Mill Iron Livestock's Wolverrine Wins March In Spring Fling Futurity with Kit Johnson

By Tanya Randall

Mill Iron Livestock's Wolverrine may have had a delayed start to his futurity career, but the stunning stallion is making up for lost time.

Wolverrine topped the 62-entry, $10,000-added Futurity at the March Into Spring Fling, held March 6-9 in Shawnee, Oklahoma. His nearly 3/10th aggregate victory was worth $7,362.

"It was a fun weekend for sure," said Johnson, a native of North Dakota who just moved to Purcell, Oklahoma, with her cowhorse trainer husband Isaac.

"This was our first futurity," said Johnson. "We've been to some open races that have had futurity sidepots that he's done really well at."

The worthy delay was due to the arrival of Johnson's 4-month-old son, Axel.

"Luckily I was able to start back riding right after I had my baby, but it's really been just the last two months of going and entering," she explained. "I was pregnant all last summer, so I wasn't going Wolverrine, 15.1-.2 h, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Smooth O-ring snaffle

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: 3S Custom

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice cheetah print

SHOEING: Plain steel on front, barefoot behind; shod by Isaac Johnson

FEED: Woody's Performance Textured

HAY: Grass, alfalfa mix in a Hay Chix net for 24/7 feeding

SUPPLEMENTS: Full Bucket Probiotic Pellets and Medical Muscle

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Chiropractic care, Back On Track. "He likes anything where he's getting attention. I think his favorite is long pasture rides where he can get out and see things and just feel like a horse."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I like to do a lot of trotting and loping circles. He's so smart he doesn't need a lot of time on the pattern. Now that I'm running him, he'll get a break to make sure his muscles recover well. When I get him back up, it's a lot of conditioning. I think having healthy lungs helps with overall health. I'm not big on drills."

SPONSORS: Hay Chix, Full Bucket, Medora Boots & Western Wear

THANK YOU: Tyson and Del Bieleny of Mill Iron Livestock. "They trusted me with their awesome stallion. They had patience with me when we found out I was having a baby. They could have pulled him and put him with somebody else, but they trusted to keep him with us. They're the most amazing people I've ever ridden for. They're the dream people you want to ride for." She also wanted to give a shout out to her husband Isaac. "He's my No. 1 fan. He's my coach. He's at every race that he possibly can be. He's there in the practice pen. We're always bouncing ideas off of each other. During the later stages of my pregnancy, Isaac took him over. I learned so much from him and understood more about Wolverrine afterward. He's probably the key piece to why we had a successful weekend."

much. I mostly rode at home."

She said the win in spite of the curve balls her pregnancy threw at the stallion's career is "a testament" to his ability.

"He probably didn't have as much exposure with going and exhibiting and things like that," she said. "So for this being our first futurity to enter and to come out on top is a total testament to how intelligent and capable this horse is."

Bred by leading breeder Alan Woodbury, Wolverrine is by 12.7 million dollar sire The Goodbye Lane out of multiple NFR qualifier and champion producer Rosas Cantina CC, by Corona Cartel. Wolverrine was started under saddle at Shayne and Tressie Smith's Draggin S Horses before going to Lynn Kohr for his initial barrel training. Johnson has had him in her barn since November 2023. Johnson said that Wolverrine has been getting stronger and more confident with each run.

"He came into this weekend thinking he knew exactly what he was going to do," she said. "I had to trust that. Being a stallion, there's kind of that balance between letting their ego shine but also staying balanced and listening to you. I was really proud of him. He can leave those barrels so straight and so hard, and he can run so fast. I think that's what sets him up to clock."

"I even think there was some room for improvement with him being a young horse and not having very many runs. I'm so happy with how he clocked and his confidence in himself. He thought he was a pretty cool dude."

Wolverrine will have a short break before the Barrel Bash Select Stallion Stakes Futurity at the end of the month in Chickasha, Oklahoma. April will be even busier with the Ruby Buckle.

