Windfall for Kaylee Gallino & JC Truly Bob at OE Nutraceuticals Bonus Race Finals

By Tanya Randall

Kaylee Gallino of Wasta, South Dakota, and JC Truly Bob ("Bob") left Lincoln, Nebraska, $10,035 richer as the OE Nutraceuticals Bonus Race Finals Champion.

"You never expect to win everything that you want to; I really just expected him to place and win us a little money," said Gallino of the victory. "So, I was pleasantly surprised."

Gallino and the 14-year-old gelding won the $43,000-plus added Bonus Race for $5,904 and placed fourth on their second run for an additional $3,247. They also won Saturday and Sundays sidepots with their two runs.

"Bob's runs were just smooth," she said of his 15.708 and 15.786. "To me, smoother is faster with him. He actually surprised me a little bit with how well he clocked."

Gallino was also delighted to have her friend Christy Willert place 14th in the 2D for $1,016 on Bob's brother-in-blood JC Baldy Frost ("Buckwheat").

"I only ended up with three qualifier IDs," Gallino explained. "She had some more and only one horse to run."

To be eligible for the OE Bonus Race, contestants had to earn qualifier identification numbers throughout the year at Barrel Bash events. They could also gain an ID number running in the early sections of the $10,000-added Open held in conjunction with the Bonus Race. However, the catch is a horse can only make two runs in each race.

A couple of days before entries were due, Gallino talked Willert into running Buckwheat. Gallino ran him in one section before handing him over to Willert for his second run.

"We had one little practice session and she ran him at a jackpot in Rapid (City)," she explained. "(The Bonus Race) was her third time on him. I was really, really happy and proud of both of them. That was the highlight of my weekend—to be able to say someone jumped on one of mine and did well."

Both horses were bred by Jim Colombe of Mission, South Dakota. Bob is by PC Tru Az Frost, a son of WPRA World Champion Sire Sun Frost out of a daughter of New Decade, and out of the double-bred Doc's Jack Frost mare RC Miss Oaka Boston, by PC Boston Bob. Buckwheat, 11, on the other hand, is by PC Nash Frost, a full brother to PC Tru Az Frost.

Gallino purchased Bob as a 2- coming 3-year-old.

"Dad started him and loved him right away," said Gallino, who helps with the family convenience store in Wall, South Dakota. "I kind of took over when he was 4, just playing around the barrels. I futuritized him a little bit as a 5-year-old, and he's really been my No. 1 ever since. We've had some ups-and-downs, some health stuff we had to get through, but he's just took to it."

The pair have qualified for four Badlands Circuit Finals and represented the circuit once at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida. Gallino's goal for the year is to get back to the RNCFR.

With the money for the RAM National Circuit Finals and individual circuit finals counting toward the WPRA World Standings, the circuit game has changed, she noted.

"It's a huge game-changer," she said. "You see some girls getting a really good jump start for the rest of the year. It gives everyone a chance. It gives someone like me, who only goes to circuit rodeos and a few other ones, a chance to go without it being an everything or nothing-type deal. You can get a feel for it without going all in."

Gallino, who currently sits second in the Badlands Circuit Standings, said her Fourth of July won't be as "jam-packed" as it's been in the past.

"I'm just kind of going to stick to the circuit rodeos," she said. "I have a little bit of a different philosophy this year. I'm passing up some of the rodeos that I would normally enter to stay and go to some rodeos close to home. I want to win the circuit this year. So far, it's gone well, staying closer to home and going to what I know he's going to work good at."

With no young horses in need of seasoning, Gallino doesn't attend many barrel races outside a few WPRA-approved that will help her qualify for the Badlands Divisional Circuit Finals. However, the Bonus Race Finals isn't one she likes to miss.

"It's such a great event," she said. "You always know what you're getting when you enter. It's always great ground. Renea (Bolling) does an awesome job with prizes and keeping things running. It's a fabulous event; it really is."

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Flair Strip when he runs, "I have a pair of Cloud boots and Back On Track products, but he doesn't really enjoy any of it," she laughed.
CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "I actually pony him a lot. I ride Buckwheat and pony Bob most days. We'll go about seven miles long trotting and loping. They don't really see the arena much unless there's something going on that I need to work on. When you've been riding them for nine years or so, you get a feel for when you need to go back to the practice pen." She said she has occasionally roped on him in the past to get him happy and not thinking about barrel racing. She'll also ride through some cattle or day work on the gelding. "He's the kind that does better the less you run him."

Pro Rodeos Summer Run in Full Swing

By Hope Raley

With Cowboy Christmas on the horizon, many barrel racers are entered up and gearing up to head out for a few weeks of non-stop rodeo action. Temperatures and competition are heating up across the country, from Texas to Oregon back to Oklahoma, and several cowgirls are headed out for the summer run with confidence after seeing success this past weekend.

A Faithful Win for Bangart at Sisters

Sisters Rodeo held in Sisters, Oregon is one of the largest spring rodeos in the northwest, and one of the toughest! Teri Bangart and 12-year-old RCA Three Bugs Honor "Peak" claimed top honors when they shut the clock off with a 17.63.

