Looking Sharp -- Abby Penson & Pearl Snappin Take Rodeo Austin

By Tanya Randall

The winter building rodeos are game-changers. Just ask Abby Penson of Blossom, Texas, who won Rodeo Austin to the tune of $14,876.

"I'm still on cloud nine," said the 23-year-old barrel horse trainer. "I still can't believe it."

The last of the big winter stock show rodeos, Rodeo Austin was limited to 96 entries and used a tournament style format. The first round was held during the first 12 performances with eight contestants running in each. The top 16 contestants advanced to one of two Semifinals with eight advancing to the Finals.

Kelly Tovar and BB French Fooledya blew the field away in the first round with a 15.02. Penson and her 8-year-old bay mare Pearl Snappin tied for ninth and tenth with a 15.37.

"The first round I ran on a Tuesday night and I was first out and I thought I was pretty lucky," said Penson. "It was a nice run. I was pleased with that and it got me back to the Semifinals. I was pleased to make the Semifinals. Heck, I was pleased to get into (Rodeo Austin)!"

Penson and Pearl roared back in the Semifinals with a victorious 15.13, the second fastest time of the rodeo.

"I was lucky enough to get to be first out again in the Semifinals. She worked awesome that night. The first run she seemed a little setty, so I made sure I rode her up into her barrels in the Semifinals. She couldn't have worked any better. That put me on cloud nine and I didn't think it could get much better than that."

But it was going to get better with a rodeo winning 15.29 in the Finals, worth $9,400 alone.

"I was third out, I believe, in the short go and my goal for the short go was to leave the barrels up," she said. "The third barrel sits about as far down the pen as you can get, so I just needed to make sure I left the barrel up. I went past my first barrel a little bit and I thought for sure that messed it up for me and that I wasn't even going to place. I guess she made up for it on her other two. They couldn't have been any better. I had to wait out the rest of the girls, which was the hardest part of the whole rodeo!"

Prior to Rodeo Austin, Penson was 124th in the WPRA World Standings with $2,018.45 earned in nine rodeos. Now, she's 18th in the World with $16,894.89, and she's got some big decisions to make.

"To be honest, I don't know what my plan is," she said. "I never dreamed I'd be up there. I didn't have any plans on going out for the summer or even making a run. My original plan was to make the (Texas) Circuit Finals, maybe the American Finals, and just work my way up there this year. Now, with this win, I've got to think about going out this summer. I don't want to mess up what I have going. I still don't have a plan."

Weighing into her plans is her recent marriage to husband Cody this past September.

"They say the first year of marriage is the hardest, so I'd hate to be gone our whole first year of marriage. But he's very supportive and we'll make a plan. I had been planning on going to some of the bigger ones like Reno and Cheyenne, just to go, but now I really have to put it all into a plan and stick with it."

Penson also has obligations with her outside horses.

"I love starting colts," she said. "That's my favorite thing to do. I've got a futurity horse for a customer this year. The futurities are just as fun as the rodeos. I placed fourth on her at the futurity at

Gone But Never Forgotten, Ed Wright, '46-'16

Edwin Fuller Wright, 69, of Dublin, submitted his life to our Lord Father in Heaven on Monday, March 28, 2016. Ed was born in Onslow County, North Carolina to Edwin Chester Wright and Miram Beryl Fuller on October 14, 1946. Ed was raised in Gatesville, Texas and at an early age developed a deep love and a special way with animals, especially horses. He spent his childhood riding, roping, and wanting to be a cowboy. He attended college at Eastern New Mexico University and met the love of his life, Martha Tompkins Wright at a college rodeo. They were married in January of 1972, settled in Erath county, and together became one of the most successful duos in the sport of barrel racing for over 40 years.

