Heaven Sent -- Rylee Jo Maryman & Heaven Help Me Fly Win $47,650 Hooey Jr Patriot Championship

By Tanya Randall

American bound Rylee Jo Maryman picked up a $47,650 Hooey Jr Patriot Championship aboard Heaven Help Me Fly, owned by Lindsey Netterville. Along with open earnings at the event, held March 10-16 in Fort Worth, Texas, Maryman and Fly collected $49,920.

Maryman, who hails from Saint Francisville, Louisiana, also picked up $2,320 aboard her own mare One Cupa Tees Sis ("Ruby") and $973 on her gelding WYO Starlight Special for total event earnings of $53,213.

On their first run in Fort Worth, Maryman and Fly were 5/1000ths too slow to make the Young Guns Finals, but they did make the Finals of the $10,000-added Open on Saturday. Thankfully, she had two exemptions into the Hooey Jr Patriot Semifinals thanks to Ruby finishing fourth at the Louisiana High School State Finals and winning her high school region.

In the Semifinals, Fly ran a 15.460 to place fourth and earn a spot in the Championship Finals on Sunday. And in a shocking turn of events, Ruby, her 2023 American Contender East Champion and American Finalist put on the brakes running home in the Semifinals costing her a second spot.

"She ran a .7 and on the way out she saw a cat," laughed Maryman. "I know that sounds crazy. I had to make my mom go ask the gate worker. The cat ran across the alleyway, and she almost stopped at the timer line. I've never had that happen before! She did not like the yellow cat."

In typical Fly fashion, the gelding got faster with each run. He clocked a 15.408 but tipped a barrel to be at the top of the Open and got a full tenth faster to win the $40,000 Jr Patriot Championship on Sunday.

"That was the first perf he'd ever been in," Maryman said of the Sunday Finals, where all the events run together. "He's never been to a rodeo other than when we took him to Kentucky (for the American Contender Regional). He was not so sure of the ropes."

Unfortunately, they slipped and tipped the third barrel in the Bonus Round, where the event champions have the opportunity to win all or a share of $100,000 if they beat their winning time.

"He's never been run two times in one day, so it was a lot for him," she said. "He barely got the third. He slipped into it on the way out."

Maryman started riding the 9-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding, out of NFR producer Gin N Firewater, by Fire Water Flit, last June. Netterville lives in Woodville, Mississippi, just minutes from Maryman. The partnership has worked perfectly with Netterville doing most of the horse's slow work and conditioning and Maryman driving over a few times a week to ride.

Fly actually hadn't made a run since late February. Netterville had taken him to the St Jude Barrel Jam at the end of February, but Maryman hadn't run him since the Kinder Cup the first week of February.

Although Ruby has usually been her go-to at the bigger events, the setup at Fort Worth with the deeper heavier footing gave the leggy gelding an edge.

"You never really know with them because they're pretty tit-for-tat," she said. "It depends on the week. The roan mare drew bottom of the ground, and she had some problems on the bottom. It's so much deeper and harder to get through. He drew top all week, so I knew he had a better chance."

"I think I'm going to start small and go to a college around here so I can still stay home and ride," she said.

Caroline Boucher & MarysMoonshineBandit Nab $11,354 Patriot Open Championship

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion trainer Caroline Boucher is familiar with “thinking on the job” as she competes on her young horses, but the French Canadian now residing in Whitesboro, Texas, got to “go fast and enjoy” the run on the seasoned veteran campaigner MarysMoonshineBandit at $20,000-added Open at The Patriot, held March 10-16 in Fort Worth.

Boucher and Bandit, owned by fellow French Canadian Yann Tremblay, qualified for The American Contender Tournament on their first run and won the Open Finals on their second to win $11,354.

“He’s very fun,” said Boucher. “He’s the easiest horse that I’ve ever ridden in my life! I’m used to riding futurity horses that are tricky!”

The first run they made was for The American Contender and Boucher almost rode too tentatively.

“Going to the first, I sat where the futurity horse needs the rider to sit to prepare for the turn,” she explained. “I was short a step and he just waited on me. He tipped toed around the first. I was like, ‘OK, I need to drive him up past the barrel!’ The second and third were pretty fast, but the first was my fault. It was a nice first but just slower.”

