Summer Kosel & Docs Royal Win Collect $9,888 at OE Bonus Race Finals

By Tanya Randall

"I did have a very blessed weekend," said Summer Kosel of Glenham, South Dakota. The barrel racer and mother of four, ranging in age from 13 to 4, took home $9,888 from the OE Bonus Race Finals, held June 6-9 in Lincoln, Nebraska. "I always proclaim over my horses before I run: Proverbs 21:31 'The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the Lord.' I never run without laying my hands on my horses and saying this verse."

In order to compete in the OE Bonus Race Finals, riders had to earn bonus race identification numbers throughout the year. Lincoln also had an additional Open for competitors to earn additional ID numbers. Contestants could win unlimited identification numbers but only run each horse twice.

Kosel, who operates Smoking Guns Rodeo with her husband Kevin, had six ID numbers, but only two horses to run. She made a total of eight runs on the weekend between her two horses and

"She's a short stocky little thing."

BIT: Myler ported-mullen D-ring

SADDLE: Martin Stingray

SADDLE PAD: 7/8" 5-Star

LEG GEAR: 5-Star on all four

SHOEING: "She normally runs barefoot, but we just put regular shoes on her for Lincoln because of all the concrete."

FEED: A concoction her husband has made for the bucking bulls and Total Equine

HAY: Alfalfa and grass; Omni cubes on the road as well

SUPPLEMENTS: Simply Equine Herbs; Zesterra lick tub if she's stalled

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Head-to-toe PHT

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "During the week, I make her ride through the bucking bulls to give her something else to do and thinking about, also because I have to. Anytime we need to sort or anything, she gets to do it. We also go down in the hay fields. I try to do hills to work her stifles and keep her hind end nice and tight. Every once and while, I'll do slow work, but it's once a month maybe. Other than that, I don't go to the arena with her at all."

picked up checks on every single run she made aboard her 13-year-old mare Docs Royal Win ("Mini").

"When I go to Lincoln, I always start out in the big pen, the Bonus pen, because I want my horses fresh going into that big pen," said Kosel. "I ran in the big pen Friday morning. She ran really well, but to be honest, that was the biggest pen that I've ever ran her in since I've owned her. We literally don't have anything like that up here, so that was the biggest pen that I've ever ran her in and I didn't ride her very well."

Their first run of 16.243 ended up placing eighth in the Bonus for $1,987. The next morning, they had their second run in the Bonus, turning in a victorious 15.975, worth $5,299.

"I had been in the other arena the whole day," noted Kosel. "My daughter and I had drifted over (to the Bonus arena) when they were on about the last 20. I didn't even know that my time was still leading. He announced that my time was still leading it, and my daughter says, 'Why don't we stay in here and watch to see if you end up winning it.' I said, 'I don't know if I want to!' She convinced me, so we sat there and watched.”

Kosel and Mini showed their incredible consistency, turning in runs of 14.076 and 14.067 on Saturday night and Sunday morning, respectively, in the Open race in the smaller arena. The runs finished ninth and 11th for $815 and $652. They also won $1,134 from the daily sidepots.

Mini, by the Casady Casanova son CC Royal Red out of Docs Win Te, by Fixin To Win, was bred by Tracy Bridwell, who had won a breeding at a local barrel racing fundraiser. Bridwell, a now retired Lt. Col. in the North Dakota National Guard, didn't get to run the mare often, but when she did, they did extremely well.

“I had watched Tracy run her for several years,” said Kosel, who was the lone barrel racer growing up with three roughstock-riding brothers. “She had done very well on Mini. It was just a freak deal—a God thing—how I ended up getting her. Tracy never planned on selling her. She had a different horse for sale that my husband had saw. We thought it was Mini that she was selling. Long-story short, she said, ‘Summer, if you really want Mini, I know you’ll will do much more bigger things with her than I would ever do and I will sell her to you. She was such a blessing. It’s amazing.’”

Kosel had purchased the mare right after Thanksgiving, but the massive dumping of snow over the course of a rather brutal South Dakota winter prevented her from doing much riding until a couple of months ago.

“We’ve clicked really well,” said Kosel, who grew up riding her father’s off the track 3-year-olds in 4H competition. “Mini is a bad cat and she knows she is. You’ve got to stay out of her way. If you don’t, she will take the bit and say, ‘No. Too bad!’ The first run was a little rough because I got in her way, but once I learned to stay out of her way it’s been pretty good. I won a saddle about four weeks ago now and just about every jackpot since I’ve won on her.”

Kosel has a busy summer ahead. Hauling with Jill Moody, the two will try to hit the Badlands circuit rodeos and some of the South Dakota Rodeo Association events with their young horses.

Kosel also will try to hit the open rodeos produced by Smoking Guns.

“We’re going to hit the rodeo trail,” she said, “but I’m also going to try to squeeze in some 4H rodeos for the kids and basketball and all that good stuff too.”

Kosel wanted to thank producer Renea Bolling, her crew and the event’s sponsors as well as her husband for holding down the fort and watching their children while she and their oldest daughter were in Lincoln.

