Maddy Lee & SR Sixums Epic Luck Top Elite Extravaganza Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Futurity newcomer Maddy Lee of Stephenville, Texas, and her wicked 4-year-old gelding SR Sixums Epic Luck (“Astro”) got the biggest win of their young careers at the $20,000-added, 97-entry Elite Futurity, held February 26 through March 2 in the Pavilion Arena at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas. They collected $7,634 for the Futurity Championship, plus $1,661 from Future Fortunes and $1,343 in open carryovers for total earnings of $10,642.

“I don’t know why God gave me this amazing horse as my first futurity horse, but I’m so thankful that he did,” said Lee, who turns 19 on Thursday. “He’s an amazing horse and I knew he was from the day that I started him that he was going to be great. Now he’s starting to show out.”

Lee and Astro led the field by a tenth after winning the first round in 14.871.

“He was just so correct,” she said of their first run. “We’ve been majorly working on his first, and he really got his first down. I’ve just been working keeping his hip underneath him.

“He went straight to the second and switched leads right after the first, which I wanted. He kind of shouldered in a tiny bit at the second. The second barrel, he was a little bracey, but he came back to me when I switched back to two hands going to the third. He just smoked the third. He just set his butt down and slid. That’s what I want for all of his barrels. I hope we can get there.”

Lee suspected she put a little too much pressure on herself and the horse in the second round. They were out of the money with a 15.372 but still captured the average by almost two tenths of a second.

“No one put pressure on me, but I kind of put pressure on myself and him for the second round, just knowing that everyone would be watching us after having run one of the fastest times that had been run that week,” she said. “I think I rode him too aggressively. I don’t have a whip on him. He knows how to run. I try to run him pretty calmly. I still encourage him, but I don’t try to ride him like a push style horse. I feel like that takes (the run) out of him. He runs better when I’m just calm and encouraging. I think I rode to win instead of just rode my horse—ride him like he likes.” Although she’s got some things she plans on working on, like softening him at the second barrel, Lee was extremely pleased with her horse.

“He’s amazing and I know what he can do,” she said. “I’m glad he’s finally showing what he can do. He deserves it. He’s always been so good for me.”

Lee did not grow up in a horse family but was drawn to them at an early age. Her sitter had “mean little” ponies that she was determined to ride. Those ponies led to English riding lessons and a hunter, jumper pony of her own. Lee also showed Arabians for a while and was starting to learn to train them for reining when she got hooked on barrel racing. Her hunter, jumper pony was the first barrel horse she trained.

“I didn’t even have any barrels,” she laughed. “All I had were cones. So I trained him on those and would go to Glen Rose to do (exhibitions).”

SHOEING: Shod by Cutter Holloway

HAY: Alfalfa, Standlee Timothy and alfalfa pellets

SUPPLEMENTS: Equinety, ground flax, Vermont Blend Forage Balancer, salt

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Acuscope by Ashley (Truman), PHT boots in the trailer and the night before running, cold water spa before and after runs at events

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I put him on the walker once a week. I don’t run him or go fast at home. I like to do slow work, nothing really tight around the barrels. I keep him pretty round. Before Waco I was working on keeping his hip underneath him. I’ll keep him soft, just the basic foundation to make sure he’s listening to me. Occasionally I’ll go ride him out in the pasture with the cows. I just keep things really slow.

Lee trained her first “real” barrel horse at 14 when she purchased the French Too Fame, Strawflyin Buds gelding Splashin Too Fame as a 2-year-old from Aubrey Hollifield.

"We never could afford to get a finished horse," she said. "I trained him and ran him a lot. He was a good 1D, 2D horse."

When Splash got hurt in August 2023 and needed eight months off after surgery, Lee's mother Kim decided they needed to find an incentive horse and "do the futurity thing." They had learned a little about the futurity game from Hollifield and Scamper Hill, who owned the barn where she boarded.

They found Astro on The Premier Horse. By 5.1 million dollar sire Epic Leader, Astro is out of 2012 NBHA Teen 1D World Champion Sixums Lady Luck, by Deep Sixum. His breeder Schiller Ranch had him in training with Abby Fields.

"I fell in love with his pedigree," she said. "His mom is just so cool. I researched so many things about her. He was the first horse I tried and looked at and messaged about."

Lee spent a month riding the gelding to get to know him before she started working him on the pattern.

"I wanted to know what he was like because I had only ran and ridden a few horses in my life," she noted. "The first day I put him on the pattern, I was like, 'Oh my gosh!' I called my mom right away—'This horse is amazing!' I knew it from the start. He always wanted to be good. He never had an off day."

