Craig Brooks Dominates Lucky Dog Futurity & Derby

By Tanya Randall

Craig Brooks swept the BFA-approved Futurity and Derby at the Lucky Dog Production's Race in Texarkana, Ark., held March 2-4. The Eastanollee, Ga., trainer topped the Futurity aboard Wood Bea French Girl ("Milly") and won the Derby as well as the first two open races with ConfederatesLastLady ("Lady").

In the Futurity, Brooks and Milly won the first go with a 14.669 and came back with a 14.869 to take fourth in the second round for the average win.

"I was out early in the first round of the futurity," Brooks recalled. "When I turned the first, she kind of pulled the reins out of my hands, so I was a little late getting her over for the second, but she sucked it up. I had actually switched hands, so I could put a hand on it because she turned it so tight. She'd been cutting in on me a little at the third, so I had been working on her and she gave a me a nice big pocket."

For the second round, Brooks had already tipped a barrel on Dashin In Heaven—the horse that he rode to second in the first round of the Futurity—so he took out insurance on his second run with Milly.

"My goal was to leave the barrels up, first and foremost," he said. "Her run wasn't quite as good as the first run, but it was what we needed."

The Futurity victory paid $4,687.88 and netted $6,234.32 total with carryovers from the open and it's adult and futurity sidepots.

Milly is the product of a partnership between Brooks and Crystal Shumate, the owner of hot sire BHR Frenchies Socks. Brooks had a breeding to leading Dash Ta Fame son Woodbridge, but his mare failed to settle. He and Shumate worked out a deal to do an embryo transfer on her good Frenchmans Guy mare Go For It Frenchgirl.

Brooks' second-richest horse on the weekend was Whitney Baker Davison's Lady with $5,398.57 in total earnings. They won the derby for $890, but their biggest checks came from winning Friday's and Saturday's opens, worth $1,375.50 and $2,212, respectively. They also swept the adult and derby sidepots for those days.

"I had futurity'd her for her last year," Brooks said of the 5-year-old daughter of Confederate Leader out of AQHA World Champion Rods Last Ladybug, by Sharp Rodney. "I had stayed in Cresson (Texas) while I was running at The American. I hauled over and helped her with her some, and then the night before I was leaving for Texarkana, she called and asked if I wanted to take her."

Brooks has been on the road since the LG Graves International Barrel Race in Guthrie, Okla., in the middle of February. He was also one of the 10 Qualifiers to advance from the Semifinals Rodeo to RFD-TV's The American.

"I've never really done anything like that," said Brooks. "I knew qualifying on a 4-year-old meant I would have to run a 5-year-old out there. Casey (Crowther) really pushed me to do it when I had Shes Packin Fame ("Sissy") for Margo."

With both Margo and Brooks having qualified on Sissy—Margo won the Jackson, Miss., qualifier, while Brooks won Fletcher, N.C.—Brooks chose to ride Grandious Guy, a futurity horse that he recently sold to the Crowthers.

"He did great," Brooks said of the 5-year-old BHR Frenchies Socks gelding, out of Shumate's mare For The Fame, by Dash Ta Fame. "He by far exceeded my expectations."

Brooks added that running at AT&T Stadium in Arlington was a really cool experience, but he didn't feel a lot of pressure.

"I just wanted to enjoy it once I got there," he said, "so, I didn't have a lot of pressure. When you think about all those qualifiers being whittled down to 10? It's just amazing to make it that far."

The American also gave Brooks a rare opportunity to share his life with his non-horse friends.

"My friends back home think I play with horses for a living," he chuckled. "I'm not one that's going to ask them to watch a webcast or anything, but I did tell them, 'Hey, y'all can watch this on TV. It was really cool for them to be able to see a little of what I do.'"

AHCF Announces Results of 2017 Economic Impact Study

The American Horse Council Foundation (AHCF) is pleased to announce the results of its anticipated 2017 Economic Impact Study of the U.S. Horse Industry. The AHCF would like to thank The Innovation Group for their work on this important study.

The equine industry in the U.S. generates approximately $122 billion in total economic impact, an increase from $102 billion in the 2005 Economic Impact Study. The industry also provides a total employment impact of 1.74 million, and generates $79 billion in total salaries, wages, and benefits. The current number of horses in the United States stands at 7.2 million. Texas, California, and Florida continue to be the top three states with the highest population of horses.