“He took care of everything at home and the kids,” she said. “My parents took them for one day and took them fishing on the river. My husband also ran over to a bronc and bulls that we had stock at. So, he needs a big thank you because he deserves it!”

Meka Farr & DD Dee Cee Set Record-Breaking Pace at Sisters Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Meka Farr of Honeyville, Utah, and her 10-year-old gelding DD Dee Cee ("Woody") broke an 18-year-old arena record to take home the Sisters Rodeo Barrel Racing Championship. She and Woody turned in a 17.29 running 10th on the ground in the Saturday night performance to outpace the 17.34 posted by Amy Dale Coelho, likely riding her Judge Cash mare Quick Judge, in 2001.

The victory at the $10,000-added Rodeo, held Jun 7-9 in Oregon, was worth $4,037.

"It was my first time going up there," said Farr. "It's a really nice place. It was a really good experience."

Sisters was Woody's first experience with a side-gate, walk-in start, but he handled it like the old pro he is.

"We typically don't have those where you have a side-gate and walk across," she said. "Usually, you're running in and out. When we got there and saw the setup I thought, 'Well it's going to be what it's going to be' because we haven't prepared for this. Just make the best of it."

"He come walking in across (the front of) the chutes like he'd been there a million times. To watch him in the video to watch him, he's got this look like 'I've got this.' I turned him and he kind of hesitated and was like 'Oh!' It was kind of interesting."

Farr, who is customer quality engineer for the airbag manufacturer Autoliv, purchased Woody as weanling through a horse sale for less than $1,000. Bred by Richard and Patsy York, Woody is by DD Striker, a Striking Distance, Lanes Leinster-bred stallion, out of DD Gambling Suzy, a Gambling Plan, Sold Short mare.

"I started him as a 2-year-old," she explained. "He has a really great personality. He was very calm, almost to the point of being lazy. I thought, 'Oh my gosh, I don't know if he's got the fire to do this,' but as soon as I added speed, he just bloomed. He loves it. He loves his job."

Woody did well at the futurities as a 5-year-old and then transitioned to rodeos as 6- and 7-year-old. He's helped Farr qualify for three Wilderness Circuit Finals and last year they were the Year-End Circuit Champions.

"He's consistent and he's honest," she says. "He runs in a snaffle bit. Once in a while, usually later in the summer when we've been going a lot, I have to switch him out, but his go-to bit is a snaffle."

Farr and Woody also placed second at $2,500-added Days of the Old West Rodeo in Delta, Utah, earning $885 for $4,922 on the weekend. They currently sit 41st in the WPRA World Standings with $14,896 won at just seven rodeos.

She and her 7-year-old daughter Maycie traveled to Delta for the Thursday night performance. They spent the night there before returning home to pick up her husband Derek and her 10-year-old stepson Boston.

"We came home and restocked with goodies, because 10-and-a-half hours is long haul with kids," she chuckled. "It's always fun to have your family there. They were there for (her victory last year in) Nampa, too, so it was way nice."

She also added through laughter: "It's also nice when you travel that far when things go well! There were times when Maycie will go, 'Mom, you hit the barrel.' Thanks, Babe. I've got you. I saw that and I felt it. They're helpful!"

Farr, who grew up riding with her three sisters in 4H and sheriff posse events, hopes that Maycie will have the same passion for the sport as she does. When she got home from Sisters on Sunday evening, Maycie wanted to ride and Farr wasn't about to say no.

Next up for Farr is Pleasant Grove, Utah, and her first trip to the Reno Rodeo. She laughs saying she's going to be out of vacation days after this summer. Her future plans include her circuit rodeos, plus a run over the Fourth of July.

"I am going to try to go a little more," she said. "I love my circuit. They do an amazing job, but I just thought I would expand a little bit and get a feel for what the other rodeos are like. There's a lot of great rodeos out there that I've never gone to. I'm thankful

I get the opportunity. He's an amazing horse. He's my little unicorn and I'm just thankful."

Farr wanted to thank her friends and family for their support: "I'm going to a lot of rodeos outside my circuit and I'm so thankful for my friends that have gone. They tell me where to go, places to stay and things to avoid. It takes everyone. I'm thankful that everyone is willing to share their knowledge and help me. I'm thankful for them."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Most Christians are familiar with the account of the prodigal son. Luke 15:11-24. Two sons. The younger one asked for his inheritance, received it and went wild! The elder stayed home and served his father. The money ran out for the younger one and he wound up in the pig pen! When he came to his senses he decided he should go home and just be a servant in his father's house. But when he got close to home, his father saw him and ran to meet him! There was a great celebration! That son was restored. Praise God!

Our heavenly Father is that way with us. We are free to stay in the kingdom of God and be blessed or go serve the world/devil and take our lumps. If you've been taking your lumps and want to come back to God, He will welcome you back with open arms.

Each morning we should get up and pray, "Lord, today let me be in the right place, at the right time, doing the right thing, with the right people". If any of those things are missing..COME HOME!!!!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
