Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Shine at First WCRA Event

By Hope Raley

Las Vegas was crawling with cowboys, cowgirls and rodeo fans last weekend at the kickoff rodeo for new rodeo association, the World Champions Rodeo Alliance.

Formed in cooperation with Professional Bull Riders (PBR), the WCRA goal is to merge all spectrums of the rodeo lifestyle into one alliance, giving rodeo athletes great opportunities. They are scheduled to have four $1 million rodeos which will be based on a revolutionary world ranking system using an innovative technology the WCRA unveiled at their Rodeo Summit held at South Point Hotel and Casino last weekend. The Summit was open to all rodeo competitors, organizers and industry stakeholders.

This first event held in Las Vegas, a $400,000 rodeo, and was held at the Thomas and Mack Center, although you would never guess looking at the setup. Superstar team Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday were crowned the first ever barrel racing champions of the WCRA after blazing a consistent and fast trail in Vegas.

"It is very exciting, and I am grateful to have won the event in Vegas," explained Kinsel.

Kinsel hauled both "Sister" and her other main mount Thunder Stones "TJ" to Las Vegas because she was unsure of what the setup would be like.

"I worked Sis and TJ in open arena the first morning and figured it was a better setup for Sis. Although it was completely different than the setup for the NFR, I still felt like Sis would perform better in this setup as well."

With completely different dimensions and a different alleyway, the times were somewhat like the times that are consistently ran during the WNFR in December. Lisa Lockhart won the first round with a 13.805 on Rosas Cantina CC while Kinsey came in second with a 14.013.

Finishing second in the first round automatically advanced Kinsel to the four-man round on Sunday.

"We had some ground trouble in the first round, slipping pretty significantly at both the second and third barrel, so I was just hoping for a clean, slip-less run on Sunday," Kinsel said.

Much like the first round, it was Lockhart and Kinsel at the top of the leaderboard in the second round, advancing them to the final round. Lockhart posted another quick run of 13.963, while Kinsel ran close to the same time that she did in the first round with a 14.012.

With close to a 2-hour break between the four-man round and the final round, Kinsel was able to give "Sister" some rest and relaxation before getting prepared to run again.

"The break was nice. Some places we only get 45 minutes to an hour break in between runs, so having more time here was greatly appreciated."

Running last in the final round, Kinsel was able to hear what Lockhart did ahead of her.

"I heard she hit a barrel, but I didn't allow that to change my game plan. I still wanted to go for it and make a fast, smooth, and most important, clean run and see where we clocked," said Kinsel. With Lockhart hitting a barrel, all Kinsel needed to do was be clean and she would be $25,000 richer. Running her fastest time of the weekend, Kinsel made a beautiful pass through the pattern clocking a 13.937, the second fastest run out of the entire weekend, earning her a custom buckle and $25,000 to her name.

"It was a magnificent event and I am looking forward to the next one in Salt Lake City this summer. I think the WCRA is a great concept and I am grateful to be a part of it. I really hope it takes off!"

WCRA Announces Four $1 Million Rodeos

WCRA formed in cooperation with PBR (Professional Bull Riders) to develop new opportunities for rodeo, today announced rodeo events that will award $6 million to competitors, an innovative virtual qualification and world ranking system for athletes to qualify for high-payout rodeos, and other growth initiatives for the industry.

The announcements were made at an unprecedented Rodeo Summit open to all rodeo competitors, organizers, and industry stakeholders at South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas ahead of the WCRA Rodeo Showdown, a $400,000 rodeo at The Thomas & Mack Center at UNLV on May 5 and 6.

The $6 million in payouts will be comprised of four large rodeos each featuring a $1 million purse. Four semi-final qualifier events will provide the additional $2 million in prize money. Qualifying will be based on points, rather than dollars won, through a new world ranking points system that WCRA introduced today.

The first WCRA $500,000 semi-final event is scheduled for November at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, OK, followed by the first WCRA $1 million rodeo in Sacramento, CA in January 2019. Additional 2019 WCRA large-payout events will be announced at a later date.

Additionally, WCRA unveiled new technology, including the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ), available for every rodeo athlete to access a mobile nomination system to qualify for the $6 million in payouts. Through the VRQ, athletes can track their own and all other competitors' performances in rodeos and single discipline events throughout the year. This new free mobile web App for rodeo athletes was unveiled to put the administration of the sport in the hand of athletes, stock contractors, and committee members. For more information visit www.WCRArRodeo.com and <https://youtu.be/IVEMfk4dJl>

Each athlete's first opportunity to qualify through the VRQ is less than 70 days away at the $1 million Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank held July 19-21, 23-24, 2018 in Salt Lake City.