"I want to be wise on entering him," she said. "I know I have an awesome horse. I know he's strong and loves his job. I want to keep him that way."

Although there has been a lot of interest in the stallion, especially after this win, Wolverrine's books are closed for the 2025 season. "We're excited that people are excited about him," said Johnson.

"We've had several people asking about him, but this year he's going to focus more on barrel racing than breeding. There are a lot of futurities during breeding season, and we're going to make it easy for him to know exactly what his job is."

Bailey Alvarez Pockets $11,156 at Dixie Classic

By Tanya Randall

Bailey Alvarez and her homebred trio took home $11,156—not including incentive money—from the 34th Annual Dixie Classic and Konra Minniear Memorial, held March 5-9 in Hurricane, Utah.

The licensed social worker and mother of two young children topped the 93-entry, $12,000-added Double B Trailer Sales Futurity aboard JFive Heres YourSign (“Queso”) and took reserve in the 107-entry, $5,000-added Saddlebook Derby with Bellas Epic Booker (“Booker”).

Queso collected $7,166, while Booker won $3,922. Their half-brother JFive Stone N Vegas also picked up a little check.

All three geldings are out of the race-winning Brookstone Bay mare Brookabella.

“My sister high school rodeoed on her,” said Alvarez, who was a member of Texas Tech’s 2012 NIRA Championship team. “I think we got her when she was five or six. She got hurt, so she became our baby maker. She’s been making awesome babies, and they’re all proving themselves. We’re pretty excited about her.”

Queso, 4, is by $4.8 million dollar sire Aint Seen Nothin Yet. Booker, 7, is by $5.2 million dollar sire Epic Leader. Stone is by $4.3 million dollar sire French StreakToVegas. While Alvarez notes that Bella’s been bred to some outstanding stallions, she sees a lot of similarities between the geldings and their dam.

“We’ve bred her to some awesome stallions, and we’re grateful for the opportunity to breed to them, but we put a lot in the mare too and her natural ability,” said Alvarez. “Like Booker and Queso, she was really fluid and smooth in her turns. She has a really good mind, and these seem to have really good minds. Of course, they will get antsy at times, but they all go in the arena really well. They’re pretty level headed and I feel like that comes from her.”

She credits her mother Joni Robertson, who is listed as co-breeder, as being the mastermind behind the stallion choices. The “JFive” in the horses’ names is a nod to Joni and her five daughters.

Queso was the standout in Hurricane after he threw down in the first round with a 14.780 that placed in the 1D Open as well.

“I felt that he had something special in him,” said Alvarez, who won the BFA Juvenile Amateur Reserve Championship on the gelding in his competitive debut last November. “He’ll show it every now and then in the practice pen. It didn’t feel as fast as he clocked. My mom was like, ‘It sure didn’t look that fast!’ He was just smooth and fluid and naturally correct. I think he just stayed so smooth in his turns, it was like one motion, and he never really changed speeds. He’s pretty fun to ride. He’s so smooth.”

Queso was trained by Cody Hyde, who also trained her Derby Reserve Champion.

“We’ve enjoyed having Cody work with those (horses), and he’s helped me with them as I brought them along competing,” Alvarez said.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “We live out in the country, so when the weather’s permitting and the snows melting, like it’s getting to now, I like to go ride him out in the fields. I think it’s good for their minds. We do a few barrel drills a few times a week. In the winter, I’ll haul to an indoor arena and keep them legged up as much as I can.”

THANK YOU: “I have to thank my husband. He’s always encouraging me to go ride and compete, and he holds down the fort while I’m gone. He and my mom believe in me more than anyone. I couldn’t do it to the extent I am without them.” She also wanted to thank her mom for creating generational talent with her breeding program as well as her farrier and Cody Hyde. “Without them it’s hard to make it all come together.”

