Futurity Sweep For Kathy Grimes & KG Just Money at Royal Crown Buckeye

By Tanya Randall

Veterinarian and National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kathy Grimes parlayed a $1,000 lifetime enrollment on KG Just Money (“Showie”) into $54,287 and dual futurity victories at the Royal Crown Race in Buckeye, Arizona, February 11-16.

After hitting a lot of expensive barrels at previous Royal Crown events, Grimes almost backed out of the Arizona event.

“Last year after the Royal Crown in Arizona, I thought I don’t even want to come back here,” Grimes said. “It’s big entry fees and big rewards, but I’m just not doing it here. Then I thought, ‘I paid $1,000 to put Showie in it, so I have to come!’ Boy, am I glad I did! You just never know!”

Grimes and Showie dominated both the $75,000-added, 173-entry Royal Crown Futurity and $10,000-added, 124-entry South Valley Equine Open Futurity for earnings of $32,249 and $10,805, respectively. They also collected $11,233 with carryover times to the open and senior races.

“I’ve donated a lot of money to Royal Crown and other competitors!” she chuckled, while driving to her Medical Lake, Washington, home. “I’m super excited to get some of that money back!”

Grimes also picked up $18,781 on Showie’s older half-brother KG Jukebox Hero for running Top 5 in both the Royal Crown and South Valley Equine Open derbies.

“For some reason we’ve struggled with hit barrels,” she said. “I was almost as excited to have two clean runs and get an average check at the derby as I was with winning the whole futurity!”

Grimes homegrown program goes back four generations to her foundation mare Jodalita Cielo, that was actually her sister’s barrel horse. From the four foals, Grimes raised out of the mare came Do It For Beau, the dam of her NFR horses KG Justiceweexpected (“Izzy”), by Judge Cash, and KG Blazin Nine Oh (“Ruby”), by Blazin Jetolena. Both Showie, by PC Frenchmans Hayday (“Dinero”), and Tillman, by Blazin Jetolena, are out of Izzy.

“They’re athletic, they’re fast, and they like to run barrels,” Grimes said of her Izzy babies. “I haven’t got to run as many as I would have liked because finances force me to sell. I’ve had to sell more than I’ve got to keep.”

The cross with Dinero came by chance. Although she had always wanted to breed to the multiple WPRA World Champion sire, she waited too long, and his stud fee rose.

“That’s what I do,” she chuckled. “I really like a stud, and I don’t get around to it and their stud fee goes up and up! Why didn’t I do it when I originally thought of it!”

Her chance came when a buyer offered her a breeding to Dinero as part of the purchase price on a gelding Grimes had for sale.

“It all sometimes rolls into place,” she laughed. “A lot of my stuff has just been dumb luck. But I’ll take it!”

In 2020, Showie and a half-sister by RR Mistakelly hit the ground. Grimes ended up keeping colt, knowing that she wouldn’t have another shot at Dinero, who had recently passed away.

“Dinero passed and here I have this wonderful little guy,” she said. “I better just keep him. Then a friend of mine wanted an Izzy filly, so it worked out. RR Mistakelly is young. Chances are I could probably get another one of those, so I sold that one and kept him, and I’m sure glad I did!”

THE RUNDOWN w/ Kathy Grimes

KG Just Money (“Showie”) 15 h., 1,000 lbs.

BIT: Dave Elliot Spur Up 02

SADDLE: Burns

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four and bell boots

SHOEING: Plain steel on all four

FEED: LMF fortified grain

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: LMF Super Supplement

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Nebulizing, Soft Rides

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “I try to ride four to five days a week, when I can. I’ve just always kept things simple. 20 minutes of trotting and loping circles. Light work on the barrels. I don’t have a place to ride out so it’s just arena work.”

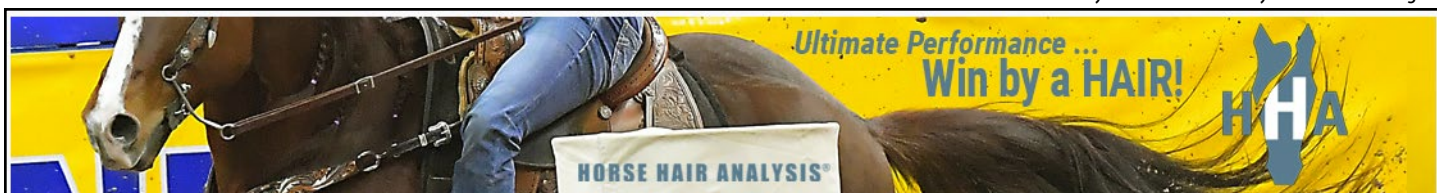

SPONSORS: LMF Feeds, Best Ever Pads, Wheatland Bank, Purple Rein Creations, Nine Oh Barrel Horses

Although she thought Showie had a nice style, one that was more conducive to leaving the barrels standing, she wasn’t sure he would be as fast as he is.

