Cheyenne Allan & RCA Smooch N Honor Hustle at High Desert Stampede

By Tanya Randall

Cheyenne Allan and her homebred mare RCA Smooch N Honor topped the $7,500-added High Desert Stampede in Redmond, Oregon. The victory at the first Columbia River circuit rodeo of the season was worth $3,106.

“I was really pleased with her,” said Allan, who raises and trains horses with her husband Randy at their Slash Diamond Ranch in the Yakima Valley between Mabton and Sunnyside, Washington. “I’m in awe. I went down there with no expectations and she stepped up to the plate. It was really surreal. It shows that all your hard work has paid off.”

Allan said she’s been “camping on” Smooch this spring while giving her good mare RCA Mollys Honor a winter break. Molly carried the load at last year’s pro rodeos, while Smooch ran at the amateurs. The weekend prior to Redmond, Allan and Smooch were third at the Rocky Mountain Classic Pro Rodeo in Kalispell, Montana.

“She did really well there, so I thought, ‘Well, let’s try her at Redmond!’” said Allan. Like Kalispell, she and Smooch were toward the bottom of the ground in the last performance of the rodeo.

“I was in the last perf, seventh out (at Redmond),” she explained “Smooch’s a big, strong mare and she handles deep ground really well. I was at the bottom of the ground at Kalispell and it got pretty deep. She did pretty dog-gone good there too. The two girls that won Kalispell—they were first in slack and first in the first perf. They were like a 16.02 and I was a 16.09. I had a couple bobbled there. I had a couple of bobbles at Redmond, too. We’re just getting her figured out and seeing what will transpire to the next run.”

Bred by the Allans, Smooch is a 9-year-old mare by In Honor Of Leo, a son of Jet Of Honor from his last foal crop, and out of Maketheworldgoaway, by Cash Legacy.

“Jet Of Honor is a fantastic stallion,” said Allan. “We really like Jet Of Honor up here. When (In Honor Of Leo) died, we found another older Jet Of Honor stud. We’ve even taken some of (In Honor Of Leo’s) daughters and sons and put them with Jet Of Honor.”
MVP Announces a New Neurologic Health/Immune Support Supplement Product

MVP, the manufacturer of Exceed 6-Way™, has recently announced the launch of Eclipse' PM™ a new generation, comprehensive nutritional product for immune, neurological, and muscle support; the first of its kind in the supplement industry. Eclipse' PM™ provides high level nutritional support recommended to be used in conjunction with an FDA approved drug of choice during treatment and up to 120 days post treatment (or longer as needed) for neurological conditions such as EPM and Lyme Disease.

Dr. Ford DVM, a highly recognized Performance Horse Specialist from Houston, TX discusses his experience with EPM and the use of Eclipse' PM™ in his practice.

“EPM is an extremely challenging, insidious and unbiased disease that can mildly to severely affect a high percentage of performance horses in my practice and often goes undiagnosed” says Dr. Ford. “Full recovery can often be compromised by lack of added immune and neurological support during and post use of proper drug treatment. It’s not unusual to experience 30% or more relapses.”

“MVP’s new Eclipse’ PM™ is a perfect fit for my treatment and recovery program when dealing with the numerous EPM cases I see each year, especially with the Natural Vitamin E for nerve and muscle support! I have used MVP products extensively in my practice for several years and trust the science, quality and integrity of MVP products to do their job as designed,” states Dr. Ford.

Dr. Ford practices in southern United States (9 state area) where the opossum numbers are extremely high and diagnoses several hundred cases each year, substantiated with diagnostic blood work. Eclipse’ PM™ is a palatable pellet that provides several key antioxidants to promote the body’s natural resistance to pathogens by helping remove damaging free radicals (tissue toxins). It also includes high levels of Choline and other B Vitamins to help support normal neurological (brain/nerve) function. Natural Vitamin E and Lysine is added for immune support and Turmeric for cellular oxidative stress.