Homecoming Heroics for Fallon Taylor & FuryTyme at Arcadia Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

2014 WPRA World Champion Fallon Taylor, Collinsville, Texas, made a triumphant return to her old stomping grounds with a $4,710 victory at the $12,500-added 97th Annual Arcadia All-Florida Championship Rodeo, held March 6-9.

"I love the Florida rodeos," said Taylor, who moved to North Texas to pursue her barrel racing career as a child. "I was born in Tampa and went to Saint John Greek Orthodox Day School. All of these rodeos just mean so much."

Taylor ran at Arcadia and Lake City, Florida, but missed out on the pro rodeo at Okeechobee due to her draw at Rodeo Houston.

While the winter building rodeos were a challenge for her young mare FuryTyme ("Puma"), Taylor was tickled to have the 6-year-old mare back in the win column.

"I've taken her from San Antone where no one can get around the barrels to Houston where no one can turn and every run in between," said Taylor. "I'm really happy to have her be so resilient and be able to bounce back. She's really starting to think. She's starting to catalog these things so quickly. It's just a blessing to ride such a phenomenal mare."

Taylor purchased Puma in the fall of her futurity season from trainer Tricia Aldridge two years ago. Aldridge had bought the Furyofthewind mare, out of Three Tymes A Lady, by Tres Seis, from her breeder Amy Schimke.

"She's so stinking nice," she said. "She always wants to do the right thing. She's just having a hard time guessing what the right thing is right now.

Between Houston and San Antonio, she's not quite sure what that is."

While Puma excelled at the outdoor rodeos last summer, the pressure cooker of the winter building rodeos has been a new experience.

"Going into these different rodeo, my goal is to make sure my horse leaves intact," said Taylor. "That she's still got her brain. She's enjoying running barrels. I'm just not throwing her back in the fire, back in the fire. I want to make sure I have a horse when it comes to July."

Taylor called this stage of Puma's career the "messy middle."

"It's where your brain tells you to go home, this is really expensive, this isn't right, maybe I should back off a little bit," she explained. "We're making out the other side and Arcadia was our sign."

They got the win by almost 2/10ths at the richest one-run rodeo over the weekend and bumped her to 16th in the WPRA World Standings with $17,355.

"It makes all the difference in the world," she said of winning

THE RUNDOWN w/ Fallon Taylor

FuryTyme ("Puma") 15.3 h, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Schoneberg 3.5" Peter with a nylon/mule tape curb

SADDLE: Tacktical

SADDLE PAD: Tacktical

LEG GEAR: Tacktical

SHOEING: Steel on all four

FEED: Pure alfalfa pellets with no other binders or ingredients for supplements

HAY: Alfalfa with additional varieties (Timothy, Coastal) as needed

SUPPLEMENTS: Ground flax, 100X products Joint Flex, Gut X and Regen-X

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Acuscope therapy from Candice Williamson at Elite Equine Therapy; Tricia Aldridge's salt water spa; BodyFlo vibration therapy plate made by her father Sheldon Taylor, laser therapy and infrared blankets.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "What I learned last year with her, is getting on her with split reins and never getting out of walk. Just walking around on a loose rein. At home between rodeos, you want to do drills and barrel racer stuff, but I had to learn she doesn't need that. This mare is trained. It's a pressure and release thing with her because she's such a sensitive soul. She just wants to please, so getting on and letting her walk around with the pressure off is such a huge deal."

SPONSORS: 100X Equine, Ranch Fuel, Tacktical, Ranch Dress'n, Saddle Sack, Alumi Tech Trailers

nearly five grand on one run. "It's like, 'We're OK. We're not chasing a Leprechaun! We're actually chasing a thing we can grasp!'"

While she would love to stay for the Ocala pro rodeo, she's off on the coastal bend run of Montgomery, Alabama, and Mercedes, Texas. She'll wrap up the winter rodeos with Austin and San Angelo before the California Spring Run.

"I love those rodeos," she said. "Even when I wasn't rodeoing hard, we'd go out there for those rodeos. It's a lot of fun."