In December, Grimes put up some money at the local barn so they could have a race, and she could enter Showie.

“It doesn’t matter how much you practice, until you put up a dollar, it changes everything,” she said. “We put on a little race there, and of course, he's very comfortable in that arena and he did really well."

After running Tillman at the Odessa, Texas, pro rodeo, Grimes ran Showie at the Texas Classic Futurity in Hamilton, Texas.

"He worked well but it was nothing spectacular," she said. "We were bottom of the 1D. I thought, 'Well, it's okay. We'll get it.'"

She then headed to Buckeye, Arizona, to prepare for the Royal Crown. His first outing in the arena, Showie clocked a 17.2 during a Tuesday night jackpot. He followed it up with runs of 17.01 and 17.18 at the NBHA Show the following weekend.

"I was just flabbergasted! I've never had one this early run that fast," she said. "It doesn't feel like he's running that fast. Maybe he's just super smooth, he doesn't change his speed that much, he has a big stride...I don't really know what it is, but I like it!"

At the Royal Crown, they won both rounds with runs of 17.009 and 16.927 on the WPRA Standard Pattern.

"When he ran that 17.00, that was thrilling!" she exclaimed. "It felt like a super good run. The next day, of course I tend to overthink things and tend to screw it up. I thought it would be so cool to win both goes and the average. Then I saw a 16.933 was leading the futurity. I was like, 'Holy cow! That's so fast!'"

Grimes really thought her chances were over when she caught her belt on her saddle horn running in the gate for the second round.

"When that happened I thought, 'Oh my god. I've ruined this! I can't believe this!' I used to not wear a belt because I would get hung up and then I started wearing a belt again and it didn't seem to be an issue. I don't know what happened, but I will not be wearing a belt again. That's so dumb!" she admitted.

But the incident may have actually helped her. "My belt gets hooked and then I finally get it off and it's flopping around," she explained. "I'm trying not to let that distract me, but maybe it did and kept me from overthinking and screwing up! When he came around the second barrel so nice and tight, I thought maybe we have a chance. I don't know, keep going, ride hard. His third was great. When I looked up and saw that 16.927... that was just the best feeling ever. That's what dreams are made of. It was so cool!"

Grimes has the two big Northwest futurities the first of April and then barrel racing will take a backseat during breeding season.

"We're heading home on a great note and getting ready for breeding season and our futurities up there," she said. "All is well."

Chrome Plated Fame & Ashley Schafer Shine In Royal Crown Buckeye Derby

By Tanya Randall

“It was her turn,” said leading aged event rider Ashley Schafer about her Royal Crown Derby Champion Chrome Plated Fame (“Johnnie”).

The talented 7-year-old mare, bred and owned by Jason Martin and Charlie Cole of Highpoint Performance Horses, collected $34,533—$36,531 including her Diamond Classic money—at the event, held February 11-16 in Buckeye, Arizona.

“She hasn’t gotten to do a win interview because I hit barrels to win five futurities,” said Schafer, who was excited to have the opportunity to talk about Johnnie. “I was really excited to get this average win on her because she’s such a good horse and she deserves it. She won $130,000 her futurity year without ever winning a futurity, just winning rounds and placing along.

“She won rounds, but I never won an average on her. She’d catch barrels. She’s not cheat-y at all. She’s super honest up into the turn, but she would come through herself and catch barrels on the backside. Her futurity year, when I rode her to win, I’d catch barrels. When I rode her to get around the barrels, she’d place but not win first. I had to ride her all the way up and around the turn, so it wasn’t as fast.”

Johnnie and Schafer topped the 147-entry, $50,000-added Royal Crown Derby for $21,855, of which $3,009 was awarded to the mare’s sire Dash Ta Fame. They also finished second in the 125-entry, $5,000-added South Valley Equine Open Derby for $6,834, earned $1,928 for fifth in the slot race, and picked up $3,916 in open carryover earnings with runs of 17.211 and 16.919 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

Schafer, who trains near Comanche, Texas, said the biggest difference between the two runs was her position on the ground. They were last on the ground in the first set after a big drag for their first run.

