London Gorham & Fortunes Flame Torch BBR World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Barrel racing phenom London Gorham of Cotulla, Texas, and her new ride Fortunes Flame ("Wanda") blazed a trail in the Jim Norick Coliseum with a 15.080 to win the 1D Championship at the Better Barrel Races World Finals, held April 24-29 in Oklahoma City.

Her mother Amanda Lyne said the victory was more exciting than Gorham's American Semifinals Championship because it was instantaneous.

"It was crazy," said Lyne, who was driving home on Monday. Gorham was sound asleep in the backseat. "I told James (Barnes, Gorham's event coach) that was more exciting than the American Semifinals because we were watching her run and win it right then."

The 10-year-old, homeschooled fourth grader and her 7-year-old mare won $14,785 in just their fifth, sixth and seventh runs together.

Bred by Bobby and Nancy Mayes, Wanda is by Tres Fortunes out of Ahsome Blossom Flame, a daughter of Flaming Jet son Mr HG Flame that traces back to Wanda Bush's great Dee Gees King. Wanda was trained and futurity by the Mayes' daughter Mitzi (now Duke).

Lyne had her eye on Wanda for a while for London, but when her good friend Samantha Palmore was needing something for her daughter Sophie because their good horses were sidelined with injury, she suggested they take a look. The Palmores had immediate success with Wanda, culminating with a 1D Championship at the All-In Barrel Race in Las Vegas.

Almost a year later, the shoe was on the other foot. When Lyne learned that Shawnes French Bug had an injured sacroiliac and her Semifinal's Champion Frenchmans Assassin had strained a suspensory, she purchased Wanda from the Palmores at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity.

While she had a couple of runs at youth rodeos and few float throughs under her belt, Gorham's first big run aboard Wanda was at the BBR in Barn 6.

"Wanda had a really good run going," said Lyne of Gorham's run that won the 2D in the junior sidepot, "but on the third barrel, her backend went out from underneath her and London just pulled her up. We thought she was going to fall with her. She was still a 15.7."

In the qualifying round in the coliseum, Wanda finished second with a 15.283 to her stablemate Cashin Chicks ("Hitman"), who posted a round winning 15.282 with Gorham.

Another Mayes trained product, Lyne purchased Hitman (Time For A God x Star Dancer Victress x Panther Mountain) last July.

"Mitzi rode him through December," Lyne explained. "After BFA, we had him sent out to Las Vegas. Londie ran him in Las Hitman, who was having "brain surgery" this week, also placed eighth in the 1D in Barn 6 and then finished second in the 2D in the championship round for total earnings of $10,043.

As a stud, Hitman didn't get a lot of "TLC" at home like Wanda. He spent a lot of time saddled and being used.

"My son ropes on him," noted Lyne, who said all their horses rarely see barrels at home. "He doesn't see the barrels unless James is there. Since Diamonds & Dirt, he hasn't seen a barrel. He gets roped on and works cattle."

At Oklahoma City, Barnes, who has served as Gorham's tuner at the larger barrel races since last May, always climbed on the stud before Gorham to keep him soft and in the right frame of mind, Lyne noted.

Both Mayes and Barnes have been a big part of Gorham's recent success. Although the horses don't get worked at home, Lyne tries to have someone at the events with her to tune on the horses or coach Gorham as needed.

"She'll listen to Mitzi and she'll listen to James," Lyne said. "She's very coachable for 10 years old. She wants to win, but she wants to do it right and be done. She doesn't want to do something over and

WCRA's First Event to Air Live May 5 & 6

World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) is today announcing live coverage of its WCRA Rodeo Showdown at Helldorado Days on cable network RIDE TV and the new RidePass digital streaming network. The two-day event, May 5-6th at Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, will be produced by Professional Bull Riders (PBR) in conjunction with PBR's Last Cowboy Standing (May 4-5th at Thomas & Mack Center).

PBR, which exclusively represents WCRA's media rights, brokered the deal with RIDE TV and will produce this weekend's simulcast featuring top athletes including Lisa Lockhart (Barrel Racing), Tuf Cooper (Tie-Down Roping), Kaycee Feild (Bareback Riding), Trevor Brazile (Team Roping), Ryder Wright (Saddle Bronc Riding), and Sage Kimzey and Jess Lockwood (Bull Riding), and Tyler Pearson (Steer Wrestling).

