Stephanie Fryar & Some Streakin French One Step Closer To $1 Million with WCRA Stampede At The E Championship

By Tanya Randall

With her $15,000 victory at the World Champions Rodeo Alliance's Stampede at The E in Guthrie, Oklahoma, Stephanie Fryar is in contention for the $1 million dollar Triple Crown of Rodeo Championship.

The bonus is icing on the cake for rodeo athletes that win three consecutive WCRA events. Bareback rider RC Landingham is the only one to achieve the feat thus far.

Fryar and her great horse Some Streakin French ("Frank") began their quest by winning the WCRA's Rodeo Carolina at the Tryon International Equestrian Center in North Carolina last fall. Their recent victory at the Stampede at The E put them one step closer. Rodeo Corpus Christi on the Texas Gulf Coast in May will conclude their journey.

"It's great," said Fryar, a former National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Waco, Texas. "It's always great when you get to leave a winner!"

The WCRA's format starts with a Qualifying Round, followed by two Progressive Rounds with an aggregate. The Progressive Round consists of contestants ranked amongst the Top 6 in the WCRA Segment (qualifying period) Standings plus six contestants from the Qualifying Round. Each Progressive Round winner, plus the top six in the two-run aggregate, advances to the Triple Crown Championship Round.

Although she didn't have to, Fryar opted to run in the Qualifying Round on January 3. Although they tipped a barrel, it gave Frank a chance to check out the arena.

"It pays good," she said. "I always run in it to win more money. Frank does well the more runs you make in a pen, so it usually makes him better. It makes him more comfortable to get that one more run in there."

In the past, "Fast" Frank has sometimes been overly cautious when presented with an unfamiliar pen thus becoming Slow Frank.

GROUND FORCE

At the Stampede at the E in Guthrie, Oklahoma, the WCRA introduced the ABI's Force Z-23, a zero-turn infield groomer and laser grader drag. Designed for maintaining baseball infields, a rideable Z-23 was used at every barrel after every run in place of a hand rake.

"We did a test run with them during open arena the day before," said event champion Stephanie Fryar, who wanted to give a "shout out" to Ricky Hibbler for "always making sure the good is so good at the WCRA's."

During the open arena, they were able to assess whether the Z-23's would work during the actual competition and where tractor drags would still be necessary.

"We were able to play with them and see how much they were packing the ground and what they were going to do on that dirt," noted Fryar.

"The executive decision was made to keep the tractor drag at four. I thought they a great job of pulling the dirt back in and packing it down."

"That's why I take the opportunity to run in the Qualifying Round, so I can make sure that he has gotten his jitters out of the way, so he'll go ahead and let loose for the important runs," she explained.

Now 9-years-old, he has gotten better about being brave and fast on his first trip through.

“Literally this past summer was the first time in his whole career that I started running him without first getting in the pen, and he actually continued to fire. Prior to that, if I wasn’t able to get him in the arena and show him around, he just wouldn’t run quite as hard,” she added.

As one of the Top 6 in the WCRA Segment Standings, Fryar was seeded into the Progressive Round. She and Frank were second in the two Progressive Rounds with runs of 15.277 and 15.390 to win the two-run aggregate as well for an additional $5,000.

“Fast Frank was amazing Frank,” laughed Fryar. “He basically made the exact same run, just smooth, solid and fast.”

Fryar has been running Frank since February 2016 when she traded a filly to Corbin Pinyan for the then 4-year-old gelding.

“I had seen him work earlier in his 3-year-old year,” she recalled. “He was put up for sale on Facebook, and I didn’t have any money to pay for him, so I traded. It’s just been happily ever after since.”

Bred by Fred Hartley, Frank is by multiple NFR and champion sire Frenchmans Fabulous, out of the race-winning Some Dasher mare Some Streakin Chick. Pinyan, who trained the gelding, got Fryar’s Traffic Guy filly out of her NFR qualifying mare Sail On Lena in the trade.

Fryar and Frank are now pushing the $400,000 mark in career earnings.

Linzie Walker-Lindsey Goes 1-2 at MVP Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Linzie Walker-Lindsey doesn't make the two to three-day trip south from her Arlington, Washington, home unless she's got something special in her trailer. This year, she came south loaded.

