Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba Earn Back-To-Back Reno Rodeo Championships

By Tanya Randall

Defending WPRA World Champion Nellie Miller of Cottonwood, California, and her great homebred mare Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister") earned their second set of Championship Spurs at the $37,500-added Reno Rodeo, held June 15-23 in the Silver State. They picked up $9,757 for the victory.

Unlike last year, when they were out at the rodeo's end, Miller and Sister were up in the very first set.

"That's not where we wanted, but it's where we drew," said the mother of two with husband James. "It ended up working out pretty good. It ended up I was glad that I was out first."

Each barrel racer had their first run in morning slack and second run in a performance that night. Miller and Sister were a 17.19 on their first run in slack, which tied for third with Jimmie Smith and CR Dee Plays ForCash. They didn't place on their second run, a 17.34.

"I didn't really know. Being first, you don't even really have an idea of what's going to happen. But, I knew she had made good runs and I was pretty happy with the runs that I had made. I thought I would be fine, but there were a lot of tough girls after me to wait out, so it was a little bit unknown."

The ground was fairly consistent throughout the rodeo with the exception of one morning of slack that was sloppy mud due to an overnight rain. Unfortunately for the ladies out in that set, any hopes of advancement on two-runs was ended by Mother Nature. Living only three-and-a-half hours from Reno, Team Miller went back to the ranch to await their fate. They came back with a huge cheering section—including aunts and uncles, who normally don't get to watch in person—to make the victory extra special.

In the short go, Miller and Sister were last out and posted the short go winning time of 17.21 to win the average.

"Her consistency is her best quality," said Miller. "To make three solid runs is what we want. She came through for us evidently."

By the Dash Ta Fame, Easy Jet stallion, KS Cash N Fame, Sister, a 10-year-old red roan mare, is out of Miller's high school rodeo horse Espuela Roan ("Reba"), by Blue Light Ike. Miller didn't start competing on the mare until she was 6 and started rodeoing on her at 7.

"Each year, she feels better and better to me," said Miller. "She feels like she's more solid and really with it. There's not so much of the learning going on now. She feels like an old veteran now this year, more so than even last year.”

The mare’s honesty and consistency helped them win their first WPRa World Championship last year.

“She’s definitely a very honest horse,” she said. “We just have our timing down together. When I first started running her, I had to learn that about her—that she wasn’t going to mess up, but it didn’t take very long for us to get together and for me to let go a little bit and trust her.”

Miller said Sister is a lot more like her mother Reba than Blue Duck, the half-sibling by Mr Bar Truckle that took her to her first NFR in 2010. Both Sister and Reba make the same pattern every trip.

“She definitely acts more like the mom than Blue Duck did,” she explained. “Blue Duck was very free, and I rode him a lot different than I do her. You can kind of ask her the whole time to run. Blue Duck—you were always kind of sitting back asking him to turn instead of run.”

Miller and Sister currently sit second in the WPRa World Standings with $89,441 won in 18 rodeos. Going into Cowboy Christmas—the lucrative Fourth of July run—she is just $4,702 behind standings leader Hailey Kinsel of Cotulla, Texas.

Compared to most of her fellow competitors, Miller will have a light Fourth of July run. She will head to Arizona this weekend for Flagstaff and Prescott before swinging back by home to run at Folsom, California. Next, it’s up to Oregon for St. Paul, Molalla and Eugene. In Oregon, she and her hauling partner Katie Pascoe, who incidentally led the average on two going into the short go at Reno, will split as Miller joins her family to make the trek to Canada for the Calgary Stampede.

“We had such a good time at Calgary last year. There are so many different things to do up there and we had so many great experiences up there,” added Miller. It doesn’t hurt that Sister did well there last year too.

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “I’m pretty consistent about riding her,” said Miller after winning Rodeo Houston in March. “I’ll ride her every day, especially if I’m not running her. We don’t hardly ever work the barrels. I hardly work the pattern on her at all. We’ll do some circles and little drills. I just hate to pound it into her all the time. She’s really pretty easy to correct and easy to ride and she’s always willing, so I don’t want to keep on her all the time.”

Tres Mesa Horses' First Moonflash Geldings & Wenda Johnson Dominate Revolution Race

By Tanya Randall

Wenda Johnson and the First Moonflash geldings owned by Tres Mesa Horses dominated the Revolution Race in Hamilton, Texas, June 23-24.

"We had initially planned to come for the Free-4-All in Glen Rose," recalled Johnson. "Luckily, a friend had mentioned (the Revolution Race in) Hamilton. We were done, so we decided to go down for the day, and it turned out really well."

