Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba Win Second Consecutive Rodeo Houston Championship

By Tanya Randall

Nellie Miller has a plan—make every run count and save the legs of her hometown superstar, Rafter W Minnie Reba (“Sister”), by limiting her rodeo count. It’s served her well the past two years, having won the 2017 WPRA World Championship and finishing in the Top 10 in 2018.

Rodeo Houston played a big role in both of those efforts. The three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier from Cottonwood, California, is hoping her second consecutive Rodeo Houston Championship, worth $56,000, put her right back at the NFR in Las Vegas in December. She currently leads the WPRA World Standings with $66,097 from five rodeos.

“I only went to three rodeos before Houston—Buckeye, Tucson and The American,” noted Miller. She and Sister won Buckeye, ran in slop at Tucson—“she ran good, but the ground was too deep”—and they tipped at

The American. “She hadn’t had that many runs when we got to Houston. It nice to have a quite a few in a row because she seems do good that way. Right before the Finals, we had a couple of days off prior, so that was nice to be able to let her freshen back up. She ended up making eight runs there, which is quite a bit, so I was glad to be able to give her a bit of a break.”

Miller and Sister had their extra two runs in the Super Shootout, a non-sanctioned event that pits teams of rodeo champions against each other. The duo, which represented Houston via their 2018 Championship, topped the Super Shootout for $25,000. Although the money doesn’t count toward WPRA World Standings it goes go a long way to paying expenses down the road.

All totaled, Miller and Sister left Houston with $81,000.

The Super Shootout, on March 9, gave Miller a chance to run in NRG Stadium before her Super Series for the sanctioned rodeo. The only time she got in the arena to let Sister check things out was once before the Super Shootout.

“I went the first morning that we were there,” said Miller. “We didn’t really do much. We just got it and got a feel for things, just kind of see where the barrels were and everything. I think it was more for me than it was for her. After that we didn’t get up and go again.”

During the Super Shootout, Miller and Sister turned a 14.45 for their first run in NRG, which got them back to the Shootout Championship. They turned in the fastest run of the entire rodeo thus far, a 14.21, to win the $25,000.

The next day, they started their three-round Super Series. Rodeo Houston is a tournament-style rodeo with five pools of

Strait Sets RodeoHouston Attendance record

Country music legend George Strait, along with Lyle Lovett and Robert Earl Keen, set an NRG Stadium attendance record during the March 18 performance. RodeoHouston confirmed 80,108 fans attended the concert and closed out the 2019 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. The concert-only performance broke the previous record from 2013, which was also set by Strait and his special guests Martina McBride and Randy Rogers Band with 80,020 fans, according to a news release.

The March 18 performance marked Strait's 30th performance at the rodeo since 1984. RodeoHouston stated that the NRG Stadium record is separate from the Paid Rodeo/Concert attendance records, as this is a concert-only performance with additional floor seats of the stadium.

Days of '47 Set to Host inaugural Utah Timed Event Classic May 2-4

The Days of '47 is set to host the inaugural Utah Timed Event Classic, May 2-4 at the Wasatch County Events Complex in Heber City, Utah.

This three-day timed event classic features a mix of open jackpot events that anyone can enter along with the World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) Western Quarter-Finals competition open to the 51-100 ranked timed-event athletes on the WCRA leaderboard on April 15. The winner of each WCRA Western Quarter-Finals Event, with the exception of the breakaway roping, will automatically qualify to the $1M Gold Medal Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo set for July 19-24, 2019 in Salt Lake City. A total of 16 athletes in each of the Quarter-Finals events will advance to the WCRA $500,000 Semi-Finals May 15-19 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Okla.

"We are excited to bring yet another event featuring top caliber rodeo athletes to experience Utah and Life Elevated," said Tommy Joe Lucia, General Manager of the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo. "We featured the roughstock events in February at the Lewis Feild Bulls and Broncs event and we are now pleased to feature the timed event contestants through this inaugural Utah Timed Event Classic. The event will be open to the public at no charge. We hope the contestants that come to the Heber Valley are able to take some time to enjoy golf, fishing, and the breathtaking scenery of the Heber Valley."

The Utah Timed Event Classic will feature barrel racing, steer wrestling, tie-down roping, team roping and breakaway roping. Over $120,000 will be paid out at this inaugural event.

"This quarter-finals will isolate competition for the 51-100 athletes on our leaderboard, allowing challengers an opportunity to compete with one another," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "It will also help serve timed-event athletes in the western states with a unique, six-figure event purse."

For more information on how to enter, event fact sheet and schedule of events visit www.daysof47cowboygames.com or www.wcrarodeo.com.

Gold Buckle Beer Named the Official Beer of the PRCA

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) announced today its national partnership with GOLD BUCKLE BEER. The alliance ignites GOLD BUCKLE BEER's efforts to be the beverage of choice for the champions and fans of rodeo.

By stepping up as the Official Beer of the PRCA, GOLD BUCKLE BEER enters the rodeo scene with a significant commitment to the sport. According to Jessica Wahlert, Marketing Manager, "The initial concept stemmed from recognizing the achievement of winning a coveted Gold Buckle and becoming a World Champion. We applaud the effort and dedication that the rodeo athletes and committees put forth to see those Gold Buckle dreams come true. As a proud sponsor of the PRCA, we look forward to celebrating the sport of rodeo and its Gold Buckle champions."

