Heather Moat's Merri For Gold & Jessica Beckford Top South Country Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Living 10 hours to the north of the U.S. border in Dawson Creek, British Columbia, Jessica Beckford is always looking for hauling partners or extra horses to take and ride when she heads south for a mini-spring vacation.

"Usually I'll jump on a friend's horse when I come down here," said Beckford. "They'll pitch in for fuel, so that makes the drive worth it."

This year, she was blessed to take Heather Moat's 5-year-old mare Merri For Gold for her two-week holiday for the Yellow Rose Futurity in Claresholm and South Country Futurity in Cardston, both in the far southern edge of the Alberta province. She had watched Moat's daughters and occasionally one of their friends ride the mare at the jackpots during the winter and offered to take Merri

THE RUNDOWN w/Jessica Beckford

Merri For Gold, "Merri" 15.1 hands, 1,000 lbs.

BIT: Medium/short shank Sherry Cervi locked gag with three-piece dog-bone mouthpiece. "I usually warm her up in a snaffle or something to do my dry work and I switch to that bit a little bit before."

SADDLE: Usher Brand

SADDLE PAD: Cactus 1" wool felt

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice

SHOEING: Rims on all four

FEED: high fat grain

HAY: Homegrown grass/alfalfa mix from the Moat family

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Align, Hemp pellets & oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Hansbo products, Draw It Out on her legs & back

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "Heather rides her during the week. Honestly, I don't know what kind conditioning they did with her this winter. Heather's pretty busy with high school rodeo and stuff, so she rides when she can. I know she's the first horse she grabs when she needs to go move cows or something like that. Since I've had her, I just ride her out in the field. It's kind of scary because she doesn't have her wind up just yet. I'm not a real aggressive rider, so I know she's got a lot more to give. I don't kick really hard. I don't use spurs on her to run. Sometimes, I'll use them to warmup depending on how she feels, but I always take them off before I run."

for extra seasoning.

"Barrel racing and training have never been my priority," she said, who operates a pilot car business, guiding deliveries of oil, farming and mining equipment. "I always wanted a futurity horse, but I've never had mine ready in time. When this opportunity came about, I thought it's not on my horse, but it's on my bucket list so I was going."

Experience was the goal, but the end result was a surprise championship at the $10,000-added South Country Futurity, held May 10-12. The victory was worth $6,703.

"We were pretty shocked," said Beckford. "I still don't believe it. They've given me all the prizes and the check, and I still don't believe it."

Bred by Donna Beierbach, Merri is by NFR sire Ninety Nine Goldmine out of the Judge Cash mare Merri D Judge. The beautiful blazed-faced, coon-tailed mare was purchased by Moat as a weanling. Although she's only served as Merri's jockey for 10 runs, Beckford had a role in the mare from the very beginning.

Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo adds a Last Chance Qualifier

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank is excited to announce an additional opportunity for timed event cowboys and cowgirls to qualify for the over $1 million Gold Medal Rodeo. This new gateway will be the Priefert Patriot Days of '47, scheduled for July 20-21 at the Salt Lake County Equestrian Park in South Jordan, Utah. The Priefert Patriot will serve as the last chance qualifier into the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo.

"We are excited to team up with THE PATRIOT to provide rodeo athletes yet another chance to fill their pockets and qualify for our over $1 million rodeo, with the added bonus of experiencing Utah and Life Elevated and all this great state has to offer," said Tommy Joe Lucia, General Manager of the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo. "We featured the roughstock events in February at the Lewis Feild Bulls and Broncs event, and we are now pleased to offer the timed event contestants another opportunity through this Patriot Days of '47 event."

The Priefert Patriot Days of '47 Last Chance Qualifier will include open jackpots in steer wrestling, team roping, tie-down roping, barrel racing and women's breakaway roping with the winner in each discipline earning an automatic qualification to the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo in Salt Lake City and will compete during the third performance on Monday, July 22.

"The Days of '47 is one of the most prestigious events in the world! Their facility, quality performances, and payout make this event one of the greatest opportunities for participants in rodeo history," said Kevin Hall, with the Patriot Event. "Patriot participants from all over the world can enjoy some of the most beautiful scenery, qualify for the Days of '47 Million Dollar payout, and compete on a stage that's unlike any other. For the past few years, The Patriot has been working on implementing events with the World's Top Rodeos. We are honored to be a part of the 2019 Days of '47!"

The Priefert Patriot Days of '47 Last Chance Qualifier will consist of multiple rounds in each discipline and is open to anyone. The average winners, not already qualified for the Days of '47 Rodeo, must have nominated the Patriot Days of '47 event in the World Champion's Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) to be eligible to compete at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo. More information on how you can enter will be released soon at www.americanpatriotevent.com.

The Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo will host a total of 288 competitors during the five day event in July 19-20, 22-24. The rodeo will feature 32 competitors in each event (bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing, women's breakaway roping and bull riding) with eight competitors per performance starting on Friday, July 19. The top two from each performance, along with two via the Wild Card category, will advance to the Gold Medal Round on July 24 where ten competitors in each event will compete in a sudden-death format with the winner collecting a Gold Medal and $50,000 cash.

For only the fifth time in the history of rodeo, riders will have an opportunity to compete for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals.

Tickets are currently on sale at smithstix.com. For more information on the Gold Medal event visit www.daysof47cowboygames.com.

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo will broadcast exclusively on PBR's RidePass via RidePass.com or the RidePass mobile app. The final Gold Medal Round will be broadcast on CBS at 12 p.m. ET on Sunday, July 28.

Canadian and International Rodeo Superstars compete at Cloverdale

Year after year, rodeo fans in the Lower Mainland know what to expect when they visit the Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair: world-class cowboys and cowgirls. This year will be no exception, as athletes at the top-of-their-game on the international rodeo circuit will descend upon Cloverdale Fair Grounds from May 17th - 20th.

The Cloverdale Rodeo's invitational format ensures that the top names in four different events (Bareback Riding, Ladies Barrel Racing, Saddle Bronc Riding, Bull Riding) will bring their talents to the Fair to entertain and thrill rodeo fans of all ages. The competitors are divided into two pools and will compete in qualifying rounds from Friday to Sunday, with the finals taking place Monday May 20th at 2:30pm.

"We're so pleased that the Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair attracts some of the best athletes in the world every year," says Mike MacSorley, General Manager, Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair. "This year's field of competitors will put on an absolutely world-class show, entertaining and wowing the crowds throughout the long-weekend."

Western Canada is a hot-bed for rodeo talent, and this year's installment of the Cloverdale Rodeo & Country Fair features some of the absolute best in all four categories.

Among the riders looking to defend their 2018 Cloverdale Invitational Rodeo crown is Canadian Zeke Thurston. Hailing from Big Valley, Alberta, Zeke won the Saddle Bronc Championship at last year's event; he's also a three-time winner at the Calgary Stampede. Zeke is excited about the opportunity to take home the Saddle Bronc title two years in a row.

But Zeke isn't the only competitor looking for back-to-back championships, 2018 Ladies Barrel Racing champ Callahan Crossley is revved up and ready to go this year. Callahan is making her fifth appearance at the Cloverdale Rodeo, and has made her presence felt North of the Border, despite being born in Herminston, Oregon. She is a three-time Canadian Finals Barrel Racing Qualifier and the reigning Canadian Champion Barrel Racer.

In total, 96 of the world's best will take part in the unique Invitational Rodeo Format. Twenty-four contestants will compete in each of the rodeo events. All the 2018 Cloverdale Invitational Rodeo Champions and the 2018 Canadian Rodeo Champions receive invites to the 2019 Cloverdale Invitational Rodeo.

For a detailed schedule of events, performances, competitors list, and to purchase tickets, please visit The Cloverdale Rodeo website.

“Heather emailed me five years ago,” recalled Beckford. “She said, ‘Hey, I see you’re mutual friends with Donna Beierbach. She’s not replying back to me on this filly. I really want her. Maybe she thinks I’m a tire kicker.’ So, I messaged Donna, and said, ‘That’s a good friend of mine. She’s not a tire kicker. She wants your horse.’ Heather said, ‘You’ve always had a hand in her.’”

When Beckford first climbed on Merri, the mare had only been to a few jackpots and had only been in two arenas.

“She’s so quiet,” Beckford said of the mare. “Heather’s kids did drill team on her all winter long. Kids barrel raced her. I’d go watch a barrel race and one of kid’s friends didn’t have a horse so they’d hop on and make a run on her. She’d take it all in stride. She’s a very easy going horse.”

Beckford had taken Merri to three small jackpots at home before heading south. They were second off at the first futurity in Claresholm. She tweaked the mare a little between the two futurities, mostly because the run had hit her.

“I tweaked a few things on the bridle,” she explained. “She had just got that point where they want to get really fast into their barrels and forget about relaxing. So, I just did a lot of walking and trotting and settling at the barrels. I think she just got to running like they do when they realize they can run fast. I’m a real perfectionist and I just wanted to perfect her barrels a little bit more and chill her out around them. So, I just did a lot of walking small circles. When I was loping circles, I’d sit back, bring her back and do a little circle. I found that really helped her. Lots of roll backs and stuff like that. Just lots of slow stuff to make sure she’s thinking and with me.”

