Alona James & Mystery In The Winds Top 41st Old Fort Days Futurity for $48,268

By Tanya Randall

Alona James put on a show at the 41st Annual Old Fort Days ("OFD") Futurity & Derby, held May 13-18 in Fort Smith, Arkansas. The Ada, Oklahoma, barrel horse trainer won a $48,268 Futurity Championship aboard her 4-year-old mare Mystery In The Winds ("Jersey").

James, who won the 2005 OFD Futurity aboard Moonlight Martha, also finished 37th in the Futurity on Wooten Racing's On Goin Senator for $1,797 and third in the Derby on her own 6-year-old mare Sassy Tres ("Sassy") for total earnings of $7,521. All totaled, James won $55,586.

"I had a really blessed week and weekend," said James, who competed at her first OFD Futurity in the mid-1990s as a kid. "I'm very thankful for all the congratulations and help and support of my family and friends. I look forward to going back next year."

James started off her Fort Smith Finals in grand fashion, turning Mystery In the Winds, "Jersey" 15.1 hands, 1,000 lbs.

"She's a lighter made filly. She's race-y looking."

BIT: Double-mouthpiece twisted snaffle

HEADGEAR: Nylon bonnet

SADDLE: Billy Cook

SADDLE PAD: Schneider Performance Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine fronts; polos on back

SHOEING: Rims on front, regular on back

FEED: Heritage from Big V in McAlister, Oklahoma

HAY: Coastal Bermuda

SUPPLEMENTS: Cox Vet Lab products—Acti-Flex and Gastroade—and probiotics from local stores.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Magnets, BOT sometimes, hand-held massager, lots of stretching CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "I'm not someone who works barrels on them after their 3-year-old year. I try to put a good foundation on them. She doesn't hardly ever see the barrels. I might ride her three times a week, mainly long trotting and loping. I ride them down through the trees and stuff, not necessarily in the arena all the time. I just try to keep her happy and fresh."

in the fastest time of the show up to that point, a 16.324, on Sassy as the first runners out of 25 through the gate in the Derby, which is only open to 5- and 6-year-old horses that had paid in a previous OFD futurity.

They had qualified for the finals through a buy-back in the Consolation, a new option added in 2018 which allows the top five futurity and derby horses back to their respective Finals.

"The first run she was making a really nice run and she stepped off the third barrel for some reason," recalled James. "That's not her normal thing. I was like, 'Do I enter her back in the consolation or not?' I haven't really run her two times in a row like that. My mom (Kathy James-Hamm) and I joked on the phone that Sassy just doesn't want to make the Finals at Fort Smith. She's been just out her futurity year and just out last year. I didn't run her back (in the Consolation) last year because it was so hot. I decided to run her back in the Consolation and she made a really, really nice run and that's what got me back."

Placing fifth in the Consolation, they were the last derby contenders to advance to the Finals and were first on the ground because of it.

“My Final’s run was smooth,” James said. “It was pretty much flawless. She was just one her game. She was serious about it. It was a very fun run and ride.”

Next up was On Goin Senator in the Futurity Finals. Unfortunately, she caught the second barrels. She didn’t have too much time to dwell on it because Jersey was just six horses later.

“I had to run back there and get straight on Jersey,” James recalled. “I was bummed kind of because I had tipped a barrel. I went in there thinking of having a smooth clean run and we’re going to get a decent check. I wasn’t thinking about trying to win it or anything.”

James knew the mare could clock, having placed 6th in the time trials with a 16.624 after getting past the first barrel, but her futurity record-setting 16.335 was a surprise. (the previous futurity record was SX Frenchmans Vanila & Carisa Shearer’s 16.358 in 2001)

“I knew it was going to be fast, but I didn’t know I was running a .3!” she exclaimed. “She’s deceiving because she’s so smooth. Sometimes I’m not sure how fast she’s going. It’s hard to gauge her. It was pretty exciting when I looked up at the timer when I was running out the gate.”

