Janet Staton & JS Milo And Stitch Sew Up Old Fort Days Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

It took one more run than anticipated, but Janet Staton and JS Milo And Stitch ("Happy"), owned by Jennifer Fite, captured their sixth championship title with a $50,096 victory at the 41st Annual Old Fort Days Futurity, held May 14-19 in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

This was the second year that Old Fort Days offered entries a second chance at the Finals in both the Futurity and Derby through the Consolation. The top five futurity horses and top five derby horses in the Consolation advanced to the Finals in each class.

In the Futurity Trials, Tiany Schuster and Heavens Got Credit (JL Dash Ta Heaven x Credit Chicado x Cash Not Credit) set the pace with a 16.387, the fastest time of the futurity during the entire event (2nd Fastest time for a futurity horse ever behind Sx Frenchmans Vanila's 16.358). Unfortunately, Staton and Happy caught the second barrel after running a 16.6.

"He just dropped too soon," said Staton, who hails from Bastrop, Texas. "He didn't hit it. I hit with my knee, but it didn't even leave a mark. I don't know why it fell over. If I'm going to hit a barrel, it needs to leave a mark!"

Staton admitted that Happy felt "a little bracey" in exhibitions and was likely the cause of the plus five. So, Happy got his first "tuning" of the season, which amounted to a single pass by the second barrel the day of the Consolation and morning of the Finals.

"It didn't take much," she said. "He just floated into the second barrel in the Finals just as beautiful as one could. Our two little times of running past it in the warmup pen was all he needed."

In the Consolation, Staton and Happy ran early, 16th, setting the pace with a 16.573. Fite, who was on-hand for the event, caught a stomach bug and couldn't stay at the arena and watch.

"I guess this was God's plan," laughed Fite, an emergency room nurse from Bryan, Texas. "I was getting sick, so I couldn't sit there anymore. The phones wouldn't work in the trailer, so I couldn't watch the webcast, and no one could call or text me! I was checked out for most of it. I finally made it back up to the arena with about 30 left to run."

Troy Crumrine on the 5-year-old derby horse SR Industry Titan (FirewaterOnTheRocks x Mulberry Canyon Moon x Marthas Six Moons) were the only runners to come close to bumping Staton and Happy. They came darn close too, running a 16.574. The victory in the Consolation was worth, an additional $2,168.

With the Finals made Staton felt she could relax.

"I figured we're going to get a check even if I fall off in the Finals," chuckled Staton, who also placed fifth for $8,141 on her personal horse Chargin Ta Fame (Dash Ta Fame x Charge A Moon x Bully Bullion). "The Consolation was more pressure. You had to be in the top five and you couldn't mess around. There were some tough horses in there! I knew I had to go in to win it. In the Finals, I was just going in to enjoy it. I was more relaxed and let him work. It was much smoother than the Consolation run."

Fite, however, couldn't relax. As a qualifier through the Consolation, Happy was the fifth horse out in a field of 45.

"It was extremely nerve-wracking," said Fite, who also produces barrel races as a part of Twisted Sister with her sister Shannon Iverson and friend Donna Park. "I'm a pacer; I have to get up and move around. After about 15, I decided I need to go wash him off and I didn't go back until the last five remained."

The victory for the team was their fifth overall. Together, they've won the Texas Extreme Futurity, the Texas Ultimate (Isabella Quarter Horses) Futurity, the Diamonds & Dirt (Dufur Quarter Horses) Futurity, Diamonds & Dirt Slot Race, and the Central Texas Futu-

WCRA Announces Inclusion of Breakaway Roping

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) continues to revolutionize the sport of rodeo by announcing that the discipline of Breakaway Roping will be added to the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier system and will be included in the 2019 WCRA $6 million event series.

Until now, Women's Barrel Racing has been the predominate professional women's rodeo event, despite the popularity of Breakaway Roping. This unprecedented move will give women athletes more opportunities, including the ability to compete for big-money payouts and the potential that a woman could hold a professional All-Around title for the first time.

"Part of our mission is to 'advance the sport of rodeo' and we truly mean it. Our Alliance Partners support our decision to provide female athletes more opportunities and we all feel like it's been a long time coming," said Bobby Mote, President WCRA.

