending national champion Tana Renick.

Ram Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo Jan 3-5, 2013, Waco, TX

Average on three:

- 1 Carlee Pierce, 48.24, $2,178
- 2 Mary Walker, 48.50, $1,634
- 3 Brittany Pozzi, 49.55, $1,089
- 4 Karen Little, 49.91, $545

First round:

- 1 Carlee Pierce, 15.95, $1,452
- 2 Mary Walker, 16.24, $1,089
- 3 Emily Efurud, 16.37, $726
- 4 Karen Little, 16.55, $363

Second round:

- 1 Mary Walker, 16.09, $1,452

Additional stallion information and pictures are available online. Bidding parties are responsible for obtaining information on the availability of shipped/frozen semen for stallions they bid on. Fees for shipped cooled/frozen semen, standard mare care and veterinarian services are extra. The farm location and stud fees are believed to be accurate although VGBRA will not assume any responsibility for errors. Reference stallion services will not be sold through the auction, but get will remain eligible for Stallion Incentive Program. Stallions may be added or deleted prior to the beginngin of the auction so check the webstie often for updates.

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

This is the time of year when you hear people talk about taxes. They talk about their accomplishments, their receipts and bookwork, how much they owe or how much they hope to get back.

At a glance they can tell you how much they spent for horse feed last year but can they tell you if their account is settled with God? The new year is a good time re-energize your health and fitness levels but, it's also a good time to renew your close relationship with God.

Have a heart-to-heart talk with God, your heavenly father. Ask him to show you any sin or unclean places in your life where you "missed the mark." Pray like David did in Psalm 139:23-24 where he said, "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me and know my anxieties; and see if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

The new year can and will be a good year for you if you turn your life and everything over to God. Make Jesus your Lord and Savior and trust in Him to bring you through whatever the world throws at you. Remember God can turn your disappointments into His opportunities. God loves you more than you now and He's waiting to hear from you.

Keep in mind the words of Philippians 4:6-7, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your request be known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." You're a winner!!
