One Step Closer – Brandon Cullins & MJ Segers Fast Lane Top American Contender Finals

By Tanya Randall

Multiple derby champions Brandon Cullins and the great mare MJ Segers Fast Lane, owned by Grant and Rayel Little, are headed to Teton Ridge's The American, March 9 at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas.

The duo from Dublin, Texas, rolled off a 15.352 to win The American Tournament Finals Rodeo, held February 10 in Abilene, Texas, for $15,000. The victory, which pushed Seger past $300,000 in career earnings, gives Cullins his sixth qualification to the American's final destination.

Knowing the Semifinals was a one-run affair with no buy-back redemption, Cullins chose to keep Seger out of the arena until her run. In Friday night's practice session, he used his futurity colt Good Things Comin to get his bearings in the arena.

"They gave us two exhibitions and an open arena," Cullins explained. "I worked him once and then sent him through so I could see how the alleyway would come up on you and see where the barrels would be. It was more for me to feel out and know where the pattern was."

Segers only view of the arena would come during the drag before her run. He walked her up to the gate so she could see that there were barrels in the arena, and they were about to run.

"It seems like the more you run her, the more laid back she gets," chuckled Cullins, who noted that Seger stayed flat footed until it was time to make her run. "I let her trot up the alleyway. I hugged the inside and let her take off to put her in the middle of the pen. She just lets you place her wherever you want. She took off right where I wanted her to. She's not overly tricky at the first barrel. She just does what you tell her."

Their winning run was reminiscent of their record breaking

FIELD SET FOR TETON RIDGE'S THE AMERICAN

The barrel racing field is set for Teton Ridge's The American, the richest one-day rodeo, scheduled for March 9 at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas. The top five from the 2023 WPRA World Standings will battle the top five from the American Contender Tournament for a spot in the final four championship round.

The top five representing the WPRA's best are World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, three-time American Champion Lisa Lockhart, barrel racing's all-time leading rider Kassie Mowry, 2021 WPRA World Champion Jordon Briggs and five-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Emily Biesel.

The top five contenders started their journey at qualifiers around the country, advancing to one of the three regionals. The top five from each region competed at the American Semifinals Rodeo in Abilene, Texas, for the right to run at Globe Life Field. Those contenders are American Semifinals Champion and professional barrel horse trainer Brandon Cullins, veterinarian and NFR qualifier Kathy Grimes, real estate agent Mindy Holloway and teenagers Emma Parr and Rylee Jo Maryman.

standard pattern performance at the Pink Buckle last October.

"I wanted to make sure she went to (the first barrel) at the right angle and I kind of took her to it too soon, so she was a little flat on the backside," he recalled. "It made her get a little downhill going to the second, and I think that's why the second was the way it was.

"It was kind of like at Pink Buckle, where she was running downhill and then moved back over into her spot and then drug it off to come back around it. I got up over the top of her to kick her hips away from it. She let me move her hips out but she kind of overturned it. She let me pick her up and get her straight to her spot at her third. She turned it really well. She was really honest."

Bred by Mark and Linda Jarvis, who own her 7.4 million dollar sire The Goodbye Lane, raised Seger out of the Diamond Faucet mare SKS Running Faucet. Seger was trained by and started her barrel racing career with Rayel, a Canadian Champion, NFR qualifier and multiple aged event champion.

Cullins started riding the mare after the 2022 Pink Buckle Futurity. Together, they won the Pink Buckle Derby, Ruby Buckle East Derby, BFA Derby just to name a few. They also won The American Contender qualifier in Andrews, Texas, The American Regional Finals in Oklahoma City and are headed to Globe Life.

Cullins, who has made the final four twice with VQ Sucker Punch, believes Seger will have no problems with the setup and atmosphere of Globe Life Field.

"I don't think it will bother her at all," he said. "Things don't faze her."

Right before his run in Abilene, they held him in the alley so they could load the bucking bulls.

"The bulls are next to us, running in, and she was unfazed," he noted. "She was just standing there flat footed. That stuff and the noise never bother her. She's pretty different I would say. She's very confident in herself and things don't bother."

