Andrea Busby & Born On Derby Day Dash To Fort Worth Rodeo Championship

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo Champion Andrea Busby took over the No. 1 spot in the WPRA World Standings with a $27,700 championship at the Fort Worth Rodeo, held January 24-February 8 in Dickie's Arena in the historic Texas cattle town.

"I appreciate Fort Worth adding more money," said the Brock, Texas, barrel racer and former nurse. She also commended their use of tractor drags during the performance. "I thought the ground was phenomenal!"

Busby used Born On Derby Day for all four of her runs in the tournament-style rodeo. They were the highest money earners advancing out of their two-run bracket and won their semifinals and the finals. They were never slower than a 16.33.

"I'm very happy," said Busby. "She was just rock solid."

The 8-year-old mare actually made her pro rodeo debut at Fort Worth two years ago after an extremely successful futurity career with Ashley Schafer. The red roan mare, by NFR qualifier Freckles Ta Fame out of multiple futurity champion Kr Last Fling, by A Streak Of Fling, ran out $237,769 as a 5-year-old futurity horse and was the fourth richest futurity horse in 2022, per EquiStat.

Schafer, who won the 2022 Kinder Cup Futurity three years ago this same weekend on Derby, was excited to see Busby and Derby get the win in Fort Worth.

"I love that mare so much," said Schafer of Derby, whom she raised thanks to the mare's breeders Joe and Carla Spitz. "I'm excited to see it coming full circle. Those are the runs I've been waiting for! Andrea's made good runs on her before but those are ones to build on. She's got her figured out now. I'm so excited!"

Derby was Busby's second biggest contributor to her first appearance in Las Vegas last year. She won $24,480 at 10 rodeos but was beleaguered with random issues all season. "We always say Derby is sensitive to life," laughed Busby. The mare had an abscessed tooth removed and battled a respiratory ailment all summer. "She'd be good and then she wouldn't be. We'd give her time off, then make a few runs and start coughing again."

In September, Busby sent the mare home to get well. Thanks to hyperbaric oxygen chamber treatments and a lot of nebulizing, Derby was ready to fill in at the NFR if Benny needed a break.

"When she did get healthy we were really focused on getting her fit," Busby said. "I made one run on her at home before I went (to the NFR). I cruised her through (in Las Vegas) once (in morning practice). She really hadn't made a run since September. I took her to a jackpot over at Parker County a few weeks ago and that was her first run back since September. Fort Worth was definitely her first big rodeo back. She just felt awesome!"

Busby said the time spent seasoning and learning how to prepare the mare are finally starting to show in the arena.

“She’s getting more seasoned,” she said. “The first year I went I definitely placed at more slacks than I did perfs. She might have looked like she was making the same runs, but she was more timid. Last year, I thought she got more comfortable in a perf. This year at Fort Worth, I was definitely pleased with her. She’s getting seasoning and more solid in that part of it.”

The other factor was Busby’s learning how to best prepare the sensitive mare for success.

“Everyone’s like, ‘Oh, you’re riding so good.’ I’m not riding any different. I’m learning what my horses need during the week to best prepare them for that event. They’re all a little different,” she said.

With Derby, who is extremely broke and well-trained, Busby had to find the happy medium between letting the mare get too round or too stiff in her turns.

“It was a learning curve for me to learn how to prepare her,” she said. “A horse goes the way you work them.

“Derby is sensitive; she’s really sensitive. You can get her too round, or you could get her too stiff. There’s a fine line with how to work her during the week to keep her freed up and reaching through the turns. I’ve finally found that happy medium with her.” In addition to focusing a lot on the mare’s fitness, Busby works on keeping her soft and free in slow work.

“When I do slow work her, I make sure she’s soft in her face and her jaw and her shoulders. It’s easy to get Derby too round, but when she gets too round, she gets stabby in her front feet. I kind of put her head back under her neck (to keep her straighter) and pushing and reaching through the turn. I don’t work her tight (around the barrels) at all because she wants to turn so bad. She’ll run exactly how I work her. I do a lot of counter canters with her to keep her stood up. When she’s stood up, she’s running and pulling through the turn.”

Busby is hoping that she has this version of Derby throughout the 2025 season, so she doesn’t have to make a last minute push to qualify for another NFR.

“Derby has never said, ‘No.’ She’s never had a bad day. You can always count on her. Even when she was green, she might have been a little timid in a perf when we first started running her, but she always worked, and she always tried. She’s been a complete blessing for us and our family,” she said.

