Shooting Stars -- Bradi Good & Famous Bullets Top Elite Futurity for $15,848

By Tanya Randall

Teenager Bradi Good of Abilene, Texas, and her 5-year-old mare Famous Bullets ("Gracie") topped an extremely salty $50,000-added Elite Futurity, held March 4-10 in the Pavilion Arena at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas. Good and Gracie pocked $15,848 for their Futurity Championship plus open and youth carryover earnings.

"It was super exciting!" said the soon-to-be 17-year-old daughter of Shay and Amie Good. The Elite Championship came a week after a $4,799 third-place effort in their futurity debut at The Patriot in Fort Worth, Texas.

In Waco, veteran Jolene Montgomery and Firin Ta Heaven (JL Dash Ta Heaven x Flitin Firin Cash x Cash Not Credit) set the pace in the first go with a 14.998. Good and Gracie finished a couple of holes out of the money in 12th with a 15.240.

"My first run was a great run and everything, and I didn't expect her to run a 14.9, but I knew she was capable of it," said Good of her left-barrel first mare. "The next day, she ended up running a 14.9 and I was so happy with her."

In the second round, Good and Gracie finished third with a 14.974 behind Kassie Mowry's dual threat—Epic Guy (Epic Leader x Frenchilicious x Frenchmans Guy) was first with a 14.824 with Famous Ladies Man (Dash Ta Fame x Lady Perks x Dash For Perks) in second with a 14.872.

Good and Gracie ended up having the third fastest qualifying time to the 40-head short go, determined by the best time of each entry's go-round runs.

The youthful duo saved their best run for last, a 14.889 in the short round, which gave them the best average on two runs for the victory.

"On my short round run, we went by the first a little and I was thinking through my run, 'Maybe she could still pull it out,'" she said. "I ended up running a 14.8. It was unbelievable!"

The homeschooled junior is no stranger to success in the arena. She was born into a rodeo family. Her father has been to the National Finals Steer Roping, three times. Her grandfather went twice and his two brothers were world champion trippers.

Good won her first barrel racing saddle in the 6-and-under and has added to her resume since. In junior high, she won the Breakaway Roping Championship at the Texas Junior High Finals Rodeo and earned Reserve honors at Nationals. She also won the reserve championship at the Jr NFR in the breakaway roping.

Rider/Owner: Bradi Good; Breeder: Jana Bean

Last year, aboard Judi Reed's Quick Aint Fair, a gelding by Lins First Bullet, Good won the Texas High School Rodeo Finals Barrel Racing Championship and finished second at Nationals.

When Good told Reed last year that they were looking for a horse, she knew just where the perfect one was—in Fort Hancock, Texas, at her cousin's Jim Breck Bean's house.

Gracie was raised and trained by multiple NFR qualifier Jana Bean. Her sire is Lins First Bullet, a son of Bully Bullion out of a cutting horse turned barrel horse, Glo Linton, by Mr Linton.

"We also raised him," explained Bean. "Glo Linton was my sister-in-law's horse. She almost made the NFR on her back in the early 90s. She ended up like 18th one year and 21st another year. Jackie Bob Cox won quite a bit on her at the futurities and Jamie (Bean, now Cowan) went on to run her at the high school finals—won the high school finals on her—college finals, circuit finals. When (Glo Linton) got too old to run, they bred her to Bully Bullion. I ran (Lins First Bullet) some, but he got hurt early in his career."

Gracie's dam is Dasharuth, a daughter of leading sire Dash Ta

WCRA Half a Million Dollar Rodeo Returns to Lazy E Arena

World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) is excited to announce that the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma will play host to WCRA's five-day $500,000 Semi-Finals May 15-19. The five-day event will feature the world's top rodeo athletes going head-to-head for more than $500,000 and their chance to qualify for WCRA's $1 Million Major Rodeo (Tittletown Stampede) on June 1 at the Resch Center in Green Bay, Wisconsin.

The three main performances will begin on Saturday, May 18 with two progressive round performances (1 p.m. and 7 p.m.) followed by the final round on Sunday, May 19 at 1 p.m.

Contestants in eight events—bareback riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping, tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding—will compete for their piece of the $500,000 purse. Athletes in each discipline—including both headers and heelers in the team roping event—will compete for more than $55,000.

Eight athletes in each discipline with the highest scores or fastest times will advance to the Tittletown Stampede on June 1. The one-night, $1 million rodeo will be coupled with Professional Bull Riders (PBR) Elite Series. On Sunday, June 2 fans will be able to tune into the Tittletown Stampede Showdown Round on a CBS network broadcast at 1:30-2:30 P.M. ET

Prior to the progressive and final rounds, WCRA will host a barrel race jackpot on Wednesday, May 15 followed by two days of timed event jackpots and preliminary rounds starting at 8 a.m. daily.