He said the mare is very unique in that she takes so much in stride but also is quick to respond to what you ask of her.

"She's not dull—any move you make she's reacting to it, but she's not reacting in a way that she's worried about what's coming next," he said. "I just walk circles before her run to get her opened up, but she doesn't get worried. She doesn't get hot. When you head toward the alleyway, she'll let you walk, trot, lope and place her wherever you want, when you want. I think that's what gives her a little bit of an edge too. She'll let you help her."

Taylor Carver & Blings Smooth Girl Pocket $22,383 at Equinety Kinder Cup Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Taylor Carver and Blings Smooth Girl (“Skittles”), bred and owned by Darlene Barlow, had an exceptional showing at the 265-entry, $25,000-added Equinety Kinder Cup Futurity, held February 6-10 at the Coushatta Casino and Resort in Louisiana.

The Broxton, Georgia, based trainer and her 5-year-old charge topped the Futurity for $17,433 and picked up $4,949 on carryover times to the open races for total earnings of $22,383.

“She was pretty much on point,” said Carver. Skittles was fifth in the first round with a 14.991 and second in the next with a 14.960. “She made pretty, smooth runs. I really couldn’t have asked her to work any better.”

Skittles is by the late champion sire Blings Smooth Guy, a top siring son of A Smooth Guy out of the great mare Fame Fling N Bling, by A Streak Of Fling. Her dam is Violations Secret, a daughter of the Special Effort, On A High stallion Lika Movin Violation with a Thoroughbred and Go Dick Go maternal line.

The mare joined Carver’s barn late in her third year. She’d been started and turned out for a while before Justin Thigpen put another month on her before Carver started her on the pattern.

“I knew I couldn’t have her ready to run as a 4-year-old, so we decided to hold her over as a 5-year-old,” said Carver. “She’s been pretty easy from the get-go; nothing was very difficult. She pretty much took to it. She loved it.”

Skittles started her career at the Fiddlers Turkey Run in late November 2023 and proceeded to get stronger at each event. She got her first futurity average check in early January 2024, after finishing fourth at the Kim Landry Futurity. She had a strong finish at an open race prior to Kinder.

Carver, who has five futurity horses this year, is trying to pick and choose where she runs each one, but that schedule is also complicated by professional rodeo.

"I'm trying to figure out which futurities I can get to around the rodeos right now," she said. "I want to start seasoning (Skittles) at the rodeos in slack and see how that goes. I think she'll do really well at them."

A reserve championship finish at her fifth Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo gave Carver an early jump in the 2024 WPRC World Standings. In January, she qualified for the second richest winter rodeo—San Antonio.

Following her runs at Kinder, Carver left Friday night for the pro rodeo in Starkville, Mississippi. She ran the next morning, placing seventh on her mare Miss Rare Perks, who also picked up $3,808 and qualified for the Breeders Challenge Derby Finale in Kinder. She has Southeastern Circuit Rodeos in Brighton and Kissimmee, Florida, this weekend before she heads back west to San Antonio, where she's out in the last set.

Carver currently sits No. 7 in the WPRC World Standings with $18,198. She said she's going to take her shot at a National Finals Rodeo qualification if "the stars align."

"I plan to go for it this year as long as things go well," she said. "I don't want to force it."

Danyelle Campbell & Big Shoes Ta Fill Cash In At Kinder Cup Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Danyelle Campbell's homebred Big Shoes Ta Fill ("Joaquin") slammed the clock in the first round of the Equinety Kinder Cup Futurity, held February 6-10 at the Coushatta Casino and Resort in Louisiana.

Their 14.832 was the futurity time of the weekend, winning the first round, second in the open, second in the high roller and ultimately first in the best of two runs slot race for $27,290. The 4-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding out of the multiple stakes placed mare Gingham Dungarees, by Now I Know, also qualified for the Breeders Challenge Finale Futurity on that run.

"He isn't consistent yet, but we're working on it," said the multiple aged event champion and National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Millsap, Texas. "When he throws down, he's pretty tough. I know that he can and that he will, one of the two runs, we just have a hard time throwing down twice. We'll get there."