Busby currently sits No. 1 in the standings with $34,087. So far, Fort Worth is the bulk of her earnings with a second-place finish at the Cardholder’s Race at the WPRA World Finals adding $5,826 and a check from the Mountain States Circuit Finals completing the total.

Sweet Runs For The Kandyman Kid & Hallie Hanssen at Kinder Cup Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Two solid runs netted more than $60,000 for The Kandyman Kid ("Snickers") at the Kinder Cup Futurity, held February 3-8 in Tunica, Mississippi.

Expertly ridden by Hallie Hanssen for Shawn and Casey Varpness, the 4-year-old buckskin stallion topped the $25,000-added Equinety Futurity for $19,326, took reserve in the Slot Futurity for $15,000, added $7,814 from open carryovers to earn $42,060 at the event with nearly $18,000 more coming from breeding incentive sidepots such as Breeders Challenge, where they picked up $12,842. Official results from Tomorrow's Legends and Diamond Classic weren't available at press time.

"Casey marked all the boxes for everything that he was eligible for, and it pays really nice when you do well," said Hallie, who owned and ran the colt's late sire The Kandyman.

The Varpness family was watching from their Rochester, Minnesota, home, or at least trying to. Shawn, a lineman for Peoples Co-Op, had an electric outage emergency right before the Slot Race on Wednesday night, but did get to watch the second run live. "He doesn't really want to hit a barrel," said Shawn. "He pins his ears back when he runs between the barrels and then throws his ears forward when he gets to a barrel. Our son Colton pointed that out."

The Varpness purchased the colt from his breeders Gary and Deb Bartelt as an unbroke 2-year-old on July 1, 2023. Shawn had previously trained and successfully campaigned Snickers' dam Shezastreaknsunfrost, by A Streak Of Fling, and he was her first foal. Shawn, along with his helper Azlyn Holthus, 17, started the colt under saddle with his first official ride on August 1.

"Debra said when we bought him that he wouldn't buck. She was like, 'He'll be nothing to break out! He won't buck! We had him on the lunge line with a saddle on and he cut in half! So, I quick videoed it and sent it to her, and said, 'I think you guaranteed this horse wouldn't buck!'" laughed Casey.

Baby fireworks aside, the colt trained easily and was a natural on the pattern.

"About the middle of winter he was ready to trot and lope the pattern," said Shawn. "Probably January, February, I told Casey, 'He's going to be a pretty nice colt. I think we should enter him in the BFA and maybe buy a slot. He's just catching on really quick.'" With Shawn in the saddle, Snickers won nearly $47,000 at the BFA World Championships after placing in the Juvenile and winning the Future Fortunes Sires' Slots.

"He runs like his mother," said Shawn. "He trained like his mother. He was very easy. She always ran with her head down and hunted a barrel. He's just like her."

They also picked up a round check at their next event, the OKC Rookie.

Afterwards the Varpnesses had a decision to make. Weather, work and family commitments limited their ability to campaign the colt over the winter.

"Our son keeps us busy with sports and school and we both have full time jobs," said Casey. "Those big futurities are all week events and it's just too hard for us to get to those big, long ones. We go when we can, but it's easier in the summer to go more."

Although Casay considered staying south to continue Snickers' campaign, she too had full time work commitments at the radio station she co-owns and manages. Ultimately, they decided to leave him in Lee and Hallie Hanssen's hands.

"We had talked to Lee and Hallie about riding and running him for us over the winter months," said Shawn. "It's really cold up here and I didn't want to lay him off for the winter, just being as good as he is, and not have the opportunity to run at all these great incentives.

"It was a great decision on both of our parts. He definitely seems to fit Hallie really well."

Hallie described the transition as "pretty easy."

"Shawn's pretty easy to ride behind," she said. "You just take him to the same spots, and I like to take them to the same spots, so there really wasn't that much of an adjustment."

Not surprisingly, that same gritty and barrel hunting style that Shawn felt from Snicker's dam was something that Hallie felt in his sire and his other offspring too, making him a perfect complement to his sire and dam.

Hallie and Snickers missed their first futurity together, the Lone Star Shootout in Hamilton, due to the tragic passing of their longtime friend and client Barb Westover. At the next event in Hamilton, the Texas Classic, Hallie and Snickers finished third, earning $6,753.

Other than a fast work at home before Tunica, Hallie had only three competition runs on the colt before Tunica.

She was pleased with his first run of 14.768, which finished second to Ashley Schafer and HP Hotrod's 14.660, in the slot race.