For the Finals, Boucher knew that she had to ride more aggressively.

“I knew I had to ride past the barrel and not sit,” she said. “He’s very, very easy. I made a move too early at the second, but he does not want to hit a barrel, so he just turned very honest. I ride a little too much for him, but it did good in the end.”

After watching the video of her run, Boucher told her husband and farrier Oliver Pelletier that it had been too long since she’d run an open horse.

“It’s been years and years,” she said. “It’s so much fun. You’re just going in there, not thinking and going ‘Ya! Having fun!’”

About three years ago, Tremblay, a longtime client and friend, had contacted Boucher about a rodeo horse for his daughter. He requested an experienced rodeo horse that was easy to ride and not prone to knocking barrels to give his daughter confidence in this new environment.

Boucher made a quick call to another longtime friend, multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Tiany Schuster to see what she would have available.

One of those horses was Bandit, a 2015 gelding by NFR sire JustAHeartOfAWarrior out of Alan and Jody Bosley’s Merridoc mare Bar Lotta Mary. An aged event finalist, Bandit was trained by Tracy Toops and ridden by her daughter Kynder Starr and Hilary Swanson before Shuster purchased him in summer of 2020. Shuster placed on the gelding at several pro rodeos and NBHA Open World Finals. He won money with Jamey Hunt as well.

“What makes this horse special is he was in an accident and has no muscle on his left shoulder,” said Boucher. “He was not supposed to come back, but multiple years ago that horse decided to stay a competitive barrel horse, even though he’s missing most of the muscle in one shoulder.”

With Tremblay’s daughter Megan Daigle, Bandit qualified for the American Contender Tournament and advanced all the way to the Wild Card Round at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, last year.

“He was a good horse with her as well,” noted Boucher.

Last year Daigle decided to spend more time focusing on her family’s construction company, and although she was hoping that she’d have time to work and compete, it wasn’t the case.

“Yann called me about two months ago and said, ‘Bandit is spending his time in the pasture. Do you want to rodeo on him? If you don’t want to rodeo on him and do the American, maybe try to sell him. He’s too nice of a horse to stay in the pasture,” Boucher explained.

Until The Patriot, Boucher had devoted most of her time with Bandit to getting him in shape. She only had one run on him before the event.

“I have no credit,” she laughed. “He’s just doing his job by himself.”

AIRWAY EQ™

"Air-Way EQ is the first product I have seen work in aiding airway/lung health and help clear up a cough. I use Breathe'O2 paste for pre-run support, it also helps clear the airway, allowing him to breathe easier and work harder."

Caitlyn White & Soul Fury Capture Glen Wood Memorial Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Caitlyn White and Soul Fury (“Ridge”), owned by Trevor, Terry and Trent Brindley, took top honors in the 61-entry, $10,000-added GlenWood Memorial Futurity, held March 14-16 in South Jordan, Utah. The victory was worth $6,163 plus $1,137 in open carryovers.

“He makes me work for it!” White said of the 5-year-old gelding. “I’m so out of breath when I get done running him. It’s a workout!”

White and Ridge’s 16.056 placed second in the first round in spite of a couple of minor slips at the second and third barrels. They came back to win the second round of the futurity—and the open—with the fastest run of the event, a 15.731.

White’s path to riding Ridge for the Brindley family started with the gelding’s sire Mr Soul, a son of FuryOfTheWind out of the Dash Ta Fame mare McKaizlees Kiss. A race-winner on the track with a speed index of 106 and maturity champion in the arena, Mr Soul almost qualified White to the Wilderness Circuit Finals last year.

She started riding the stallion for his owner John Neilsen about three years ago. His jockey and trainer Taylor Kramer had moved to Texas and mentioned him to White, who was looking for another horse to ride.

The Brindley’s, who live five minutes from White’s Spanish Fork, Utah, home, had seen her run the stallion often and asked if she would be interested in riding Ridge, who is out of Lanes Leinster mare Ridge Lane.

“Last March, they got ahold of me to see if I wanted to run Ridge,” White explained. “They were the ones that did all the work on him. I just hopped on him. I just took him to a couple of time onlies. Our first time only he did super good. We made a deal to see how he does in time onlies the rest of the summer and went from there. They’d never done anything with the futurities before. They just knew he was something special and wanted to find him a good jockey. It’s kind of all worked out.