Johnson topped the race on a 5-year-old bay gelding Macgyver Moonflash ("Mac") with a 16.578 for $2,960 and won the futurity sidepot for an additional $307.

"Mac doesn't look like he's going very fast, but he's very smooth," said Johnson. "I'm just trying to get him to maintain that speed throughout an entire run. I think that all came together for him yesterday. I'm very proud of him. He did amazing."

It was only the fifth or sixth weekend for Johnson to run the young gelding.

"He's still pretty green," she said. "He hasn't run at that many places. So, he still has some seasoning that needs (to be done), but he's doing really well. Hopefully, we'll keep on progressing with him."

Johnson was second on the 7-year-old brown gelding Dreams First Flash with a 16.594 for $2,220. Along with the sidepots, Johnson and the two geldings won $5,733.

At the Free-4-All, Johnson and Flash finished third in the open. Between the two geldings there, they earned an additional $2,382. Their weekend total to $8,115, which isn't too shabby for the very non-traditional program.

Johnson, who resides in Pawhuska, Oklahoma, jockeys the horses at events, while former Peruvian Paso trainer Luis Hernandez presides over the training, conditioning and general care at Tres Mesa Horses in Fort Worth, Texas. The winning combination of Tres Mesa Horses, Hernandez and Johnson started in 2016 with Flash. Bred by Quarter K Incorporated, Flash is out of the First Down Dash mare First Down Dream. Plagued by bad luck, Flash only ran once and failed to light the board at the track. However, as a 5-year-old futurity horse, he dominated at two big fall futurities and qualified for the American Semifinals Rodeo less than 20 runs into his barrel racing career.

Mac, on the other hand, was bred by Ivy Lane Racing. He is out of the stakes-winning mare Touched By The Moon, a daughter of Black Moon Rising out of the graded stakes-winning Dash Ta Fame mare Fames Touch. He won one race in seven starts at the track, earning $14,409 and a speed index of 86.

Johnson said Mac is the complete opposite of Flash.

"They are different in every way, from disposition to style—everything completely opposite," said Johnson, who wanted to thank Tres Mesa Horses for the opportunity and Hernandez for all that he does. "Mac is a lot softer in his body and stays rounded around a barrel. He is kind and sweet, easy to get along with and really listens to my body."

Johnson has been jokingly called the "First Moonflash Whisper" based on her success with the bloodline.

"Someone came up and told me that, and I thought that was a really nice compliment," she said. "These First Moonflash horses have the ability to go on and be successful. I just want to help them meet that potential as much as possible."

Johnson and her sisters grew up in Arizona. Thanks to their mother Janiece Wilson, they became talented hands on horseback, especially Johnson and her sister Wylene Wilson-Davis, a three-time Mustang Makeover Champion.

"My mom was a huge influence and the reason both Wylene and I love to ride and go fast," said Johnson. We did the Monte Fore-HEADGEAR: Loose tiedown. "I just put one on him this weekend. It's not real tight. I'm still deciding. He's still getting seasoned, so I've still got some kinks to work through."

SADDLE: Josey Ultimate
SADDLE PAD: Tod Slone
LEG GEAR: Classic Equine
SHOEING: Aluminum all the way around
FEED: Local mix of pellets with a little sweet feed
HAY: Grass, alfalfa and pasture
SUPPLEMENTS: Electrolytes
CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "Luis (Hernandez) has done all the training. He's very good and very consistent. He just exercises them and works them on the barrels, maybe a couple times a week. He keeps it pretty light." Johnson, who just meets the horses at events, will do slow work and exhibitions to keep them quiet and happy and enjoying their jobs. "Our little unconventional team works out OK."

Wargo Pilots Harmon's Cashin On The Bayou to Victory at Destry's Free 4 All

By Hope Raley

Gainesville, Texas trainer Joy Wargo is known for training some of the best horses in the barrel horse industry, and she incorporates basic horsemanship, precise training and the time and passion required to train these champions. This past weekend in Glen Rose, Texas at Destry's Free 4 All, Wargo was able to pilot an old friend, Cashin On The Bayou, to the 1D Championship!

Cashin On The Bayou, now owned by Abilene, Texas residents Dave Harmon and his daughter Danielle, was bought by Wargo and her husband, Trent, at the Jud Little Sale when "Cajun" was just a yearling. Wargo and the talented gelding had a very successful futurity career and some of their top highlights include multiple wins and top placings, along with being a finalist at the 2011 BFA Juvenile Futurity, LG Pro Classic Futurity, Old Fort Days Futurity and more. He was also a Top 10 finisher in the Junior Barrels at the 2012 AQHA World Show before Harmon's purchased him at the end of his futurity year.