Taylor's return to rodeo is driven by her desire to share the experience with her family, husband Alex McCray and their toddler Brand.

"It's like seeing a really great movie and bringing everyone with you to see this really great movie," she said. "Trying to keep the emotional ups and downs of competition out of it, so everyone still has fun. There's no crying in baseball! We just have to go to the next theme park!"

Why use a nebulizer on your equine athlete?

Easier Breathing = Better Performance!

Respiratory issues are common in horses including allergies, asthma, COPD and EIPD (bleeders). An equine nebulizer quickly and effectively distributes medication exactly where it needs to go in the respiratory system. Equi-Resp Elite system is scientifically proven to reach the lungs and the Equi-Mist is perfect for upper airways.

ELITE EQUINE NEBULIZER SYSTEM

The Gold Standard in Equine Nebulization!

Our proven, powerful unit specifically designed for deep issues such as bleeder, asthma, heaves and serious allergies. Perfect for longer treatments.

EQUI-MIST COMPLETE

Easy to Use, Portable, Convenient and No Cords!

The easiest battery-operated system on the market. Silent and charges anywhere your cell phone charges. Use the MIST for light allergies and maintenance. Convenient to use at events.

ALL-IN-ONE SYSTEM

Everything You Need!

The best of both worlds! The Elite for deep issues and longer treatments is ideal to keep at the barn. Take our Equi-Mist with you on the road to give a treatment anywhere without the need for electricity.

DAM: Splashy N Sassy (Dox Bueno Dinero)
Dam of 1D barrel horse, tie down money winner, youth rodeo money winners in goat tying, tie down, poles & barrels!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

This mare has been one of our favorites, she's been hauled a little in barrels and won over $3,000 in the tiedown but has an injury that keeps her from a performance career.

Sweetums is a big pretty mare, and she's as solid as they come. She's very broke, very gentle. We've used her to halter break & round pen colts, our 16 year old son has won money in the tie down on her. She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture.

Muttin Smoother

**PRICE REDUCED!

2017 Buckskin Mare, 14.2 hands

Daughter of
A SMOOTH GUY
BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE
FOR SALE

SIRE: A SMOOTH GUY, $4 MILLION SIRE

DAM: By Bys Meter Maid (Dr Meter Reader SI 91)

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

We didn't plan on selling this mare, she is one of our favorites. Peanut is very broke, and easy to use.

Shes very quick and a catty. She's been breakaway roped on, our daughter hauled her as a 4 year old in the goat tying but she has injury that kept her from a performance career.

She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture. She has a big smooth trot that really covers country!

She's a typical Smooth Guy, very gentle, very sweet but still has some punch! We've raised one A Streak Of Fling filly out of her, she bred easy, foaled easy and is an easy keeper. Her filly is just like her, easy to handle and gentle.

*Peanut is an easy breeder & easy keeper!
She's super friendly & will meet you in the pasture*

Senior World Championships Join Forces with the World Barrel Horse Federation to hold the Panamerican World Championships

The “Triple Crown Senior world championship” America’s premiere senior barrel racing league. It’s a joint collaboration of legendary American barrel racing visionaries Martha Josey of Marshall, Texas, Renea Boling of Checotah, Oklahoma and Lance Graves of Hartshorne, Oklahoma. For the first time, the “TCSWC” is excited to report joining forces with the International World Barrel Horse Federation, the international governing body for the worldwide barrel racing community based in Brazil, for the 2025 Panamerican International Barrel Racing world championships to be held April 4-7, 2025 in Las Lajas de Coronado, Panama!

Each year the World barrel horse association, with leaders from affiliate countries, come together in unity to promote and support the worldwide barrel racing community by inviting two champions from each individual country to compete in the Panamerican International World Cup. The ultimate goal is for the WBHA to be included in the Olympics as an exciting addition to the equine competitions!