Live coverage of the event, a professional rodeo with a new format and $400,000 purse, will begin at 4:45 pm ET with an exclusive RidePass pre-show. The live simulcast of the event on RidePass and RIDE TV will air from 5:00-7:30 pm ET.

Justin McBride (2x PBR World Champion) will serve as play-by-play announcer with Luke Branquihno (5x PRCA World Champion) providing timed events color analysis and Cody Lambert as rough stock color analyst. Kate Harrison and Anthony Lucia will serve as sideline reporters for the simulcast.

The WCRA Rodeo Showdown at Helldorado Days will include the seven standard disciplines of rodeo (Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping, Tie-Down Roping, Barrel Racing, and Bull Riding). In a unique and progressive format uncommon in rodeo, no scores will carry forward and the field of athletes will be cut in half after each round until there are only two athletes remaining. The final two athletes in each discipline will compete head-to-head in the Showdown Round for the $25,000 top prize.

"Creating more coverage for rodeo was one of the main reasons for partnering with PBR," said Gary McKinney, CEO, WCRA. "It's an understatement to say we are very excited about the first-ever WCRA rodeo."

The WCRA Rodeo Showdown will follow an unprecedented industry summit on May 4th at South Point in Las Vegas. WCRA will share its vision in aligning with PBR to create new opportunities for the rodeo industry and will make several associated announcements, including a process for western sports athletes to self-nominate for an opportunity to win $6 million in annual prize money through new rodeo events to be unveiled.

About WCRA

WCRA is a professional sport and entertainment entity, created to develop and advance the sport of rodeo by aligning all levels of competition. Chancey Williams Ink Deal With Cinch Reigning Rocky Mountain CMA Entertainer of the Year Chancey Williams & the Younger Brothers Band, announced today that the rising country music star has entered into a multi-year endorsement deal with CINCH® Jeans & Shirts.

Jessica Wahlert, Marketing Manager for CINCH®, said she and her team are enthusiastic about the deal. "We're excited about the synergies in this partnership including authenticity and passion for the western way of life. Chancey's commitment to country music fans and the entertainment business is an easy pairing with CINCH's pledge to stay true to its core western lifestyle customer." Wahlert described the deal as comprehensive and multi-platformed. Fans of Chancey Williams & the Younger Brothers Band can expect to see even more of the CINCH® brand at the shows and on the tour. Similarly, CINCH® customers will soon see Chancey Williams images online and in-store. The company, while stressing its specific plans remain in development, said co-branded merchandise is a strong possibility both on the tour and elsewhere.

HomeSlice CEO and Manager of Chancey Williams Music, LLC, Dean Kinney, said Williams is the only singer/songwriter on an impressive endorsement roster for CINCH®. "Many of the top rodeo athletes in the world help to represent the CINCH® Brand," commented Kinney, "It is notable that Chancey Williams embodies the western lifestyle to such an extent that a household brand like CINCH® would decide to make him its only music-related endorsement deal. Jessica is a real pro, we are grateful for her support and very proud to join the CINCH® team."

Chancey Williams, the reigning 2017 Rocky Mountain Country Music Association Entertainer of the Year, is set to embark on a second summer tour in support of the Rodeo Cold Beer album, which debuted at number 7 on the iTunes Country Albums chart and number 1 on the Billboard Magazine Mountain Heatseekers chart. A new single from the album, "Hair Trigger Heart" is expected next month, along with a new video release. Williams said he and his Younger Brothers Band, long-known for their Wyoming brand of country music, are a natural with CINCH®. "We've built our career on authenticity," the singer stressed, "I could never see us endorsing a product we don't fully believe in. I wear CINCH® apparel, we see these folks at dozens of the same events, some of their rodeo athletes are some of my best friends. CINCH® is a perfect fit for me," Williams concluded with a smile.

"She's such a quiet little rider it doesn't look like she's doing anything. She did ask for a whip yesterday and James held it up to her and said, 'I'll use it on you, but you're not getting it. You're not getting a whip on a 6-year-old and a 5-year-old.'"

