2009 Barrel Horses of the Year

We're excited to announce that the 1st Annual 2009 Barrel Racing Report Barrel Horses of the Year will be announced in the April 6th issue of the Barrel Racing Report! Thank you for all of your votes, the turnout was awesome.

Cruise, Witherspoon Star in Rodeo Film

The Los Angeles Times has reported that Tom Cruise has entered into negotiations with Sony Pictures to star in the film Paper Wings as a rodeo champion who falls in love with a talented young country singer, to be played by Reese Witherspoon.

No writer or director has been attached to the project yet, but the Times reports that Will Smith will produce the film through his Overbrook Entertainment company and would like to hire Gabriele Muccino, who directed Smith in The Pursuit of Happyness and Seven Pounds.

2010 Rodeo Legends Announced

CALGARY, ALTA. – The Canadian Rodeo Historical Association (CRHA) has announced the Ranchman's Legendary Achievement Award recipients for 2010. The honored cowboys are Brian Whitlow, DC Lund and Allan Currier. They will each be recognized by the CRHA at separate rodeos this summer, which will be announced in an upcoming issue Canadian Rodeo News.

Brian "Red" Whitlow competed at his first rodeo at the age of 11 in his hometown of Cremona, Alta. Although he would later try his hand at a number of events in the amateur circuit, Whitlow's early experiences in the steer riding paved the way for his career, and he began to focus on bull riding. His first pro rodeo was at Lacombe, Alta. in 1965. The athlete went on to win the 1967 Permit Award, and even took a crack at the All-Around by adding steer wrestling to his professional events. Whitlow retired from rodeo in 1976 after a Harvey Northcott bull named Al Capone broke his leg twice in one season. But by that time, Whitlow and his wife Joy had three children and he decided to settle down and concentrate on farming, but still found time to judge.

Eight-time Canadian cow milking champion Allan Currier (Czar, Alta.) was an active competitor for nearly two decades, and dominated the standings in his event for most of the 1980s. His first Canadian championship was in 1970. He started practicing and then started going to rodeos, competing in the tie-down roping. Then someone suggested he test his skills in the cow milking. He jokes that he stopped roping calves and focused on cow milking "when I started getting a little too slow to get... any money." He also won the wild cow milking championship at the Calgary Stampede in 1970, 1982 and 1983, and won the Central Alberta Circuit championship eight times. Currier rodeoed professionally for the last time in 1987, the same year he claimed his eighth Canadian title.

DC Lund started rodeoing professionally in the 1950s, following a family tradition of involvement in the sport. He says he learned to rodeo "First by trial and error, then practice, then observation, then practice, then rodeo school, then practice, then more instruction, and more practice," but cites his father, Clark Lund, as the person who really helped him get going. He worked all the events except bull riding, and was an especially strong contender in the steer wrestling and tie down roping. He was the 1965 Southern Alberta Rodeo Circuit steer wrestling winner, and won the All-Around in that same circuit in 1974. In 1967, Lund was one of two cowboys selected to represent Canada in a six-month tour of Australia as guests of the Australian Roughriders Association. 2009 Hall of Fame inductee Jim Clifford, was the other competing alongside Lund in the International Championship Rodeo series. Back in Canada, Lund finished the season in the steer wrestling within the top five in 1972, 1973 and 1975. Lund is now retired. --Courtesy of www.rodeocanada.com, CPRA.

HAY: Free Choice Aflalfa and Grass
ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Wrap her legs, poultices and EPF-5. For us turning our horses out a lot helps them stay sound throughout their body
BIGGEST INFLUENCE ON TRAINING TECHNIQUES: My husband (Bo) and I train barrel horses together so of course he influences my training quite a bit. I try to stay open minded and learn by watching other people in our industry. There are so many knowledgeable people in our industry that we can reach out to when we have questions with a particular horse we are training. It is so nice to have such a good bunch of people that will give you honest opinions and training tips. I really enjoy the everybody helps everybody else environment we compete in. Since we train most of our horses to go on to be rodeo horses, we have a certain style we strive for with each horse but if that style isn't working for a particular horse we will try something different with that horse. Each horse presents a different training challenge so our training changes all the time. It would be hard for me to pin down one training influence since I have so many influences.
HORSE'S GREATEST QUALITY: She tries so hard every single time and never quits trying!