"Cajun" is by Bugemforcash and out of Sheza Bayou Girl, by Mr Record Maker. The now 10-year-old gelding has been winning consistently under the guidance of Danielle, winning several prestigious races such as tying for the win at the 2016 Dinosaur Classic American Qualifier in Glen Rose, Texas and winning the 2017 Barrel Horse News Timed Event Challenge held in conjunction with the Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo.

While the Harmon Family is out of town, Wargo will get "Cajun" back in her barn and the Harmon's are always incredibly generous allowing Wargo to take "Cajun" for some spins around the cloverleaf pattern. This weekend was no different, with Destry's Free 4 All, Dave (Harmon) made sure he got "Cajun" in Wargo's hands before she made the drive down to Glen Rose.

"Trent and I will take care of Cajun while the Harmon's are out of town, and they still let me run him when I have him at home, which is so wonderful and something that I am very grateful for," explained Wargo. "They are friends that have become family and both Trent and I are very grateful for all they do."

Wargo describes "Cajun" as one of the neatest horses she's trained and ridden.

"He is very quiet, easy to get along with, easy to ride and very solid at his job. He loves running barrels and he is good at it." Destry's Free 4 All is one race ran over the course of three days. 15 places were paid in each D and the race was a 6D. Every horse entered received a second run free of charge, and the race had limited entries.

Running 4 horses at the $85,000+ in cash & prizes at the race, Wargo stuck to the same game plan- smooth, solid runs. Firing on all cylinders, Wargo and "Cajun" posted a blistering fast time of 14.738 which secured them the 1D win out of a very tough field of horses.

"I couldn't have asked him to make any prettier of a run," Wargo said. "I think I rode him effectively and he worked outstanding. I was incredibly happy."

Wargo won the 1D open, the Big Spender and the adult incentive. With all 4 horses, Wargo pocketed over $5,000 in earnings this past weekend.

"I want to extend a huge thank you to the producers and the Destry's Free 4 All also gave away 2 brand new cars, Chris Adamik being the lucky winner of the Chevy Spark and 9-year-old Kenzie Stamps won the Chevy Camaro! Talk about a lucky day in barrel racer land!

Cashin On the Bayou, 15.1-15.2, 1,150 lbs.
BIT: We exercise him in a medium shank Martha Wright 2-piece twist and we run him in a jr cow horse three piece with roller with a leather curb
SADDLE: Marty Byrd
SADDLE PAD: Schneider Saddle Pads
LEG GEAR: RES front splints and bell boots
FEED: Heritage 14% pellet
HAY: Alfalfa
SUPPLEMENTS: Competitive Edge made by Horse Logic Professional
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT Magnetic blankets and wraps
CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: I ride in the arena most of the time, making sure that Cajun stays exercised, sharp and quick on his feet. I will do little tuning with him on the barrels; he is old enough and solid enough to where if I do have to do much tuning, it is either at a walk or a trot focusing on where his feet and his hip are supposed to be. He doesn't require a lot, he is low maintenance and easy!
SPONSORS: RES Boots, Schneider Saddle Pads, Silver Lining Herbs, Horse Logic Professional and Hooligan Designs. Also like to thank our veterinarian Bill Rhoads with Premier Equine, Dale Schneider who does all our acupuncture work, Shawna Turner does our chiro work and my husband Trent does all of our farrier work including Cajun's.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I personally wouldn't know a thing about this, but do any of you have a VERY RICH relative? One that, when they die at the age of 120, will leave you lots of money? And when that day came, you had to be in downtown New York City at 2:00 P.M. in 36 hours, could you get there for the last reading of the will?

I'm thinking we all would find that place no matter what!! Even though I've never been east of the Mississippi but once, by air, and I'm not great with a GPS, I could figure it out. And you could, too. Why? Because there is a great benefit awaiting you. It would be life changing!

Think how many problems could be solved. (Yes, there could be a downside, but let's just think about the positive.) Well, do you know that in the Bible, there is a page that calls the books from Matthew to Revelation, the NEW WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JESUS CHRIST? And we are the beneficiaries!!! Woo Hoo!!!

When you open your Bible, or hear the Word being preached, YOU AND I are always present at the reading of God's will! And it ALWAYS benefits us. God is richer than any of our relatives.

We do not have to share the wealth with anyone, because everyone else can have the SAME benefits! Now THAT is an inheritance! God loves us. Let's get to know Him better this week!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
