Dominating the Diamonds – Janet Staton & JS Milo And Stitch Sweep Futurity & Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Years ago, Janet Staton had put her horse life on hold to focus on another kind of diamond on dirt, one carved from a grass field. She spent several years as a travel team baseball mom, loving every minute of it, yet longing for the day she could return to her favorite dirt sport – barrel racing.

When she did finally return to her rodeo roots, Staton found a great horse that gave her back her competitive edge. Fameolicious (“Levi”), a gelded son of Dash Ta Fame out of a Band Of Azure mare, was life-changing horse—one that Staton called ‘a once-in-a-lifetime’ horse just a few months ago. Now the pro rodeo winner, aged event finalist and American Semifinals qualifier looks like a mere stepping stone.

With the rodeo road losing its appeal and a spectacular offer on the table, Staton sold Levi. It was a tough decision, but it allowed the ag and elementary school teacher to leave her job in education and focus solely on training futurity horses.

Yet, Levi wasn’t done influencing Staton’s life. When she went to Sealy, Texas, to look at potential prospects at Billy and Shelly Martin’s, a Levi look-a-like caught her eye.

By the Martin’s champion sire Firewater Ta Fame and out of the Tres Seis mare TK Twirl, whom used to belong to hometown friends of Staton’s, JS Milo And Stitch (“Happy”) would set the futurity industry on fire.

At the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic in Waco, Texas, Staton and Happy swept the event, winning the Dufur Quarter Horses Futurity for $38,326 and winning the Diamond Jubilee Slot Race for $55,000. Their total earnings for the event—not including incentives—were $93,326.

“It didn’t dawn on me until we came out Saturday night—the announcer was saying all that he had won—just hearing them say that made it real...I just lost it,” said Staton.

Since January, Happy has run out more than $150,000. He won the Texas Extreme and Texas Ultimate futurities, was one of the fastest qualifiers for the Kinder Cup Slot Race and earned a Reserve Championship at Lance Graves International Slot Race.

Joining Staton and Happy on the ride of a lifetime is operating room nurse Jennifer Fite, who purchased Happy mid-November last year. With a little legacy left by her late mother, Fite met Staton at the Lee County Fairgrounds in Giddings, Texas, and rode Happy for 10 minutes before deciding to buy him.

“It’s crazy, just crazy!” said Fite. “You can’t plan it. Everyone is asking are you going to do this again—like we planned it and it’s that easy. But we all know, you can’t just go pick out another 3-year-old and it’s going to be this.”

Fite said the whole thing—buying a horse that had never been entered—was a major step out of the box for her. It was a big gamble for the lifelong barrel racer, who decided 10 years ago that she would step up her game and make changes to get to the upper levels of the sport.

“It’s a fairy tale,” said Fite, who has a unicorn brand for her horses. “I have the ones that I’ve bred, but they’re not like this. If you’re breeding for a horse like that you’re talking embryo transfers and multiple babies out of a mare you can’t even afford an embryo out of in the first place.

“This is a dream come true. I’ve been doing this for 35 years. It’s always been my dream. It’s been my dad’s dream and my mom’s dream—even though she’s not here. She’s the one that had to have set that barrel up in the slot race.”

Ironically, Fite has done her best to stay as hands-off as possible as to not to mess with what’s been working.

"I have absolutely nothing to do with it!" she laughed. "Occasionally, she'll ask, 'Do you think...?' and I'll say, 'Don't start asking me now. Just do what you think.' Other than when I tried him for 10 minutes in November, I haven't even touched him other than in the win pictures. This week, I actually went out and pet him and hugged him and took selfies with him. After he ran Saturday night, I went out to pet him and he was gone. She had taken him home! I'm attached to him now, but I haven't got to spend that much time with him."

At Diamonds & Dirt, Staton and Happy won the first go with the fastest time of the event, a 14.811.

"That first run, he was just on and I was with him," said Staton. "I knew when I turned the third barrel, he had done something." Staton turned out of the second round and went home to Bastrop. On Friday morning before the Diamond Jubilee Slot Race, Staton snuck off to local rodeo arena to give Happy a quick tune.

"Our rodeo arena is never open, but I just happened to notice the gate was open and the ground had been freshly worked. I told my husband that I was going up there to run him into that wall at the second barrel a couple of times. I went from there to Waco." In the Slot Race, Staton turned and Happy had a victorious 15.029.

"He was running really hard to the first and got a hair past it, but he came back so hard that I didn't get up enough to get him deep enough into the second and he rocked it. On my third barrel, he popped me out of the saddle when my hand came off the horn. I broke all my nails on that hand. I knew he was making a really good run and I thought 'My gosh, don't fall off going home!'" Happy made another good run in the finals, a 14.846, to have the winning two-run average.

"My friends were so wonderful," said Staton after her win. She also wanted to thank her husband Doug, who split his weekend between judging a youth rodeo and doing chores at home. "It's been amazing to me to be competing with people that I've idolized. I'd say grew up idolizing, but I think I'm older than most of them! Everyone has been so friendly and supportive."

Just like Levi, Happy's had a way of changing things. At the time of this interview, they were building more pens as Staton has more outside horses coming in. She's also had to hire help. That's a big change for someone who quit teaching to ride a few futurity colts of her own each year.

