Skylar Eisinger & Utah Vardell Win Derby & High Stakes, Sweep Opens at Texarkana Showdown

By Tanya Randall

Years ago longtime family friend Utah Vardell named a horse after Summer Gay's dad. After Vardell passed away in the late summer of 2018, Gay returned the honor by naming her 2019 Traffic Guy foal, out of Peponita Savannah, by Buckley Peponita, after him.

While Utah—the horse—had proven he could run in tough company, it was in Vardell's hometown and in an arena overseen by a board of directors on which he served for 35 years, that the 6-year-old gelding got the biggest win of his career for owner, rider Skylar Eisinger.

"It was meant to be," said Skylar, a junior marketing major at Oklahoma State University.

Skylar and Utah Vardell's 14.099 topped the Bullseye Bullion Derby for $7,258 and the 4M Equine/Epic Leader High Stakes for $9,696, plus they swept the Circle M Quarter Horses Open on Friday and MVP Open on Saturday for an additional $4,025. Their total haul was $20,979.

"Honestly, my goal for the weekend was 'Don't fall off!' said Skylar, who had been battling the flu. "I had so much cold medicine in me I was just wanting to stay on! I was so congested that when I came out of the arena I had no idea how I did because I couldn't hear anything!"

"It just felt smooth. Apparently that's what works for him, smooth is fast. It honestly didn't feel like he was going that fast! Mom thought it was going to be a slow time because she was wondering when I was actually going to start running him!

With Skylar in Stillwater, Oklahoma, at school, her mother Tanja handles Utah's day-to-day riding and tuning back home in Paul's Valley, Oklahoma.

"She's been having to figure him out as she comes home and runs," Tanja said. Things started to click for the pair when they won the warmup race at the Lonestar Shootout in Hamilton, Texas, in early January. "That race in Hamilton, she was just going to lope him through, just sit there and not push him. After reviewing, Skylar was like, 'I think if I just sit there and let him work, that's the key to him, and that's what happened at Texarkana.'"

Tanja purchased Utah as a 3-year-old after seeing him listed for sale on Facebook because he bucked.

"My mom liked the way he moved so she bought him sight unseen," Skylar said. "The first thing we did was have him x-rayed for kissing spines, because normally when we've had buckers that's what it's been. He has the most perfect spaces that could be in his back. So after that, we just worked with him. Last year during his futurity year, he didn't run that much. He was off almost the entire year."

After winning his very first race in Pawhuska, Oklahoma, over Thanksgiving 2023, things went downhill, Tanja explained.

"It took us forever to figure out what was wrong with him," she said. "He had issues in his neck."

About the time they had Utah's issues taken care of, Skylar was bucked off a horse and had to have surgery. They didn't start back running until the OKC Futurity in December.

"My mom knew if we could ever get him feeling right he was one that could win," said Skylar. "It was just a matter of getting it all together. He's so talented in the way he works. He's by far the most athletic horse that I've ever been on. He just has this presence about him."

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi Dominates Fame Ta Futurity at Texarkana Showdown

By Tanya Randall

Three-time World Champion Barrel Racer Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi guided three futurity horses to $20,387 at the Texarkana Showdown, held January 30-February 1 at the Four State Fairgrounds in Arkansas.

The 18-time NFR qualifier took first and second in the Fame Ta Corona Futurity with her homebreds Rain Bo Dash (RBD) and My Kisses Are Lucky. She also placed sixth on another from her breeding program, Jets Famous Babe, now owned by Busby Quarter Horses.

"I had to redeem myself after I no timed at Fort Worth," laughed the multimillion dollar rider from Lampasas, Texas. Earlier in the week, she ran her multiple futurity champion ChitiChiti BangBang ("Maybelline"), at the pro rodeo in Fort Worth and it was a little much for the now 6-year-old mare that spent the later half of 2024 recovering from a severe respiratory illness. After Maybelline struggled on her first two barrels, Tonozzi opted to pull her up and exit the arena rather than frazzle her more.

"I forgot that I hadn't necessarily ran her inside at a big rodeo," Tonozzi explained. "I was like, 'Ohhh...she's not seeing it as we're headed to the first barrel. What is going on here?'"

The seasoning process, she said, is not always fun. And apparently neither was the training process with her Texarkana Showdown Futurity Champion Rain Bo Dash, a 4-year-old by $35.5 million dollar sire Dash Ta Fame out of her National Finals Rodeo mount Steele Magnolias, by Magnolia Bar Jet.