Things started looking promising in the warmup race for the South Country, where they placed sixth in the 1D out of 130. Then they jumped up and won the first round with a 14.262.

Beckford didn’t want to get too excited, however.

“The announcer had kind of stumbled on my time,” she recalled, “so I didn’t know if she said a 14.2 or a 14.6. I said to Logan, ‘Was I a 2 or a 6?’ He goes, ‘You were a .2. You’re leading it.’ I thought, ‘Oh my gosh! There’s 64 girls through. I have a really good chance of staying in the top 10 in this round!’”

When Moat asked how she did, Jessica said they had used up their luck placing in the warmup race the night before.

“When she asked me how I did, I said, ‘Well, I guess we wore out our luck last night.’ She was like, ‘Awe, what happened?’ I said, ‘I won the F-ing round!’ She said, ‘Actually?’ I said, ‘Actually!’”

Beckford knew she just needed to be clean on her second run, which was a 14.324, good enough for third and the average victory.

“For my second run, I just wanted to be clean and not get in her way and panic,” she said. “When I came out, I was pretty surprised that I was a 14.3. She has a really big stride and can cover ground.”

Meanwhile, Moat was waiting in suspense.

“Heather said, ‘I’m dying over here! How did you do?’” laughed Beckford. “I said, ‘Well, I knocked two barrels, but she didn’t slice my leg off; she was just working really good.’ Heather goes, ‘Oh, well that’s okay.’ A friend (at the race) said, ‘You did what? You better tell her how you did. I would kill you!’ So, I better not cry wolf anymore. Poor Heather! She probably wants to kill me! I told her how we did and she was just ecstatic!”

Beckford was extremely grateful for the opportunity to ride Merri, saying thanks to Moat “for letting me take her and believing in me—that I could do her justice.” She also wanted to thank the Hofer family for letting her layover during the futurities as well as her family back home and her friend and fellow competitor Sarah Gerard, who won the South Country Derby with RNR Runaway Major (Time Line x Dundees Gold N Sun x Coys Crown Royal). “She’s helped me a lot,” Beckford said of Gerard. “I always go to her for help with my training and riding. She always brings me back down to reality and grounds me. She keeps me from overthinking.”

Beckford if she can find someone to go with her, she’d like to try going to some of the futurities in the states like the Fizz Bomb Futurity in Gillette, Wyoming, where she went to college.

In memory of...

Roy Leamon Barrington
March 22, 1935 – May 10, 2019

This is the story of Roy "Cotton" Leamon Barrington.
Roy was a wonderful man that was loved, is missed, and will always be cherished.
Cotton, as he was called by many was an amazing brother, husband, friend, and a horseman like no other could be.

Roy's story starts on March 22, 1935, one of ten brothers and sisters born to Claude and Jewel Barrington. Roy was born in Brownwood Texas and moved to the Lubbock area with his family as a child. Roy called Lubbock home though he had a home for many years in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Roy was renowned for his horsemanship. As a young boy, Roy did some jockeying for his dad. As he grew older, he participated in rodeo rough stock events, and finally trained horses in the quarter horse racing industry for many years. He was an expert rider and trainer with a keen eye for good horses. Horses were a part of his entire life, and he had a mind for them. He was able to recall details of horse lineage that is irreplaceable. He was honest in his business, and he rode, sold and trained many, well known quarter horses in the racing and performance industry.

He married Ann Caroline Lee, and they had a child, Marc Barrington. He was devoted to Ann throughout their marriage of 35 years. Both Ann and Marc preceded him in death. He later married Sue Overton who also preceded him in death.

Loved ones that will miss him until they meet again include his brother Ben Barrington, sister Wanda McNeill, nephew Matt Barrington and wife Lisa, niece Stacey Barrington, niece Benette Little and husband Jud. His great nieces Katherine Barrington, Clara Barrington, and Tristyn Rinehart. Additional nephews and nieces include John Hammond, Nick Hammond, Mike Irwin, Brad Irwin, Darin Irwin, Claude Lee Groves, Sherri Pollard, and Brenda Irwin. His caregiver Rebecca Mojica.

Faith Gilbreath & DC Dualin Eagles Soar at Josey Jr World Champion Barrel Race

By Tanya Randall

Northeast Texas teenager Faith Gilbreth and her 11-year-old gelding DC Dualin Eagles (“Cujo”) topped the 38th Annual Josey Jr World Championship Barrel Race, held May 10-12 at R.E. and Martha Josey’s historic ranch in Karnack, Texas.

“I told my mom multiple times—I feel like that’s the only arena that I can go and make a consistent clean run in. I love running in that arena. It’s amazing to run in,” said the 14-year-old eighth grader.