White and Ridge made their competitive debut at the Southwest Desert Classic’s Bust ‘Em Out Futurity in Salina, Utah, where they won the first round and survived a tack malfunction in the second to hold on to reserve champion honors.

“From there, we just hit some smaller local stuff,” said White, who has mostly stayed within the state of Utah with the gelding. “He’s usually been second in the 1D at everything. A couple of weeks ago in South Jordan, he ran a 15.8 and won the race. There was only me and one other girl in the 1D.”

They finished third at their second futurity, the South Valley Equine Open Futurity held with the Royal Crown in Buckeye, Arizona.

“We hit a rough spot there for a minute where we were hitting barrels left and right,” she said. “I just took him off the pattern and worked on a couple of things. He’s been running amazing since.”

White did a lot of non-barrel arena work to help Ridge with the stress of competition and to get the gelding moving freer through the pattern.

“I spent a lot of time riding him around the arena with the barrels set up, so he didn’t always think it was time to go with the barrels up and stress so badly,” she explained. “I also did a lot of fence drills on him, making him go all the way across the arena to the fence and turning back and going back all the way across. It was more freeing him up and getting him to move forward. When he Ridge’s desire to turn is something he inherited from his sire.

“They both definitely love to turn the barrels,” said White. “On Mr Soul, I have to leg lift pretty much every time on that first barrel. They’re both so snappy. They move so differently from any other horse that I’ve ever run. They just feel so similar. I had posted a picture of both on Mr Soul’s page (on Facebook) and they’re identical—their leg position, how low they are to the ground. It’s crazy!”

Money Winning Calf Horse - Big & Strong - Ready to Breed!

**PRICE REDUCED!

Sweetums N Salty

2019 Bay Mare, 15.2 hands

SIRE: TRAFFIC GUY, $2 MILLION SIRE
Recently sired the Texarkana Showdown WINNER!

DAM: Splashy N Sassy (Dox Bueno Dinero)
Dam of 1D barrel horse, tie down money winner, youth rodeo money winners in goat tying, tie down, poles & barrels!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

This mare has been one of our favorites, she's been hauled a little in barrels and won over $3,000 in the tiedown but has an injury that keeps her from a performance career.

Sweetums is a big pretty mare, and she's as solid as they come. She's very broke, very gentle. We've used her to halter break & round pen colts, our 16 year old son has won money in the tie down on her. She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture.

Daughter of TRAFFIC GUY

BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE FOR SALE

Sweetums has the look, mind and pedigree to raise some great colts, in any discipline!!

Nuttin Smoother

2017 Buckskin Mare, 14.2 hands

SIRE: A SMOOTH GUY, $4 MILLION SIRE

DAM: By Bys Meter Maid (Dr Meter Reader SI 91)

Stakes Winning Race Family!

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

We didn't plan on selling this mare, she is one of our favorites. Peanut is very broke, and easy to use. Shes very quick and a catty. She's been breakaway roped on, our daughter hauled her as a 4 year old in the goat tying but she has injury that kept her from a performance career.

She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture. She has a big smooth trot that really covers country!

She's a typical Smooth Guy, very gentle, very sweet but still has some punch! We've raised one A Streak Of Fling filly out of her, she bred easy, foaled easy and is an easy keeper. Her filly is just like her, easy to handle and gentle.

**PRICE REDUCED!

Daughter of

BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE
FOR SALE

Peanut is an easy breeder & easy keeper!
She's super friendly & will meet you in the pasture

History in the making: Ladies Breakaway Roping debuts at the iconic Calgary Stampede Rodeo in 2025!

Get ready to witness history as Ladies Breakaway Roping makes its debut in the iconic Calgary Stampede Rodeo in 2025, in partnership with the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA). This exciting, lightning-fast event, presented by Imperial, is an electrifying addition to The World's Largest Outdoor Rodeo at the Calgary Stampede, July 4-13, 2025.

Breakaway Roping is one of the fastest-growing rodeo events, with winning times clocking in at under two seconds. The event showcases exceptional horsemanship and roping skill, where the goal is simple: rope a calf, stop the horse, break the rope from the saddle horn and record the fastest time. While the concept may be simple, flawless execution takes years of training and precision.