"I was pretty happy with it," she said. "I thought I could have had a little better approach to first leaving the alleyway to set him better going across to second. He kind of slipped going into the second so he had to pull off of it a little bit. He did the same at the third. I didn't really know what a winning time was there because we hadn't run there before, but compared to the other times that were run ahead of us, I thought it was pretty skippy! I was pretty pleased with that!"

Slot futurity horses got a day off, having carried their times over from the slot race the night before into the first round on Thursday. Hallie used the time to walk Snickers through the pattern and plot a better approach to her first barrel.

"The second go, I got a better approach to the first, which set me up better for my second and of course better for the third. I was really happy with that run," she said.

They finished second in both rounds of the futurity to win the aggregate by more than 4/10ths and bump the colt's earnings to more than $114,000.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OPEN FUTURITY & OPEN DERBY 2025 Finale Semi-Finals Format Update

This year, our team is excited to present an updated Semi-Finals format at the 2025 Breeder's Challenge Finale in the Open Futurity and Open Derby divisions. This update is our response to feedback from owners, riders and past qualifiers requesting the opportunity for an additional Finale qualification round in the Futurity and Derby divisions, as well as the opportunity to run at increased payouts at the Semi-Finals level. Below is an overview of the format changes, but you can read the full details in the General Rules on our website.

UPDATED FORMAT:

- (2) Two Finale Qualifying Go Rounds
- 2D Format | .6 Sec. Split | Pay 10 Holes in each Division
- Top 15 Fast Times from each Go Round Advance to Saturday's Finale Round
- $25,000-Added to each Semi-Finals Go Round
- (Optional) $500 Entry Fee
 - *Those opting out of the $500 entry fee will not be eligible for the additional payout money
- 80% Payback

It is always our goal to have an open mind regarding feedback and ways we can continue making this program better and more relevant to those owners, riders, trainers and breeders investing in the growth of our industry. We hope you will reach out to our team with any thoughts, ideas, concerns or questions, and more than anything, we look forward to an exciting season of 2025 Qualifiers, Challenge Races and the Finale!

High Octane Victory For HP Hotrod & Ashley Schafer in Kinder Cup Futurity Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

HP Hotrod (“Boomer”) and Ashley Schafer motored to a $22,000 Kinder Cup Futurity Slot Race Championship with a blistering run of 14.660 on the opening night of the event, held February 3-8 in Tunica, Mississippi.

“He is really something special,” said Schafer of the 4-year-old stallion, bred and owned by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin of Highpoint Performance Horses.

Boomer is by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame and out of Highpoint’s AQHA World Champion Rods Last Ladybug (“Boomette”), by Sharp Rodney. Boomette has produced earners of more than 1.2 million including HP Feel The Fame ($400,000), Chrome Plated Fame ($170,000), Makana ($136,000) and many more.

Schafer started riding the colt in June of his second year and rode him a few months before sending him home for a break. “He was so mentally and physically mature as a 2-year-old that it didn’t feel like you were on a 2-year-old,” the Comanche, Texas, based trainer said. “It was just amazing.”

She also trained and is currently riding Boomer’s older full sister Chrome Plated Fame (“Johnnie”) and she said having that experience helped her with Boomer.

“It was just helpful,” she said. “That’s what I love about being able to ride siblings or babies out of mares that I’ve ridden. It just gives you that little bit of insight into what they’re probably going to be like. Genetics run pretty true.”

Although she won a lot with Johnnie, she also tipped a lot of barrels to win even more, so she worked to prevent that with Boomer from the start.

“They’re very similar but they’re also a lot different,” she said. “He’s more forward than her. They’re both very turny. The mother was super turny, and they’re by Dash Ta Fame, so there was never any doubt whether they were going to be turny or not. When I was training him, I was really careful not to let him make his big move too much. I was always careful to take that out of him a little bit so I would be able to get him around the barrels later.”

Boomer made his debut last November in the BEA SuperStakes where he finished fifth. He took reserve in the OKC Slot Futurity before winning the Rookie. In Hamilton, Texas, this January, he was reserve champion at the Lone Star Shootout Futurity and won that slot futurity sidepot before placing fourth in the Texas Classic Futurity slot sidepot. Right before Tunica, Boomer won the junior barrels by 4/10ths at the Quarter horse show at the Fort Worth Stock Show.

“I hadn’t run him since Hamilton, so it was like three weeks (since his last run),” Schafer said. “He’d never been in that arena. I didn’t get any exhibitions. With him, you know he’s going to go in there and hunt barrels and do his job. He worked awesome!” Going into the slot race, Schafer didn’t even cruise Boomer through in exhibitions. Instead, she just worked him slow.

Schafer drew on that confidence after a miscue with her previous horse in the slot race.

