Magical Performance for Brandon Cullins & RR Mistakelly at Lance Graves International Barrel Racing Championships

By Tanya Randall

Brandon Cullins and Mistakelly (Mister), bred and owned by Robin Weaver of Mahaffey, Pa., dominated their second straight futurity, winning the Slot Futurity for $50,000 and sweeping the $20,000-added BFA Futurity for $8,933 at the Lance Graves International Barrel Racing Championships, held Feb. 13-18 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Okla.

Cullins started off the event by posting a deliriously fast 16.457—on what was reported via Facebook share by producer Lance Graves to have been a WPRA Standard Pattern which would be an American record on a standard—aboard Sarah Griffin's A Cornerstone. The pair was just two days removed from having won the World Barrel Racing League Finals in Perry, Ga.

The trainer from Clements, Md., said the run was just fast and smooth.

"He leaned on me at the first barrel," he explained, "but when I got him to his spot, I don't think I've ever turned a barrel that fast!"

His first run on Mister was a victorious 16.982 in the first go of the Futurity.

In the slot race, Cullins and Mister topped the 25-head, high-stakes race with a 16.707. They were followed by two of his toughest challengers—Texas Extreme and Ultimate Futurity Champions Janet Stanton and JS Milo And Stitch and BFA SuperStakes and Classic Equine Futurity Champions Lacey Harmon and Tee It Up In My Sox.

For their last run in Guthrie, Cullins and Mister posted a 16.707 to win the second round of the BFA Futurity plus the second round of the $10,000-added 5-Year-Old Futurity with a carryover time. They edged eventual 5-Year-old Futurity Champions Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Ima Famous Babe in the round, but finished reserve champions for an additional $5,740.

All totaled, Mister, who swept the Kinder Cup Futurity and Slot Race two weeks prior, won $64,673, not including incentives, in Guthrie and pushed his career earnings to more than $200,000.

A son of Darkelly, Mister is one three futurity horses this season out of the blue-hen producer Mistys Dash Of Fame, a JB Quarter Horses-owned daughter of leading maternal sire Dash Ta Fame. His half-brother by Chasin Firewater, MrJBChasedByPaparazi, earned $10,833 for placing in the slot race and both futurities, and his gelded half-brother Jets Heart N Soul, by Blazin Jetolena, placed in the first round of the BFA Futurity.

Cullins said that Mister doesn't require a lot.

"I gave him a break after Kinder until Guthrie because I felt they all needed a little break," he said. "I got to Guthrie and exhibited

It's the stallion's disposition that helps make him exceptional.

"He's just a good-minded sucker," he said. "He pretty much falls asleep in the holding pen. He's super laid back and doesn't care about a lot."

AHCF to Hold Reception with Congressional Horse Caucus

The American Horse Council Foundation (AHCF) is pleased to announce that the results of its 2017 Economic Impact Study will be announced on February 28th at a reception with the Congressional Horse Caucus on Capitol Hill.

"We know that the industry has been eagerly awaiting the results of this study," said AHC President Julie Broadway. "We are pleased to be able to hold this event with the Congressional Horse Caucus to continue to demonstrate to members of Congress how important our industry is to the United States economy."

The reception will be held at Top of the Hill, One Constitution Avenue, NE, in Washington, DC, from 2:30 – 4:00 pm, and will feature two special guests: Congressional Horse Caucus Co-Chairs Congressman Andy Barr (R-KY) and Congressman Paul Tonko (D-NY). Members of the equine community are encouraged to attend the reception as well.

"I look forward to attending the announcement of the American Horse Council's 2017 Economic Impact Study. As the Representative of the Horse Capital of the World and as Co-Chairman of the Congressional Horse Caucus, I hope that this event will help demonstrate the economic benefits the equine industry has across our country," said Congressman Andy Barr of Kentucky.

Congressman Paul Tonko of New York, a state with a robust racing sector, commented, "This report reinforces what we have long known: America's horseracing heritage is more than just a valuable source of our history and culture, it also thrives as a vibrant industry supporting good jobs and driving significant economic activity. I am pleased to celebrate the release of these economic findings from the American Horse Council Foundation, which show just how important it is that we fight to maintain and grow this sport for enthusiasts and employees across New York and beyond."