WCRA also announced new multi-year alliances to bring new opportunities to rodeo athletes, grow rodeo's fan base and increase coverage for the sport:

Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo: The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank held each July in Salt Lake City will be the first $1 million rodeo in 2018 in which athletes can utilize the newly unveiled WCRA Virtual Qualifier to earn one of 20 spots in their respective discipline. The only exception is in the bull riding: due to a previously announced partnership with the PBR, only four bull-riding positions will be available via the WCRA Virtual Qualifier. Additionally, the event champions of the WCRA Rodeo Showdown at Helldorado Days (May 5 and 6, 2018) will receive an automatic invitation into the 2018 Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo. The 2018 Days of '47 will be streamed on RidePass, PBR's western sports digital network, providing the event expanded coverage and reach. In 2019 and 2020, the Days of '47 will also produce a $500,000 semi-final event as part of the WCRA Major Event Series. For more information on Days of '47 visit www.daysof47cowboygames.com International Professional Rodeo Association (IPRA) will provide its members many opportunities to virtually qualify for the rodeo events paying out $6 million, including a path for the 2018 IPRA World Champion to enter the first 2019 WCRA $1 million rodeo in Sacramento in late January. The IPRA will hold four "Win and You're In" events during each of four WCRA series segments, giving members a direct route into a semi-finals event. The IPRA is the second-largest professional rodeo association, sanctioning nearly 400 rodeos across the nation for more than 60 years.

National Barrel Horse Association (NBHA): The NBHA is the largest barrel racing organization in the world, with more than 20,000 members worldwide and over 150,000 barrel racing entries each year, each of which will provide members eligibility for nomination and opportunities to virtually qualify for the WCRA's $6 million rodeos. Through four designated "Win and You're In" events, NBHA event champions will automatically progress into a WCRA $500,000 semi-finals event.

Indian National Finals Rodeo (INFR) has more than 20 tour rodeos annually. More than 2,000 INFR members will have the opportunity to utilize the WCRA Virtual Qualifier at their INFR-tour rodeos to earn points towards qualifying for the $6 million rodeos. The 43rd Annual Indian National Finals Rodeo event in October 2018 will be a "Win and You're In," with world champions receiving a berth into the November 2018 WCRA $500,000 semi-finals event held at the Lazy E in Guthrie, OK.

Consistent with WCRA's mission to align a fragmented sport, rodeo athletes will have instant access to a new world ranking point system based on a proprietary formula created by WCRA to rank all rodeo, worldwide, regardless of event location or sanctioning body. The formula also evaluates rodeo events by discipline, allowing athletes to earn appropriate points for their respective independent disciplines.

The new standings rank rodeos based on objective data such as athlete opportunity, strength of field, overall exposure and event history. To rank rodeos more effectively the system breaks the entire sport into four Divisions of competition with points awarded based on the appropriate Division assigned to each rodeo.

"WCRA was formed to create alliances and opportunities to help rodeo athletes earn more money at marquee events that will excite fans, while making a path to a full-time rodeo career more attractive and accessible to talented, aspiring western sports athletes," said Gary McKinney, CEO, WCRA. "We're very excited to bring the industry under one roof to share our ideas, seek solutions and collaborate to grow a traditional American sport that deserves a bigger fan base, more sponsors, events in all corners of the country, and expanded coverage."

2014 Stallion by Red x BF Silver Charm, Takin On The Cash

Eligibilities: Future Fortunes, GCC and VGBRA
will be enrolled in others as foals come of age

Silver Charm is also the dam to several big money earners in the barrel pen, including JL Fourtafame, JL Third Times A Charm, and JL Takin On Fame. Reddy is a maternal half brother to JL Tularosa (JL Sirocco x BF Silver Charm), ridden by Danyelle Campbell. Tularosa banked over $15,000 competing in the BFA Juvenile Futurity and Kindercup. Reddy is a nice outcross to DTF and FG mares. His first foal crop came in 2017 and they all have beautiful, sloping shoulders, short, strong backs and float when they move.

JL SHERIFF

2015 Stallion by Judge Cash x Solara, Band Of Azure

Eligibilities: Glacier Chaser Classic and VGBRA
will be enrolled in others as foals come of age

His dam, Solara, is also the dam of JL Sirocco and JL Seraphina. His sire, Judge Cash is recently deceased and his progeny have earned over $1.34 million barrel racing. Sheriff is 15 hands. He is very kind and has been easy to train. His first foals are due this spring. I don't know of many Judge Cash sons standing at stud, so here's an opportunity to try a different cross.