"He was a team effort for Garrett and I, for sure, at the beginning," she said. "He had Steele's attitude, but I think that's what makes them a winner. It's what makes them tough. Out of all my Running the gelding, however, is “not tough at all,” said Tonozzi. RBD made his competitive debut at the BFA World Championships where he tipped a barrel in the first round but placed in the second of the Juvenile. He put the futurity world on notice at the OKC Futurity, where he won the Slot Race for a cool $80,000 and placed in the Rookie aggregate.

Tonozzi said that the gelding took “a little step back” at the two futurities in Hamilton, Texas, at the first of January, but still added to his earnings at both.

“Those two weekends were me bringing the colts back to earth,” she explained. “I felt like I had to slow down to speed back up. I’m not used to going to BFA and Oklahoma City. That was a lot of runs on them for me.”

Her futurity string was also fresh off a break as Tonozzi flew to Turkey to visit her father, who is taking cancer treatments there.

“I had not even sat on them until the day I ran (in Hamilton),” she said. “They didn’t have exhibitions or anything, so I used those runs to say, ‘Hey, we’re going to come back to Earth, here.’”

Tough As Steele

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi’s recent homebred champion Rain Bo Dash goes back to the very beginning of her breeding program.

After making it to the NFR on former PRCA Heel Horse of the Year Marvins Wonder (“Potato Chip”) early in her professional career, Tonozzi went looking for more horses by his sire Magnolia Bar Jet, a double-bred son of Magnolia Rocket.

A multiple stakes winner on the track, Magnolia Rocket was by Magnolia Bar, one of the earliest leading sires of barrel horses including Lynn McKenzie’s World Champion and turn-style trend-setter Magnolia Missile, and out of a daughter of Rocket Bar.

Tonozzi first purchased JJ Bar Jet, out of Kings Frosted Lady, by Roan Bar Eighty, who became her first ever futurity horse. She went back and bought his dam in foal again to Magnolia Bar Jet. “Steele was actually the first horse that I ever foaled out,” Tonozzi said. “She was my first ever breeding project.

She was a really good futurity horse,” said Tonozzi. She chuckled recalling how the mare had rubbed out her mane, so she roached it leaving her looking like a ‘Trojan horse’ for much of her futurity career. “When I knew she was going to be really nice is when I won the second round of Kinder on her and maybe placed second in the average. I thought, ‘Wow, maybe I have something here.’”

Rain Bo Dash inherited his toughness and honesty through his dam.

“She was tough herself,” Tonozzi recalled. She won a lot of Steele but eventually decided to turn the mare out and let her have babies for a spell while she matured. She returned to the arena after foaling and ran at the NFR with Jana Bean before taking Tonozzi to Vegas the following year.

“She’s always been that one that could you pull of the pasture and count on,” Tonozzi said.

Steele is currently expecting a foal by Tonozzi’s stallion Blazzin The Way this spring.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “I just ride him. Everything goes on the walker everyday before I ride. I’ve just been riding him and doing a little slow work. I always go around a barrel, whether it’s slow work, keep them moving, keep them off my hands, off my leg. I may trot them through the pattern. I may trot, lope or lope three times. It just depends on what they need day to day. He’ll get really stiff on me to the right, so I’ll put draw reins on him if I start feeling that.

SPONSORS: Teton Ridge, Conquer Equine, Professional’s Choice, Purina, Oxy-Gen, Top Of The Rockies Alfalfa Cubes, Double J Saddlery, Tanner Equine, Roper Apparel & Footwear, RenoVo, ArthramidVet, The Horse Education Company, Schwalbe Trucks, GeneTech Animal Reproduction.

In Texarkana, she took a conservative approach to the first barrel with RBD, so conservative that her fellow competitor Blaise Bercegeay joked that she figured Tonozzi wouldn’t win anything after “trotting” to the first barrel.

“That horse, all of Steele’s babies and Steele herself—smooth is fast on them,” Tonozzi said. “They’ve got enough speed that you don’t have to ask them for their life. He’s just so quick.”

RBD’s winning 14.406 was worth $10,883—$7,983 in the Futurity and an additional $2,900 from carryovers to the CM Quarter Horses 4D Friday, 4M Equine/Epic Leader High Stakes and MVP Open 4D on Saturday.