“Those involved in the equine industry already know how important it is to the U.S. economy. Having these updated numbers is critical not only to the AHC’s efforts up on Capitol Hill, but also for the industry to demonstrate to the general public how much of a role the equine has in American households,” said AHC President Julie Broadway. “While the number of horses in the US has decreased, this was not entirely unexpected due to the decline in breed registration trends over the last few years.”

Another bright spot for the industry: 38 million, or 30.5%, of U.S. households contain a horse enthusiast, and 38% of participants are under the age of 18. Additionally, approximately 80 million acres of land is reserved for horse-related activities.

“For this update of the study we wanted to get a better picture of the number of youth in the pipeline, which is a number that we have not previously included in our economic impact studies. Additionally, being able to put a number of the amount of land use for equine-related activities is essential to ensuring that we are able to continue to protect and preserve that land for its intended use,” said Ms. Broadway.

The National Economic Impact Study is available for purchase through the AHC website here: <http://www.horsecouncil.org/horsecouncil-publications/>. Additionally, the 15 state breakouts will be available for purchase by the beginning of April. If you have any questions, please contact the AHC at info@horsecouncil.org.

Having been gone from home for so long, Brooks is anxious to head home after Diamonds & Dirt in Waco, Texas, this weekend.

"I'm ready to get home and see my family," he said. He and his wife Elan have two children with their youngest just 11 months. "My wife flew out for The American, but I haven't seen my kids, so that's tough. I just get lot of Facetime and videos."

Over the past few years, Brooks has become one of the more prominent futurity competitors. He said more horses has helped him gain experience, which in turn has lent him confidence. The biggest thing, he said, was learning to jockey rather than train all the time.

"I went to my first barrel race on September 11 and the Towers blew up that day," he explained. "I didn't grow up riding barrel horses. I came into it a little later. All I had was young horses. I had never had an open horse. So, all I knew was how to train. I remember being told, 'Well, ride them like an open horse.' I said, 'Well, I don't know what that's like because I've never had one of those before!' Now, I'm more willing to let go sometimes and be the jockey."

Simple Solutions, Scientifically Proven®

CHALLENGE:

- Constant wear and tear on joints due to competition and training
- Mild lameness from joint pain
- Stiffness and soreness in older competition horses

SOLUTION: Joint Armor™

- Maintains healthy joint cartilage so horses stay sounder longer
- Supports reduced inflammation and joint pain in hardworking horses
- Sustains protective levels of synovial fluid that lubricate the joint
- Super affordable; one jar lasts 75 days

"I trust Kentucky Performance Products' supplements to keep my horses healthy and sound throughout their competitive lives."

—Robyn Herring, WPRA barrel racer and owner of the million-dollar sire Firewaterontherocks

MAKING BETTER BARREL HORSES ONE BABY AT A TIME

JL SIROCCO

Sirocco's progeny lifetime earnings are currently $217,702 with a limited number of foals. His first foal crop are only 6 years old this year. There were three foals who competed in the BFA Juvenile, earning $12,781. His foals mature early, have a lot of substance, and are easy to train.

JL REDDY TO CHARM

2014 Stallion by Red x BF Silver Charm, Takin On The Cash

Eligibilities: Future Fortunes, GCC and VGBRA
 will be enrolled in others as foals come of age

Silver Charm is also the dam to several big money earners in the barrel pen, including JL Fourtafame, JL Third Times A Charm, and JL Takin On Fame. Reddy is a maternal half brother to JL Tularosa (JL Sirocco x BF Silver Charm), ridden by Danyelle Campbell. Tularosa banked over $15,000 competing in the BFA Juvenile Futurity and Kindercup. Reddy is a nice outcross to DTF and FG mares. His first foal crop came in 2017 and they all have beautiful, sloping shoulders, short, strong backs and float when they move.

JL SHERIFF

2015 Stallion by Judge Cash x Solara, Band Of Azure

Eligibilities: Glacier Chaser Classic and VGBRA
 will be enrolled in others as foals come of age

His dam, Solara, is also the dam of JL Sirocco and JL Seraphina. His sire, Judge Cash is recently deceased and his progeny have earned over $1.34 million barrel racing. Sheriff is 15 hands. He is very kind and has been easy to train. His first foals are due this spring. I don't know of many Judge Cash sons standing at stud, so here's an opportunity to try a different cross.