The full report of the National Economic Impact Study will be available for purchase on the AHC's website starting on March 1st for $80 plus S/H. Additionally, a smaller booklet entitled "The Power of the Horse," will also be available for purchase on the AHC site for $40 plus S/H. The AHC anticipates the 15 state breakouts to be available by the end of March.

RFD-TV's The American Announces 2018 Exemptions

RFD-TV's The American, Presented by Dish announces former NFL tight-end McKenna Sean aka "Bear" Pascoe and Pro Rodeo Hall of Famers Tee Woolman and Leo Camarillo as this year's exemptions invited to compete among the top athletes from the PRCA, WPRA and PBR, in addition, to those who came through a US Open-style gauntlet of qualifiers, at AT&T Stadium on February 25, 2018.

From Superbowl rings to Rodeo Dreams, former New York Giant "Bear" Pascoe will return to the home The Dallas Cowboys to perform on the dirt instead of the turf. The last time Pascoe visited AT&T Stadium was for Super Bowl XLVI when he and the New York Giants defeated the New England Patriots 21-17. This time, Pascoe will be going head-to-head against the world's top steer wrestlers during the world's richest one-day rodeo. The 6'5, 265-pound Fresno State grad has been deeply rooted in western sports since birth, having grown up on a working cattle ranch in central California where he and his brothers team roped and steer wrestled their days away. Last December Pascoe was invited to compete in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Permit Challenge where he was crowned the steer wrestling champion. He was one of only two men to get both of his steers down.

RFD-TV's Amy Wilson had the opportunity to speak with Pascoe about what it will be like to return to AT&T stadium... "To be going back as an actual cowboy and getting to steer wrestle. It's going to be a really good experience. I have some good memories there from playing football and will hopefully make some good memories steer wrestling there too," said Pascoe.

Three-time world champion Tee Woolman and five-time world champion Leo Camarillo have also been invited to team back up for RFD-TV's The American, presented by DISH.

RFD-TV's Amy Wilson spoke with Woolman and asked if he could have ever imaged that in 2018 he would have the chance to once again rope with Leo and this time with a chance to win a million dollars inside a building like AT&T stadium? "I'm sure we'll figure it out, get us a game plan. When I roped with him before we always had something that we worked on. It's going to be a crash course for sure, so it'll be fun. It'll be fun to see what we come up with."

The ProRodeo Hall of Famers will be stepping back in the lime-light to go head-to-head against some of the best team ropers in the world on February 25 at AT&T Stadium - 38 years after winning a world title together.

Tickets for RFD-TV's The American, presented by Dish are on sale and available here. For more information, visit www.american-rodeo.com.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi & Ima Famous Babe Top Lance Graves International 5YO Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi's Ima Famous Babe ("Katniss") was the fleetest futurity horse at the inaugural Lance Graves International Barrel Racing Championships, held Feb. 13-18 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Okla. Brittany and Katniss topped the $10,000-added 5-Year-Old Futurity with an average that would have topped the $20,000-added BFA 4-Year-Old Futurity as well.

"I knew she was a nice horse and I knew she would probably do well, but I just didn't know how well," said Brittany. "When you go to those futurities, you're still riding colts, so you never know what they're going to do. It's not like I showed up on (her PWBR World Champion) Duke, expecting to win first. You just never know."

Brittany and Katniss won the first round with the fastest futurity time of the event, a 16.590, and followed it up with a 16.760 that placed second in the second round behind Brandon Cullins and RR Mistakelly's carryover time from the BFA Futurity. They pocketed

$6,072 for their victory.

"Everything was just picture perfect on the first run," said Brittany, who is currently residing in Victoria, Texas, during the winter run of rodeos. "On the second run, I went to the horn too soon on the first barrel and was going to hit it. I just picked her up and she moved right away from it and shot away to the second barrel. I was disappointed we had a mistake on our second run, but we still ran a .7. It's nice to be able to make mistakes and still do well."