“In my opinion, that’s one of the toughest draws you can get because that’s when it’s the deepest already,” she said. “She’s not very big. She handled it great! She worked outstanding! Honestly, I felt that was pretty much the difference. I felt she made pretty much the same run both rounds. She was just a lot faster in the second round and I think the ground made a lot of difference for her, just being on top instead of the bottom. It was easier for her to get through the runs. I really couldn’t fault her.”

Although the daughter of Highpoint’s great performer and producer Rods Last Ladybug, by Sharp Rodney, is a full sibling to HP Hotrod, the Kinder Cup Slot Race and OKC Rookie Futurity Champion, she has a lot in common style-wise with another Schafer trainee that’s currently on a hot streak—Born On Derby Day, who carried Andrea Busby to a Fort Worth Rodeo Championship and advanced her to the semifinals at the San Antonio Rodeo.

“She has such a pretty style,” Schafer said of Johnnie. “She has a

Assmussen & Girl Cartel LBH Win SVE Derby

During the Royal Crown Buckeye event held in Buckeye, Arizona this past week, Girl Cartel LBH and Catherine Assmussen showed up ready to be fast! In the Open Derby (called the South Valley Equine Derby) which allows non Royal Crown horses to enter and run alongside the Royal Crown event, Assmussen and her speedy bay mare Girl Cartel LBH ran a 16.8 and 16.9 on a standard pattern to win the SVE Derby Average Championship. Girl Cartel LBH is an interesting mix of her sire The Louisiana Cartel, who traces back to Corona Cartel, St Bar, Leo and even Thoroughbred legend Seattle Slew and her dam a AAA daughter of leading barrel & race sire Tres Seis. Assmussen and Girl Cartel LBH have been showing up at the top of the results at some of the biggest barrel races in the country so we thought we would catch up with her to find out a little more about this pair!

BRR: Can you walk us through both your winning runs at the SVE Derby?

Assmussen: Run 1: I was top of the ground number 11. The timer was a long way from the first barrel the alley wasn't extremely long so I tried to hit the alley way at a lope and gradually pick up speed. By the time we passed the eye we were going pretty fast. I was a little nervous knowing I had never sent her that fast to her first barrel but she wrapped it. After that it was a ways to the second so I just kept riding. Going into the second barrel I rocked it with my knee a little. She ran right up into her pocket at the third barrel and snapped right around it.

Run 2: I was last on the ground run number 2. I was a little worried about it because my mare isn't very big. I rode hard she went a little past the first and the second. Going around the third we had a little slip on the back side. She ran home hard.

BRR: Both runs were 16s on a standard pattern. What does your horse do that you feel makes her clock so well?

Assmussen: I believe she clocks so well because she's really fast in between barrels and she's really quick around them.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about Girl Cartel LBH's career up to this point and share some of her big wins?

Assmussen: We broke Ego as a yearling to get ready to go to the track and be a racehorse. She ran once and placed 6th. Her race career was short lived. Her owners at the time The Laurel brothers gifted her to me. Some of her big wins are winning the NBHA super show in Waco Tx, Reserve Champion in the ANHA Shootout, won the Derby at the Go Fast Races, placed in multiple futurities and Derby's. She won 14 thousand with me in Texarkana and won 12 thousand with my sister in Texarkana.

BRR: What did you do this past couple weeks to have your horse at her best?

Assmussen: I try to keep my horses fit and happy leading up to a big race. I had her Equiscopod before getting to Arizona.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend prior to entering the arena?

Assmussen: Before entering the arena I always like to say a prayer that my horse and I stay safe and run to the best of our ability.

BRR: How did you get started barrel racing?

Assmussen: I grew up in France riding English. When I moved to the

THANK YOUS: Keith & Marilyn Assmussen (Grandparents), Cash & Cheryl Assmussen (Mom and Dad), Fernando Garza (Husband)

US around the age of 10 my parents took me to a play day. I got to go "fast" around the barrels and I thought it was so cool. After that I knew that's what I wanted to do.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Assmussen: Three things I can't travel without. Horse medicine just in case we have any accidents. My little dog Breezin; he's definitely a huge supporter. Leggings I wear under my jeans because if it's the slightest bit chilly I get rubbed.

BRR: What is the funniest thing your horse does?

Assmussen: My horse is not very funny she's more of a serious type.

Emma Kate Parr & DG Excuse My French Capture American Central Region

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Rookie contender Emma Kate Parr and DG Excuse My French ("Pierre") will make their second straight appearance at The American Rodeo in Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, after winning the Contender Tournament Central Region Semifinals, held February 13-15 in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Parr, formerly of Greensboro, Alabama, and now living in Lipan, Texas, and her 11-year-old gelding put nearly 3/10ths of a second on the field to earn the $10,000 Championship.