Ed will gladly tell you that Martha's way with horses is a God given talent but he on the other hand did not come by it as easily and really had to work at his craft. Ed was a talented roper and steer wrestler, having qualified to the Texas Circuit Finals multiple times and later earning a PRCA Gold Card. Through the decades Ed and his wife raised, trained, and competed on some of the best horses in the country. The /W brand became synonymous with GREAT barrel racing horses. Ed was also a world renowned clinician, teaching barrel racing clinics for over 3 decades, nearly 40 weekends a year, in states from coast to coast and Canada. He loved helping students learn to better communicate with their equine partners through timing and feel.

Ed leaves behind a legacy of great horses, great horsemanship, and great friendships. He touched so many lives and made a positive impact on anyone who rode with him or received his advice. His voice and teachings will live long beyond his time here on Earth. He would not want anyone to be sad and would likely slowly and calmly say, "take the emotion out of it" and get on with the task at hand. Survivors include his wife Martha; cousins: Jim Fuller of Tyler; Tom Fuller of Arlington; and Suzanna Collins of Chilton. Also, many close friends who are loved as family. The rodeo world is a very large group and is known for support and sympathy in times of need. The family and friends of Ed are blessed to be apart of it.

Ed was preceded in death by his parents Edwin and Beryl. In lieu of flowers, the family ask for contributions to the Cowboy Church of Erath County in Stephenville.

The family will receive friends Thursday night, March 31 from 6-8 p.m. at the Cowboy Church of Erath County in Stephenville. The funeral service will be Friday, April 1 at 10 a.m. also at CCEC. The church is located on Hwy 67 towards Glen Rose. CCEC, 4945 US Hwy 67, Stephenville, Tx 76401, (254) 968-2210

BlazeMan Laid to Rest

By Ann Bleiker, for www.WPRA.com

It was with heavy hearts that 2015 WPRA reserve Rookie of the Year Vickie Carter and the Hendrix family had to say goodbye to Blazin Ta Fame, who gave everyone so much in 2015. BlazeMan, an 11-year old gelding by Blazin Jetolena out of Princess Dasher, a Dash Ta Fame mare ended his battle with colic complications on Easter Sunday, March 27, 2016.

"On Easter Sunday, BlazeMan ends his long battle with colic complications and joins his angel in the sky, Rachel Hendrix," noted Clay Hendrix, Rachel's father and owner, with wife Annette, of BlazeMan, on his Facebook page. "It's only fitting that today was the day. We are at the Gardnerville High School Rodeo on Easter Sunday. When Rachel made this run in Gardnerville, we knew Blaze was for real. It was a great ride and with broken hearts we end this part of the journey. Thank you to Vickie Carter for your time and dedication."

Carter, a veteran in the game and a horse trainer who has been in the business of selling good horses, rode in 2015 for Rachel Hendrix, BlazeMan's owner that died in January 2014 of carbon monoxide poisoning at age 18.

Rachel along with her parents had dreamed of BlazeMan taking her to the Wrangler NFR, so following her untimely death, the parents asked Carter to make a run at the NFR on him. So Carter bought her WPRA card and hit the road. The duo collected wins from Yuma, Ariz., to Jerome, Idaho, to Bremerton, Wash., en route to a berth in the Wrangler NFR and a shot at the WPRA Rookie of the year title. Carter wore a Ridin for Rach patch on all her shirts throughout the year and was looking forward to running down the alley at the Thomas and Mack on BlazeMan. Unfortunately, right before Thanksgiving the gelding underwent emergency colic surgery and would be sidelined for rodeo's "Super Bowl."

Carter would borrow a horse for the 10 days of the NFR and finish 14th in the world with $83,768 and second in the Rookie of the Year Race.

The WPRA sends its condolences to all those affected by the loss.