At the MVP Futurity, held January 4-7 at the Buckeye Equestrian Center in Arizona, Linzie topped the 89-entry event with Fame Jo Walker ("Josey"), owned by Theresa Colebourn, and took second on Shine For Fame Louie, owned by Kimberly Griggs.

"It was a fairy tale weekend honestly," said Linzie, whose mounts won $17,208. "I tried not to put unrealistic expectations on either of them, and they just blew me away!"

Both 5-year-olds are by KG Do It For Fame, Kathy Grimes' Dash Ta Fame son that's a half-brother to her National Finals Rodeo qualifier KG Justice unexpected. Both are out of her homebred champion Do It For Beau, by Beaus Scoop Of Sun.

"I believe whole-heartedly in Kathy Grimes' program and the phenomenal mares that she's getting these stallions out of," Linzie said. "I'm happy to be able to shine some light on the program she's worked decades on."

Linzie was also well acquainted with both Josey and Louie's dams as well.

Although Linzie is listed as Josey's breeder on the registration papers, the mare was actually bred and raised by her good friend Theresa Colebourn. Linzie had sold her the mare's dam Jodashus, a daughter of noted Northwest barrel horse sire Bulldashus, out of the Walker family's futurity and rodeo-winning mare Derby Dancin Jo Han, by Derby Dew. Colebourn was actually the one who crossed Jodashus with KG Do It For Fame.

"Because she was out of my old mare that I broke and trained myself, I am the one that broke and started Josey," Linzie explained. "She was really easy—no buck or anything—and really smart, but she was born with a chip on her shoulder. Things kind of have to go her way or it's the highway."

"It took some schmoozing on my part. I had to work around her mental blocks. Everything is very easy for her and she's very smart, but I had to have a lot of faith in her mom and dad and believe that even if she's not doing it my way, she's learning every day and she's going to get it."

"In six days, she knew the pattern and understood it. It was pretty incredible. But her grandma, Derby Dancing Jo Han, was another horse that my parents raised, and she was the exact same way. She understood her job and that was it. You didn't have to do anymore."

Louie, who was bred by Vanessa Polaski, is out of CR Sweet Blu J Shine, by CR Hollywood N Shine.

"The cool thing about Louie is he's out of a mare that's local to my area in the Northwest," Linzie explained. "I know the owners of his dam very well and have helped them quite a bit with her. I knew her qualities and how she liked to do things. Because I ran a KG Do It For Fame back in 2021, I was familiar with the physical qualities he added to the cross."

Louie was started under saddle by Torrey Belus. While he was easy to start on the barrels, Linzie said he did have some very gelding qualities that will likely serve him well as a horse for Griggs' daughter in the future.

"It was just very easy for him," she said, "but being a gelding...if it were up to him, he was going to do it at trot or slow lope. I had to bring the competitive edge out in him. Once he understood it was a race, he completely took to it. He's blown me away completely. He's kind of my sleeper. I thought he'd be a placer. I didn't think he'd be up at the top of the pack, so I'm very proud of him for how far he's come so fast."

Linzie was impressed with how both horses clocked in Arizona.

Josey, who won $8,139, was second in the first round and won the second with times of 17.345 and 17.268 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "She doesn't need any barrel work anymore."

She doesn't like it. She's one of those that I can trot through the pattern once or I can run it, but I don't get to school on her much. I just try to keep her in shape the best I can. Some people think horses can't get bored, but I think she would prove them wrong. She doesn't like a lot of arena work. I have a 93-acre Christmas tree farm, so I condition her out there."

SPONSORS: Tight Joints Plus, Wildfire Integrative Bodyworks

"The first run with her was really smooth," Linzie recalled. "Her third barrel wasn't a typical third barrel for her. I don't know if it was the ground that got her or just that big wide open arena got her past that third barrel a little bit. The second day she was running really strong. She was out there to win. It got a little wild, but she still pulled it off."

"Josey is the type of horse where I don't know where she gets her speed or how she stops the clock, but she seems to be able to make mistakes and still do it. She goes out there and pretty much makes the same trip every time for me, which is a ton of fun as the jockey.”