The scary thing is they could have been even faster.

“It wasn’t the most perfect run, but it was good enough to win,” she said. “I slowed her down a little running to the first and she got her first barrel really nice. I almost set her too soon at the second barrel, but she forgave me and let it work. I probably could have ridden her up into the pocket more on the second and third. It was a good run, but it wasn’t flawless like my derby run. She’s also 4. She’s still learning and I’m still learning where to place her and everything.”

Jersey was bred and raced by Ernest Sumner, a longtime client of James’ boyfriend Eddie Willis, a perennial leading racehorse trainer at Remington Park in Oklahoma City. She is the daughter of the late FuryOfTheWind out of the Streakin La Jolla, Bully Bullion mare Louisiana Trail.

Having done well at the futurities with LittleMissHonky Tonk, a Paint daughter of FuryOfTheWind, James was looking for another when Willis said he had one in his race barn.

“She only had one or two outs on the track,” James explained. “She was pretty sick her 2-year-old year. She got put on the backburner as far as the racetrack goes.”

James said she has no plans for anymore futurities until early fall with the Ardmore Futurity and Pink Buckle. For now, her horses will just go to the bigger jackpots to stay sharp.

“I’m more conservative,” she said. “I don’t like to run them all the time. That’s just how to do it. I like to save them. That just works for me. I’m picky where I take them. I don’t haul all over. I’m just not that person. I like to stay around home. It’s hard to go when you have horses at home. It’s hard to get good help. If it weren’t for my mom and some close friends living around here, it would be really hard, because you can’t really find help. Thank goodness my

Correction to last week’s (5/14) coverage of the Josey JR World

Apparently there are two Gary Westergrens involved in the barrel racing industry. Our apologies to Maple Grove, Minnesota’s Gary R. Westergren, the breeder of Vaneagles Flyer, the sire of 2019 Josey Jr World Champion. We erroneously gave credit to Lincoln, Nebraska’s Gary A. Westergren, who bred Fiery Miss West, who took Jessica Routier to the 2018 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

Record-Breaking Victory for Jolene Montgomery & Busbys' Jets Heart N Soul in Old Fort Days Derby

By Tanya Randall

After a nearly sixth-month hiatus, the royally-bred 5-year-old gelding Jets Heart N Soul returned to the arena to win the 41st Annual Old Fort Days Derby, held May 13-18 in Fort Smith, Arkansas, in record fashion.

The new Old Fort Days record now stands at 16.250, breaking an 18-year-old benchmark of 16.283 set by Martha Wright's and Fame Fox Kirk in 2001.

"You don't get many runs like that in a lifetime," said Jolene Montgomery, who rode the gelding for Jeff and Andrea Busby of Brock, Texas. "I always think, 'Why?' Why do they do it like that? Great horses know when it's important, and they find an extra gear. You can't make them do that. That's just them. It's just insane what he can do. You can't train that into them. You can't ride through it. When they're making a run like that you just hang on for dear life!" The victory was worth $23,080, including the long-go's first-place check of $337.50. Prince's earnings now stand just shy of $190,000. Bred by Busby Quarter Horses, Prince is by their NFR qualifying, NFR siring, Equi-Stat Leading Sire Blazin Jetolena out of the all-time leading barrel horse broodmare Mistys Dash Of Fame. The daughter of Dash Ta Fame is a three-quarter sister to Fame Fox Kirk, who is out of Mamma Soul Kirk. Misty is out of Misty Blurr, a daughter of Murrtheblurr (TB) out of Mamma Soul Kirk.

Andrea Busby remembers the exact spot where Prince was born and knew he was something special from the very beginning. "It wasn't just because what his papers said. He was just different. I felt like he was destined for greatness. It was just up to us to manage him well," said Busby.