Gorham spends a lot of time at home just riding bareback. "She would prefer to ride bareback and she does that a lot," noted Lyne. "We really just exercise the horses. She might be down there with her brother while he ropes. She'll work cattle, pen the steers and run the calves out, but she doesn't work barrels and poles."

This next weekend, Gorham will be back at a youth rodeo, hanging out with her friends. Wanda is getting a break and Hitman will be recovering, so she'll be riding 4-year-old Rebeccas Lil Rambo, a futurity horse that she purchased from Mayes.

"London says she's buying Rebeccas Lil Rambo (SL Paddys Little Pep x Cimmaron Rose x Chicks Beduino) herself with the money she won at The American," laughed her Mom, who wanted to thank Barnes, Mitzi and her husband J.O. Duke, Dr. Marty Tanner, her parents Phil and Sarah Lyne and sister Samantha Lyne Mauney. She also wanted to commend the BBR and its crew.

"The BBR is so amazing," added Lyne. "She won almost $25,000 and made three runs. It's so well run. They accommodate anything and everything. It's just so nice."

Oen Continues Winning Streak at BBR World Finals

By Hope Raley

Pete Oen is on a roll. In fact, he and Monica McClung's 4-year-old PerksOf Being Famous have been on such a roll that I can bet a photo of the two of them is pictured next to "consistent" in the Merriam-Webster's Dictionary. From one end of our great country to the center, Oen is unstoppable wherever he shows his face, and this past week was no exception. Oen and PerksOf Being Famous, otherwise known as "Layla", took top honors in the futurity in Oklahoma City at the Better Barrel Races World Finals.

"It was a tough field of horses, but Layla shined and did her thing once again," explained Oen. "I am just happy to be along for the ride! She is an incredible horse."

Arriving home from the Washington Futurities in the early morning hours on April 17th, Oen gave all his futurity colts the next week off. Having spent the past two weeks traveling and in Washington, Oen wanted to make sure that his colts had the adequate rest that they needed before the BBR World Finals. "Layla" didn't even see a barrel for 10 days, from her last run in Washington on the 15th, to her first exhibitions in Oklahoma City.

"She (Layla) doesn't need a lot of barrel work. My thoughts are when these colts get solid enough and they know their job, they don't need to be tuned on and worked several times a week. I spend most of my time, with most of my futurity colts, keeping them fit and in shape, which is spent doing a lot of off pattern riding."

Oen describes the 4-year-old Dash Ta Fame daughter, out of French Lady Perks by Frenchmans Guy, as very solid and honest. He also noted that she is very forgiving and mentally stable, which he believes aids in her success.

"Some horses are not that easy going or forgiving, and some horses try to do the wrong thing at the wrong time, which in turn makes our job harder. Layla is most definitely not like that. Monica (McClung) instilled such a great foundation on her where all I do is ride her up into her turns, and then hang out and catch a ride," Oen said.

One of the many secrets to the Million-Dollar trainer's success is his mental game. Admitting that he still gets nervous and caught up in the moment from time to time, Oen has literally trained his brain to 'chill-out' before his barrel runs.

"I have had to learn how to control my brain and the nerves that come with this sport, and the way that I have done that is by reminding myself that this particular run is not life or death; if it doesn't go the way that I want it to, or if it falls apart, there is always the next run and I am going to get to run this horse again, sometimes at equally as big, if not bigger events."

Oen believes a lot of athletes, whether on the back of a horse or not, get so caught up in one run, or one game, or one race that they forget to look at the bigger picture. They forget that there is always going to be another run or another opportunity to shine.

"It is definitely good to get excited about each run and to try your best, but sometimes things are not going to go as you would like them to. I have learned to shake that off and to go and try to make my best run at that moment, and when I take off down an alleyway, all of the nerves and jitters just leave my body," said Oen.

With the appearance of no nerves or jitters in sight, Oen and "Layla" won 2nd in the first round of the futurity with a 15.312 at the BBR World Finals behind Collinsville, Texas trainer Kelsey Lutjen and Winners Game Version smokin' fast time of 15.296.

Outrunning the rest of the competition by 2-tenths of a second, Oen just wanted to be smooth and clean in the second round.

"The roofline in the barn that the futurity was in dips down on the third barrel, causing the third barrel to look more confined than the rest of the pattern, and it seemed to challenge a lot of horses. My goal in the first round was just to get her around that third barrel and to stay aggressive the entire way."