Astro made his competitive debut at the BFA World Championship in Juvenile, where he placed 22nd.

"Looking back, I would have done it a little bit differently and held him, but I'm glad I didn't because he's doing so good," she said. "A month and a half before the BFA, he had gotten hurt in the trailer and had to have a surgery to get an infection flushed out. Then he had a bunch of respiratory problems that were flaring up really badly. We made sure with the vets that it was OK to run him, but I went up there not really expecting anything from him. He ended up winning the Juvenile Junior Incentive, he placed in the average and placed sixth in the Future Fortunes Sires Slots. He did really well for what he was going through."

They did even better at the OKC Futurity in the Rookie, placing fifth. They had earned $12,903 in their first month and half of competition.

"He's just so fast," she said. "Some of our runs I'm like, 'What are you doing, dude?' He really knows how to make up time and we're getting it together now."

They had a mild setback at the two early January futurities in Hamilton, Texas, only picking up a little money in the futurity sidepots. She figured he just had an off weekend at the Lone Star Shootout, but when he hit a barrel at the Texas Classic, Lee knew something wasn't right.

"I realized there's probably something in my training that's not right, because he didn't do good at either," she said. "I changed a ton. I switched him back to the right. I trained him both ways, but I had been running him to the left. I took the bonnet off of him and I changed the bit. I did a lot of different things. I changed up how I was training him."

At the Kinder Cup, things started really coming together. They won the second round, placed in the average, won the Amateur Futurity and qualified for the Breeders Challenge Finale while winning $16,202.

"At Kinder, I was shocked because we won a round," she said. "I was not expecting him to be that fast! Then Waco really showed me that we're coming together."

Lee is hoping to make a career of training horses. She graduated high school early and attended one semester of college before deciding to pursue her passion.

"All I wanted to do, my whole life, was train whether it was barrel racing or whatever I was doing at the time," she said. "When I was doing the English stuff when I was super little, I always said I wanted to train horses not people. In the English world, there's trainers that train people. It was really weird going to barrel races and there was no one really to train me or tell me what to do. I always said I wanted to train horses. At first I thought I was going to train jumping horses and then I was going to train Arabians. Barrel racing really stuck, and I never looked back."

She recently sold her open horse to up her budget for her next futurity prospect.

"I'm excited to try to do this for a living," she said. "You don't get rich off of it but that's OK with me. I could never imagine myself doing anything else."

Tricia Aldridge & Adios Pantalones Win Elite Derby, Cross $600,000 Mark

By Tanya Randall

When Tricia Aldridge received the saddle Adios Pantalones had won at the 2024 Elite Futurity, the fenders read “Elite Derby Champion.”

“I never sent those fenders back,” Aldridge laughed. “I was like we’re just going to have to come back and win the Derby. Let’s just manifest it.”

At this year’s $10,000-added, 55-entry Elite Derby, held February 26 through March 2 in Waco, Texas, that manifestation came to fruition with a $4,592 Championship for Aldridge and Adios.

“It’s super cool that he could come back and win that,” said the Sanger, Texas, based trainer.

She and Adios placed in the first round with a 15.101 and came back with a 14.707, the fastest run of the entire event, to win the second round and aggregate.

“His first run, he turned his second barrel really, really close, and I reached down and touched it,” Aldridge explained. “When I came out, Ashley Hunt (Jamey Hunt’s wife) told me she was going to tape my hand down if she saw me do it again! When I came back (for the second round), I thought I’m going to let him have a fast run and just go for it. Trust him to put his feet where they need to be. I still feel like he had time in that run. I’ve never run that horse and thought, ‘Oh, this is the bottom.’”

Their total event earnings, including $1,950 in open carryovers and $3,311 from winning the Xtreme Mini Million, were $9,853.

After leaving Waco, Texas, Adios was at $595,000 in career earnings. Aldridge was hoping that her run at The Big League high stakes open on Monday night in Glen Rose, Texas, would push her over the $600,000 mark, and it did with a sixth place finish worth $6,102.

“I want him to be the first stallion to get to $1 million,” she said. “It’s not really about the money. Of course, we all like that, but I just know that he’s THAT caliber of horse and deserves that recognition...to be in the record books. I want the world to see just how special he is.”