Spring Run Looming for WPRA Members

By Tanya Randall

Spring is definitely in the air. Allergens and copious amounts of horsehair abound.

For the WPRA members in the hunt for a National Finals Rodeo qualification, the transition from the winter to spring run is a time to make decisions. A strong winter run, which concludes with Rodeo Austin that starts its two-week run this weekend, makes everything easier. Yet for the NFR hungry with a less than stellar star to the season, it's already time to play catch up.

If your horse excels outside, the lucrative California run can get you tapped off for a strong summer. The California Spring Run actually kicks off in Nevada with $15,000-added Logandale. The following rodeos in the Golden State include Oakdale ($5,000-added), Red Bluff ($17,500), Clovis ($20,000), Lakeside ($5,000) and Springville ($1,250).

Meanwhile, for the Texas barrel racers with good positions in the standings and those that are trying to regroup have plenty to go to. April in Texas features Huntsville ($2,000-added), Wichita Falls ($2,000), Lufkin ($4,500), Corpus Christi ($15,000), Athens ($1,100) and Jourdanton ($2,000).

While Rodeo Houston will have the largest impact on the WPRA World Standings and the decision-making of a fortunate few, the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo will also make or break potential travel plans.

Although entries close for the RNCFR tomorrow, the list of probable entries includes Taci Bettis, Tiany Schuster, Ashley Day, Shelly Anzick, Christina Munsford, Wendy Chestnut, Kaley Bass, Suzanna Hill, Lacinda Rose, Alexis Baratka, Teri Bangart, Callahan Crossley, Jennifer Barrett, Kellie Collier, Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, Shali Lord, Tracy Nowlin, Carley Richardson, Nellie Miller, Trula Churchill, Lori Todd, Nicole Riggle, Nikki Hansen, and Jessica Routier.

Earnings from last year's RNCFR were very helpful toward Shuster's and Miller's NFR berths.

As for those currently with easier decisions to make, Amberleigh Moore and Hailey Kinsel have been the Ladies of Winter. They currently sit No. 1 and 2 in the WPRA World Standings. Moore has won Fort Worth and San Angelo, while Kinsel has won San Antonio. Both are currently making the Semifinals at Rodeo Houston (and so is #3 in the World Taci Bettis!).

Moore had expressed the desire to spend more time in her own backyard this spring. Although it's not too hard to duck south to California from her Oregon home; she's got a loaded schedule with her up-and-comer Just Plain French ("Jules").

Pro Rodeo Continued From Page 41

April is futurity season in the Northwest, and Moore is hopeful that Jules will follow in her great mare CP Dark Moon's footsteps from the futurity arena to rodeo star. Moore and Jules are out this week at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic in Waco.

Meanwhile, Kinsel has said she'll play the spring by ear. Her two main focuses are keeping her young star DM Sissy Hayday ("Sister") happy and getting in her rodeo count to qualify for the Texas Circuit Finals. Thankfully, she has a pretty capable back up with Thunder Stones ("TJ") for the extra runs. (Incidentally, San Antonio earnings do not count toward the Texas Circuit).

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

So. Are we all ready for spring? Are you seeing any signs of it yet? Yesterday I was doing some outside chores. It was windy. Tons of snow on the ground with ice underneath. Cloudy. I was trying hard to not keep sighing out loud. And grumbling. I was grumbling. BUT THEN! I heard GEESE HONKING! Mike said, "Stupid geese". I yelled, "GO GEESE!" They could trust things I couldn't see! Does this sound familiar?

How many times have we prayed for something but couldn't see the answer that minute? I'm sure we all have. But the answer, like spring, is coming, even if we can't see it. Have you ever been sick and a doctor gave you medicine? Did you go home, take one pill and expect instant wellness? No, you took the medicine and things turned around a little at a time. When we pray, things begin to change. Sometimes we can see it right away, sometimes the answer may be hours, days or weeks away. God never leaves us or forsakes us and I John 5:14-15 is the promise from God we need to keep in front of our eyes while we wait. We are smarter than geese. They have faith in the gift God put in them, and even when they can't see it, spring brings them back north. We should be even more confident in our God. Our answers are coming!!!