Tonozzi also picked up $6,843 for the reserve spot on Lucky, a 4-year-old daughter of up-and-coming sire Lucky Wonder Horse, out of her multiple aged event champion and NFR qualifier KissKiss BangBang, by Dash Ta Fame.

“She’s just super consistent,” said Tonozzi. “I haven’t found the exact headgear I like on her. On Tuesday, I picked up a Kerry Kelley Ticket with a Billy Allen mouthpiece and I rode it on her the next day. I was like, ‘Man, I think I’m really going to like this on her.’ She just seemed to really like it.”

Rounding out Tonozzi’s money-winning trio was Jets Famous Babe, who won $2,661. The product of a double embryo flush, the 4-year-old mare is by 10.7 million dollar sire Blazin Jetolena, out of Tonozzi’s homebred aged event champion and NFR qualifier Ima Famous Babe, by Dash Ta Fame out of Streakin Six Babe, one of the industry’s all-time leading producers by Streakin Six. She is a full sister to Tonozzi’s young stallion Blazzin The Way.

Tonozzi said the mare is coming together despite having less training time than her other two futurity horses.

“I got her at the end of 2023 after I got home from the NFR,” she explained. “I trained her up until we left for the summer. I sent her back to the Busby’s and I didn’t get her back until after Pink Buckle (in October). She went to about three places to exhibition in total. She definitely hadn’t been to as many places as the others.”

Tonozzi is headed to Tunica, Mississippi, for the Kinder Cup Futurity and will also make a run at the Dixie National pro rodeo in Jackson, Mississippi, before returning home to celebrate her 41st birthday on Sunday.

The Goodbye Lane is Top Sire of 2024

By Julie Mankin

With his offspring earning an unofficial $4.6 million last year according to QData, The Goodbye Lane was 2024's leading sire. Tres Seis, which had progeny tallying an unofficial $2.8 million, ranked second. QData's 2024 numbers won't be final until March 1.

"It's crazy," said The Goodbye Lane's owner, Mark Jarvis, of Spanish Fork, Utah. "Every year it just gets better and better and better. He's just starting to hit his full stride now."

The Goodbye Lane, a former racehorse that clocked a speed index of 101, now has progeny (all-time) that average $43,183 per money-earning baby. By the half-Thoroughbred Lanes Leinster and out of the Dash Ta Fame/Pie In The Sky/Tiny Watch mare Swift Goodbye, he stands at the Jarvis Farm in Utah.

"We knew he could be good, but didn't dream it was going to be what it is," said Jarvis, who purchased the stallion when he was already 12 years old.

In the unofficial rankings, rounding out third was Slick By Design with progeny earning $2.3 million-plus in 2024. Fourth and fifth places were neck-and-neck between Blazin Jetolena ($2,202,588) and Dash Ta Fame ($2,202,582).

The most 4-year-old performers in 2024 were sired by Epic Leader, whose 51 youngsters earned $484,886 total, unofficially. That's compared to The Goodbye Lane's 4-year-old babies, 44 of which earned a chart-topping $1.2 million-plus, and Tres Seis taking honors with just 23 colts aged 4 that earned a little over $1 million total.

The Goodbye Lane's highest earner in 2024 with $1,249,225 was Grant and Rayel Little's MJ Segers Fast Lane, on whom Brandon Cullins won The American's $1 million bonus last spring. But even without that bonus, the 7-year-old mare would rank second of the sire's top 2024 earners and third all-time. She had a full sister in Slingshot Lane that won both the 2022 and '24 NHSFRs under Jarvis' granddaughter.

Their dam was SKS Running Faucet, by the Merridoc son Diamond Faucet out of a Moon Deck granddaughter.

"We had a Lanes Leinster son out of that mare that was really a good one, so I wanted to breed her back to a son of Lanes Leinster," recalled Mark. "In fact, I was just after a breeding to The Goodbye Lane, and in the process, we ended up buying him."

His second-highest earner last year, of course, was 6-year-old Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis"), on whom Kassie Mowry raced to her first gold buckle at the 2024 NFR and earned $693,059 on the year. Mowry also had the third-highest 2024 The Goodbye Lane earner in her big grey futurity mare Goodbye Sophie that banked $392,626 as a 4-year-old. Another top performer was Jordynn Knight's 9-year-old gelding Heza Swift Spyder that raked in $197,377 at jackpots.