Aldridge purchased Adios, by 9.8 million sire Tres Seis, out of French Bar Belle, by Frenchmans Guy, from his breeder Leslie Bailey as a weanling in 2020. Prior to his competitive debut in 2023 BFA Super Stakes, Adios had already been hauled everywhere. Aldridge had even prepared him for his dual career as a performer and stallion by collecting him three days a week in the spring while maintaining his exhibition schedule.

“I know there isn’t a single step that I skipped in preparing him,” she said. When I got to him as a 4-year-old, there were no surprises.”

Diamond Classic
Barrels & Roping

“He was winning at the beginning of the year and he never stopped,” she said. “It was really cool to see him stay that consistent as a futurity horse, because a lot of times you see them start out great and then fade off or start off not strong and later get strong. It’s hard to find one that stayed consistent all year. Didn’t matter if it was a big pattern or little pattern, indoor or outdoor, he did his job every time and walked out every time.”

Given Adios’ overwhelming success in the aged event pen already, Aldridge has opted to try professional rodeos with a goal of eventually making the National Finals Rodeo.

“He’s so smart and level-headed and he has such a great style,” she said. “If could accomplish all he did at the futurities and then make the NFR there is literally nothing else for him to do at that point.”

She said Adios also needed a change of scenery.

“I think he was getting bored at the futurities,” she said. “He’s been so much more engaged doing the rodeos. It’s so different. He gets to look around and there’s all kinds of things to see. He has to think about what’s happening because it’s always different sized patterns. Like he was second at Jackson with a 14-something, the day before he was at Starkville with a 12.95 and then he won Los Fresnos with a 17.4—big difference in set ups. I think he enjoys that. He’s so intelligent and I think he likes the challenge.”

She said the biggest difference between the aged events and rodeos is strategy.

“With rodeos, in my opinion, it’s a lot of strategy, with the different setups and ground,” she said. “You don’t get to be as prepared as you would like for a lot of places. Sometimes you can’t send them in as hard as you would like. Places with long alleys and short scores have been pretty hard for me, because Adios is a rocket and doesn’t believe we need to go slow anywhere. I have to hold on to him in the alley and help him set up a little bit. It’s those little strategic things that have been the challenge.”

Aldridge is currently sitting 28th in the WPRR World Standings with $12,988.

“I’m just super excited. We really haven’t gone to that many, but he’s been really good. My hope is to keep going along. I’m excited about this next little stretch of rodeos. Hopefully things keep going well and we can get into some of the bigger rodeos. He did get into Austin (Texas) on the (2025) qualifications, so that was exciting.” Aldridge has a slack run on Wednesday for the Bay City, Texas pro rodeo with Adios and the McAlester, Oklahoma, pro rodeo, where she plans on running her 4-year-old futurity horse Truly Epic on Friday. The following week is a Gulf Coast Regional swing with Montgomery, Alabama, and Goliad and Mercedes, Texas.

“We’re full swing over here, trying to be a rodeo gal,” said Aldridge. “I just feel like he’s made for really big things, so I’ll just be his Uber driver!”

Dusky Lynn Hall Edges NFR Barrel Racers in Big League to Win $25K

By Julie Mankin

Eleven-year-old Dusky Lynn Hall has come out on top again in Texas, this time aboard her 8-year-old A Streak Of Fling son, KD Baby Driver (“Enzo”) – and not just in the Youth race.

The Big League Open in Glen Rose, Texas, on March 3 was a slot race for 200 of the country’s toughest horses, attracting seasoned NFR horses and young superstars like Hello Stella and MJ Segers Fastlane. Fans attended the annual calcutta for the Open 3D, which has a $750 entry fee and pays back 90 percent.

In the Youth race, competitors are limited to two slots each. So, Hall ran two horses in the Youth, which was first, and rolled her times into the Open. Aboard Enzo, she clocked a low 14.5 to win the Youth race.

“Enzo had a really pretty first and a really pretty second and kind of blew off the third, but I knew it was going to be fast,” said Dusky Lynn who, when she spied the clock, whipped out the biggest fist-pump a fifth-grader can pull off coming down off full speed into an alley.

By over two-tenths of a second, she became the back-to-back winner of the Big League Youth slot race – and then waited to see if she could be outrun by the big dogs. The Halls could have gone home much earlier, and in fact had a film crew from The American showing up at their house with a drone the next day. But Dusky Lynn wanted to stay and see if her time held for the win. So, they arrived home about 3:30 a.m.

“We sat through 200 of the literal best horses in the country,” said her mother, Dusky. “Kassie [Mowry] was toward the very end, first out on her drag and if anybody had a chance, I figured that was it.”