With a few weeks of setbacks leading into Sisters, Bangart explains that she will cherish this win for years, and runs, to come.

"After Redding, we started our 3 weeks of setbacks," said Bangart. "Peak was trying hard, but either there was a stumble here or a down barrel there. I felt like my Faith was being tested, and I started questioning why I was even entering."

However, as fate would have it, Bangart happened to be in the right place at the right time to renew her Faith, and she believes that is what turned things around for her and "Peak".

"I got into the arena Sunday during Cowboy Church, and the pastor was talking about choices and choosing to walk by Faith. It was the perfect message and gave me a whole different perspective on our last month of not so great runs."

Drawing up in 10th position, Bangart knew that wasn't the greatest draw, but chose to stay positive and remind herself that she needed to push "Peak" through the turns so he wouldn't get bogged down around the barrels. "Peak went in calm and focused, and he ran hard throughout the entire course. He was very snappy around our first and second barrel, and our third barrel was a bit closer than I would've liked it to be, but I think that is what helped with our time," explained Bangart.

With plans for the summer to take it one run at a time, Bangart is also hitting bigger rodeos such as Reno and the Daddy Of 'Em All, Cheyenne. "Peak will tell me where we need to go and if he continues to feel good and run good, we will enter up."

aka "Panama" turned in a fast and smooth run of 17.05 at the Woodward Elks Rodeo in Woodward, Oklahoma which earned them a first-place check of $3,322

"I was up in the Thursday night performance and our run was very smooth," commented Armstrong. "Panama is a very 'turny' horse, so when our run ended up being as smooth as it was, I was sure he would clock." Initially a little worried about the setup, Panama proved that though he may be little, he is fierce, and Armstrong was proud of how hard he ran and how honest he worked that night in Woodward.

Only standing 14.3 hands high, Panama is by Dmac Cowboy and out of Matts Blue Angel by Matts King.

"This was my first time winning this rodeo and I am looking forward to what the summer has in store for us."

Planning to mainly circuit rodeo, Armstrong may enter a few others out of circuit depending on how the summer unwinds.

"I am very fortunate to have a horse like Panama. He is a winner through and through because he is always giving me 110% no matter what the conditions may be. I do my best to take care of him and he always takes care of me."

Bruner Barrels to Victory in Weatherford

Texas cowgirl Kelly Bruner piloted Suzytresseis to the tune of $2,952 after they laid down a blazer-of-a-run at the Parker County Sheriff's Posse Frontier Days PRCA Rodeo in Weatherford, Texas.

A veterinarian by trade, Bruner's schedule only allows for about 30 minutes of riding every other day, with some dry work on the pattern when needed.

"If we do any barrel work, it is always at a controlled speed such as a trot or lope," Bruner explained about the 9-year-old son of Tres Seis.

The rodeo road can be a learning curve for some horses, figuring out what your horse likes and what they don't like, and Bruner explains that she recently learned that "Suzy" likes to go down the alley with a buddy.

"It helps keep him more focused and less nervous, so my husband has been there helping us into the arena with ease. I also think it helps to keep me distracted and not as nervous, which I know translates down the rein to "Suzy"."

Bruner and "Suzy" turned in a 17.12-second run which clenched them the win against a field of several NFR qualifiers, Texas Circuit Finalists and other toughs. Last year Bruner placed high at the Parker County Sheriff Posse PRCA rodeo, so she was looking forward to running in that pen again this year.

"I was very pleased with our run. I like to go back to the rodeos that best suit my horse. I am more confident and so are they. I am looking forward to our summer run," Bruner said. Currently on the road to Canada, Bruner and "Suzy" will compete at her first Calgary Stampede in July.

"This will be the first year that I will run at Calgary and I am feeling incredibly fortunate for this opportunity. I am very excited," concluded Bruner.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“Religion” is the art of convincing thoroughbreds that they are mules. When you asked Jesus to be your Lord, (if you haven't you can read Romans 10:8-10) you became a new creature. And if you do not read and study the Bible, some well meaning person will try to convince you that God is mad at you, or that any hurt or calamity that has attacked you is God's will and He's trying to teach you something. Hogwash!!

That's 'religion'. We need to know what God says about us and how much He loves us and wants us to win! My friend showed me a picture of the finish line where Justify had just won the Triple Crown. In the photo, Justify and his jockey didn't have any mud on them. All the other horses/jockeys were covered. They were all race horses. They all crossed the finish line. But Justify went to the front and stayed there.

Our walk with God should be like that. We should go to the front and stay there! God is the best jockey there is! The Bible says, “His yoke is easy and His burden is light.” He is not a 500 lb. jockey!

But we get distracted, or we go our own way and the mud of the world's way of doing things gets all over us. We'll get to heaven, but it will be uncomfortable along the way. We'll have believed that we are mules in this life and we'll work and work. THAT IS NOT GOD'S BEST FOR HIS KIDS!

He has ordained us to be winners! Phil. 4:13 promises that we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us. Focus on Him this week and He'll lead you to your finish line well ahead of the pack!