Achieving his first-round goal beautifully, Oen reminded himself to not 'screw it up' in the second round, that all he needed to do was to be clean and somewhat smooth with that 2-tenth lead over the rest of the field besides Lutjen.

"I knew that the chips were going to fall where they may, but I was going to give it my best effort to bring home another championship," explained Oen.

With both Lutjen and Janet Staton (who finished fourth in the first round) in the drag ahead of Oen in the second round, he was able to listen and see how their runs turned out. With both making beautiful, fast runs, Oen had his work cut out for him by the time he started down the alley.

With a beautiful first and second barrel already turned, Oen continued to ride aggressive to the third barrel in hopes of squeaking by.

"She got a little short going into the third barrel and I actually bumped it. It was going to fall, so I literally let go of the reins to slap the third barrel in its upright position. We in turn ended up blowing off the third barrel, out the pen, and when they announced my time, I was shocked."

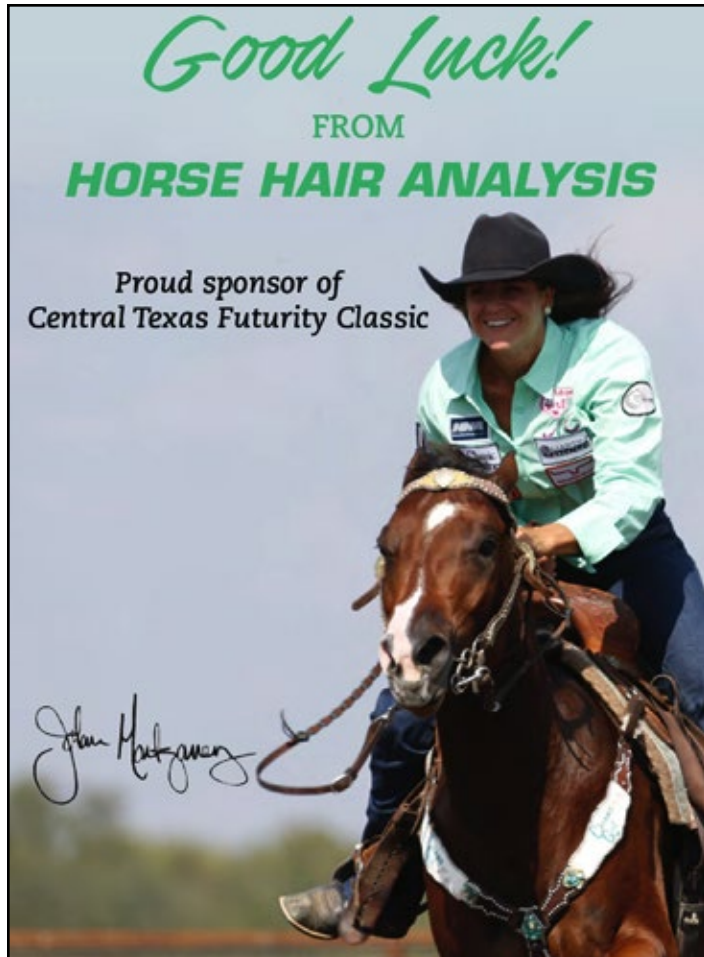

Posting a 15.376, which won them second in the second round behind Diamonds and Dirt Champions Janet Staton and JS Milo and Stitch, combined with their 15.312 from the first round, gave Oen and "Layla" a combined time of 30.688 on two runs.

"These wins are all very special to me, and they are not always about me. It is about the owners and the horses. It's so much fun to get to call an owner and let them know their horse has won. To hear the excitement in their voice, it makes me feel like I've done my job and I like making people happy. It also helps keep owners hooked on this sport and to continue from year to year."

Oen would like to extend a huge 'thank you' to his team and to his sponsors. Without them, he would not be able to do what he does. Oen would also like to thank the producers of the BBR World Finals. With several thousand runs ran over the week, the ground stayed consistent and fast, and the prizes and money were greatly appreciated.

Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Capture Clovis

By Tanya Randall

After a nearly five-week rodeo vacation, Hailey Kinsel and her palomino rocket DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis") picked up right where they left off at Rodeo Houston, mid-March.