But it couldn’t be done. In the end, Hall had outrun Mowry – the reigning WPRA world champion – plus NFR barrel racers Summer Kosel, Lisa Lockhart and Latricia Duke, in that order.

“My kid is not the type to get starstruck,” said Dusky. “All the other girls were a little bit in awe, saying, ‘Lisa Lockhart’s here!’ But my kid is more like, ‘Dusky Lynn is here!’ When I was in the stands watching, she was mostly at the trailer with the horses.”

Hall and her sorrel barely bested Mowry’s big grey NFR gelding CP He Will Be Epic (“Will”) by just under five-hundredths of a second to earn the first-place check worth $19,306. But Hall’s run also snagged first in three sidepots, including the derby, to earn her another $5,148. It was a Big League haul for the little girl of $24,904.

Trained by Carlos Renato, KD Baby Driver was one they bought from Lindsay Hoffman last year. He’s by A Streak Of Fling out of Watch Me Go Guys by Frenchmans Guy. Hall won last fall’s Breeders Challenge Finale Derby on him.

She’s had good luck in Glen Rose, having placed second there last year for $13,851 on her left-handed palomino gelding Troublen-vrlooksoogood (“Dexter”) to the champ, Kosel, on Kosel’s 11-year-old rodeo horse Firewaterfrenchfame. Dexter is out on injury reserve now, but this year Hall still landed first on Enzo with Kosel third for another $12,204 (Kosel and her little chestnut Ain’t Seen Nothin Yet son were also second in 2023 for $12,825).

“Dexter loves Glen Rose, but he got hurt out in Arizona,” said Dusky. “Dusky Lynn had actually set an arena record in Glen Rose on Enzo last fall, and won a round of the derby in Hamilton on him in January. I’m looking for some more derby horses of that caliber, but nobody will sell them when they’re running like that!”

For the record, in Glen Rose, Hall also clocked a 14.7 in the Open on her 10-year-old mare VF Eysa Famous and a 14.8 on 11-year-old Wally after he stumbled, ripping a bell boot in half, and stepped way off the third barrel (it placed fourth in the Youth). Earlier this winter, Hall won the American Rodeo’s Western Re-

Nuttin Smoother

2017 Buckskin Mare, 14.2 hands

SIRE: A SMOOTH GUY, PE: $4 MILLION

DAM: By Bys Meter Maid (Dr Meter Reader SI 91)

BROODMARE & RIDING SOUND ONLY.

We didn't plan on selling this mare, she is one of our favorites. Peanut is very broke, and easy to use.

Shes very quick and a catty. She's been breakaway roped on, our daughter hauled her as a 4 year old in the goat tying but she has injury that kept her from a performance career.

She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture. She has a big smooth trot that really covers country!

She's a typical Smooth Guy, very gentle, very sweet but still has some punch! We've raised one A Streak Of Fling filly out of her, she bred easy, foaled easy and is an easy keeper. Her filly is just like her, easy to handle and gentle.

**PRICE REDUCED!

Daughter of
A SMOOTH GUY
BROODMARE & RIDING HORSE FOR SALE

*Peanut is an easy breeder & easy keeper!
She's super friendly & will meet you in the pasture*

Open, $8,500; Call or text Tracy Swan, 254.592.6406, email dustiswan@gmail.com

This mare has been one of our favorites, she's been hauled a little in barrels and won over $3,000 in the tiedown but has an injury that keeps her from a performance career.

Sweetums is a big pretty mare, and she's as solid as they come.

She's very broke, very gentle. We've used her to halter break & round pen colts, our 16 year old son has won money in the tie down on her. She'd be a great ranch horse or trail riding horse, she's great to ride in the pasture.

WCRA Division Youth Introduces Top Hand Bonus at Hooey Junior Patriot

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance Division Youth (WCRA DY) is bringing an exciting new opportunity to the Hooey Junior Patriot with the introduction of the Top Hand Bonus—rewarding top-performing athletes with cash prizes, awards, and VRQ (Virtual Rodeo Qualifier) Bucks. Competitors will have the chance to earn up to an additional $1,000, along with a Smarty Rodeo Training Product and a Turtlebox Premium Speaker.

To be eligible, athletes must:
Nominate the Semi-Finals/Finals round in the VRQ before the first round of competition.

Compete in multiple disciplines to increase their chances of securing the bonus. The athlete with the highest points in a single discipline over the Semi-Finals/Finals round will win a portion of the Top Hand Bonus. WCRA Division Youth (DY) will award the following:

Bull Riding competitors will be eligible for $500 cash plus $200 VRQ Bucks for first place, followed by $300 VRQ Bucks for second and $200 VRQ Bucks for third.