Changes Announced at WPRA Spring Meeting

The WPRA Board of Directors is excited to announce changes to its internal processes to better serve our members. First, the Board is introducing a more focused committee structure. This structure will allow for more effective and in depth program analysis and evaluation.

The Board believes this will improve the Board’s overall efficiency. Each committee is made up of Circuit Directors, with the chairperson providing periodic updates to the full Board. The idea is to have smaller groups of Directors spend focused time “vetting” committee plans & issues, so when an item goes in front of the full Board, it is well thought out and decision making is more efficient.

The committees are:

- Finals Rodeos (NFR, RNCFR and World Finals)
- Barrel Racing Programs (Permits, Divisional Circuit, Futurity/Derby and Juniors)
- Roping Program
- PESI and the Equine Medications & Prohibited Substances Programs
- Brand Management
- Business Committee

Second, the position of President will become an appointed position going forward. This change will have several benefits, which include improving the delivery of services to you, helping to more effectively manage committee and partner relationships and providing full accountability to the Board. It is important to remember that the President does not currently vote on Board matters. The WPRA is no different than many other not for profit organizations who are facing a declining pool of willing and qualified candidates for the President’s position. The structure is more in line with how other not for profit and for profit businesses work. The Vice President and Circuit Director positions remain the same; they are elected positions, and their role on the Board and their decision making remains unchanged.

These internal changes will be implemented in mid-April. With that in mind, your Circuit Directors ask for your input regarding important topics that you would like the WPRA to address in order to keep elevating our sport on a professional level.

In closing, the Board believes these changes will improve how the WPRA works internally and allow the WPRA to proactively meet the challenges and opportunities of an ever changing rodeo world. The WPRA Board of Directors crossed them back on the newer stud, so they’re Jet Of Honor top and bottom.”

Allan said she just found the bloodline worked well with her training style and she loved their work ethic and minds.

“Allan said she just found the bloodline worked well with her training style and she loved their work ethic and minds.

“I’ve rode a lot of different (bloodlines) and I know what I like,” she said. “After you ride a (bloodline) for a while, you find a lot of characteristics that carry on in your training program.”

Allan said her next goal as a trainer is keeping Smooch consistent and liking her job as she continues her transition to the pro rodeos.

“At a futurity in Lynden, Washington, a few years back, she set the arena record up there, so I knew she had some talent,” recalled Allan, who will run Smooch in the Tim Corfield Memorial Slot Race at the Sand Cup Futurity this coming weekend. “I just picked and chose where I ran and waited for her to tell me she’s ready to go. Now, she’s telling me she can handle the task. We’ll keep entering up a little more and see where she takes us.”

Allan will also ride Molly as needed.

“Smooch is running pretty good right now,” she said. “We’ll see how it goes. She has a little more speed than Molly, and this mare wants to eat the barrels. She really hunts ‘em and really, really likes it. She’s done really well for me this spring.

“Redmond was a shock, a big shock. I was really, really tickled. It will be fun to see how the year continues with these mares. I’m looking forward to a very good summer.”

Have you ever just gone along in life, fat, dumb and happy? (Or skinny, smart and happy?) And then one day, WHAM!, you received fresh revelation?

Yesterday you would have bet the farm that you were right, but today you discovered, that against all odds, you were wrong. ‘Wrong’ is even hard to admit when I’m typing!! Finding out I don’t know everything is getting to be a way of life for me. At The Barn we have been studying marriage.

I thought after 44 years that I had a black belt in marriage. Until we started studying what ‘respect’ means to a man. What respect means to a man and what respect means to a woman are polar opposites. And I discovered that what ‘loving your wife’ means to a man and what respect means to a woman are polar opposites. HELP ME JESUS!!!! LOL! Really, it’s just simple communication. A good measuring stick would be if you notice that light bulb replacement in your house brings up an argument. Someone’s love or respect toes could be getting stepped on. And since we love each other, we would be willing to correct our behavior and see the issue from another’s point of view. I thank God for the Holy Spirit being my teacher and helper, because after these marriage classes, I’m going to need Him more than ever!

Thanks for reading! Together we are ‘ever growing’!!