Profitable -- Sophie Palmore & JL Jamaican Me Rich Win 2018 Josey Ranch Reunion

By Tanya Randall

JL Jamaican Me Rich ("Richie") loves the Josey Ranch. For the second straight year, the 6-year-old gelding won the Josey Ranch Reunion. Last year, Richie won with Dustin Angelle, and this time it was with his 18-year-old owner Sophie Palmore of Kirbyville, Texas, in the saddle.

Palmore and Richie pocketed $2,780 at the 25th Annual Event, held May 4-6 at the historic Josey Ranch in Karnack, Texas.

They started off the event, winning the first round with a 16.142.

"I honestly didn't know how I had done," said Palmore, who was one of the first runners in the first round. "I had forgotten the times from last year."

Palmore ended up turning out of her second run with Richie to save him for the Finals. Their 16.142 ended up being the fastest time of the two qualifying rounds, so Palmore and Richie were the last to run in the Finals on Sunday.

"It was definitely nerve wracking," said Palmore, who is finishing up her last year of homeschooling. "My mom was so nervous too. If wasn't for Tyler Rivette helping me in the alleyway I probably would have turned purple from not breathing."

Their winning run was a 16.072.

"When he turned that first barrel I just knew," she said. "He turned it really good. His first is normally something that messes me up, and I knew when he got it, we were good from there."

Bred by Jud Little of Ardmore, Oklahoma, Richie is by champion performer and sire JL Dash Ta Heaven out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchmans Lana, a full sister to NFR producer and all-time leading futurity horse SX Frenchmans Vanilla. Richie was purchased by Dave and Lori Zabel at the 2014 Jud Little Production Sale as a 2-year-old.

The gelding was trained by Jolene Montgomery, who also trained his sire, and ran out nearly $100,000 as a 4-year-old futurity horse. They were the 2016 Diamonds & Dirt Futurity Champions.

Palmore's grandparents Ray and Suzanne Hill of Southwestern Farms purchased Richie in early 2017 under the advisement of Dustin Angelle. Shortly after Angelle won the Reunion, Palmore started riding the gelding.

Earlier this year, Palmore and Richie qualified for the American Semifinals at the Dinosaur Classic in Glen Rose, Texas. Unfortunately, Richie was injured during the run and Palmore has only been running him the past two months.

"Even though he qualified, he slipped and fell on his backend and bruised his hip," said Palmore, who attended a Josey clinic in 2014. "My first run back on him was the Diamonds & Dirt Sweepstakes, which we ended up fourth in. My second run back on him was in the Open and we won the Diamonds & Dirt Open."

The weekend prior to Josey's, Palmore and Richie finished second at the Better Barrel Races World Finals in Oklahoma City.

An active competitor for the past six years, Palmore got started with horses after her mother Samantha, a former barrel racer, bought a cowhorse for her and her older sister Savannah to ride. They progressed from playdays to strong horses, the first top horse being Chicks Quick Molly that took Palmore to her first American Semifinals.

Her goal now is to qualify for the National Finals Rodeo.

"I filled my WPRA permit," said Palmore, who wanted to thank her mother and grandparents for all their support. "I'm going to rodeo a little up north this summer and then buy my card in the fall, so I can haul for Rookie."

Into The Great Wide Open -- Kylie Weast & Hell On The Red Win Guymon Pioneer Days

By Tanya Randall

Kylie Weast and her young, homebred superstar Hell On The Red ("Reddy") tackled their first big, outdoor runs of the 2018 season with a $4,158 victory at the $6,000-added Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo, held May 4-6.

"A couple of people had asked me what I thought she would do in these big outdoor pens," recalled Weast, the granddaughter of barrel racing icons Dale and Florence Youree and daughter of equally successful James and Renea Ward. "I've never worried about it."

The barrel pattern is Reddy's happy place, said Weast. "When she goes down the alleyway—that's her comfort zone," she explained. "(Reddy) goes and turns three barrels and she's done and walks to the trailer. She's excited when she sees the barrels, because that's what she knows. I was really glad to get Guymon over and under my belt because it gave me confidence. I've got these other arenas coming up that I'm not familiar with and it doesn't matter because she's going to do her job."

Weast and Reddy won the first round by more than 3/10ths with a 17.32, the fastest run of the entire rodeo.