Sabra O'Quinn & Bring It On Guys Slug It Out for $10,000 Diamonds & Dirt Sweepstakes Championship

By Tanya Randall

Sabra O'Quinn and her great 9-year-old mare Bring It On Guys ("Nosey") topped a tough Firewater Ta Fame Sweepstakes at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic, held March 9 in Waco, Texas. Their 14.894 was worth $10,000.

"She just did good," said the barrel racer from Ocala, Fla. "She's always been a great little horse. She's won at every level of the game."

Nosey, who has carried O'Quinn to the Southeastern Circuit Finals and the 2015 NBHA 1D World Championship, was purchased by Tom Clark as a 2-year-old from the Myers Ranch. By the all-time leading living barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy, Nosey is out of the Paddys Irish Whiskey mare Full A Irish Whiskey.

O'Quinn hasn't run Nosey that much this winter, just a few things back in Florida and more recently at the San Antonio Rodeo, where they picked up a check.

"I had a futurity horse over there (at Diamonds & Dirt), and I thought I might as well enter because it was a pretty good set up," said O'Quinn, who will run in the first Semifinals at Rodeo Houston aboard Alive With Chaos on Wednesday night. "To be perfectly honest, I didn't even know it paid $10,000 to win! I thought it was $10,000 added!"

No stranger to event production herself having hosted the Fiddler's Turkey Run each year, O'Quinn appreciated Diamonds & Dirt for hosting the Sweepstakes.

"I appreciate them having that and having it as a straight pay and not a 4D," she said. "It was fun because you have those aged horses and people just gun 'em. There's just not big paying things for horses after their futurity year. I think the sweepstakes thing is refreshing. It paid well, and they gave an Usher brand saddle that was really nice. I was pretty surprised. I won a big check and a nice saddle! Everybody was watching, yelling and screaming; it was a lot of fun!"

Nisa Berry & VF Look Im Back Top Diamonds & Dirt Derby

By Tanya Randall

Nisa Berry and VF Look Im Back (“Picasso”) were the picture of consistency at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic, held March 5-11 in Waco, Texas. The duo from Stephenville, Texas, topped the $15,000-added French StreakToVegas Derby for $7,617.

They placed second in both rounds with runs of 15.025 and 14.999, respectively, and sealed the average with a 15.073.

“That’s what I love so much about that mare,” said Berry. “She just loves her job. It feels like she’d do anything for me and I know I can count on her every time I send her down the alley. She’s just been solid and has become that horse that you can count on every time. It’s just a matter of if I can lift my leg high enough at the second barrel sometimes, because she doesn’t leave me much room. I just had to tell myself to just ride my horse and let her run her race. She proved to me that she’s what I always knew she could be. She’s pretty special to me.”

Owned by Triple B Performance Horses—a partnership between Berry and Erin Zoucha—Picasso was bred by Danny Ray’s Victory Farms. The 6-year-old mare is by leading sire Eddie Stinson out of Strikin Back, by De Best Cash.

“She came to me for training as a 3-year-old and we ended up buying her as a 4-year-old around the Old Fort Days Futurity,” said Berry. “It’s been a lot of trials with her, up and down. I always knew she was special. I went through some hard times with her. I guess it’s no different than other trainers with their horses, but I kind of knew what I had, and I stuck it out with her. She had a few little setbacks through her futurity year and ended up having to turn her ing to see where she is now. That mare's always given me her all, even if she wasn't 100 percent. Now, I know her like the back of my hand and I know if any little thing is off. I just know at the end of the day, she's going to go out there and give me her all."

The next major event for Berry and Picasso is the Old Fort Days Derby. Afterward, she'd like to try some rodeos. Thus far, Picasso's rodeo experience has been limited to the American Semifinals in Fort Worth—no small test for a young horse.

Berry wanted to thank her "team" for their support from her farrier to the vets at Brazos Valley Equine Hospital.

"I'm so grateful for everyone that stood behind me and believed in me," she said. "It's a whole team—I thank my shoer, my vet, Erin, all my friends."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I often wonder what it would be like to live in a warm climate... where you could complain if it got down to 60 degrees. Several years ago, my friend and I went to Arizona for a barrel futurity in January. The day we arrived it was 60 degrees. We were sooo excited because we left a raging blizzard here in Wyoming!

We put on our shorts, flip flops and sleeveless shirts. (Our white legs were a bit terrifying!) The day before the futurity, we were riding around the arena looking at people wearing down coats!! Were they sick? Nope. They had gotten used to the warm weather and 60 degrees was obviously not the norm. We thought we had died and gone to heaven!!! They were disgruntled because it was...not as warm.

It's all in perspective. Sometimes we think we have it bad. After all, maybe we had to fix a flat tire, or fight off the flu. Surely no one else has to deal with this stuff! Yes, they do. We all do.

The answer is to know just how far God will go for us, His precious kids. Hebrews 13:5 says, "Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said 'I WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU NOR FORSAKE YOU!'"

Another promise in Jeremiah 32:27 tells us, "Behold I am the Lord, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me?" Surely not!

We are never alone in our disappointments, our health battles, our losses or any other challenge we might face. He's always with us; leading, guiding, directing our steps. But we MUST seek Him and the course of action to take every day. And if we seek Him FIRST, (Matthew 6:33) chances are we will miss out on a lot of those bumps in the road!