"The Calgary Stampede is proud to introduce Ladies Breakaway Roping to our daily Rodeo," says Joel Cowley, CEO of the Calgary Stampede. "This event celebrates the incredible talent of female ropers and our dedication to elevating women's events in rodeo, while also offering another world-class experience for our guests. We can't wait to see these amazing athletes showcase their skills in front of thousands of rodeo fans at GMC Stadium this July."

The WPRA has officially sanctioned the event, meaning competitors will earn prize money that counts toward their world standings as they compete at The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth.

"The WPRA is excited to expand our partnership with the Calgary Stampede by adding Ladies Breakaway Roping as an official event to this iconic rodeo," says Heidi Schmidt, WPRA President. "Not only taking this step to add Breakaway Roping to their daily rodeo but to include it at equal money is exceptional. Showcasing our members in Barrel Racing and now Breakaway Roping in 2025 and beyond reflects our shared conviction of the importance of providing equal opportunity for women in rodeo."

With prize money equal to that of the six other major Stampede Rodeo events, Breakaway Roping will see a total of $310,250 awarded over ten days of competition. This brings the total prize money at the Stampede Rodeo to $2,171,750. The addition of Breakaway Roping represents the continued growth of The World's Largest Outdoor Rodeo and demonstrates the Stampede's commitment to celebrating diversity in Western sport.

Breakaway Roping was first introduced at the Calgary Stampede as part of the Rocky Mountain Cup during the annual 10-day festival in 2023 and 2024 and will now take its place among the Stampede Rodeo's main events. This marks the first time a new event has been added to the Stampede Rodeo since Ladies Barrel Racing was introduced in 1979.

"The fact that The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth is including Breakaway Roping alongside the other major rodeo events is a huge step forward for both the sport and women in rodeo," says Shelby Boisjoli-Meged, originally of Langdon, Alta., who won the WPRA world title in Breakaway Roping in 2023. "I can only imagine the impact this moment will have on the little girls watching us compete in the Stampede Rodeo for the first time and realizing that one day, they too could be in our place. Knowing they have something to aspire to, to dream about and to work toward is truly amazing."

Imperial is thrilled to support the debut of Ladies Breakaway Roping at the Stampede Rodeo, adding to its support as the Stampede's Official Fuel Sponsor through its Esso brand.

"As an energy company with more than a century of innovation in Canada, we are honoured to expand our sponsorship to this exciting new event at such a legendary rodeo," says Brad Corson, Chairman, President and CEO of Imperial. "We look forward to cheering on these talented athletes as they showcase their skills for audiences that include people from Calgary, across Canada and around the world."

With 30 spots available in the Stampede Rodeo, 24 competitors will secure their spot through their standing in the previous and current year's Canadian and WPRA Pro Rodeo rankings, while the six remaining spots are up for grabs via two Breakaway Roping qualifier events. The first event will take place April 10-13, 2025 at the Western Regional Barrels & Breakaway competition in Salina, Utah, followed by the Calgary Stampede Ladies Breakaway Roping Qualifier at the Nutrien Western Event Centre on Stampede Park, June 3-4, 2025.

The Rocky Mountain Cup will now shift to August 2025 and will exclusively feature

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I have a pickup that bosses me around. Seat belt, lane change, someone's in the back seat (or not) and much much much more. It starts and stops itself at lights. I don't like it. But when I get everything turned off and I'm headed down the road, it's pretty nice.

I took the bossy thing to the drive through car wash between snow storms a few days ago. As I started in, I remembered I needed to fold in the mirrors. I pushed the buttons a few times and in they came. I'm listening to the radio and about a quarter of the way through, a great big glob of soap hit me in the side of the head and started running down my neck!

What the???? I turned around to get a look and got smacked in the glasses with more soap! I had accidentally pushed the window down button for the off side rear window. I'M PUNCHING BUTTONS NOW!!!! Sigh. I came out the other side looking like I'd been in the shower myself. Water dripping off my glasses, hair plastered to my head and a back seat with lots and lots of soap. . . . . The point? If I'd read the instruction manual, this probably wouldn't have happened.

It's that way with the Bible. It's God's owner's manual. He made me. He knows how to get me through every day of my life. If I would just read it faithfully, I'll come out on the other side without even the smell of smoke. . . . . or water!
