Michelle Darling & Morning Traffic Take Titledown Stampede and $50,000

It was an emotional win for Michelle Darling and her superstar mare, Morning Traffic "Martini" at the WCRA Titledown Stampede in Green Bay, Wisconsin. On June 1 at the Resch Center, they clocked the two fastest runs of the event to earn the title and $50,000. "She laid down two runs and I couldn't ask her to do any better," Darling said about her 8-year-old mare.

The WCRA event was held in conjunction with the PBR and according to Darling, it had rained while the dirt was still outside. "There was water standing on it. It was kind of crazy. You know there was concrete underneath [the dirt in the Resch Center] so we were all a little worried about the ground that morning in practice. But I think they worked on it all day and got it really good." That ground actually turned out to be a good fit for Martini. "It was crazy how wet it was, but I knew with it being packed down like that and a little firmer, she'd be a lot better," Darling explained.

And she was right. Darling and Martini led the ten barrel racers in Round 1 with a time of 13.456 and Sabra O'Quinn was second with 13.533. The top 2 advance to the Showdown Round where the winner receives $50,000 and second place gets $25,000. Additionally, the winner of Round 1 in the barrel racing gets to decide to run first or second. "I picked second of course," Darling said. While some questioned why she wouldn't want to be top of the ground, she said, "It doesn't really matter, there's two of us, it's not going to matter ground-wise. I wanted to see what she did."

After O'Quinn tipped a barrel in the Showdown Round, Darling knew all she had to do was have a clean run to win $50,000, but she also knew that she couldn't "safety-up" on Martini. "That's not her style. She goes in there every run to win it," she said. "I just went for it. It was our second run so she was dialed in anyway, so I knew I was going to have to send her." Because Martini is so "ratey", Darling did make one adjustment. "I sent her by first a little bit, but just because I wanted to make dang sure I got by it. Second and third were on point though." Darling showed her excitement with a fist pump as she crossed the timers and the clock stopped at 13.368, the fastest run of the WCRA Titledown Stampede. "Outrunning my first time and having the two fastest times, I think that is what did it for me. I was ecstatic," Darling remembers about the emotion she felt. "To show people what that mare could do in a little indoor arena. And to win that kind of money - to make two runs and win $50,000. It's really cool to win that kind of money at a rodeo and not have to haul all year to win that much." On top of all that, Darling's dad, Don, and 4-year-old daughter, Demi were there to witness the big win. "She was super excited. I could see her when I came back through the gate. She was over there hollering and had her hands up in the air, so I think that made me cry a little bit too, just to have her there with me," Darling said.

Now Darling gets an invite to compete at Salt Lake City for the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo and another chance at a $50,000 check. And it all started when she nominated one rodeo, San Antonio. Since she placed there, she got in the top 60 of the WCRA standings which gave her the opportunity to compete at the WCRA Semi-finals in Guthrie, Oklahoma in May. "It was actually funny," Darling said remembering her first run there. "The ground was really deep and I was going to hit the first barrel leaving it so I reached down to set it up and I dropped my reins and she broke the pattern. I was laughing because I know better - you don't drop the reins on that mare - she's so catty." She came back on her next run to qualify for the performances where she won her pool on Saturday and finished second on Sunday to earn her spot at Green Bay.

“The WCRA has opened new doors. If I can run for this kind of money two or three times a year, I don’t even want to rodeo [like before],” Darling said with a laugh. According to WCRA, since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $4,565,000 in new money to rodeo athletes. While Darling would love to qualify for the NFR someday, her main goal is to make Martini last. “To me, she’s one in a million. I try to count every run I make on her because you never know when it’s going to be her last one. I try not to make more than 20-25 runs a year on that mare,” Darling said pointing out that others often question why she doesn’t go to more rodeos. “And I have a family too and they come first.” Darling’s husband Cody is a heeler who mostly competes at big ropings, and they have three children, Talon, 15, Case, 6, and Demi, 4.

When Darling was pregnant with Demi, she sent Martini to Stevi Hillman to futurity. The young palomino mare quickly became a superstar, winning a list of prestigious rodeos and helping Hillman qualify for the NFR. But Martini’s story began long before that. Darling grew up riding horses and started running barrels when she was 5 or 6 years old. “My dad was a horse trader so we grew up on horses and in sale barns. It wasn’t anything for us to ride 50 head of horses a week. That’s what we did. We rode colts for people and outside horses,” Darling explained. “We went to Bill and Deb’s [Myers] first sale they ever had,” Darling said pointing out that she has always been partial to Frenchmans Guy. “I had my first one that I bought myself when I was 14 and I futuritized her and won the average and the amateur deal at the 5 State Breeders Cup in 2003 on her. Her name was Frenchmans Sunny. She looked just like Martini. I lost that mare – she died. So when I saw Martini in that sale, I bought her over the phone – I didn’t even go down there and look at her. It was on my birthday and I knew when I looked at her, she was the one.” Martini got her name because of her dirty palomino color. “All I could think of was a dirty martini, and it was fitting because she’s sassy,” Darling said. Even as a 2-year-old, Darling knew Martini was special. “The first six months I just worked on getting a halter on her,” she said with a laugh. “You could not catch her, she jumped out of the round pen. I knew she was going to be a good one, but I knew it was going to take time and the right person.”