That management started with sending him to Brice Manning for breaking, then to Montgomery for barrel training and ultimately the decision to geld the colt to give him the opportunity to shine as a competitor. It also meant periodic maintenance exams by Dr. Marty Tanner to keep the gelding feeling well and heading off any potential problems.

"Being a gelding, you either have a once in a lifetime horse or a pasture ornament if you mismanage him," noted Busby. "We've always looked at the long term, making rodeo horses. We brought him home every six weeks since the start of his futurity year for Marty to look at. He was our first slot horse; he got used a lot his futurity year. After Pink Buckle (in October), Marty found a bone bruise and said we needed to stop. It was a tough pill to swallow."

All Prince needed was a good long rest, so the goal became to have him back running by the Old Fort Days Derby. Prince was back under Montgomery six weeks before Fort Smith. She had two practice runs on the gelding—one at Parker County Arena in Weatherford, Texas, and another during the Mission Ranch Open at Fort Smith. He caught barrels on both runs.

“Needless to say, I wasn’t too confident in the time trials,” laughed Montgomery. “Then in the Finals, he felt really, really good. It lined up where I was top of the ground. I felt good about it.”

Running slowest to fastest in the Finals, Montgomery and Prince were the very last to run. After Prince nearly took out the gate lady, Montgomery blew a stirrup and was left “holding on for dear life.”

“I called Jolene right after she ran,” said Busby, who noted that Blazin Jetolena may be the only sire to have two horses win both the derby time trials and the derby finals with Prince this year and Jet O Red having accomplished that feat in 2014. “I don’t think she even had time to get off her horse. I told her that I didn’t even have words right now except thank you for not falling off!”

Busby, who was sitting at home watching, followed that up with a text—“Honestly, I was hanging onto my chair for dear life for you!”

Montgomery, who has trained Old Fort Days Derby Champion JL Dash Ta Heaven and Old Fort Days Futurity Champion KN Fabs Mist Of Fame, said Prince is definitely in the trio of her best horses.

“When I won the futurity on Misty, I got a little teary-eyed because she hadn’t really done much before then,” she reflected. “I kept tipping barrels on her. This year, it hasn’t been the best with my futurity horses, so I got a little teary-eyed after the Derby. That’s only the second time I’ve gotten teary-eyed over a barrel horse—both him and his half-sister at Fort Smith.”

Now, Prince will get a vacation until the fall, said Busby, who had three horses in the Derby finals—Promise Me A Jet, who placed 12th with Montgomery, and Jets Letters To Abby, who placed 17th with Ashley Schafer—and one they bred in the Futurity Finals—Famous Ladies Man.

After talking with their team of veterinarians—Tanner and Dr. Britt Conklin—the Busby’s made the conclusion to be very careful with him the rest of the year.

“We’ve managed him correctly this far; no sense in backing up now,” said Busby, who told Montgomery Fort Smith wasn’t her last run on the gelding. The plan is to get him back to Montgomery for the Pink Buckle, get the pair qualified for a chance at The American and test the waters at a few rodeos in the fall. “There’s no rush to throw him in the trailer and head down the road. Time will do nothing but help him.”

"I'm so happy we made the decision to take mares to Dunn Ranch this year! We couldn't have asked for a better experience. We knew what was going on with our mares, they walked us through our first embryo transfer, they got multiple mares in foal for us, and they look amazing with the care they received. # Stage Set for WCRA Titletown Stampede

By Hope Raley

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance is quickly making dreams come true from one rodeo contestant to another. The WCRA just wrapped up its $500,000 Semi-Finals held in Guthrie, Oklahoma at the Lazy E Arena. The Top 50 in WCRA points (as well as the top 16 in average from the quarter-finals) in each discipline competed in hopes of clenching their spot at the Titletown Stampede held in Green Bay, Wisconsin June 1st.

