Hometown Victory for Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba at Red Bluff Round-Up

By Tanya Randall

Current WPRA World Standings Leader Nellie Miller and her home-grown superstar Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister") topped the Red Bluff Round-Up, held April 19-21, for $7,216. It was the first time the Cottonwood, California, resident won her "hometown" pro rodeo.

"It's always nice to do well in front of your hometown," said Miller. Her husband James also manages the Red Bluff Round-Up. "I've always done well there, and I got second there last year, but I've never won it before. I was pretty happy to do that."

Miller, the mother of two young girls, also showed off her roping skills at Red Bluff, placing in the second round and average of the breakaway roping.

"They had it last year, but I didn't enter," she lamented. "I was kind of upset that I didn't enter it in the first place. I decided I was going to enter it no matter what this year!"

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "She doesn't get turned out that much. We're usually riding her every day. We're usually riding her out, just to change up and do different things. I don't like to ride in arena much on her. I think she gets bored with that. It's nice to ride her out and do different things on the ranch with her." The World Champion doesn't do much "ranch work" outside of moving cattle. "Before she was famous, she did A LOT of ranch work, but now that she's a barrel horse we try to keep it simple. But, she does like to go after some cattle every now then."

At the $16,000-added rodeo, all barrel racers got their first run in slack on Friday morning, April 19. The top 36 advanced to the three performances, while the remaining contestants had their second-round run an hour after the conclusion of the first round.

Miller and Sister turned in a 17.09 to split third in the first round with Jackie Ganter and Howes A Tycoon. Jennifer Barrett of Buhl, Idaho, and Beduinos Prospector (Prospector Street (TB) x High As Chicks x Chicks A Blazin) and Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and her homebred KissKiss BangBang (Dash Ta Fame x CD Nick Bar x Dr Nick Bar) tied for the first round victory with a 17.04, the fastest time of the rodeo.

Ivy Hurst of Springer, Oklahoma, and the Jud Little-bred gelding Top Of The Roc (Sticks An Stones x Top Bug Cash x Cash Not Credit) got their second run immediately following slack and posted a 17.09 to win the round. Running in the last performance on Sunday, Miller and Sister took fourth with a 17.29 to win the aggregate.

"She was good," Miller said of Sister. "She's been at home and she was feeling pretty rested, pretty fired up really. She's been full of herself lately. She was really feeling good and working good, happy

ProRodeo Hall of Fame announces 2019 inductees

Commotion, one of the greatest bucking horses of all time, highlights a star-studded, 12-member class that will be enshrined in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 3.

"I think this is great," said stock contractor Bennie Beutler. "With Commotion, he either bucked them off or they would win first on him. He was one of the horses who liked to buck, and he never had a bad day."

The rest of the 2019 ProRodeo Hall of Fame class that was announced Monday consists of stock contractors Elra Beutler and his son, Jiggs; four-time world champion team roping heeler Allen Bach (1979, 1990, 1995, 2006); two-time world champion steer wrestler Dean Gorsuch (2006, 2010); world champion bull rider Doug "Droopy" Brown (1969); world champion bareback rider Larry Peabody (1984); notable Jerome Robinson; the Cody (Wyo.) Stampede Rodeo; contract personnel Tommy Lucia; and three Women's Professional Rodeo Association inductees – barrel racers Jimmie Munroe and Sammy Thurman Brackenberry and notable Florence Youree. In addition to the 13 inductees, Guy Elliott, a former arena director for the National Western Stock Show and Rodeo in Denver and the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo and countless others, will receive the Ken Stemler Pioneer Award, which honors individuals in recognition of their groundbreaking, innovative ideas and forward thinking.

Jimmie Gibbs Munroe – Barrel Racer

While Munroe initially made a name for herself in the rodeo arena, winning a world title in 1975, her love and commitment to the association cemented her legacy in the sport.

"This is just great news," Munroe said. "What an incredible honor this is. I was there two years ago to see the first class of WPRA members inducted and was so excited then."

Munroe made 11 trips to the National Finals Rodeo on three different horses and was twice an NIRA National Champion Barrel Racer and once an NIRA National Champion All-Around Cowgirl.

Munroe served as president of the WPRA from 1978-1993 and again from 2011-12. During her first time as president she led the association in acquiring equal prize money, obtained national sponsors and advanced the use of electric timers and better arena conditions.

She joins her husband, Dan O. "Bud" Munroe, in the Hall of Fame. Bud Munroe, who was inducted in 2007, was a 12-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier and 1986 saddle bronc riding world champion.

Sammy Thurman Brackenbury – Barrel Racer

Brackenbury was also an all-around talent, even roping and winning money in PRCA rodeos. Brackenbury qualified for the National Finals Rodeo 11 consecutive times, winning the world title in 1965.

During her career she served as the California Circuit Director, All Events Director, Vice President of the Association and in 1975 served as the President of the Girl's Rodeo Association.