Katniss was originally pointed toward the 4-year-old futurities last year, but with Brittany's surprise pregnancy with her and husband Garrett's daughter Tinlee, Katniss was held over as a 5-year-old. She started her career at the Texas Extreme and Ultimate futurities in Edna, Texas, and although very green, picked up her first check in the second go of the Isabella Quarter Horses Futurity. The week before the Graves' Futurity, Brittany and Katniss set an arena record at the Dos Gringas Thursday night jackpot at the J.B. Wells Arena in Gonzales, Texas.

Brittany said Katniss runs at the Lazy E were only the mare's eight and ninth competitive runs.

A home bred for the two-time rodeo world champion, Katniss is by the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the blue hen Streakin Six mare Streakin Six Babe.

Brittany said Babe's colts tend to have their sires' styles of running.

THE RUNDOWN w/ Brittany Tonozzi

Ima Famous Babe, Katniss, 15.3 hands, 1,250 lbs.
BIT: Professional's Choice Pozzi long-shanked lifter with a three piece twisted mouthpiece
SADDLE: Pozzi Double J
SADDLE PAD: Professional's Choice
LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice Ventec Elite on all four
FEED: Purina Strategy
HAY: Manzanola alfalfa cubes
SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy-Gen BP Relax and BP Race X, pre-race; Oxy-Gen Mag Max everyday CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: This summer I took her with me to Colorado and rode her some when I was home from rodeos. She's just been one of those naturals and doesn't need much. I've just done a little bit of first barrel work on her, occasionally. Other than that, she just goes on the walker and stays fit. I still exhibition her. She's still green enough that she needs to get in the arena and see the barrels.
SPONSORS: Professional's Choice, Purina, Oxy-Gen, Manzanola Freeds, Double J Saddlery, Tanner Equine, Zerlotti Genetics and Roper Apparel & Footwear

"It's funny; all those horses are out of the same mare and they all have completely different styles," said Brittany. "It's almost like they take the stallion's style. (Katniss) definitely has more of the Dash Ta Fame-style. She has that move on the backside of the barrels. I have a 4-year-old out of that mare (Babe On The Run), who is by Be A Magnolia Runner, and she placed in the 4-year-old average, and her style is identical to Runner's and nothing like Katniss'. There is one thing about them though—they all can run."

Now 21, Babe is a resident glamour girl at Royal Vista Southwest in Purcell, Okla. She has produced Brittany's 2012 Diamonds & Dirt Futurity Champion Ima Super Fly Guy, by Frenchmans Guy, 2015 LG Pro Classic $100,000 winner Babe On The Chase, by Chasin Firewater, and multiple futurity finalist Smoke N The Babes, by Smoke N Sparks.

"We've kind of bred her to everything and she doesn't usually disappoint," she said. "They've all been good horses. Some better than others, but they've all been winners."

Brittany, who also won the Dixie National Rodeo in Jackson, Miss., on Steele Magnolias before the start of Graves' event, is running her 5-year-olds this week at The Patriot. She also has the semifinals at the San Antonio Rodeo on Thursday and Friday.

According to event producers, the pattern at the Lance Graves International Barrel Racing Championships was a full standard set. This means A Cornerstone (owned by Sarah Griffin) and Brandon Cullins time of 16.457 unofficially breaks the North American record on a standard pattern held by Kisskiss Bangbang and Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi of 16.479. It was no doubt an unbelievably fast run winning a tough open by 4 tenths and leaving only 2 other horses in the 1D. For an idea how tough a barrel race it was the other two

Redemption for Moore & CP Dark Moon at San Angelo

By Hope Raley

2x WNFR Qualifier and 2016 WNFR High Money Winner & Reserve Average Champion, Amberleigh Moore, has made 3 trips to the San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo, this being her third year. She and her partner in crime CP Dark Moon 'Paige' have shown several instances of brilliance in the west Texas town, but have never left with a championship. That was, until, this year. Moore and 'Paige' closed a chapter in their book after they were crowned the 2018 San Angelo Barrel Racing Champions.