"There was a bull that almost jumped in the alleyway, so it scared him," Parr said. "I think he really fired hard because of that. He was super-fast. He wasn't as smooth in the Finals. He kind of drifted from the second but he did not slack up! He was forward motion the whole time!"

After having done well at the Contender Tournament East Region in Lexington, Kentucky, last year, Parr figured that Pierre would like the setup in Tulsa as well.

In the qualifying rounds, Parr and Pierre finished just outside the Top 20 in the first round with a smooth run of 15.741 before dropping the hammer for a "super smooth" run of 15.207 to win the second round and take third in the aggregate going into the sudden death finals. Her total haul for the event was $15,687.

Parr, 18, purchased Pierre, by 5.4 million dollar sire BHR Frenchies Socks, out of Donald Griffin's Mr Eye Opener mare Eyes Moonshine, from Cassidy Champlin nearly two years ago. Champlin had bought the gelding from his trainer Brittany Dallaire.

She said they struggled for "a little bit" before clicking late last year.

"We struggled a little bit with our timing at the barrels," she said. "This past year and half we've really come together. A year ago, at Christmas in Dixie, he made a really nice run and that's when I felt like everything was coming together."

Although her parents Jim and Amy weren't involved with horses at all, Parr wanted a horse, "like every little girl does."

"The girl that helped us barrel raced," she explained, "so that's how we got started, just following what she did. We've just met people who have helped us along the way. Chuck and (the late) Linda Gayle (Stewart) have helped us the past few years."

Now, Parr is hauling pro in hopes of winning Rookie of the Year and qualifying for the National Finals Rodeo. She's currently leading the Rookie standings with $12,851 and sitting within the Top 20 of the WPRA World Standings.

Nuttin Smoother

2017 Buckskin Mare, 14.2 hands

SIRE: A SMOOTH GUY, PE: $4 MILLION

DAM: By Bys Meter Maid (Dr Meter Reader SI 91)
Stakes Winning Race Family!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

We didn't plan on selling this mare, she is one of our favorites. Peanut is very broke, and easy to use.

Shes very quick and a catty. She's been breakaway roped on, our daughter hauled her as a 4 year old in the goat tying but she has injury that kept her from a performance career.

She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture. She has a big smooth trot that really covers country!

She's a typical Smooth Guy, very gentle, very sweet but still has some punch! We've raised one A Streak Of Fling filly out of her, she bred easy, foaled easy and is an easy keeper. Her filly is just like her, easy to handle and gentle.

**PRICE REDUCED!

Daughter of
A SMOOTH GUY
 BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE
FOR SALE

*Peanut is an easy breeder & easy keeper!
 She's super friendly & will meet you in the pasture*

Sweetums N Salty

2019 Bay Mare, 15.2 hands

SIRE: TRAFFIC GUY - PE: $2 MILLION

Recently sired the Texarkana Showdown WINNER!

DAM: Splashy N Sassy (Dox Bueno Dinero)

Dam of 1D barrel horse, tie down money winner, youth rodeo money winners in goat tying, tie down, poles & barrels!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

This mare has been one of our favorites, she's been hauled a little in barrels and won over $3,000 in the tiedown but has an injury that keeps her from a performance career.

Sweetums is a big pretty mare, and she's as solid as they come.

She's very broke, very gentle. We've used her to halter break & round pen colts, our 16 year old son has won money in the tie down on her. She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture.

**PRICE REDUCED!

Daughter of

BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE
FOR SALE

Sweetums has the look, mind and pedigree to raise some great colts, in any discipline!!

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's easy to fall into current trends and philosophies. What pronoun you prefer is one of them. Personally, that sounds like English class to me! I did get good grades, but diagramming sentences leaves me cold. (And I freaked out when my Biology teacher fed a frog to the school rattle snake and all through class I watched the frogs' eyes bugging out as the snake slowly devoured it. Gives me shivers!) I got distracted there!

Well, by the same token, there are Christians who believe that we need to go into the world and look like them, talk like them, and act like them so we don't offend anyone. WRONG! There are no Secret Service Christians or spies.

James 4:4 tells us that to be friends with the world, makes us an enemy of God. We don't want that! We are to let our light shine and not hide it under a bushel. Matt. 5:14-16. Your mission, should you choose to accept it. . . . obey God!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