Louie, who earned $6,635, was third in both rounds, finishing right behind Josey in the first and got faster on his second run in spite of a near fall at the third barrel.

“Louie has shown me how fast he is and that he can make a mistake and still clock a respectable time,” Linzie said. “I was shocked by the times that he posted. He still hasn’t had that perfect run that I know he’s capable of. The first run, he got by the first barrel a little bit, but his second and third were really nice. When we came back the second day, we tightened up that first barrel, but then he almost went down on third. He lost his hind end completely and came to a stop and had to take off again. Then to be a .3...I was blown away with him!”

Linzie, a radiograph technician by trade, grew up competing. Her parents Michael and Linda Walker raised, trained and campaigned successful aged event horses throughout her childhood. Although she’s successfully trained several of her own, this was her first group of “outside” horses.

Kassie Mowry & Goodbye Sophie Kick Off 2024 With A Lone Star Shootout Championship

By Tanya Randall

All-time leading barrel racer Kassie Mowry captured her second straight Lone Star Shootout Futurity Championship. She won the 2023 event with Ks This Goodbye, and this year she got a win on her own homebred mare Goodbye Sophie.

"I'm so happy to have her," said Mowry. "What's lacking in my program? A good broodmare. Other mares that I've had like Sandi (Sand In My Socks) were for other people. I've proven other people's mares, but I've never got one for myself. I'm really excited about her for my breeding program. I would like to breed her and have little Sophie babies, so for her to have some EquiStat (recorded earnings) and a futurity win really means a lot for me."

The victory in the 158-entry, $25,000-added 70 Ranch Performance Horses Futurity paid $12,578.

Mowry bred and raised the 4-year-old daughter of The Goodbye Lane out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Famous Sophie, who is owned by Claire Powell.

"She got hurt pretty bad as a baby when I was trying to halter break her," Mowry said. "I wasn't sure she would have a career. She's just one of those defiant, determined mares."

Sophie was started under saddle by Aaroon Vaghela.

"He loved her," Mowry added. "Said she was one of the best colts. He was very high on her. I was excited to try her. He was right. She's pleasant and very smart. She wants to do what you want her to do. She just has an incredible mind, and she's very fast. You can tell she's very quick footed and fast when you're on her."

Mowry said Sophie was pretty easy as far as her barrel training.

"I just have to keep her backed off because she can be so aggressive," she said. "She can get ahead of herself, but I think it's mostly because she's just trying that hard."

Mowry, who only went to 28 rodeos to qualify for her fourth National Finals Rodeo last year, was able to get Sophie going around her limited rodeo schedule and the deadly heat last summer in Texas.

"I only went to five rodeos before I left for the summer," Mowry said. "And I was only gone 30 days. With the heat as bad as it was, it wasn't like I was missing out on much anyway. When I got home, she picked up right where we left off and I added some speed to her. She just seems to really like it."

Sophie's only other outing was the BFA World Championships last November. She tipped a barrel leaving it to win the Juvenile average, but still left Guthrie with $26,114 in earnings after placing fourth in the Super Stakes and third in the first round of the Juvenile.

At the Lone Star Shootout, just down the road from her Dublin, Texas, home, Sophie was extremely consistent with runs of 15.492

BREEDER OF RECORD

With a portion of the lucrative incentive payouts going to the breeder, the name listed as such on the registration papers matters. The breeder is who owned, or leased, the mare at the time of the foal's conception, rather than the foal's birth.

Although Kassie Mowry was handling Famous Sophie's breeding management for the mare's owner Claire Powell, she made sure to "lease" the mare and have it recorded with the AQHA so she would be listed as the breeder of her Lone Star Shootout Futurity Champion, Goodbye Sophie.

"I learned a hard lesson with that when I bred Epic (Leader)," Mowry said. "I didn't lease (Firewater Fiesta) for the time of breeding, so Kelly Yates was listed as the breeder. Now, I lease the mare for the time of breeding, even if it's a couple of days, so they're in my name."

