$1 Million Mark For Kassie Mowry's Force The Goodbye, Wins Royal Crown Derby & The Memorial

By Tanya Randall

Barrel racing's all-time leading rider Kassie Mowry quickly added another $100,000-plus to her resume and pushed Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") beyond the $1 million mark in career earnings over Memorial Weekend.

"The best boy!" Mowry texted when learning of Jarvis's million.

"That horse is just insane!" she said of the 6-year-old gelding, by The Goodbye Lane out of the Burrs First Down mare VF Forcit First, bred by Janelle Blubaugh. "He can get outrun. He's never set an arena record. But, that horse shows up every single time! There's so much to be said for that! There's a lot of money in those averages and he does seem to leave the barrels up. He is easy, and he is fun. It's been a ride!"

The pair won nearly everything they'd entered between the Royal Crown Guthrie in Oklahoma and The Memorial Barrel Race in Hamilton, Texas.

Starting with the Royal Crown in Guthrie, Oklahoma, Mowry and Jarvis won the 178-entry, $50,000-added Royal Crown (Breeders) Derby and the 130-entry, $5,000-added South Valley Equine Open Derby for $22,370 and $9,262, respectively. They also collected $9,434 for four top 3 places in the Open-To-All and Royal Crown Open races and pocketed $3,364 four fourth in the $2,500-added Slot Race.

Additionally, Mowry and Jarvis won the Breeders Challenge Derby qualifier for $7,295 and picked up $8,582 from that incentive's open race qualifiers. They also added $2,080 for winning Future Fortunes $25,000 Regional Championship.

After Royal Crown, a weather-related change of plans allowed Mowry and Jarvis to finish their weekend closer to home with a $41,000 1D Championship at The Memorial Barrel Race.

Mowry had brought her colts home and was going to head back to make some pro rodeos on Famous Ladies Man ("Emmitt"), who has been on break since Rodeo Houston in March. She was going to walk-up replace, a procedure that allows contestants to enter to fill any turnouts during a rodeo performance, at Claremore, Oklahoma, on Saturday night before heading to Fort Smith, Arkansas, for the pro rodeo slack on Sunday morning.

Then she looked at the weather.

"I thought I'm not driving straight into that stuff! This is getting crazy!" she said.

Claremore had a tornado come through right after the rodeo performance that night.

"They cancelled Claremore on the last day due to the damage to that town," she said. The historic racetrack Will Rogers Downs in Claremore was also badly damaged by the tornado, leaving many horses injured and some missing. "I was supposed to walk-up replace that night of the tornado. I decided not to go and I'm glad because I would have stayed overnight there. People just had to leave their horses and go into shelter, not knowing. What a nightmare!"

Mowry ended up entering The Memorial Barrel Race after asking her friend, fellow NFR qualifier, trainer and Utah transplant Danyelle Campbell where she was going for the weekend.

"For some reason, I thought that race was in June, and I was going to miss it while I was gone," she said. Mowry, who lives in just north of Hamilton in Dublin has always done well at the Circle T Arena. "That being right in my backyard was a better decision especially since the weather was good here."

Mowry made two runs in Hamilton but after getting by the first barrel on her first pass through she opted to cruise the rest of the pattern knowing that Jarvis would be on point for his second run. And he was turning in the best time of 655 runs to win a guaranteed first prize of $40,000.

“He will run without an exhibition or seeing the arena first, but our timing is definitely better if we do,” Mowry explained. “I’m trying to get him to make that shift now, where I don’t have to go into the arena, and he’ll be as on point as if I had. When I do get in the arena (for an exhibition), I literally just trot the barrels, but it does make such a big difference for him, and really all of mine.”

Mowry, who currently sits third in the WPRA World Standings with $55,660, has two more futurities in June—the Colorado Classic and Ruby Buckle Salina before she’ll make her summer rodeo run. She gets kicked off at the Reno Rodeo and then goes to the Northwest for a few runs before crossing the border for the Calgary Stampede.

“I’m going to try the Northwest,” she said. “I haven’t done that. The rodeos are closer together, and being just me, it makes it easier for me to make the drive, plus it leaves me closer to Canada. I’m not going to enter every day of the week, just a couple of days. St. Paul, Eugene and Basin City is what I’m hoping for. I’m just trying to make it less miles.”

Goodbye Guys -- Royal Crown Guthrie Futurity Title Leaves With Kylie Weast & Mary Ellen Hickman

By Tanya Randall

When Mary Ellen Hickman saw Brad Shirey exhibition Goodbye Guys last fall at the Bucking Nightmare in Columbiana, Ohio, she knew she was looking at something special. Although she already had a strong futurity contention for 2024—her first group of colts to go to the arena in a long time—she had to trust her gut instinct.

“I sat there for 30 minutes, and thought, ‘Mary Ellen! You need that horse!’” chuckled the creator of Future Fortunes, the oldest running breeding incentive program.

Shirey kept “Laney” through the BFA World Championships in November. Afterward, she went to Addington, Oklahoma, with National Finals Rodeo qualifier and multiple aged event champion Kylie Weast.