In Barrel Racing and Pole Bending, the top athlete will receive $1000 cash plus $200 VRQ Bucks, with additional payouts extending to the top ten competitors.

Similarly, athletes competing in Team Roping (Open & 10.5), Tie Down, Steer Wrestling, Breakaway Roping, and Goat Tying will see the first-place winner awarded $1000 cash plus $200 VRQ Bucks, with prize distributions extending through the top ten finishers.

Nominating with WCRA, an athlete's performances are tracked through the VRQ system, allowing them to earn leaderboard points and qualify for WCRA DY events, where they can compete for substantial cash payouts and championship titles. VRQ Bucks are redeemable towards the purchase of Nominations with WCRA. When you nominate, they are redeemed on the WCRA App on the pay screen.

The 2025 WCRA DY season features two major events where athletes can earn big money and world titles. The $55,000 CEAT Rodeo Corpus Christi Division Youth Showcase will take place on May 6, 2025, at the American Bank Center in Corpus Christi, Texas. This event will feature the top eight athletes from each discipline on the DY Junior Leaderboard as of April 10. Athletes can qualify by nominating in the VRQ and accumulating leaderboard points. The champion of the event will earn $2,000, $1,500 will be awarded to second place, $1,000 to third place, and $500 to fourth place.

The Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo Presented by Montana Silversmiths returns to Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma, from July 22-26, 2025, with an estimated $400,000 payout, including $215,000 in guaranteed added money. The event will feature both Junior and Youth Divisions, with the Junior Division offering up to $15,000 per discipline in added money and the Youth Division offering $5,000 per discipline. In addition, $56,000 in bonus payouts will be awarded to competitors, including World Champion, Event Champion, and JR Ironman bonuses. All 2025 WCJR Winners will receive an invitation to the Jr Patriot in 2026.

The World Championship Junior Rodeo is open to athletes ages 13-19 in the Junior Division and 13-15 in the Youth Division. Competitors must be 13 to nominate through the VRQ by June 22, 2025, to earn leaderboard points toward the DY World Championship bonus payout. Early bird entry opens on March 17 with a $100 discount on each entry. Open entry is available for any athlete age 10 and above.

Smarty Rodeo and Turtlebox have had a connection even before this partnership through the Top Hand Bonus, with Smarty serving as an official distributor of Turtlebox's rugged, premium audio gear at Smarty Supply Company.

Smarty Rodeo, a leader in innovative training products, is proud to introduce its latest breakthrough: the Smarty Rodeo Super Shorty. This cutting-edge hybrid combines the best features of the Heel O Matic Gen 2 Super Slider and the iconic Smarty Shorty, setting a new benchmark for roping practice equipment. Designed with both durability and performance in mind, the Super Shorty provides ropers with a realistic,

To celebrate the launch, Smarty Rodeo is partnering with the WCRA Youth Division to award a Super Shorty to the top male and female competitors at the Junior Patriot. This collaboration reinforces Smarty Rodeo's commitment to fostering the next generation of roping champions and supporting youth athletes dedicated to the sport.

Turtlebox was born out of necessity after breaking every so-called "loud" speaker on the market during outdoor adventures. Originally built in a garage for personal use, it became clear that nothing else could handle the elements and deliver the volume needed for environments like beaches, boats, and ATVs. Recognizing the demand, Turtlebox set out to create the world's loudest, most rugged outdoor portable speaker—built to go anywhere and be heard everywhere. # HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We've all seen cartoons and heard funny comments for the question, "Do I look good in this outfit?" "Does my butt look big in this saddle?" and many more. I try not to think about what my butt looks like in anything. I practice Phil. 3:13 which tells us to forget those things which are behind. . . . lol!

And last week, I stumbled across a guy who was helping people learn how to better communicate. He addressed tone of voice, body language, and facial expressions. I failed on all of them.

I'm direct. Most people don't like that. I can't hide what I'm thinking from my face. I've thought of a paper sack, but he didn't recommend that. And then, wouldn't you know, Mike preached on Gal. 3:27, "putting on Christ".

If we "put on" the Lord, we'd all be really good looking! He is lovely, peaceful, strong, full of joy and compassion, a good sport (I threw that in) and people want to be around Him. We are ambassadors for Christ. 2 Cor. 5:20. Let's give it a shot this week! I've always wanted to be lovely!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