"I knew what she was capable of, and I wasn't completely surprised by what she did at the Lone Star Futurity," said Mowry. "But then again, I was, because I was gone to Vegas (for the NFR) and then I was sick for like two weeks straight when I got home. I rode her just a couple of times before I went there. That's what I was most surprised by. I didn't think she would be ready, but I did know she was capable."

Mowry and Sophie will have the Golden Buckle Futurity this coming weekend in Waco, Texas. She'll duck out early on Saturday to pick up CP He Will Be Epic on her way to the Odessa pro rodeo that evening. The following weekend she's out at the pro rodeo in Fort Worth and will finish the month with her aged event horses at the Texarkana Shootout.

Stephanie Fryar Wins Stampede at the E to Remain in Contention for $1 Million Bonus

Stephanie Fryar (Waco, Texas), created history at the WCRA Stampede at the E Presented by Purple Wave Auction with her swift barrel racing run atop "Fast Frank". The 42-year-old athlete set the bar high as she was the first to go in the round, and her time of 15.323 seconds was the most groundbreaking performance of the $400,000 event. Fryar was one of only three athletes who were still eligible for the Triple Crown of Rodeo in the final round. Fryar edged out the competition and secured her second consecutive WCRA Major win following her victory at October's WCRA Rodeo Carolina. If Fryar wins May's Rodeo Corpus Christi, she will be the second and final recipient of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 Million Bonus.

The Triple Round of Rodeo Contender has participated in seven WCRA events since 2020 and has achieved one runner-up title before the Rodeo Carolina. She has earned almost $100,000 in WCRA earnings. During the latest competition in Guthrie, the now two-time WCRA Champion emerged victorious by defeating Kindyl Scruggs (Southaven, Mississippi) and Cari Titsworth (McAlester, Oklahoma).

In front of a nearly sold-out crowd at the Lazy E Arena, the first discipline of the Triple Crown of Rodeo round, bareback riding, had fans on the edge of their seats. Taylor Broussard (Esterwood, Louisiana), Donny Proffitt (Diamondville, Louisiana), and Chad Rutherford (Itasca, Texas), all had impressive 83+ point rides, which made them the top three contenders for the $15,000 Major payday in the round. Rutherford was the second to last rider and made an impressive 83-point ride, but it was Broussard's matchup against Stevie Knicks that delivered a critical 86-point ride, which was the highest-marked ride of the week and the top ride of the night.

The team roping event was highly competitive, with only a few hundredths of a second separating the first and second-place positions. The winning title was claimed by the duo of header Peyton Walters (Justin, Texas) and heeler Joe Mattern (Plantersville, Texas) with a speedy 5.52-second run. This was Mattern's third time winning with WCRA (Windy City Rounds, Tiletown Stampede), pushing his WCRA earnings over $170,000. The team of Riley Kittle (Carbon, Texas) and Jace Helton (Tolar, Texas) came in second place with a time of 5.60 seconds, trailing behind the winners.

Cody Doescher (Webbers Falls, Oklahoma) was unstoppable in steer wrestling. After competing in the qualifying rounds, the 3x WCRA event qualifier progressed to the final round of competition. The Oklahoman landed the No. 4 time in the aggregate after notching a 6.13-second run in round one and a 6.64-second time in round two. Doescher delivered a lightning-fast 4.25-second effort in the Triple Crown of Rodeo round, bumping Cody Cabral's 5.0-second time to the No. 2 spot.

The saddle bronc riding was a slugfest as former Triple Crown of Rodeo Contender Isaac Diaz (Desdemona, Texas), Cash Wilson (Wall, South Dakota), and Triple Crown of Rodeo eligible athlete Gus Galliard (Morse, Texas) battled for the first-place spot. Wilson was the third contestant to go, and he set a high bar by defeating Squash Blossom Steely Dan with a score of 86 points. Diaz recorded a score of 85.5 in the same round. Galliard was the next to compete, and he managed to edge Wilson's score with a score of 85.5, tying Diaz and ending Wilson's hopes of winning his second straight WCRA title and staying eligible for the Triple Crown of Rodeo.