Florence (Price) Youree – Notable

Youree is the first notable inducted under the WPRA umbrella into the Hall of Fame. Youree was among the Top 15 six times and won the WPRA all-around title in 1966. But it was her services to the GRA/WPRA in an administrative capacity that landed her induction. Youree served the association as a director, then president from 1960-64 and then secretary-treasurer, where she made the biggest impact. It was during that time that Youree worked to get the barrel racing included at the National Finals Rodeo as it is today.

"I appreciate this so much," Youree said. "I have loved and enjoyed everything I have ever done with the WPRA and still do. When I won my award (WPRA NFR Lifetime Achievement Award) in Las Vegas this past December, I thought that was the best thing that could have ever happened and it couldn't get bigger than that, but I guess I was wrong."

2019 Calgary Stampede Contestants

The Calgary Stampede is proud to officially announce the names of the 120 rodeo superstars who have been invited to compete at Stampede 2019, July 5-14. Hosting a variety of athletes from North America and Brazil, this year's lineup is packed with Canadian talent, including local cowboy Connor Hamilton. Born and raised in Calgary, Hamilton has earned his first invitation to compete at the Calgary Stampede.

"It is a great opportunity for our community to see some of our local talent shine over the 10 days, as they compete alongside the best of the best in professional rodeo," says Kynan Vine, Manager of Western Events for the Stampede. "We are excited to include skilled young local competitors like Connor Hamilton who we've seen rise through the sport over the last few years."

Stacking the roster with many other notable Canadian athletes, the 2019 Calgary Stampede will see the return of local favorites such as World and three-time Calgary Stampede Champion Zeke Thurston and 2018 Canadian Champion Clay Elliott. Canada is also well represented by young talent in the timed events, including Logan Bird, Kyle Lucas and 2018 Canadian Champion Steer Wrestler Scott Guenther. In Barrel Racing, Stampede fans will have the opportunity to cheer on Carman Pozzobon, Diane Skocdopole, and Kylie Whiteside as they represent the maple leaf.

All six of the 2018 Calgary Stampede champions will return in 2019 to defend their titles and will be joined by rodeo's premier athletes from the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association, Women's Professional Rodeo Association, Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association and Professional Bull Riders. While all contestants are looking to secure a Calgary Stampede Championship, they will also be vying for the $2 million in prize money up for grabs at this year's Calgary Stampede.

"We have the opportunity to showcase the best rodeo athletes in the world to our guests," says Vine, adding "Get ready to see some amazing competition over 10 days this July. It truly is the Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth."

The full 2019 Calgary Stampede Rodeo contestant list is below.

Tickets are now on sale for the 2019 Calgary Stampede, and can be purchased at CalgaryStampede.com

WPRA Announces 2019 Wrangler Network Tour

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association in partnership with Wrangler® is excited to announce the first ever Wrangler Network Tour for 2019. This new tour with long standing corporate partner Wrangler will bring additional opportunities for WPRA members to compete for bonus money at rodeos they are currently competing in.

"We are extremely excited to partner with Wrangler and the Wrangler Network to highlight some of the best rodeos in our business while offering our members a chance at a bigger paycheck at the end of the year," said Doreen Wintermute, WPRA President. "Not only does this Tour provide bonus money for the barrel racers but also for our breakaway ropers, which has never been done before."

The Wrangler Network Tour will feature a total of 18 barrel racing events and a minimum of 5 breakaway roping events for a total of 23. A total of $34,000 will be up for grabs in the barrel racing division paying eight places in the final Tour standings to be running again.”

The 11-year-old mare by KS Cash N Fame out of Espuela Roan (“Reba”), by Blue Light Ike, was raised by Miller’s parents Sam and Roxy Williams. Named Sister, since she was a half-sister to William’s first National Finals Rodeo qualifier Rebas Smokey Joe, the mare made her pro rodeo debut in the 2016 as an 8-year-old.

The following year, they qualified for the NFR and won the 2017 WPRA World Championship with $308,498. In 2018, Miller and Sister finished eighth in the World Standings with $188,134 in just 31 rodeos—the fewest of any NFR qualifier.

Their hoping a similar path with bear fruit with a third straight qualification this year. So far, Miller and Sister had competed at just seven rodeos and have won four of them—the California Circuit Finals, Buckeye, Arizona, Rodeo Houston and now Red Bluff—and have $73,313 won on the year.

Since she’s been home since Rodeo Houston ended mid-March, Miller has been getting runs in on her younger horses, including Sister’s 8-year-old full brother Rebas Cash (“Cowboy”).

“He’s been working really good,” she said. “I’m really happy with him, so hopefully I can start running him more. We’ll just have to see how he progresses this spring.”

Next up for Miller and Sister is rodeos in Clovis and Springville, California. They’ll skip Lakeside, another California rodeo on this week-ends docket, because it would require a long trip to the southern end of the state. Miller won’t head too far outside of her circuit until June for the Reno Rodeo in Nevada to start her summer run.

with the winner receiving $10,000. The breakaway roping will feature $15,000 in new bonus money paying five places with the top point earner receiving $5,000.