The Patriot. That was really her first futurity, and my first big futurity really. I've enjoyed doing that as well." Penson (formerly Pursifull), who grew up around Paris, Texas, came from a non-rodeo family, although her dad does have a great eye for a horse. Most of her good horses were picked up by her Dad at the annual 6666's Ranch Sales, including Pearl, who was purchased as a 2-year-old. "All of my colts that I've trained myself and had success with have come from them," she said. Pearl is following in the hoof prints of Penson's 2006 Josey Jr World Champion Meradas Packing Six and 2011 Josey Reunion Champ Shortoaks Truckstop. "She was super broke but kind of a handful. She had a year off before we even started messing with her again. I didn't even start her until the summer of her 4-year-old year, and I was riding her every day and she still bucked me off one day. She's so athletic it's crazy and she's too smart for own good too. She picked up faster than any horse that I've ever seen. She just took off and ran with it." Next up for Penson is Huntsville, Texas, this weekend and that's it. "I'm actually going to take the next weekend off," she said. "I think she deserves a good little break. Corpus (Christi) is coming up too. I placed there last year, so I'm for sure going back there. I'm going to the BBR Finals the next weekend with my futurity colt, and I'll run her there too."

A Special Race to Honor A Special Friend

1st Annual Running For Lara March 26, 2016, Dade City, FL

After the recent tragic loss of Lara Dewees, friends came together to hold the 1st Annual Running For Lara Barrel Race, March 26, 2016 in Dade City, FL to raise money to help Lara's 2 year old son Layton. An emotional moment kicked off the day of barrel racing; as Lara's son, Layton, was the 1st rider of the day in the 1st class of the the day, the Pee Wees. The barrel race also included an Open Class with Senior and Youth Side pots. It made for a busy day of barrel racing with over 340 entries. "We had a glorious day and everyone was riding for Lara and Lara was riding with them!", said one of the organizers, Tammie Rogers.

The barrel racing community rallied together to raise over $32k for Layton's trust fund between the barrel race, silent auction, concession, raffles, tshirts and donations. Anyone wishing to donate to Layton's trust fund can make checks payable to Layton W. Moesching and mail to: 30814 Pasco Rd., San Antonio, FL 33576.

ERA Premier Tour Kicks Off in Oregon

By Hope Sickler

Redmond, Oregon was the first stop on the 2016 Elite Rodeo Association's (ERA) Premier Tour, showcasing some of the very best in the business.

In the barrel racing, the roster included 11x World Champion Barrel Racer Charmayne James, young standout barrel racer Chayni Chamberlain, 2016 The American Champion Barrel Racer Sarah Rose McDonald and several other very notable and successful barrel racers and trainers.

2015 WPRA World Champion Barrel Racer and soon to be wed Callie duPerier from Boerne, Texas took top honors the first night of the rodeo with a time of 14.60, which paid $3,625. 2014 WPRA World Champion Barrel Racer Fallon Taylor took second with a 14.81 while 2009 WPRA World Champion Brittany Pozzi-Tonozzi rounded out the top 6 with a 15.28 for $625.

duPerier rode Dash Ta Diamonds aka Arson to the win Friday night in the first performance and commented on how much she is enjoying the format of the ERA due to having to spend less time on the road, which in turn allows her horses to rest more before rodeos.

On Saturday night in the second performance, Carmine, Texas barrel racer and current NFR arena record holder Taylor Jacob took home top honors when she and This Firewater Rocks, also known as "Tink", blazed the cloverleaf pattern in 14.06-seconds, over half of a second faster than what won it the previous night! Wyoming standout barrel racer Ashley Schafer was second with a very close 14.09 while arguably one of the greatest barrel racing teams in history, Lisa Lockhart and Louie finished off the top 6 with a 14.43.

"I have only ran "Tink" about 8-times before Redmond, so I am still getting to know her moves and her quirks," Jacobs said. "The first night, I didn't feel like I was in control and instead of riding

"Tink", I was more or less just along for the ride instead of being an active partner. I hit the third barrel the first night but wasn't completely bummed because she did clock well. The second night, I felt more mentally and physically prepared and went into the arena with a mission to be present and active each step of the way. We did better and ended up winning the round. She felt awesome and we felt like a team."

Taylor was very pleased with how the first stop on the tour for the ERA went and is very impressed with the path that the ERA is taking.