WCRA will also host a trade show in the main arena, beginning on May 15 starting at 8 a.m. daily. For more trade show information, please visit laze.com.

Qualifying for events will be based purely on performance and on series points, rather than dollars won, through a new world-ranking points system. For athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA, visit app.wcra rodeo.com.

Fame out of a Thoroughbred mare. Bean purchased her as a yearling

"She was supposed to go through the Ruidoso Yearling Sale, but she was hurt," noted Bean. "I bought her and was going to try to get her sound to run barrels. I never could get her sound, so we just bred her. Her first colt was Holy Moly Im Famous, that Kim Schulz did so well with at the pro rodeos. This mare, Famous Bullets, is her second foal."

Bean had planned on saving Gracie for herself to run as a 5-year-old, but she decided she just had too many horses.

"I knew she was the furthest one along, so I knew someone could go on and do something with her," she said. "That mare's a nice mare. We hadn't planned on selling her, so we took our time with her. We worked cattle on her, drug calves on her, heeled on her, I took her to the rodeos with me all year last year just to get her seasoned. She's was just ready."

After talking to Reed, she knew Good would be a perfect home for her, especially since she had already won on a Bullet baby.

"Judi knew that that girl's family was looking for a horse, so we placed her basically. It's a great home. She's done outstanding on her. It's been so fun to watch.

"She's pretty confident in that mare. When I left (Waco), she said, 'I'm going to go win a bigger check tomorrow!' I told her, 'You go do the same thing and you will win a big check.' She did it. She's rides her outstanding."

Good wanted to thank Bean for raising and training such an amazing athlete and Reed for helping her find Gracie and for letting her ride her good horses.

While Good is still riding Reed's horse at her high school rodeos, she plans on concentrating on the futurities with Gracie.

"I'm going to a bunch of the upcoming futurities with her," said

Troy Crumrine & SR Industry Titan Collect $11,098 Elite HHA Derby Championship

By Tanya Randall

Troy Crumrine, one of the all-time leading aged event riders, added an HHA Derby Championship to his resume at the inaugural running of the Elite Futurity, held March 4-10 in the Pavilion Arena at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas. His winning mount was the talented 6-year-old stallion SR Industry Titan, owned by Tom and Nick Wylie of Swanton, Ohio.

"I run him through three times and he worked good every time," said Crumrine. "He ran good last year there at Diamonds & Dirt. He likes that place for some reason."

They won the opening round with a 14.957. They took second to Janet Staton and Chargin Ta Fame's (Dash Ta Fame x Charge A Moon x Bully Bullion) winning time of 14.871 with a 14.930 on their second. In the 25-head short go, as determined by the fastest of their two qualifying runs, Crumrine and Titan posted a 14.832 to have the winning average time. The victory was worth $11,098 including carryovers from the open and adult incentives.

"That was the first time I had run at an Elite show and I really like it," said Crumrine. "The ground was really great. They took a lot of pride in getting their ground right and I thought it was pretty fair for everybody."

Titan, a son of Firewaterontherocks out of the blue hen producer and champion barrel horse Mulberry Canyon Moon, by Marthas Six Moons, was originally purchased by Schiller Ranch as an embryo from Matt and Bendi Dunn, who are listed as the stallion's breeders.

SCHILLER RANCH

BY SPRINGER

He was later sold back to the Dunns as a yearling for $25,000 via the 2014 Texas Best Sale, which was ironically held in the very same arena as the HHA Derby. After starting his training with Jolene Montgomery, Titan was sold as a 3-year-old at the 2016 LG Pro Classic Sale in February to the Wylies and was one of the highest-selling prospects in the country that year, bringing $61,500.

Crumrine took over the reins and campaigned the stallion, except for a brief period when he was recovering from a broken ankle. In fact, at his first competition back after breaking his ankle, Crumrine and Titan won the Panty Raid Futurity. Other titles the duo claim are a 2018 Diamonds & Dirt Reserve Championship, LG Pro Classic Sale Futurity Reserve Championship, 2018 Greg Olson Derby Championship, 2017 Isabella Quarter Horses Futurity Reserve Championship. He is the second of Mulberry Canyon Moon's offspring to break the $100,000 mark in career earnings.

"He's just got that want to like his mother," said Crumrine. "His daddy was a great horse too. It's his consistency. If his mother had been as consistent as he is, I don't think she ever would have been beat. If he's going to catch a barrel, it's going to be leaving it. He's just really honest.

"I haven't found an arena yet that he doesn't want to work in. It doesn't matter if it's big, short, little. One great thing about him is that it doesn't matter how far the barrels are off the wall, some horses like the walls to bank on—him it doesn't bother. He doesn't need the walls and the walls don't bother him either. He's a freak that way, most prefer one or the other. He just a nice honest horse, really. He's so good minded. He's a gentleman all time. He doesn't get excited. Most of the time when he gets done running, he acts like he hasn't done anything. It just doesn't phase him. It's so easy for him. He doesn't labor at anything."