Currently, the Panamerican International World Cup IS the barrel racing community’s answer to the OLYMPICS with only the best and brightest competitors from membership countries receiving invitations to attend.

An exciting and challenging aspect of the World Cup is that NO CONTESTANT is allowed to ride their own horse or even a horse that they have EVER ridden or even seen before! Barrel racing horses are provided by that years hosting country and the horses are numbered and drawn lottery style. There are three competition go rounds and each round the contestant must change horses! This format challenges each barrel racers reactive horsemanship as the warm up time is limited to 3 minutes per horse and rider team before competition commences!

The “Triple Crown Sr World Championships” has been invited to send their top 2 champions from the 2024 TCSWC season that ended on October 20, 2024. The Triple Crown SWC barrel races are structured similarly to the legendary thoroughbred triple crown horse races. The opening leg of the TCSWC races is the “LG Masters” as part of the LG International Championship barrel race held in McAlester, Oklahoma. The second leg is the “Josey Gold Cup” championship held at the iconic Josey Ranch in Marshall, Texas and the grand finale is the “Seniors Only” World Championships held in Hutchinson, Kansas! While each individual race crowns a champion, TCSWC points are awarded to each go round and finals of each event for a total of nine (9) races. Points are totaled from all 9 races with the ultimate goal of being named the high point Triple Crown Sr World Champion. What makes the challenge unique is that these 9 runs are scattered across 3 states, Oklahoma, Texas and Kansas one in a large indoor arena, one in a medium sized outdoor arena and the last one in a very small indoor arena. This requires an extremely talented and versatile equine athlete to excel under these conditions much like the challenges presented for the Thoroughbred racing triple crown!

Our 2024 world champions are Lance Graves riding his 5 year old derby standout “Caught Matt’s King” a red roan daughter of “Got Caught Speeding (Dash Ta Fame)” owned by American Rock Star Vince Neil the lead vocalist of Motley Crue.

Our 2024 TCSWC Reserve World champion is Sheila Ellis of Carthage, Missouri on her incredible second career racehorse “Ivory By Choice” a AAA son of Ivory James raised and raced by The Diamond R Ranch and Brenda Reiswig.

“We are proud and excited to send Lance and Sheila to Panama to represent BOTH the TCSWC and the USA. American barrel racing culture is truly the most unique and inclusive professional equine sporting event our nation has to offer! Encompassing all ages, sizes, genders and nationalities. Our Triple Crown Senior world champions remind not only Americans but the entire barrel racing world community, that barrel racing is for EVERYONE at all ages and some world champions even begin at 50!” Martha Josey, legendary world champion barrel racer.

Good luck to Lance Graves, Sheila Ellis and TEAM USA at the 2025 Panamerican International World Cup April 3-7, Las Lajas de Coronado, Panama.

Mowry, Marty Yates to Be Honored at Utah’s Governor State of Sports Banquet As Utah’s Pioneer Week Top Hands For 2024

Rodeo athletes Kassie Mowry and Marty Yates will be officially recognized as Utah’s Pioneer Week Top Hands on April 4, 2025 during the annual Governor State of Sport Banquet at the Delta Center in Salt Lake City. Each will be awarded $15,000 at this event.

Every July the State of Utah celebrates Pioneer Week the third week of July with the culmination of the celebration being July 24, marking the day when Brigham Young and a determined company of Mormon pioneers realized their dreams upon entering the Great Salt Valley. Rodeo has long played a part during this celebration with the Utah Days of ‘47 Rodeo, the Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo and the Ogden Pioneer Days all being contested during this time.

In 2023, these three PRCA rodeos joined together to offer nearly $2 million in payouts— all happening within a 5-day span and within a 100-miles of each other. In addition to these record payouts during Pioneer Week in Utah, there was an additional bonus of $15,000 for the top earning female and male athlete each across these three rodeos.

This program continued in 2024 with barrel racer Kassie Mowry leading the way on the female side winning an astonishing $37,172 at the three Utah rodeos during that week and Marty Yates was the top male performing athlete with $29,786.