"I was at the end of slack and had no idea that she would run that fast," said Weast, who hails from Comanche, Oklahoma. "I knew she had made a good run. I had watched 100 girls and saw some outstanding runs. When they called my time out, my jaw dropped. She just tries so hard and she stays so level. There's never any wasted motion with her. She's getting more solid that way and that's where she cuts the clock off."

Weast, who travels with her 1-year-old son Marcus and her mother Renea, made the decision to turn out of the pro rodeo in Haysville, Kansas, where she was up Friday night after slack in Guymon that morning. Even though the 6-year-old mare does well making more than one run in a day, Reddy had done so well at Guymon that morning in slack and was resting comfortably in her pen Weast felt it best to stay put. She also made a trade to Saturday afternoon's performance. Like many of the spring rodeos, Guymon was progressive with the fastest 40 advancing into the performances.

"I traded for selfish reasons," said Weast. "I hadn't spent a Sunday at home with my little family in a while. I missed my church family and I wanted to be home. So, I traded for that afternoon perf on Saturday."

They followed up their spectacular first run with a 17.49 that tied for sixth in the second round to win the average by nearly 3/10ths as well.

"I knew I just needed to make a good run and she did," she said. "I actually thought it was a little bit better than my first run, but she had found the out gate, which was set to the side. She cut me off going across the eye. I just needed her to go straighter a little bit longer. That's just experience."

Reddy, a daughter of leading sire and champion barrel horse JL Dash Ta Heaven out of the Designer Red mare Designer Ruby, was a 5-year-old futurity horse. The decision to hold the strong-willed mare another year was a profitable one with nearly $100,000 in earnings.

In the fall of 2017, Weast and Reddy got a jump start to the 2018 WPRC Season when they finished third in the WPRC Cardholder's Race at the WPRC World Finals. Weast made the most of the carryover option, winning the WPRC Futurity, and earning a berth into Rodeo Houston.

Weast and Reddy had a solid winter run and currently sit sixth in the WPRC World Standings with $46,037 won at 18 rodeos. Their spring is looking strong so far too. The weekend before Guymon, they won Athens, placed second at Lufkin and won the first round at Corpus Christi on a rodeo run through Texas.

In between her rodeo trips, Weast is busy training horses.

"When I'm home, I'm hitting it hard," she said while praising her husband Jay for supporting her rodeo endeavors. "Today, I started at 7:45 this morning and got off my 11th horse about 3 o'clock."

Not wanting to be gone from home for long, Weast plans on being gone no more than a month this summer as she rodeos her way to and from the Calgary Stampede.

"I'm going to be completely honest, my momma does the entering and she just tells me where we are going! She has it all laid out where we are going this summer," she said. "I've never rodeoed like this before. Janae (Massey, her oldest sister and the 2003 WPRC World Champion) has told me all about them."

This weekend, she's out at Mineral Wells, Texas, on Wednesday, Bridgeport, Texas, on Friday, and Perkins, Oklahoma, on Saturday.

"I got my sister Cassie (Ambrose) to enter with me," said a very excited Weast. "We are going to Bridgeport and Perkins together. We're so excited because we haven't been together in a long time! And NO KIDS either! I think we're both totally pumped about it. Even though we have to drive all night to Perkins, we don't even care!"

As for making it to her first National Finals Rodeo, Weast isn't going to push her 6-year-old mare beyond her limits.

"If it works out, it works out," she said. "I'm not going to tell you that it wouldn't be great to make an NFR trip, but if it's not in the cards, it's not. I like being home."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are many kinds of barrel racers. There are trainers. Jockeys. Professional. Recreational. First timers. Old school. Young, old, male and female. And we all have our way of doing things, and some of us are just plain quirky! There are those who NEVER and ALWAYS do this or that in their program. Some just go with the flow. However, anybody who does anything will find out sooner or later.....

If you don't spend time PREparing
Then you will spend time REpairing
Either way – you'll spend time

So wouldn't it be wise of us to formulate a plan and then work it out? God's Word says it like this. Hab. 2:2, "And the Lord answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it." According to God, it's a good thing to have a goal. A great thing to write it down! That way, when something tries to pull you off, you will remain firm and steadfast in the direction you are headed. If we involve God in our planning, things will go even better! He knows what's ahead. He will direct us. He will steer us clear of problems we don't need to go through. Yes, if we get in a pickle, He'll help us out but I really would rather not have gotten into trouble in the first place. Put Him first this week and watch your plans succeed!