Jordan Jo Hollabaugh (Springtown, Texas) delivered the fastest round time in breakaway roping with a stealth 2.33-second time. She entered the round second in the aggregate behind Martha Angelone (Stephenville, Texas). Hollabaugh ran a 2.95-second time in progressive round one and a 2.50-second run in Progressive round two. The Texas cowgirl defeated Josey James' (Waco, Texas) 2.63-second time and 2x WCRA champion Kelsie Chase's (Dublin, Texas) 3.00-second time.

Shad Mayfield (Clovis, New Mexico) won the tie-down title at Stampede at the E courtesy of his 8.31-second run in the Triple Crown of Rodeo Round. This was Shad's third WCRA title. Mayfield topped Guy Raasch's (Sweeny, Texas) 8.33 and Trevor Hale's 9.17-second time. Shad Mayfield's win knocked Haled out of the race for the Triple Crown of Rodeo contention.

As one of only three bull riders to cover, Joao Lucas (Whitesboro, Texas) scored an 88.5 atop Cheddar Bisquit and found himself edging out Clayton Sellar's (Stephenville, Texas) 75.5 score and Deklan Garland's (Marlo, Oklahoma) 84.0 score.

National Western Stock Show kicks off with rodeo action

By Susan Kanode For the National Western Stock Show

The 118th National Western Stock Show got off to a great start with their signature Colorado Vs The World rodeo competition.

This is the 11th year that the three rodeos featuring teams representing Colorado Rodeos and Rodeos from across North America have kicked off the best 16 days in January. The morning performance saw contestants representing rodeos outside of Colorado compete in bareback riding steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, barrel racing and bull riding.

Then contestants from rodeos in Colorado competed in the same events Saturday afternoon. The top four from those performances advanced to Saturday night's rodeo. The field was then narrowed down to the top score or fast time from each team. Team Colorado and Team World then went head to head in the final round to declare a winner. This year, Team Colorado was victorious in three of the five events.

Last year, Wyatt Casper from Miami, Texas won his second saddle bronc riding championship on Super Saturday representing Team World. This year, he was back for the Elizabeth Stampede and earned his third title for Team Colorado. That win was worth $10,250 for the former National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association champion saddle bronc rider.

The bareback riding championship went to Seth Hardwick who started out the day riding for the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs. He finished third to advance to the semifinals where he was at the top of Colorado's leaderboard. He remained in first place after scoring 90 points in the finals. He earned a total of $9,850 in the Denver Coliseum.

The third member of Team Colorado to earn a championship was Jace Melvin who was steer wrestling for the National Western Stock Show Rodeo. Melvin won the Colorado performance and added $10,250 to his checking account.

She may have been barrel racing for the San Angelo, Texas, Rodeo, but Kim Schulze's trip to Denver took her less than one hour. The Larkspur, Colorado, resident earned the championship in the final round and $9,575.

There is another Frost riding bulls at this year's National Western. Jate Frost, younger brother of Joe and Josh Frost who have both had success in Denver in the past is adding his name to his family's legacy of great bull riders. Jate Frost rode for Rodeo Austin and was the only bull rider in the field of 16 to cover three bulls. That was worth $10,350 for the Randlett, Utah resident.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Over the years in ministry, there is one thing that sticks out to me where the devil has tripped us up...offense. We ALL are tempted to be offended. Another interesting thing, in this time of cell phones and text messages, is that you can 'read' an attitude of love, or criticism. How something is worded, or auto correct helping, can change a message. And the sender can go off fat, dumb and happy without realizing something has run amuck! Yikes!

I have been one of those senders and, I have gotten a message or two that startled me. I felt bad about both. Now. How about this? How about we start 2024 obeying the Word. I Cor. 13:5 tells us that love is 'not easily provoked or offended.' Soooooo I'm not going to be easily offended.

I can pick up the phone and call and get stuff straightened out pretty quick. Matt.

5:23-24 instructs us to go to a brother and be reconciled. If we will only follow the instructions, we can eliminate a whole bunch of hurt, given or received.

This world is tough enough without adding to it by walking around offending, or being offended.

Offense is the tool of the devil to steal from us. Just say 'NO'!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