"On a personal note, I have a daughter who loves to rope and I am excited for the opportunities this will open up for her and girls just like her," Mote said. "We are confident that fans will love getting to know the leaders in this discipline, like Jackie Crawford, Lari Dee Guy and Hope Thompson who are talented and tough competitors in this discipline."

"This is the opening in the door that we have been looking for," said 17-time WPRA World Champion and NIRA Champion Breakaway Roper, Jackie Crawford. "Our event has some of the largest overall numbers throughout junior, high school and college rodeo, but has desperately needed a larger outlet after that point to continue to grow."

The implications of this will be far reaching --- giving women a reason to stay engaged with the sport will help the industry all the way around.

I can't wait for fans to be introduced to this fast-paced discipline and to meet the amazing women athletes involved."

Starting Wednesday, May 23rd breakaway ropers can register and begin using the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) to start qualifying for the WCRA $500,000 semi-final event scheduled in November at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, OK, followed by the first WCRA $1 million rodeo in Sacramento, CA in January 2019. Additional 2019 WCRA large-payout events will be announced at a later date.

The VRQ is available for every rodeo athlete to access a mobile nomination system to qualify for the $6 million in payouts. This new free mobile web App for rodeo athletes was unveiled on May 4th and puts the administration of the sport in the hand of athletes, stock contractors, and committee members. For more information visit www.WCRArodeo.com and <https://youtu.be/IVEMfk4dJiI>.

The WCRA VRQ nomination and qualification process is open to men and women in all disciplines of rodeo regardless of gender or age. One exception to this position is; if a WCRA host event, not produced by WCRA, has established ground rules that prevent participation based on gender or age. In this case, the qualifying athletes for that particular host event would automatically qualify for the next available semi-finals event.

In an additional age related exception; WCRA does not allow any athlete under the age of 18 to compete in any of the rough stock disciplines or participate in the qualification processes for WCRA semi-finals and major events.

In compliance with existing laws governing online business, WCRA requires athletes be a minimum of 13 years of age or older to participate in the qualification process for any of the timed event disciplines. Any athlete under the age of 18 must have a parent or guardian contact WCRA to set-up the user account on the Virtual Qualifier App. Parents or Guardians may begin this process by emailing WCRA at info@wcrarodeo.com

At this time and for the sake of clarity, WCRA will not utilize any youth, high school or intercollegiate competition results in its qualification system and/or for points accreditation.

About WCRA

WCRA is a professional sport and entertainment entity, created to develop and advance the sport of rodeo by aligning all levels of competition. In association with PBR, WCRA produces a $6 million major event series that provides rodeo athletes with additional opportunities to compete for large payouts. WCRA recently released the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier, a new technology and world ranking system for athletes to qualify for the major event series by Making Every Ride Count. rity before winning Old Fort Days. They've also been finalist at the Kinder Cup and Lance Graves International Championships.

Fite purchased Happy from Staton in November of 2017 after riding the horse around for a few minutes in the parking lot of the Lee County Sheriff's Posse Arena in Giddings, Texas. Staton had purchased the gelded son of leading sire Firewater Ta Fame out of the Tres Seis mare TK Twirl from his breeders Billy and Shelly Martin of Sealy, Texas, as a weanling.

He's changed both ladies' lives in positive ways. For Fite, he's the beginning of building a barrel racing program.

"It's allowed me to buy better horses and to breed better horses," Fite said of Happy's success. "I have a few mares that I believe in that are relatively unknown in the barrel horse world. I hope that having the opportunity to breed to better stallions and put those babies in better hands than my training will help. This is helping me build my future."

For Staton, it's turned the former school teacher into a household name in the industry.

"I used to warmup with my head down," Staton laughed after commenting on how supportive her fellow competitors—and idols—have been. "It's not like I haven't been going to these things. That was my fourth time at Fort Smith. I always had a good horse there, but never made the Finals. Like anything else, you've got to keep going until you figure it all out. It took me a long time for me to have the confidence to do it."