“As a longtime supporter of the WPRA the Wrangler brand is very proud to announce an extended three-year partnership, including the creation of a Wrangler Network Tour Bonus program,” said Jeff Chadwick, Director, Western Special Events. “In addition to the WPRA barrel racing bonus, we are extremely excited to include breakaway roping as part of the Wrangler Network Tour bonus program at selected WPRA sanctioned events – Long Live Cowgirls.”

Each of the events on the Wrangler Network Tour will be live streamed on Wrangler Network. A full explanation of the format and schedule of events can be found below.

Format: Points earned at each Wrangler Network WPRA approved live streamed rodeo will count for the Wrangler year-end bonus money. Points to be awarded based off the official results.

Point distribution will be as follows for each round and average:

If payout is 4 places = 1st = 40 points, 2nd = 30 points, 3rd = 20 points and 4th = 10 points

If payout is 8 places = 1st = 80, 2nd = 70, 3rd = 60, down to 8th = 10

If payout is 10 places = 1st = 100, 2nd=90, 3rd = 80 – down to 10th = 10

Following the final stop on the 2019 Wrangler Network Tour schedule the top eight point earners will receive bonus checks according to the following breakdown:

Barrel racing distribution	Breakaway Roping distribution
1st = $10,000	1st = $5,000
2nd = $7,500	2nd = $4,000
3rd = $5,000	3rd = $3,000
4th = $4,000	4th = $2,000
5th = $3,000	5th = $1,000
6th = $2,000	Total= $15,000
7th = $1,500
8th = $1,000
Total = $34,000

Womens Breakaway added to the Days of '47 Cowboy Games

World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) and the Days of '47 Rodeo (D047) are pleased to announce that for the first time in history the discipline of women's breakaway roping will be featured at the Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank. The five-day event will be held July 19-24 in Salt Lake City.

“Our mission is to advance the sport of rodeo with our alliance partners like the D047 who support our decision to provide female rodeo athletes more opportunities,” said WCRA President, Bobby Mote. “This historical addition of breakaway roping at the D047 will give female ropers more opportunities, including the ability to compete for equal and big-money payouts.”

In early January, breakaway roper Jackie Crawford made history when she won the WCRA Windy City Roundup earning more than $52,000, setting the record for the largest payout ever for a single event in the sport at the time. With the win, Crawford automatically qualified into Days of '47 that will feature 32 ropers. Other avenues for qualification into Days of '47 will include: Utah Timed Event Classic-Heber City (May 3-4) WCRA Title Town Stampede-Green Bay, WI (June 1), College National Finals Rodeo-Casper, WY (June 9-15), and the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier Standings (28 athletes as of July 8).

Following the Titledown Stampede, the WCRA will have awarded more than $350,000 to breakaway ropers. Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $3 million in new money to rodeo athletes.

“Thank you so much to The Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo for giving breakaway ropers the opportunity we've been working for our whole lives,” said World Champion Breakaway Roper Lari Dee Guy. “Getting onto the WCRA Leaderboard is an accomplishment in itself, and now to have a chance at a gold medal in Salt Lake is unbelievable.”

The Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo features an Olympic style format offering Gold, Silver and Bronze medals to its winners. Contestants in bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing, bull riding and now breakaway roping will earn the right to compete at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo by winning one of the national Trial Events or through the WCRA's VRO standings. The Gold Medal Round will pay $50,000 and a Gold Medal to each winner.

“As we continue to look for more additions to the Cowboy Games and for our overall fan experience, we felt that women's breakaway roping was a perfect fit,” said Tommy Joe Lucia, General Manager of the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo. “With this addition our payout will be over $1 million, making Salt Lake City a must stop on the rodeo circuit in July.”

Qualifying for WCRA events will be based purely on performance and on series points, rather than dollars won, through a new world-ranking points system. For athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA, visit app.wcra rodeo.com.

Headin' For Home

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

With Easter just a few days past, I trust that we all celebrated the "lamb" and not the "bunny"!
When Jesus rose from the grave, that was the beginning for you and me! He has overcome death, hell and the grave for us. Eph. 4:8-10.

Jesus paid it all for us that we could have life and life abundantly! John 10:10.

So what do we do now? We believe the truth. We ignore the lies of the media that global warming is going to take us out.

Ask your friends in ND, SD, NE, WY and MT. We ignore every commercial on TV that tries to convince us that any medicine is our healer, yet hurriedly letting us know that we could die taking it! Medicine is fine, but Jesus is the healer. I Pet. 2:24.

We walk in love with each other, no matter how hard that is. I Cor. 13:4-8.

In short, we do the dos in the Bible and endeavor to avoid the don'ts. It's spring! New life everywhere! It's available to us 365 days a year because of what Jesus did! Today is Day 1! Enjoy!