“I had hooked my belt over my saddle horn on the horse before him,” she explained. “I didn’t have a lot of time between horses, so I took the belt off. I had a little talk with myself. ‘Hey, this horse is so confident, don’t let that little incident mess with your head. Go in there and be confident and let that horse do his job. Don’t hold back!’”

Their 14.660 would win the slot race, plus the first round of the futurity, the first open, the first high rollers race and the adult sidepot. It also qualified them for the Breeders Challenge Finale in both the futurity and open.

“I just really tried to stay out of his way and ride him up into the hole,” she said of the run. “That’s the main thing. He’s going to turn when he gets there. He’s really turny, but he’s not necessarily push-style either. You don’t have to ask him to run. He wants to run. That’s pretty nice too. It’s like free, but turny.”

Unfortunately a little ground trouble at the first barrel disrupted their timing on the second run and they caught a barrel to go out of the aggregate.

She explained, “In the slot race, he got a tick by his first barrel, but he set his leg and came through and left really hard. He was really running hard across to the second. In the second round, he tripped at the spot where he went to bring his front end through, so he didn't get out of there as hard. We weren't quite running hard enough to the second, so when he locked down, we caught it."

With no rest for the weary, Schafer and Boomer were on their way to the Royal Crown Race in Buckeye, Arizona, the Monday following their Kinder Cup victory. Boomers win over the weekend pushed his earnings to $140k already. A Young Guns and Ruby Buckle stallion, Boomer is also available to the public this year with ICSI breeding contracts available.

Sweetums N Salty

2019 Bay Mare, 15.2 hands

SIRE: TRAFFIC GUY - PE: $2 MILLION

Recently sired the Texarkana Showdown WINNER!

DAM: Splashy N Sassy (Dox Bueno Dinero)

Dam of 1D barrel horse, tie down money winner, youth rodeo money winners in goat tying, tie down, poles & barrels!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

This mare has been one of our favorites, she's been hauled a little in barrels and won over $3,000 in the tiedown but has an injury that keeps her from a performance career.

Sweetums is a big pretty mare, and she's as solid as they come.

She's very broke, very gentle. We've used her to halter break & round pen colts, our 16 year old son has won money in the tie down on her. She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture.

*PRICE REDUCED!

Daughter of
TRAFFIC GUY
BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE
FOR SALE

Sweetums has the look, mind and pedigree to raise some great colts, in any discipline!!

SIRE: A SMOOTH GUY, PE: $4 MILLION

DAM: By Bys Meter Maid (Dr Meter Reader SI 91)

Stakes Winning Race Family!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

We didn't plan on selling this mare, she is one of our favorites. Peanut is very broke, and easy to use.

Shes very quick and a catty. She's been breakaway roped on, our daughter hauled her as a 4 year old in the goat tying but she has injury that kept her from a performance career.

She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture. She has a big smooth trot that really covers country!

She's a typical Smooth Guy, very gentle, very sweet but still has some punch! We've raised one A Streak Of Fling filly out of her, she bred easy, foaled easy and is an easy keeper. Her filly is just like her, easy to handle and gentle.

*PRICE REDUCED!

Champions Crowned at FWSSR ProRodeo Tournament

by Susan Kanode for the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

The 2025 edition of the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo's $1.5 million FWSSR ProRodeo Tournament came to a close in Dickies Arena on Saturday night.

The big money winner was bull rider Maverick Potter from Waxahachie, Texas, and his win could be a game changer for his season. He qualified for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) in 2022 and finished the season in 12th place. The next two years were filled with struggles. Potter finished 45th in 2023, and last year was 24th. While it didn't put him among the top 15 that qualify to compete for world titles, that finish was good enough to get him a spot here.

Potter competed in Bracket 1 of the tournament and was the only bull rider who was successful in both rounds. He earned $7,000 in those rounds, came back to the Semi-Finals and was successful again. In fact, Potter was the only man to ride all four of the bulls that he climbed on. In the Championship Finals, he notched the high score at 89.5 points on Sutton Rodeo's Mr. Demon to win $20,000. When all his winnings were added together, he was the biggest money earner at this year's rodeo with $30,333. That money will put him well on the way to qualifying for this year's NFR in Las Vegas next December. He was unranked in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association world standings prior to this rodeo and is likely to move all the way to the top.

Shad Mayfield's winning ways continued as he earned his second consecutive Fort Worth tie-down roping championship. Mayfield grew up in Clovis, New Mexico, but lives in nearby Lipan, Texas, now. He stopped the clock in 7.6 seconds for the title. After winning this rodeo last year, he qualified for his sixth NFR and went on to win his first gold buckle as the All-Around World Champion. Shad was the 2020 world champion tie-down roper and has been working hard to win that championship again. The win here will help him to make the trip to Las Vegas again next December for rodeo's championships.