Mowry collected more at these three rodeos within 100-miles of each other than fellow barrel racer Halyn Lide did over the weeklong Cowboy Christmas from July 1-8. Lide finished that week with $32,550. Mowry won the Utah Days of ‘47 Rodeo and the Ogden Pioneer Days, while finishing seventh at the Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo. She went on to finish the year as the 2024 WPRA World Champion Barrel Racer and credits her success during Pioneer Week as playing a key role in that endeavor.

Yates won the tie-down roping in Ogden, was co-champion in Spanish Fork and finished seventh in Salt Lake City. Yates competed at his 10th Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in December and finished the year ranked 10th in the world.

“Utah has always supported the Western lifestyle that harkens back to the pioneer heritage and history,” stated Tommy Joe Lucia, Executive Director of Utah Days of ‘47 Rodeo. “We are honored to continue to keep this front and center in today’s society in collaboration with our fellow Pioneer Week rodeos. To be able to recognize these rodeo athletes alongside Olympic and professional athletes is a true honor.”

Winning the inaugural bonus was WPRA Barrel Racer Jordon Briggs, who won the silver medal at the Utah Days of ‘47 Rodeo and placed third at the other two rodeos, and PRCA Team Ropers Tyler Wade and Wesley Thorp, who won Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo and Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo in 2023.

Created in 2012, the Governor’s State of Sport Awards celebrates Utah’s sports industry and honors excellence in high school, collegiate, adaptive, professional, Olympic and Paralympic sports. The Utah Sports Commission is the proud host of the Governor’s State of Sport Awards which has honored Utah’s finest athletes, teams, coaches, events, and numerous Utah sports icons.

Utah is known as the State of Sport — and for good reason! Through the years of appreciation for adventure, Utah has carved out a distinct reputation as the premier sport destination for Olympic, professional, amateur and action sporting events. By leveraging their world-class venues and awe-inspiring backdrops, Utah also has an established reputation as a top international sports destination. In July of 2024, they were officially awarded the 2034 Olympic Winter Games marking the second time Salt Lake City has been chosen to welcome the world for the Olympic Games.

WCRA DY Expands Opportunities for Youth at THSRA State Finals

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance Division Youth (WCRA DY) is bringing a new opportunity to the Texas High School Rodeo Association (THSRA) State Finals with the Top Hand Bonus, rewarding top athletes with cash prizes and VRQ (Virtual Rodeo Qualifier) Bucks. The top ten competitors will have a chance to walk out of Taylor Telecom Arena with their part of a $10,000 cash payday and $2,500 in VRQ Bucks. To be eligible for the Top Hand Bonus, athletes must:

- Nominate Segment DY25 in the VRQ before the first round of competition
- Select the disciplines they want to be considered for.

Nominate multiple disciplines to increase their chances of securing the bonus.

- Nominating with WCRA, an athlete's performances are tracked through the VRQ system, allowing them to earn leaderboard points and qualify for WCRA DY events, where they can compete for substantial cash payouts and championship titles.

The THSRA Finals Top Hand Bonus will reward the top 10 athletes with cash prizes and VRQ Bucks. The Top Hand Champion will take home a one-time $5,000 bonus, while the runner-up secures $3,000 and third place earns $2,000. In addition to these cash prizes, fourth place will receive $1,000 in VRQ Bucks, fifth place will earn $500 in VRQ Bucks, and those finishing in sixth through tenth place will each be awarded $200 in VRQ Bucks to use toward future nominations.

VRQ Bucks are redeemable towards the purchase of Nominations with WCRA. When you nominate, they are redeemed on the WCRA App on the pay screen.