Betting on Brandon—Cullins & A Cornerstone Win Old Fort Days Derby

By Tanya Randall

Brandon Cullins' great year continues with a $22,330 Old Fort Days Derby Championship in Fort Smith, Arkansas, aboard the wickedly fast gelding A Cornerstone ("Stoney"), owned by Sarah Griffin of Lockport, New York.

It was the second Old Fort Days Derby title for the barrel horse trainer from Clements, Maryland, who won in 2016 aboard VQ Sucker Punch, owned by Robin Weaver of Mahaffey, Pennsylvania. While paired with Weaver's horses, Cullins has won the BFA World Championship Futurity, Derby and Juvenile, the Kinder Cup Slot Race and Futurity and the LG International Championship Slot Race and 4-Year-Old Futurity as well as advanced to the Final 4 of RFD-TV's The American.

In the midst of all of that, Cullins also won the $12,500 World Barrel Racing League Championship on Stoney, who was a large part of Cullins advancement past the American Semifinals. After failing to make the original Top 30 from the progressive first round, Cullins climbed aboard Stoney for the "buy-back" round and turned in a jaw-dropping 13.523, an arena record for the event, to advance to the second round.

The speedy 6-year-old gelding had little more than a handful of runs since the American Semifinals and was a little off his game. Thankfully, some routine barrel horse maintenance at the veterinary clinic got the gelding back to rights. He was back in winning form, taking first on Saturday at the Mission Ranch Open, held at Kay Rodgers Park prior to Old Fort Days.

For the Derby, which is open to 5- and 6-year-olds that were previously paid-in full to the Old Fort Days Futurity, Cullins and Stoney were just out of the money as the sixth-fastest qualifiers with a 16.754.

"In the trials, I handled him too much at the first," said Cullins. "He kind of shook his head and got by it. When I let him go and asked him to come back to me, he almost overturned it. I thought we were going to be way out of it, but he had a really good second and third."

Stoney has a very unique style of turning a barrel. He has a lot of bend in his body as well as a lot of snap in his turns.

"I try to keep his body together," said Cullins. "I try not to get his nose too much. I don't try to keep him square; I just try to keep his body between the reins. He really wants to kick his hip in and when he does that he wants to stop his forward motion, so I just try to keep him body straight, his shoulders by the barrel and his front end pulling forward. He's pretty good that way."

It took posting the fastest time of the event, a 16.337 to win the Derby Championship.

"In the finals, he got by (his first), but he didn't shake his head or anything," Cullins said. "He came back really quick. His second and third were really fast. He was rolling. He's the fastest horse I've ever seen."

Incidentally, Cullins and Stoney were 20th out and ran after Kim Matthews and Feelinthe Firewater ("Sissy"), who had just taken the lead with a 16.386. Matthews and Sissy finished .011 behind Cullins and Stoney in the Trails and just .049 behind in the Finals.

It was about a month after Old Fort Days last year that Stoney came to Cullins' barn. Griffin, a former First Frontier Circuit Finals Champion, had purchased the Allred Horse Haven- bred Brookstone Bay, Lanes Leinster gelding, from Sarah Zaleski through Kendal Owen in February of 2017.

So far, the plan is to leave the speedy gelding with Cullins through his derby year.

"I'll keep him as long as they want me to," said Cullins. "He's a really fun horse to be around. He's got a great personality."

Crossley Crushes Cloverdale Rodeo

By Hope Raley

Hermiston, Oregon cowgirl Callahan Crossley is this years Cloverdale Rodeo Champion Barrel Racer. A true beauty inside and out, Crossley stole the show aboard her trusted dance-partner Brownie Bi Bogie, who has been a part of the Crossley family almost his entire life.

"He has been in my family pretty much his entire life," explained Crossley. "My aunt Mary and uncle Butch Knowles gave him to our family as a colt. My mom trained him and then my older sister Jordan seasoned him and ran him for the first 4-years."

All three Crossley girls, Jade Crossley, Jordan Minor and Callahan, have ran and won on the now 20-year-old superstar.

"He truly is one of a kind and his quirks seem to be endless, even at the ripe age of 20!"

Crossley says he still has his "Brownie" moments, like not wanting to be loaded into the trailer, or trying to demolish the electric eye on the run home from the third barrel. But through all the quirks, Crossley and her family could never repay "Brownie" for the amazing opportunities he has bestowed upon them.