The Cotulla, Texas, barrel racer and her 7-year-old mare topped the $20,000-added Clovis Rodeo, held April 27-29 in California, for $7,276. They also placed third at the Lakeside Rodeo for $1,534.

"I had never been to California before I decided to go on this run," said Kinsel. "I really loved both rodeos. At Clovis, they put on a really good show. You could tell they care and made it good for us. It was nice. I definitely look forward to coming back if I can."

After Rodeo Houston, Kinsel went to two Texas rodeos on her backup horse Thunder Stones ("TJ"), but mainly stayed home to ride her futurity and derby horses.

"I took a vacation and I'm about to take another one!" she laughed. "I had really good winter and I didn't need to run (Sis). She was winning, and I could have kept going but I decided it would be a good time to let her have a break."

She would have stayed home and vacationed longer, except she got an invitation to compete at the inaugural event for the World Champions Rodeo Alliance in Las Vegas this coming weekend.

"It sounded like a pretty good deal," said Kinsel, who laid over in Marana, Arizona, and got to meet her mare's sire PC Frenchmans Hayday during her stay at the Potter Ranch. "It's in the Thomas & Mack and I looked at it like practice runs—the more comfortable you can get in there, the better."

Kinsel, who continues to lead the WPRA World Standings with more than $94,000 won on the year, looked at the schedule to see what pro rodeos she could pick up the week before to make the trip more profitable.

"I thought about coming out for Red Bluff," she said, "but that would have meant coming out a whole week earlier, and I wanted to give Sis more time at home. I looked at Clovis and Lakeside and asked around. Everyone said those were good rodeos."

Kinsel and Sis, who is out Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em, made their first run since Rodeo Houston in slack at Lakeside on Thursday. Their next run was Clovis, where all 70 entries made their first run in slack on Friday morning. The fastest 24 times advanced to the two performances, while the remainder had their second immediately following the first go.

After winning the first round with a 17.15, Kinsel and Sis placed seventh in the second round, running 11th on the ground in Saturday night's performance when the ground was a little deeper and drier.

"I made a couple of mistakes," Kinsel noted of her second run. "She got a little strong, so I slowed her down a little bit Sunday morning and cleaned up a couple of things."

The tuning session worked, because they turned on the jets to win the short round on Sunday with a 16.58, the fastest run of the rodeo.

Following the WCRA Rodeo this coming weekend, Kinsel said she's headed back to Texas to turn Sis and TJ out while she gets her aged event horses ready for the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Arkansas. She has a 4-year-old futurity mare Coronas Share Of Fame (Lions Share Of Fame x Pay Day Corona x SC Chiseled In Stone) and a 5-year-old derby gelding Toast To DirtyDashin (Toast To Dash x A Dirty Flick x Feature Mr Jess).

Outside of maybe a couple of circuit rodeos, Kinsel doesn't plan on starting her summer run until Cowboy Christmas over the Fourth of July.

"I'm going to try to capitalize on the back part of the year and stay up North later and longer, so I miss the bad heat in Texas in August and September," she said.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Before most church services at The Barn, I will ask if anyone has anything to pray about or praise God for. Prayer requests are the usual. I need a job or someone needs healing or could we pray for someone's child/parent/sibling.

There are ALWAYS prayer requests. But. Praises are few and far between. Sometimes I wonder if God is doing ANYTHING for ANYONE or if we just don't notice the good things. And after all these years in the ministry, this I know. We are ALL an unthankful bunch...was that too frank?

Selfishness is rampant in our society today. It's all about me, me, me. If you think I'm wrong, just track how much of your time is spent on.....you. How you feel, what you want, who's not giving you what you want. I'm as guilty as the next person.

But I have noticed this. Kids are different. A seven year old boy raised his hand two weeks ago to praise God that he is praying for soldiers and he has this little toy soldier in his pocket to remind him to pray every day for soldier guys...Last week it was a ten year old boy. He wanted to thank God for the snow.

I am a firm advocate of praying for rain in its season but I can't recall ever thanking God for the snow. So I asked him why in the world he would thank God for snow. With a smile, Truck (that is his real name) said, "Snow angels, snowmen, snowballs". The light came on in my head and my heart. Did it yours?

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