Having been involved with all facets of the futurity industry, from trainer and competitor to breeder and owner, Hickman knew she had to trust the process and let Weast and Laney come together as a team.

At the 185-entry, $75,000-added Futurity at the Royal Crown at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma, everything came together for Weast and Laney with a $20,435 victory. Carryover times also gave them a $10,323 victory in the 125-entry, $10,000-added South Valley Equine Open Futurity and a $4,998 championship in the Breeders Challenge Futurity qualifier. Combined with their Open earnings and Future Fortunes Bonus, Weast and Laney collected $38,262!

“She was an amazing mare from the get-go, but there absolutely was a learning curve for her and me both,” said Weast. “It’s taken us this long!”

Weast, a member of the famed Youree-Ward barrel racing family, said they started coming together as a team at the Ruby Buckle Guthrie in late April.

“She ran a 16.8 (on a WPRA Standard) at Ruby Buckle but

GOODNESS GRACIOUS

The offspring of The Goodbye Lane pushed his progeny earnings closer to the $10 million mark with an exceptional performance at the Royal Crown Guthrie, at the Lazy E Arena in Oklahoma.

Kylie Weast won the breeders and open futurities on Goodbye Guys. The 4-year-old mare was bred by new mom Taylor Jacob Hanchey, who raised her out of the Frenchmans Future, Jet Of Honor mare SF Guysrcheckinmeout, a full brother to her multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier and Thomas & Mack Arena Record Holder Honor Thy Frenchman.

Reserve futurity champion Good Things Comin, owned and ridden by Brandon Cullions, is a 4-year-old stallion out of multiple National Finals Rodeo and futurity champion producer Honor This Nonstop, by Mr Honor Bound, a son of Jet Of Honor.

Multiple NFR round winner Force The Goodbye, ridden by Kassie Mowry for Michael Boone, drew closer to the $1 million mark in career earnings by sweeping the Royal Crown and Open derbies in Guthrie. Jarvis is out of Janelle Blubaugh’s mare VF Forcit First, a daughter of the First Down Dash, Beduino stallion Burrs First Down.

For reserve derby champion SG Lifeinthefastlane, the First Down Dash blood went through potent cross of Dash Ta Fame. The 7-year-old homebred gelding for Stacy Glause is out of Full Of Fame, by Poco Lijerito, a son of Dash Ta Fame out of Beduino mare.

bumped a barrel,” Weast recalled. “She came back and ran a 17.0 the second round. She made the Finals at (the Old Fort Days Futurity in) Fort Smith, ran a 16.8 and a 16.9 there. We’re just trying to stay with that momentum. We’re getting a little more consistent now.”

At Guthrie, Weast and Laney were a few holes out of the money in the first round of the futurity with a 16.436 but picked up 2D checks in the open and Future Fortunes. Their second run was a 16.084 that placed fourth in the second round and gave them the average title.

“I just knew I needed to get around them twice because it was an average,” said Weast. “The first round was a just a tick rough. I kind of took her off the second barrel, and it wasn’t super fluid.

“The second round, I had a mental change. I told myself, I know I have the horse to win this one. I just have to let her go make her good run and let it fall where it may. That’s exactly what happened. She didn’t outrun everybody with a 15.6 or .7 to be the top horse. She went and made a solid run and it fell where it did.”

Weast was excited to get the win for Hickman.

“There is just a light in her eye right now,” she said. “It’s so fun to watch her get excited about the horses again.”

Hickman, Norman, Oklahoma, ended up with three futurity horses for the year—something she said she’d never do. However, she did just sell one Goldies Last Design (“Whittle”), by Slick By Design, to Charlie Cole and Jason Martin. West also picked up $2,873 on Whittle at the Royal Crown.

“I thought she was going to be the one to win it,” Hickman admitted. “She never hits a barrel! But the minute you tell someone, ‘This horse never hit a barrel’...she hits a barrel!”

Hickman said she’s still in shock over Laney’s win.

“I never thought that was going to happen!” she said. “You

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A few days ago, I was texting with a friend about gaining/losing weight. Yes, I know, always a touchy subject! We Facebook, we YouTube, we Google, and then.....we pray! LOL!

Prayer should be first in our life. There are magazines at every checkout stand, in every store, that promise 68 ways to do.....whatever. I started to answer her text with MY thoughts and the Holy Spirit took over!

Why do we always start with what the 'world' says about anything? The most educated, well meaning, medical, natural person in the world doesn't know what the Holy Spirit knows. And yet, we start there.

Run 85 miles a day and you will lose 3 pounds in a year! Eat five helpings of kale every meal and in just 9 short months, you'll lose ½ inch around your rear end! The Holy Spirit is our helper, strengthener, standby, advocate, counselor, comforter, and intercessor. John 15:26-16:13 AMP.

HE KNOWS YOU AND ME! He created us! We should start there. In my spirit I heard, "Experience, although good, is NOT the best teacher. I AM!"

No matter what challenge we are facing in life, from weight loss to divorce, the Holy Spirit knows what we need to do. Let's look to Him first!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