Biggest Influence on Training

Techniques: School of hard knocks!

Riding so many outside horses and having the opportunity to ride a lot of different horses, you learn something all the time. Each horse is an individual and so you do things in a different manner. Grady and I discuss all the horses on a daily basis and change the training methods as we go. We believe in constant education, if you think you know it all you better hang it up! All my horses have been my instructor!

Horse's Greatest Quality: She's really gritty and determined and gives 110% every time. Very adaptive to situations. Loves to turn.

- THE RUNDOWN: JILL MOODY

Horse: Dolly, TR Dashing Badger Grey mare, 10 years old, 14.3 h, 1130 lbs.

Bit: Jarrett's Gag by Reinsman with a twisted wire mouthpiece

Headgear: None

Saddle: Ammerman

Pad: Classic Equine ESP

Leg Gear: Classic Equine Polos & Overreach Boots

Grain: Omolene 200

Supplements: MVP's Matrix 5 HA and Blood Cell 2X

Hay: Grass & Alfalfa

Additional Horse Care: Leg Saver & lots of ice

Biggest Influence on Training

Techniques: My horsemanship instructor at West Texas A&M University, Gary Marble, and the time I spent teaching horsemanship there shaped my techniques and were instrumental in my career.

Horse's Greatest Quality: Dolly is absolutely a survivor. That characteristic has made her challenging, to say the least, but now that we have that energy channeled in a positive direction she gives 100% but she still takes care of herself, and me, every time she steps in the arena.

- THE RUNDOWN: TANA RENICK

Horse: XV Wild Child, Teddy Bay Mare, 13, 15.3 hands, 1200 pounds

Bit: Jim Warner Rope Nose Hackamore

Headgear: Nothing.

Saddle: Picked up at Paul Taylor's tackshop, doesn't have the brand on it!

Pad: Professional's Choice Air Ride pad

Leg Gear: Iconoclast boots on back and Polo Wraps on front

Grain: Nutrena SafeChoice

Supplements: MoorMan's Moorglo and Pureform Glucosamine Plus

Hay: Prairie Grass and Alfalfa

Additional Horse Care: Keep her teeth done and keep her shod every 5 weeks.

Biggest Influence on Training Techniques:

I rode with Barb Lucas (NFR qualifier in 1985 and multiple Canadian finalist) from the time I was thirteen until I was 25 and we are still really good friends. She is awesome! Kay Young is also a big influence on my training as well.

Horse's Greatest Quality: Always the same every trip and gives 100% no matter what. Very gritty!

By Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There probably are some scoffers out there. They're saying, "You always quote the Bible. How can I know that it is true and a reliable authority?"

God inspired a number of men to write the Bible over 1,500 years. It's a unified book yet those writers didn't consult one another. They lived at different times and places.

Everyone who has seriously tried to disprove the Bible couldn't do it and ended up becoming a Christian! Scientific evidence, archaeological studies and ancient manuscripts all verify Bible teachings. Scores of prophecies in both the Old and New Testaments have been fulfilled.

The Bible was the first book to be printed on the printing press when it was invented and it is the most purchased book today. Major Christian religions do disagree on various things but they all agree the Bible is the Word of God.

There are those who claim the Bible contradicts itself but that is not so. They are quoting out of context and haven't made a real study of the Word. The Bible is LIFE to those who apply it to their lives. It has all the answers to the problems of today because it is God's instruction book for our lives and God never changes. He is the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8). I have seen many lives change for good by God's Word and I know others who testify to that also.

If you would like help understanding this most unique Book and how it applies today, come to our Tuesday night Bible studies. If you want to learn at home just request our FREE CDs which are made weekly at our Bible lessons and they arrive in your mail.

The Bible is full of many wonderful promises for believers. Find out what they are and get set for an exciting journey.