“The rodeo was packed both nights and the amount of energy was unbelievable. I definitely think the first ERA rodeo exceeded everyone’s expectations! What I really like about the ERA is that I am not just another barrel racer. The barrel racing is all about being fast and for production purposes to get in and out of the arena as quickly as possible is pertinent, which leaves very little time for people to get to know you by anything other than your 15-second performance. The ERA is trying to showcase not only our talents but also what goes into being a cowgirl. The ERA is trying to make the cowboys and cowgirls more approachable and relatable,” explained Jacobs.

By generating more of a personal relationship with the fans, the ERA is hoping that more people will spectate the sport of rodeo and make it as popular as other “professional sports”. Another way they are generating more personal relationships between the fans and the contestants is by initiating time where fans come meet the contestants up close and get to know them and what goes into the sport of rodeo.

“The amount of fan interaction was something very new to rodeo and it was a huge hit. Before the rodeo started, we were allowed to go onto the arena floor and meet fans. We were able to sign autographs and speak with some of the fans and it gave them the opportunity to get to know us outside of the arena fences.”

Don’t miss the next stop on the ERA Premier Tour which is this coming weekend in Nampa/ Boise, Idaho at the Ford Idaho Center.

Colorado Mountain Classic Season Opens Strong

Colorado Mountain Classic Season Opener
March 26, 2016, Cortez, CO

Colorado Mountain Classic launched their first race of the year in Ignacio on March 26th. Over a hundred runners showed up; some traveling through complete blizzard like conditions to compete. The cold weather and snow at the event didn't slow them down, however, and the club paid out over $3,000 in winnings. Next race is May 21st in Cortez, Colorado co-sanctioning with WPRA Mountain States and Turquoise circuits. Come join in on the fun. More information is available at www.coloradomtnclassic.com.

regions where Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) members compete for points in their designated area to advance to their circuit finals. The winners of the 12 circuit finals as well as the year-end champions in each rodeo event are then invited to the RNCFR for a total of 192 contestants. With over $1 million in cash and prizes, winning contestants will win substantial paychecks and get a $20,000 certificate towards the purchase of a Ram vehicle, a new Polaris RANGER UTV and a championship package that includes buckle, saddle and new pair of boots.

Events showcased at the RNCFR include: bareback riding; steer wrestling; team roping (heading and heeling); saddle bronc riding; women's barrel racing and bull riding. The first four performances are being broadcast online on the Wrangler Network. The finals on April 10th will air on CBS Sports.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's March. The ole "in like a lamb, out like a lion" or "in like a lion, out like a lamb" debate. Does anyone out there know which one it is? Or if it's both? I personally WANT it to be lion first. That just gets the worst out of the way and we can get right into "April showers bring May flowers" mode. Which is also nonsense! Do you ever find yourself just going through some of these old wives tales and Farmer's Almanac predictions, without even thinking about it? I do. I remember a time when I believed that "cleanliness is next to Godliness" and "God helps those who help themselves" were actually in the Bible.....

It's like gossip. Sometimes you believe what someone says about someone else BECAUSE YOU WANT TO, not necessarily because it's true. Isn't that sad? Is that how you want things to go for yourself? I doubt it. We all want to be well thought of. We want people to think about us (if they even DO think about us) in a favorable light. We don't want to be criticized, second guessed, lied about or cheated on! (I think I could write a country song!!)

So, let's read Gal. 6:7 in the Amplified Bible. It says, "Do not be deceived and deluded and misled; God will not allow Himself to be sneered at (scorned, disdained, or mocked by mere pretensions or professions, or by His precepts being set aside.) He inevitably deludes himself who attempts to delude God. For whatever a man sows, THAT AND THAT ONLY is what he will reap." Isn't it fun to have the answer to a problem found so easily? SOW GOOD THINGS AND THEN YOU WILL ONLY REAP GOOD THINGS! Sow friendship! Sow mercy! Sow forgiveness! Then enjoy the result!!!