Then there was 4-year-old SGL Rico with a big hit at the Royal Crown to earn $181,776 on the year for Anita Ellis, and 4-year-old Good Things Comin that raked in $143,625 at '24 futurities for Cullins, plus 5-year-old Hanks N The Fastlane, who earned $143,144 last year under Sarah Rose Waguespack.

Also, how could we not mention Hello Stella? Sharin Hall's home-raised 7-year-old mare raked in another $127,197 last year (plus she has Hall ranked sixth in the current WPR world standings). All totaled, three young The Goodbye Lane babies have already earned over a million in lifetime earnings – Seger ($1,537,377), Jarvis ($1,492,112) and Stella ($1,014,239).

While Dash Ta Fame will possibly forever be the industry's leading stallion, all-time, The Goodbye Lane is fast encroaching on runner-up Frenchman's Guy, with progeny having now earned more than $12.2 million.

Last year's No. 2 sire is Blessed River Limited's Tres Seis, by the Streakin Six/Chicks Deck stallion Sixarun out of the Rebs Policy daughter Our Third Delight. His racehorse babies have earned over $30 million, including AQHA Racing's all-time leading money earner. He was moved in 2021 from the Lazy E Ranch to stand at Zerlotti Genetics in Texas.

By far, Tres Seis' biggest winner last year on the cloverleaf pattern was Adios Pantalones, the 4-year-old palomino that Tricia Aldridge rode to $489,734 including a $50,000-plus payday at the Royal Crown. The yellow stallion eclipsed Hello Stella to become the winningest barrel-futurity horse of all time. Also, Jolene Montgomery earned $266,811 last season on the 4-year-old grey mare MCM Tres A Legacy. Two of Tres Seis' other six-figure standouts were Kelly Bowser's 5-year-old Quarento Tres and Jordynn Knight's 5-year-old Runnin Ron.

HighPoint Performance Horses' younger Slick By Design ranks No. 3 and also stands in Texas. He's by Designer Red and out of the Mito Paint/Three Ohs/Pass Em Up mare Dreams Of Blue. "Slick" himself running and winning at 4 NFRs (clocking a 13.4 in the Thomas and Mack Center), and earned derby and AQHA championships alongside his rodeo career while becoming the All Time Leading Earning Stallion with $621k.

Slick's biggest winner last year was Ashley Schafer's 5-year-old Fiesta By Design, out of the Dash Ta Fame/Firewater Fiesta daughter HP Fiesta Fame. Thanks in part to whopping paydays at the Pink Buckle and Oklahoma City futurities, he banked $311,671. Then there was Bailey Snow's 5-year-old Eysa Slick Eddie that earned $146,713 and Kylie Weast's 4-year-old Goldie's Last Design that earned $140,375.

Rounding out fourth was Busby Quarter Horses' late stallion Blazin Jetolena, by the Doc Olena/Sugar Bars stud Lena's Sugar Daddy and out of the Jet Of Honor daughter Blazin Jennie Jet. He was the nation's top futurity horse, himself, back in 2003 and also qualified Melanie Southard for the NFR. He stands at Valley Equine in Stephenville.

Blazin Jetolena, of course, sired a couple of 2024 NFR barrel horses, both out of Dash Ta fame daughters. One was 6-year-old Blingolena that earned $373,013 for Carlee Otero. The other was 9-year-old Jets Top Gun, aka Benny, that earned $288,156 last season for Andrea Busby. The latter also won the '24 NFR average title aboard Benny after he had carried Tonozzi to the gold buckle the year prior. Benny, for the record, has become Blazin Jetolena's all-time top performer, surpassing $1 million in lifetime earnings.

Also in 2024, 5-year-old Blazin Sugar Daddy earned $198,132 for Taylor Cherry and 5-year-old Awesome Arlo won $158,475 for Jordan Briggs. "Jet" has sired at least five NFR qualifiers and counting, and is the fifth all-time leading sire of barrel horses.

Just for the record, Bob Burt's late Dash Ta Fame is still the all-time barrel-sire king. He has over 700 more performing offspring than any other barrel stallion, with all-time progeny earnings topping $35 million. The legendary chestnut by First Down Dash out of the Tiny's Gay daughter Sudden Fame (a great-granddaughter of War Admiral) set speed records on the track himself, then began breeding babies that, as Burt once said, "almost break in half to go around a barrel."