In the barrel racing, the field was stacked with some of the biggest and most decorated names in the industry including Ivy Conrado, Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, Lisa Lockhart and many more. When it came down to the finals for Pool A and Pool B, it was 12-time NFR qualifier Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi who won Pool A and numerous circuit finalist Amanda Harris who came out on top of Pool B. Those two, along with six other barrel racers, punched their ticket for Green Bay in a couple of weeks.

Pozzi-Tonozzi piloted her 6-year-old mare Ima Famous Babe "Katniss" to victory in Guthrie winning Pool A with a time of 16.227. "Katniss" is by Dash Ta Fame and out of Streakin Six Babe who has been a strong producer for Pozzi-Tonozzi's program. Pozzi-Tonozzi describes the incredibly talented mare as "very trainable" and has been easy to get along with since the very beginning. "She has always wanted to please and always gives 110%," Pozzi-Tonozzi said about her equine counterpart. "She is very fast, but at the same time can shut it down and smoke a barrel." Pozzi-Tonozzi admitted that although her runs in Guthrie were far from perfect, "Katniss" desire to please and gritty demeanor paired with insanely fast feet made up for some of their mistakes. "The ground at the Lazy E Arena was excellent and really allowed her to work and be fast."

Pozzi-Tonozzi's husband Garrett Tonozzi won the team roping at the WCRA Rodeo in Chicago, so they are making a family trip out of it along with their 2-year-old daughter Tinlee. Pozzi-Tonozzi may switch it up in Green Bay as she is thinking she will take another standout mare in her string, Babe On The Chase, to run since "Birdie" does better in the smaller pens.

A huge advocate for the sport of rodeo, Pozzi-Tonozzi describes the WCRA as "Awesome from start to finish".

"You can qualify by just nominating the rodeos that you are already going to so you don't have to go to extra events, and when you get to Guthrie the payout is amazing considering you are only competing against 7 other contestants! The ground and setups are great they really care about everyone that is involved."

Harris Heads East

Spearfish, South Dakota barrel racer Amanda Harris is very humbled and grateful for a chance to compete at the Tidetown Stampede on June 1st. The 31-year-old mother of two piloted her superstar horse Frenchmans Firefly to the win Pool B at the Semi-Finals at the Lazy E Arena.

"I had never been to the Lazy E before so I wasn't sure of the setup," explained Harris. "Our first run in the preliminary rounds was really smooth and I knew that he would come back strong for the second round, and he did."

Harris described "Firefly's" turns in the second round as "tighter" and that he fired "harder".

"For the progressive round, they set the arena bigger and I sent him in there too deep up the arena going to the first barrel. Even though I asked him to do that, he still came back to me when I asked him to. It worked and I was grateful."

For the finals, Harris made a small adjustment on her approach to the first barrel and it set up "Firefly" to make a run she knew he was capable of, and Harris posted a time of 16.136 to advance to Green Bay.

"Advancing to Green Bay is still bringing a smile to my face," said Harris. "It was a tough set of horses to run with and I am looking forward to being there with the other ladies as well. I knew I had the horse to get us there but it's all in God's timing."

"Firefly" is a product of Harris' parents, Bob and Peggy Welsh's, breeding program. The 9-year-old gelding is by Frosty Frenchman and out of Princess Bar Dash by Hot Dasher. Harris and her dad both ran "Firefly's" sire and dam and the day that "Firefly" was born Harris' dad knew that he was going to be special.

"I remember my dad telling me that "Firefly" just had that 'look' about him. He definitely was right."

Harris was very impressed with the WCRA and saw a lot of great things while in Guthrie, but one thing that really caught her eye was noticing just how much the committee and producers cared about the contestants.

"They really want to be able to give us a chance at great money and you don't have to "live on the road" to be able to have that opportunity. It honestly just felt like a family and I hadn't ever been around any of them before Guthrie."

Fame N Red Hot and Spielman Score at Cloverdale Rodeo

The Barrel Racing Report caught up with Shelby Spielman to talk about her $20k win in the Finals of the Cloverdale Rodeo!

BRR: Could you tell us a little about the Cloverdale rodeo?