The 2025 WCRA DY season features two major events where athletes can earn big money and world titles. The $55,000 CEAT Rodeo Corpus Christi Division Youth Showcase will take place on May 6, 2025, at the American Bank Center in Corpus Christi, Texas. This event will feature the top eight athletes from each discipline on the DY Junior Leaderboard as of April 10. Athletes can qualify by nominating in the VRQ and accumulating leaderboard points. The champion of the event will earn $2,000, $1,500 will be awarded to second place, $1,000 to third place, and $500 to fourth place.

The Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo Presented by Montana Silversmiths returns to Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma, from July 22-26, 2025, with an estimated $400,000 payout, including $215,000 in guaranteed added money. The event will feature both Junior and Youth Divisions, with the Junior Division offering up to $15,000 per discipline in added money and the Youth Division offering $5,000 per discipline. In addition, $56,000 in bonus payouts will be awarded to competitors, including World Champion, Event Champion, and JR Ironman bonuses.

The World Championship Junior Rodeo is open to athletes ages 13-19 in the Junior Division and 13-15 in the Youth Division. Competitors must be 13 to nominate through the VRQ by June 22, 2025, to earn leaderboard points toward the DY World Championship bonus payout. Early bird entry opens on March 17 with a $100 discount on each entry. Open entry is available for any athlete age 10 and above.

The THSRA State Finals will be held June 5-14 at the Taylor Telecom Arena in Abilene, Texas, bringing together the top high school rodeo athletes from across the state for an action-packed week of competition.

Since its inception in 2019, WCRA DY has awarded nearly $1 million in new money to youth rodeo athletes.

Resistol and The Cowboy Channel Present the 4th Annual Resistol Rookie Roundup

For the fourth consecutive year, Resistol, in partnership with The Cowboy Channel, the leading network for Western sports, owned by Teton Ridge, will host the Resistol Rookie Roundup on April 25-26 at the iconic Fort Worth Stockyard Coliseum.

Sanctioned by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA), 15 first-year card holders in each event will compete for a $100,000 purse. The Cowboy Channel will produce and broadcast the event.

The first performance on April 25 will feature all 15 contestants in a single go-round of competition. Then, the top eight will continue to the semifinals on April 26, with the top four advancing to the championship round immediately following.

The Cowboy Channel will provide a gift bag to help each contestant down the road in their rookie year.

The Cowboy Channel will also produce a special roundtable series, where participants in each event will sit down with past Resistol Rookie of the Year winners. These discussions, combined with media training and mentoring sessions, will equip contestants with valuable insights for their careers ahead.

"Resistol is thrilled to partner with The Cowboy Channel for another year of this incredible event," said Mary Jane Carpenter, Brand Director for Resistol. "The Rookie Roundup is a pivotal steppingstone in a young rodeo athlete's career, giving them the opportunity to gain experience both in and out of the arena — whether through their PRCA headshots, media training or guidance from some of rodeo's best."

The Resistol Rookie of the Year Award is one of the most prestigious honors in professional rodeo, recognizing the top first-year athletes in the PRCA and the WPRA. Money won at the Resistol Rookie Roundup, presented by The Cowboy Channel, will count towards the Resistol Rookie standings but will not be credited towards the PRCA World Standings for a Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualification.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

On the white board in our arena, we have written, "Ask yourself. What happened, before what happened, happened?" Although this question was posed in response to accidents on the colt's we were training, it really does apply to life in general.

Also on that board, there are two columns. One is titled Turfer's and one is Turfee's. If you come off a horse, for any reason, in our arena, your name, and the horse's name, goes on the board! Top of the list is Mike and my friend, Sue. They are tied at 5. I'm not being mean, I'm being thankful! LOL!

When a person is doing anything in life, the wrong action can produce a negative reaction. One of the things that we can monitor in our lives, is our thoughts. If we are thinking wrong, self defeating thoughts, they will come to pass! And of course, the Bible warns us about that in 2 Cor. 10:5. "...bringing into captivity EVERY thought to the obedience of Christ."

This week, let's think about what we are thinking about. Ask yourself, are these thoughts Bible accurate or just junk?

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