As the number one sanctioning body of professional rodeo, the PRCA is continually searching for ways to develop lasting relationships that benefit the sport. The GOLD BUCKLE BEER partnership will provide substantial support to the PRCA, and its rodeo committees and contestants. In addition to significant annual committed sponsorship support, this multi-year agreement also provides the PRCA with a percentage of every can, bottle or draw of GOLD BUCKLE BEER sold.

"We are extremely excited by this new partnership with GOLD BUCKLE BEER," PRCA CEO George Taylor said. "This multi-year agreement shows GOLD BUCKLE BEER'S commitment to rodeo and to the PRCA, and is further proof of the great partnerships the PRCA is dedicated to securing in order to benefit its members, committees and cowboys."

Contestants and fans will see GOLD BUCKLE BEER's national partnership for the first time in Kissimmee, Florida, at the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo (March 21-24). More details regarding GOLD BUCKLE BEER's involvement at individual rodeos will be announced in the coming months.

eight barrel racers. Contestants were determined by a variety of criteria, including the San Angelo Rodeo Champion, top contestants at the WPRF Finals, top contestants on the WPRF Tour as well as three invites of past champions at the wishes of the rodeo committee. The top four money winners in each pool advanced to one of two Semi Finals, which took the top four on that run's time to the Finals. The 12 remaining contestants after the two Semi Finals had one last chance to advance to the Finals in the Wildcard Round with just the top two runners moving onward.

"It's a very unique setup," noted Miller. "It's challenging because it's a tiny pattern in this huge arena, so it's unlike anything else."

Miller and Sister placed fourth in the first round and took second in the next. In the third round, they turned in another smoking run, a 14.29, in their second-place effort to Stevi Hillman and Cuatro Fame, who turned in the fastest time of Rodeo Houston, a 14.20.

In Saturday's Finals, the California team turned in another 14.29 to lead Carley (Richardson) Cervi, Hillman and Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi into the Championship Round. Running from fastest to slowest, Miller and Sister made the most of the top of the ground with a victorious 14.26. Cervi and Hillman both caught barrels, while Pozzi-Tonozzi and her great homebred mare KissKiss Bang-Bang had a scary slip when they left the third to end up second.

While the extremely firm ground was detrimental to several horses, Miller's homebred Sister handled it well.

"She's so surefooted," noted Miller. "She handles any kind of ground you put her on. It doesn't seem to faze her much."

Raised by her father Sam Williams, Sister, now 11, is by the Dash Ta Fame son KS Cash N Fame out of Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike. Espuela Roan was a family all-around horse and a 1D horse for Miller before producing her first NFR horse Rebas Smokey Joe ("Blue Duck").

It was a strong showing at their Rodeo Houston debut in 2017 that helped spring board Miller and Sister to their first NFR and World Championship. The money, opportunity and hospitality at Rodeo Houston make it special.

“It’s such a prestigious event to even be at,” said Miller. “It’s a huge urban environment and they have this huge rodeo that everybody loves. It’s encouraging for us Californians to see that. They’re setting a really good example for the rest of us.”

Rodeo Houston also goes all out for its contestants. All the contestants stay just off of the grounds at NRG Stadium at the Rodeo Village, a greenspace that once was a parking lot for the theme park AstroWorld. Rodeo Houston build a 300-stall barn, turnouts, riding area, a lounge, the Cowboy Bistro and other amenities.

“It’s got better every year,” said Miller. “They bed your horses with a foot of shaving and they’re feeding you every time you turn around. You gain weight when you go there, because they’re constantly feeding you. It’s any little thing that you might need, whether its dry cleaning or propane. They’re just so accommodating and helpful. You just don’t see that very often as contestants—a rodeo that goes so far beyond for us.”

The defending California Circuit Champion decided to forego her invitation to the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida, to rest up for the upcoming run of Spring rodeos in her home state.

“They’ll start having the rodeos in California, and I’ll go to those and see how things develop,” said Miller, a mother of two young girls. She doesn’t have any plans to change her tentative schedule from what’s worked for her the past two years. “I think if we can go along the same lines as last year, it worked out really well for us, but who knows how things will turn out.”

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

For your info, today is not March 19th, it's January 50th. And the groundhog DID see his shadow and lied! The Weather Channel is really the BAD Weather Channel.

When is the last time you saw "Today is beautiful and so is the rest of the week" on there? Never. If the weather is nice and they have nothing to report, they'll replay horror weather from 15 years ago! Frustrating, huh.

Well, that's the way it is in the world. BUT GOD!! He's here for us. Phil. 4:19 says that God supplies all of our needs. Psl. 46:1 reminds us that God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Actually, you would be greatly encouraged to read all of Psl. 46.

Trouble is around us. Blizzards, floods, earthquakes and hurricanes. It can look hopeless when you are shoveling snow. But when your head is down and you're struggling to put one foot in front of the other, remind the devil of what John 16:33 tells us. "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation, but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world"!

Jesus has already walked through, and had victory over, everything the world can hand us and He overcame. SO CAN WE!