Miller Banks $25K at RodeoHouston Super Shootout

By Amy Wilson

The 2017 WPRA World Champion Barrel Racer, Nellie Miller and her roan mare Rafter W Minnie Reba "Sister", swept Rodeo Houston last year by winning the championship and also the shootout, and they're on pace to do it again. They ran a 14.4 in the long round of the Rodeo Houston Super Shootout, and then came back in the final four round to run a 14.2 which won them the title and $25,000. Although the money from the Shootout doesn't count in the WPRA World Standings, it's a huge opportunity for the champion barrel racer from eight rodeos which are selected by the Rodeo Houston committee to compete as individuals and also as a team.

"There are only five events, they don't have calf roping or team roping. Every rodeo is playing as a team which is fun because we don't normally get to do that," Miller explained. Last year, she won the barrel racing and team titles while representing Reno Rodeo. This year, she was on Rodeo Houston's team.

Miller, who is from California, has only been to a handful of rodeos this winter which is typical for her. "I like to take a break, especially coming off the NFR. I felt like Sister needed a break and we needed to regroup. And it was nice to be home," the mom of two said. She admits that the NFR was harder for Sister in 2018 than in 2017. "I don't think I had her in as good of shape as I did the previous year, so once we got to Vegas it was just harder on her to make it through ten rounds," she said in hindsight. After some time off to recuperate, the 11 year old mare is again showcasing how solid she is in every setup, including Houston.

"She's just so honest and trustworthy that she's going to go out and find those barrels no matter what," Miller said. "It makes it easy on me. I don't have to think too much about doing things differently, I just do my normal thing."

For those who haven't been to Rodeo Houston, the barrel pattern is extremely small in comparison to the size of the NRG Stadium arena. "I think that is one of the hardest things about the setup, there are absolutely no fences. It's literally out in the middle of nowhere - every barrel," Miller said.

Some horses seem to struggle with the setup and also the ground, but not Sister. "[The ground] is typically pretty hard, which seems to suit my horse," she said thankfully. Because the alleyway is somewhat narrow and the first barrel is blind, Miller tries to give her the best approach possible. "I just try to get over to the left side as much as possible to try to give her as much room to see that barrel as I can." Miller doesn't practice much on Sister, but she did go to barrel practice the first day, mainly to get her in the alleyway and get a feel for things. "I think it helps me almost more than her just to get a feel for where they are out there," she admitted.

Miller knows first-hand how valuable a Rodeo Houston win can be since $50,000 is counted in the WPRA World Standings, and so far she and Sister have placed third in the first round of their Super Series and second in the second round. "Every year it seems like the person that wins Rodeo Houston doesn't have to go to very many [rodeos]. It just really sets up your whole year," she said. "You can kind of relax and not make that many runs on your horse or travel as much as normal. It's really an advantage, especially being so early in the season, so you can plan better."

Although Miller loves being with her family and having them travel with her, they all stayed in California since her oldest daughter is now in school. "It's pretty lonely. I don't know what to do with myself without them," the devoted mom said. One of her friends is with her to help out, and Miller also brought a young horse along. "He's actually a full brother to my mare. I'm excited about him, but he's just inexperienced so he's getting some experience as we speak," she said with a laugh. And being on a young horse is giving her even more appreciation for Sister. "She's such a unique horse that once you get on something else it really puts things into perspective," she said.

As for Miller's plan this year, she said, "It's hard to plan to be honest. You just never know how rodeo is going to go for you." But she is planning to go to the spring rodeos since so many of them are near her home in California. For now though, she gets to enjoy her success at Houston and their excellent hospitality. "They really strive to take care of us. Every time you turn around, they're feeding you or helping you out in some way. It doesn't seem to matter who at the rodeo, but they're always bending over backwards for us."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We all have questions to ask God. I know I do. And some answers you cannot find in the Bible.

Last week, we drove to Montana to help with the funeral of our friends' grandson, Max. He was five. It wasn't right. He fell off a barrel drum onto concrete and went home to be with Jesus. He knows Jesus. He had been telling his family for the last two months that he wanted to see Jesus. And no, Jesus didn't take Max because He needed more children in heaven. That's bologna. The devil came to kill, steal and destroy, and unfortunately got it done (John 10:10).

The whole family knows that Max is in heaven, but the hurt is there. So I wanted to tell you what Max told his grandma just a few weeks ago. He said, "Gramma, did you know you can dream in the daytime with your eyes open?" When she told us that at the funeral I thought, "Do ANY of us know that you can dream in the daylight with your eyes open?" Few do.

We put our noses to the grindstone and don't look up. But Max knew something we all need to know and practice. My friends, dream today, with your eyes open! Enjoy the life that God has given you! Starting today, look up and don't look back! Your future and hope are in front of you!