"I will never have enough words to explain the gratitude that I have for that horse," Crossley says.

And after Monday, the wonder horse "Brownie" can add yet another large championship to his incredibly long and very impressive resume: Cloverdale Rodeo Barrel Racing Champion.

Cloverdale, Surrey, British Columbia is home to the annual fair and rodeo, held at the Cloverdale Fairgrounds during the Victoria Day Holiday Weekend. With a fantastic crowd and fast ground, its no wonder barrel racers love to make the trek to Cloverdale. Crossley placed 4th in her pool, the first performance of the rodeo, with a 16.43.

"We went quite a way by the first barrel, which I have actually done previous years in Cloverdale, so for our next run I wanted to focus on how to get him to turn the first like I knew he could." Making her second run Saturday afternoon, Crossley capitalized on her goal, having a much better first, clocking a 16.137. She won the performance and qualified to Championship Monday for the first time.

"I have been going to Cloverdale for four years and this was my first time to make it to Championship Monday. I was so excited and just incredibly grateful to be headed to the short round," said Crossley.

It was finally Championship Monday and the stakes were high, with several other talented horses and jockeys eager to take a run at that big purse. Executing her first barrel in style, Crossley rounded the other two barrels and stopped the clock with a blazing fast time of 15.87, which was the fastest run of the entire rodeo, and just what she needed to seal the deal on the win.

"It truly is an indescribable feeling. I feel so lucky to have had the opportunity given to me, and my sisters, by Judy Kessler and Jaime Rogers to compete at such a prestigious and fun rodeo. They treat the contestants wonderfully, we get to enjoy our time spent in Cloverdale, and at the end of the week, a $20,000 check just makes it all that much sweeter!"

Sporting a grin from ear to ear, Crossley made her way into the arena to accept her awards and the giant check she and "Brownie" claimed with their three magnificent runs. When asked what she thought made "Brownie" the winner that he is, Crossley commented, "Brownie is no young buck, but I think the way he is built has really benefited him in how long he has been able to run so competitively. That and his love to run barrels, paired with his quirks, makes him one of a kind!"

THE RUNDOWN w/ Callahan Crossley

Brownie Bi Bogie "Brownie"

15.3 hands, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Combination Big

SADDLE: Cactus Saddlery

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine

LEG GEAR: Splint boots and bell boots, whatever brand I grab at the time

FEED: Equine Senior

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: BioMane, Horse Guard, Ulcer Guard (Brownie could use an ulcer guard sponsorship; that is where all his money goes!)

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: Brownie mainly just gets exercised. I don't like to get him into the arena ahead of time, and I don't like to work the barrels on him. He will get worked if there is something specific we need to work on, but for the most part, he is just exercised every day coupled with dry work such as roll backs, stuff like that!

SPONSORS: BioMane, Horse Guard, my family and my shoer Mike Bosworth. Mike is incredible, and Brownie will not let any other farrier shoe him. He even got a new set of shoes put on the day before we left for Cloverdale!

- 4 Sr Effort Inmy Boots, Lynette Brodoway, 16.38, $1,000
- 5 McKenzie Webber, 16.42, $600

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever said you'd like to "bottle this day" because it was just so perfect or fun? Yesterday was like that for me. There was just such a peaceful, contented feel to the whole day. Most days around here are hectic.

There's always something to be done, someone to help and lots of interruptions...I'm sure it's the same for you. The most hectic days are the ones where I feel like there's an elephant sitting right smack on my chest! Sound familiar?

Well, what was different? For one thing, I left my cell phone in the house...off! And I lived through it! And all the people who tried to contact me lived through it, too! Who'd a thunk???

Now, I'm not blaming cell phones for my discontent. I'm blaming me. Why? Because I know that God told me in I Pet. 5:6 to cast all my cares on Him, for He cares for me. But Sherry can get in her own head and try to fix everything that's wrong in the whole world. BUT SHE CAN'T! And neither can you.

We all need to trust God more and ourselves less. God can handle this! We need only to look to Him FIRST! He'll tip us off, lead us in the right direction, and let us rest! No more elephants!!! Have a great week!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