Spielman: This was my first time to attend Cloverdale. I can easily say this is my new favorite rodeo. The committee is great to the contestants not to mention the amazing crowds. I hope to keep coming back.

BRR: Could you walk us through your winning run? How did the rain and mud affect your run and your preparation for the run?

Spielman: I had heard that you were still able to make nice fast runs when the ground was muddy so that was reassuring.

I ran Hot Donna at a college rodeo a couple of months ago in the mud and she actually jumped a puddle during my run (it was a freak thing) so for this run I made sure to have her really warmed up and focused on her job. The mud actually didn't seem to affect Donna at all, which was nice; I just tried to stay out of her way and let her do her job.

BRR: Tell us a little about Fame N Red Hot? What is her personality like and what makes her so special?

Spielman: Well, I think she's my once in a lifetime horse. She is so special to me. My parents joke that I take better care of her than myself.

She is pretty easy going, but definitely has an attitude at times (because I let her). I could go on and on about her because she has done so much for me and my career.

BRR: What is your mental preparation to run in mud or adverse conditions like that? And how is it different than on your normal runs?

Spielman: I don't try to make it any different than a run with perfect conditions. If I ride my horse to the best of my ability and believe in her to work just as good as usual, it usually works in my favor.

THE RUNDOWN w/Shelby Spielman

Fame N Red Hot, "Hot Donna" 15.1 hands, 1,050 lbs.
BIT: Sherry Cervi short shank with a dog bone
HEADGEAR: She gets a tiedown, but very very loose.
SADDLE: I ride in a Tod Slone, it is my favorite saddle.
SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Bio Fit Pad
LEG GEAR: Classic Equine, Classic Fit on the front and the back
FEED: Nutrena ProForce Fuel
HAY: Alfalfa and grass hay
SUPPLEMENTS: Stierwalt Superflex, Relyne Gl
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: I keep all of my Hansbo products on her almost daily.

When I'm at home Ray Bach is my horse shoer. He has been shoeing my horses for probably 13 years and is the best. He is very accommodating with working with my schedule and sending shoes to Canada for me.

When I'm in Canada my boyfriend, Keely, shoes Donna. He does a great job as well and I am thankful to have someone as talented as him.

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: I usually try to just spend as much time on her as I can. Leading up to the weekend at Cloverdale, I just log trotted her down the road everyday and the day before I left I checked cows and calves on her. I think it's really important to do other things besides running barrels on her.

THANK YOU'S & SPONSORS: FStierwalt Superflex, Hansbo Sport, Limitless Equine

Also thank you to the committee at Cloverdale, it is an amazing Rodeo. They work really hard to make it the best experience and I think they have it figured out.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We were having breakfast at my favorite diner the other day. It was pretty quiet, midmorning, when this lady about my age came in by herself and sat down at the counter. She started chatting with the waitresses, all the while smoking her cigarette. Reminded me of my mom.

You see, I come from a very long line of barmaids and bartenders on my mom's side of the family. My dad's side pretty much kept my mom's side in business. They are beer drinkers! We owned a little bar/café while I was growing up and many nights we slept in the booth in the back till closing time. Never thought a thing about it. It was normal. Fast forward to now and I can tell you I like 'now' a whole lot better!

It doesn't matter to God where you came from, He already knew, or the mistakes you made, He knows those as well. The good news here is, we get to choose which path we want to go down. Even though I didn't know Jesus as a little kid, I knew I didn't want to live the bar life. So when someone told me about Jesus, it was like breathing, I WANTED HIM! And oh how much better my life is!

If you have never asked Jesus to be Lord of your life, right now is a great time! Romans 10:8-11 tells us how.

Now, back to the lady. She took her phone out and started scrolling. All of a sudden she yelled, "WHAT THE BLANKETY BLANK IS THIS SNOWFLAKE DOING ON MY PHONE?"! Guess she was looking at the weather.....lol!