Gilbreath, who hails from Gilmer, Texas, an hour to the west, and Cujo turned in a 16.086 to finish second in the first round behind 2018 BFA World Futurity Champions Paige Jones of Wayne, Oklahoma, and High Cotton Lane (The Goodbye Lane x HMB Soon ToBe Famous x Dash Ta Fame), who had the fastest time of the event, a 15.889.

“On Friday the ground was really good,” said Gilbreath. “It wasn’t raining when I got up there. I ran a 16.086. I had a great run that day. We were really happy with it. That was my first 16.0 (in that pen). I had run him at the reunion the weekend before and my times had just been getting quicker and quicker every time.”

With torrential rain, the Josey Ranch ground crew worked their magic for the second round. Paityn Berklund of Anahuac, Texas, and Mahogany Stardust (Roan Mahogany x Peppy San Puro Doc x Smart Puro Doc) turned in the winning time of 16.192 on the wet, packed track.

Gilbreath, who had placed ninth in the 1D at the Josey Reunion the weekend prior, opted not to make her second run.

“We always like to give him a rest on the second day, so he’s not sore for Finals if I qualify on the first day,” she said.

With the second fastest qualifying time, Gilbreath and Cujo were the second to last pair to run in Sunday’s Short Go. They turned in their fastest time in the Josey Arena yet, a 16.059.

“All my friends came around and we were hoping and praying,” she said. “I didn’t even watch (Paige) run. I heard everyone gasp and I thought she hit a barrel. Apparently, her horse stumbled. I was really scared because I didn’t know what would happen. I thought, ‘I could really win this!’ I heard an .06 and I had an .05 and I just started screaming. Everyone was like ‘You won! You Won!’ She did a really good job too.

“It was an amazing barrel race. It was very competitive. It was really fun for my first year.”

Gilbreath wanted to thank her mother Katy Young as well as “Miss Martha” for all their help.

“I’ve gone to her clinics for five years now,” she said. “I’ve learned so much from her and everyone there.”

Gilbreath started riding Cujo four years ago, but it was just recently that things started to come together for the pair. They’ve got the Texas Junior High School Rodeo Finals in Gonzales, Texas, coming up next month where they’ll compete in the pole bending. They barely missed qualifying the barrels by one tipped barrel.

“I wasn’t a very good rider when I first started riding him,” Gilbreath said. “I was just young and hadn’t developed my riding skills. He was a really good horse when I first rode him. He took care of me and everything. He’s wasn’t finished either. My mother just let me work it out and she’d work on him on the side. He was pretty easy to handle and work with, but over the past few months, we’ve really gotten together and done our best.”

Bred by Cowan Brothers LLC, Cujo is by Vaneagles Flyer out of PC Dual Frost, by the cutting stallion Hunkey Tonk, by leading cutting sire Dual Pep out of a daughter of Doc O’Lena.

Sadly, the Cowans didn’t get many foals by Vaneagles Flyer before he passed. The stallion was a son of Freedom Flyer out of Va-

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: “During the week, I don’t ride him a lot. About three or four days, I’ll long trot him through the pasture. I just keep him legged up. I’ll do some barrel work every now and then, but not too much because I don’t want to keep him on them so much. I want to give him something else to do most of the time.”

neagles Chick, by Chick Check. Vaneagles Chick was a full sister to Vaneagles Lil Dude, who won the 1984 BFA Championship with James Ward and carried Renee Ward to the 1985 National Finals Rodeo. The stallion was bred by Gary Westergren, who bred and owns Fiery Miss West, who took Jessica Routier to last year’s NFR. Gilbreath said she plans on giving Cujo a little break over the summer before she starts high school rodeo in the fall.

“My mom and I want to give him a break since he’s been going a lot,” she said. “He’s my main horse and I’ve been riding him for everything. I’m going to start riding her mare and trying to get with her, so I won’t be riding him as much.”

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I think in the past I have mentioned Gal. 6:7 which says "Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap."

Yes I know we've all heard it, but I would bet that it was always in the negative. Let's go a little wild here and turn it around! What a novel idea!

We live in this stinking world where EVERYTHING is wrong. But we belong to God and everything should be RIGHT!

Do you have or ever have had a garden? If so, how many of you tilled up your ground and planted weed seeds? Nobody? Anybody? OF COURSE NOT! That is not the crop we want! We want good stuff!

It's the same way with the words of our mouth. If we are constantly cursing stuff, that's exactly what we'll get. But if we speak words of love, hope and victory, then THAT'S what we'll get.

We sow hope and forgiveness and peace and reconciliation and that's what we'll reap! Now THAT'S what I'm talking about! LOL!

The next time you notice someone's garden, or you're working in your own, let it be a reminder to sow the good stuff! The good stuff in your life will choke out those nasty weed seeds!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