Not surprisingly, Campbell hadn't entered anything other than the Equinety $25,000-added Futurity when she got to Kinder. After Joaquin's exhibitions, she was still on the fence about entering more. "When I exhibited, I didn't exhibit fast," she noted. "It was slow, and it was terrible. I called a friend, and they were like, 'Don't enter him in anything else. Don't spend more money.' I was going back and forth. It's hard when you know you have a horse capable of winning good money, why wouldn't you?"

"I met Kassie (Mowry) up at the office and she was like, 'You always do well in this arena, and you know what he's capable of... but do what you think.' I had my checkbook and I turned around and entered him in the slot race."

She wanted to thank Mowry for the encouragement to enter and all of her futurity family for their help, like James Barnes, who helped her when she was fighting her head during exhibitions.

"He talked me through a couple of things," she said. "All I did was lope him through slow, slow, slow that last time with a hackamore on just to not make him mad. 'Is that it? I enter the slot with that?' James was like, 'He was listening to you and did everything you asked him to. It doesn't matter how slow you were going. Be done.'"

"That's what I love about our sport. Those people lift you up even if they don't realize they're doing it. It means the world." Campbell said Joaquin always goes in with intentions of doing well. He just gets in his way mentally and physically.

"He's a very aggressive horse," she said. "When he physically and mentally matures, it's all going to benefit him. He's a June baby and he's huge. He looks like a race horse. He has to figure some things out. I'm patient and forgiving of him. I understand what we're going through. I'm picking my places and my runs at this time." Unlike his full brother Famous Dungarees ("Glider"), who ran on the track for three years before becoming a winning barrel horse for Campbell, Joaquin learned to run in the arena, just in time for his debut at the BFA Super Stakes in November 2023.

"I spent all last year telling myself and everyone else that he was not fast enough," she laughed. "He has 100 percent proved me wrong! He learned he had a few gears that he didn't know, and I didn't know he had. Once he felt that energy and adrenaline from BFA, I've kind of acquired a different horse. I've definitely spent a lot of time trying to figure out what is the best way to channel that is. It's been a bit of a learning curve."

THE RUNDOWN w/ Danyelle Campbell

Big Shoes Ta Fill ("Joaquin") 16.1 h., 1,200-1,225 lbs.

BIT: Pozzi steel nose combination "He runs in a lot of different bits. I can pull that one out and make a run in it every once in a while, but he hates it. We've never been able to put two runs in row together in it. I'll be like, 'Oh, he ran so good in it, I'll run it again.' Who is going to switch bits when they've won the first round? It doesn't ever work twice for me."

SADDLE: Danyelle Campbell—the last one she had made

SADDLE PAD: 3S Custom

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Flexion on all four

SHOEING: Aluminum racing plates with a full rim through the heel on front, barefoot behind

FEED: Red Chain Horseman's Choice — HAY: Hay cubes out of Utah

SUPPLEMENTS: Equinety, Prime 90

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER blanket, Lameaway, acuscope

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: A lot of dry work. Last summer, Kassie (Mowry) told me to do some English counter-cantering with him, so I do a lot of that. I do a lot of loose rein riding. I'll cruise along half speed and then redirect him. I do a lot of stuff with no barrels but still relating to listening to my body, following my hand. When I do pattern work, it's very slow, like trotting and slowing to walk. I try to slow his brain and feet down as much as possible.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We aren't too far away from January 1. Are there any remnants of a New Year's resolution out there? I don't know if any stats have ever been compiled on it, but I bet weight loss may be the number one thing that people put down to change in the New Year!

How can any normal human being begin a weight loss program with New Year's parties, the Super Bowl, Valentine's Day, etc? It's just so unfair! And then there's the guilt and condemnation when we fail, right? HELP HAS ARRIVED!

Pastor Mike said the other day that 1 Peter 5:7 is our instant weight loss scripture! It instructs us to roll our care over on to God, for He cares for us!

In the time we are living in, that can relieve us of a whole lot of weight. IF we do what He says. Matthew 11:30 gives us further instruction and help when He tells us that His yoke is easy and His burden is light.

As we look around at world events, let's give it all to Him and rest easy. It will take the pressure off us. You're welcome!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