Dash Ta Fame hit fifth place in 2024 thanks to gold-buckle jockeys like Sherry Cervi, Briggs and Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi. Cervi quietly racked up $221,062 at futurities on her 5-year-old mare MP Meter My Fame out of her world-champ Stingray, and Tonozzi's 3-year-old Rain Bo Dash earned $96,986 with that huge check at the BBR's Oklahoma City slot race. Last but not least, the stallion was elevated thanks to the heroic feats of Briggs' "Rollo." Famous Lil Jet, 10 last year, earned a whopping $153,928 despite being out of commission half the season. His LTE stands at $1.36 million now. The legendary Dash Ta Fame, of course, also sired VQ Im Buzzed, a horse that helped Abby Phillips make the 2024 NFR, as well as Famous Ladies Man that did the same for Mowry and Blazin Ta Betty that did the same for Lisa Lockhart.

2017 Buckskin Mare, 14.2 hands

SIRE: A SMOOTH GUY, PE: $4 MILLION

DAM: By Bys Meter Maid (Dr Meter Reader SI 91)

Stakes Winning Race Family!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

We didn't plan on selling this mare, she is one of our favorites. Peanut is very broke, and easy to use.

Shes very quick and a catty. She's been breakaway roped on, our daughter hauled her as a 4 year old in the goat tying but she has injury that kept her from a performance career.

She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture. She has a big smooth trot that really covers country!

She's a typical Smooth Guy, very gentle, very sweet but still has some punch! We've raised one A Streak Of Fling filly out of her, she bred easy, foaled easy and is an easy keeper. Her filly is just like her, easy to handle and gentle.

Certified Agriculture Group Announces Partnerships with Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association

The Certified Agriculture Group (TCAG) is proud to announce a new partnership with the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA), the largest rodeo organization in the world and the recognized leader in PRORODEO. The partnership includes:

TCAG's AgTruckTrader[®].com brand has been named the Official Agricultural Licensed Truck Partner of PRCA/PRORODEO making the partnership OEM-neutral. For the first time in PRCA's history, this partner will now represent dealers of all major pickup truck manufacturers.

TCAG's AGwagon™, designed by 14 farmers and ranchers and built in partnership with Fox Factory Vehicles, has been named the Official Licensed Agricultural Truck of PRCA/PRORODEO.

AGwagon PRORODEO Special Edition:

The world's first purpose-built agriculture pickup truck was unveiled last fall. That base AGwagon makes 28 different modifications to original equipment that toughen up those trucks so they're ready for the rigors of American farms and ranches.

PRCA executives, along with several world class rodeo athletes, collaborated with Fox Factory engineers to add 10 additional modifications, making the PRORODEO Special Edition uniquely suited to exceed the needs of those who live the Western lifestyle. PRORODEO Special Edition modifications include hat racks in the cab, ultra-HD leather interior with embroidered PRCA logos in the headrests and PRORODEO branded into the console leather, trailer functionality tools including remote interior trailer cameras, back seat pet protection, and a truly stand-out PRORODEO graphics package on the exterior.

"This special edition was designed by the rodeo athletes who are putting thousands of miles on their trucks and essentially living out of them during the rodeo season," said Pat Driscoll, CEO of TCAG. "We're proud of the association we're building with PRCA, and believe this truck shows we're committed to delivering meaningful solutions for the sports athletes and fans."

"We are thrilled to officially announce our long-anticipated partnership with AGwagon and AgTruckTrader.com, a collaboration that is the result of hard work and passion for our lifestyle," PRCA Chief Marketing Officer Paul Woody said. HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I heard a statement by a wellknown horse trainer. They said letting a horse lead you is "unrequested forward motion". A welltrained horse will not try to lead you. I wondered if they had been watching the security camera's at my house. I let my horses lead me. It's wrong I know. But. I multitask.

My hands are full of a lot of other stuff besides lead ropes. And I'm in a hurry ALWAYS. That rubs off on my horses and THEY are in a hurry. Not a good habit.

That can translate into our relationship with God. Do we ask God to join us on OUR life journey, to follow US? We do. It's a horrible habit.

Jesus did not die in order to follow US. He came to be our LORD and savior. Lord means boss. The statement, "You're not the boss of me", does not include Jesus.

Jesus is boss. And when we follow Him, we experience the fullness of life. Everything is in order, we are blessed and we won't get stepped on or drug off!