Another local competitor that took home a title was barrel racer Andrea Busby from Brock. She was riding her great mare, Born on Derby Day, that she calls Derby. They had the fastest run on Saturday night at 16.16 seconds and earned $27,700. It was a big win for Busby who qualified for her first NFR last December and is hoping to be back there next December.

Jesse Brown from Baker City, Oregon, earned $25,818 in the steer wrestling. He won his first title in Dickies Arena when he stopped the clock in 3.6 seconds. In the fastest event at the rodeo, breakaway roping Josie Conner, from Iowa, Louisiana, got the win with a 1.8 second run. She added $28,017 to her season earnings.

Team roper Tanner Tomlinson who lives at Mineral Wells, Texas, did the heading for Jay, Oklahoma's Travis Graves. They are a new team for 2025, and the partnership worked well enough at the ProRodeo Tournament for them to get the win. They stopped the clock in 4.9 seconds in the finals for the title and earned a total of $25,350.

Nick Pelke of Mondovi, Wisconsin, made an outstanding 91.5-point ride on J Bar J Rodeo's horse named Straight Stick to win the bareback riding. Pelke earned $26,136 total and, if his success continues, he will be traveling to Las Vegas to compete at his first NFR.

In the saddle bronc riding it was Idaho's Kade Bruno who got the win. Bruno rode another horse from J Bar J Rodeo named Straight Moonshine for 92 points. He earned $27,636 and if his success continues through the rest of the year, he will be competing at his fourth NFR. He was leading the world standings before Fort Worth's rodeo and extended his lead significantly.

Total payoff at this year's rodeo was over $1.5 million. Plans are underway for the 2026 edition of the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo, scheduled for January 16 – February 7.

Turtlebox Audio Amplifies Rodeo with the World Championships Junior Rodeo & WRWC Partnership

Turtlebox Audio, the leader in rugged, waterproof, premium speakers, is cranking up the volume in rodeo. The company announced today its official sponsorship of the World Championship Junior Rodeo (WCJR) and Women's Rodeo Championship World (WRWC)—two elite WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) events with a combined $1.15 million payout.

"The rodeo lifestyle and music go hand-in-hand," said Sloane Brown, Director of Community Marketing at Turtlebox. "We're thrilled to partner with the WCRA and support their mission to elevate the sport of rodeo for youth and female athletes."

As part of the partnership, Turtlebox will have an exclusive presence at both events, featuring in-arena promotions, branded digital content, and event signage. Turtlebox will also award custom gifts to all WCRA Division Youth World Champions, all-around champions, and WRWC event and world champions.

The Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo presented by Montana Silversmiths—one of the richest youth rodeos in the world—returns to Guthrie, Oklahoma, from July 22-26, 2025, with an estimated $400,000 payout, including $215,000 in guaranteed added money.

The Women's Rodeo World Championship, the largest annual prize event in women's rodeo, will feature a total purse of over $802,000 at the 2025 WRWC. The event kicks off in Fort Worth's Cowtown Coliseum (May 12-14, 2025) before culminating at AT&T Stadium in Arlington on May 17, alongside the PBR (Professional Bull Riders).

Turtlebox was born out of necessity after breaking every so-called "loud" speaker on the market during outdoor adventures. Originally built in a garage for personal use, it became clear that nothing else could handle the elements and deliver the volume needed for environments like beaches, boats, and ATVs. Recognizing the demand, Turtlebox set out to create the world's loudest, most rugged outdoor portable speaker—built to go anywhere and be heard everywhere. HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Happy Valentines week! If you're considering chocolate, flowers, dinner, dancing and love notes, I'm all in! Sometimes, though, things can be awkward. I remember on our second wedding anniversary, Mike came home with two beautiful red roses! He said, "I bought you two red roses for our two years together... and besides... that's all the money I had." Well, there ya go! LOL!

Romance is wonderful. True love is better. 1 Cor. 13:4-8 describes what Godly love looks like. It's a very high bar, and one that we should all strive to accomplish. Reading it in the King James version of the Bible is good. Read it in the Amplified Version and it gets weightier.

I think the hardest part for me is in verse 5. "...it takes no account of the evil done to it (it pays no attention to a suffered wrong)." I notice. Do you? If so, this week let's practice our love walk. Let's love unconditionally like Jesus did when He died on the cross for us. He paid it all!

What love!