"I am so grateful and happy that we were fortunate to win the whole rodeo this year," explained Moore. "We have won the second round before and have come back to the short round with a good lead, but a knocked barrel cost us the win."

Moore is very quick to credit 'Paige' for every win, and explains that it is the 9-year-old brown mares love and passion for running barrels that keeps them consistently in the winners circle.

'Paige', who is by Darkelly, and out of SRQH New Highs by On A High is the kind of barrel horse that every barrel racer dreams of. Extremely versatile, she can practically win in every type of set-up, which is incredibly handy when you are trying to make the NFR.

"She truly loves to run barrels, and when we got to San Angelo for our second run, she knew exactly where we were and what we were there for. She about left me in the alley she was so excited to run in that coliseum again."

San Angelo's set up is unique compared to most other rodeos, with the first round held in a different barn than the second and third round.

"The first round at San Angelo is easily comparable to a jackpot, quiet and easy going," said Moore. "After the first round, the atmosphere completely changes and we run our second run in a small coliseum that is very loud and packed with fans. Paige shines in both pens which is why I knew that we could win this rodeo when

After making a smooth run in the first round to finish 5th, Moore advanced to the second round where 'Paige' was more than ready to get her game on. Posting the fastest run of the second round, Moore took top honors with a 14.15, punching her ticket to the short round.

“My goal for the short round was to stay out of Paige’s way and let her do her thing.”

With an almost identical run from their second round run, Moore and ‘Paige’ lit the scoreboard up with a 14.14. With their total on three being 44.15, Moore finally found herself with her San Angelo Championship.

“I am so happy we were able to put three great runs together, and I am very blessed to have Paige as my partner in this crazy game,” Moore commented.

With the winter rodeos in full swing, most road warriors have a little more down time compared to the summer run. Moore keeps ‘Paige’ feeling her best by keeping it simple.

“I never work her on the pattern, and I ride her everyday bare-back. We got out to the field or pasture and work on equitation. She enjoys that and she likes the simple things, which is nice.”

While the season is still young, Moore’s plan is to follow the same path as the previous two years. She knows which rodeos ‘Paige’ likes and she knows which rodeos ‘Paige’ dislikes.

“I know where our goals are and we are already well on our way for this season. I am very thankful and excited for this season!”

With her earnings at San Angelo, TX and Jackson, MS, Amberleigh Moore moved to #1 in the World for 2018.

Silver Charm is also the dam to several big money earners in the barrel pen, including JL Fourtafame, JL Third Times A Charm, and JL Takin On Fame. Reddy is a maternal half brother to JL Tularosa (JL Sirocco x BF Silver Charm), ridden by Danyelle Campbell. Tularosa banked over $15,000 competing in the BFA Juvenile Futurity and Kindercup. Reddy is a nice outcross to DTF and FG mares. His first foal crop came in 2017 and they all have beautiful, sloping shoulders, short, strong backs and float when they move.

JL SHERIFF

Eligibilities: Glacier Chaser Classic and VGBRA

His dam, Solara, is also the dam of JL Sirocco and JL Seraphina. His sire, Judge Cash is recently deceased and his progeny have earned over $1.34 million barrel racing. Sheriff is 15 hands. He is very kind and has been easy to train. His first foals are due this spring. I don't know of many Judge Cash sons standing at stud, so here's an opportunity to try a different cross.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

You sure can't tell by looking outside at the piles of snow, but when you go into the local feed store, the peeping makes you think it's spring! When I get baby chicks I love to take my grandkids up to see them. There is always tons of excited squealing.... until my granddaughter says, "Grandma, STOP it!" I can't help it! I love everything baby!

The point is, sometimes you just can't tell by looking, what's going on on the inside. Let's say you have prayed and asked God to help you. Could be your finances, your health, your marriage. But looking at the outside, you can't tell anything is changing. We need to KNOW 1 John 4:16, God loves us. Keep reading up to 1 John 5:4. It says "whoever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world, our faith." We need to trust God and trust His Word. 1 John 5:14 says, "Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him." Your prayers are producing results. Do not give up and do not quit! Like spring, it's coming!!