Darling had Martini for a year and had her loping the barrels before she sent her to Hillman. “I sent her to Stevi because she was really quiet. And she did a great job.” Hillman ran Martini for two years and gave her back to Darling after the NFR her 5-year-old year.

While Martini continues to showcase her talent in the arena, she is passing her genetics – and hopefully star power – on to the next generation. She has three Dash Ta Fame stud colts, including Pendleton, who belongs to Hillman and Morning Hustle, who Darling kept. There are also three Streak of Flings which Darling sold as babies. Martini has one by Shawne Bug Leo, and this year Darling crossed Martini with Tres Seis. “I don’t sell the embryos on her, they’re private so I can control what she’s bred to,” Darling said.

“I feel like this mare just keeps surprising me,” Darling said after their WCRA Titledown win. “It’s crazy because she’s a little bitty mare, but she’s better in the big outdoor pens. She loves the big patterns.” Martini has won the Pendleton Roundup, but can also dominate in little pens like Green Bay. “She’s a ball of fire. She’s just always prancing around, she doesn’t walk. She’s a diva.” She added,

“You have to ride her confidently, because if you’re not, she knows it. She really feeds off of you.” There’s no doubt Martini will show up ready to win at Salt Lake City, Utah for the Days of ’47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo on July 19-24. 2019 CLASSIC EQUINE 1D FUTURITY CHAMPION, QUEEN CREEK ARIZONA

Reddy is the perfect outcross for Quarter Horse mares. His sire, Thoroughbred sprinter Red, earned $469,399 racing and has TB progeny earners of $1,897,656 and QH progeny earners of $2,355,202. Red's top barrel racing money earner is Xtrared, a 2-time NFR qualifier and Ram National Circuit Finalist earning $458,211 with Christina Richman. His dam, BF Silver Charm (ROM racing), was out of Missy Yupon—dam of BF Shenanigan, a top barrel futurity colt with EquiStat earnings of $134,026. Her sire, Takin On The Cash (SI 109), has barrel progeny with $468,185 EquiStat earnings. BF Silver Charm's 7 foals have barrel earnings of $184,978, thanks now in part to Reddy. Eligibilities: Future Fortunes, 5-State Breeders, Glacier Chaser Classic, Colorado Classic, Barrel Breeders Incentive, and VGBRA.

JL REDDY TO CHARM ADDS $3335 TO HIS FUTURITY EARNINGS AT CSR, NOW OVER $30,000+

After returning from Arizona and then breeding mares all spring Reddy is back to barrel racing. Placing in the 1D second go, average, Future Fortunes Bonus and Barrel Breeders Incentive Sidepots at the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity! He loves his job. His book will be open until July 1. Thank you Jackie Jensen for the photo.

Kelsey Lutjen & TS Queens Shake Em Crown Copper Spring Ranch Futurity Champions

By Tanya Randall

Kevin and Sasha Keller of Stamford, Montana, hadn't seen their first futurity horse TS Queens Shake Em since the gelding's breeders Tom and Una Ford of Treasure State Quarter Horses had recommended sending him to Kelsey Lutjen in the fall of his third year.

With $15,000-added to the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity, held May 30-June 2 in Bozeman, Montana, Lutjen decided to make the 21-hour trip from her Collinsville, Texas, home, so the Kellers could watch their horse run.

"I generally won't go that far, but they hadn't seen him since he came to me," said Lutjen. "I hadn't been up in that country in while and I just decided to go. It was actually really cool because I hadn't actually met them (the Kellers) until this weekend."

Both the Kellers and Fords were on hand to see "Shaker" and Lutjen capture a $6,678 futurity championship.

Hallie Hanssen and Mean Cheerleader (Epic Leader x Mean Dorene x Marthas Six Moons) won the first round with a 17.045. Lutjen and Shaker were just of one hole out the money on their first run with a 17.516.

"My horses aren't used to a Standard Pattern because we really don't have them here (in Texas)," Lutjen said. "A lot of my horses didn't want to run up into the third barrel. We were kind of struggling."

Going into the third barrel, Shaker rated really hard, almost a stride too soon, but he let Lutjen move him into the right position to keep from hitting it.

In the second round, Jill Atkinson and JR Performance Horses JR Heart Of Angel (JustaHeartOfAWarrior x JR Angel Wink x Saint Pattys Wink) turned in the winning run of 17.013, the fastest time of the futurity. Lutjen and Shaker were right behind with a 17.096, that also placed sixth in the 1D for $415 on a carryover.

"The second day, I'm thinking to myself that I really need to ride this colt," Lutjen said. "He's either going to get ratey-er or he's going to free up. I didn't really know what to do, because generally he's a pretty free-wheeling horse, so I didn't want to get too carried away. But he freed up and ran a 17.0. I couldn't have asked for anything more out of him."

"He's a smart horse. I had a feeling he might free up. He's pretty honest. He's not a barrel hitter-type horse."

The duo also picked up $947 from the Barrel Breeders Incentive, which also awarded $175 to Treasure State Quarter Horses on behalf of their stallion Frenchmans Shake Em, a son of Royal Shake Em out of FrenchmansFancyFree, by Frenchmans Guy. FrenchmansFancyFree is a half-sister to Frenchmans Bo Dashus, the dam of 2018 National Finals Rodeo qualifier Fiery Miss West.

Shaker, who is out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Queens Royal Ransom, is one of several horses that Lutjen has trained by Frenchmans Shake Em.

"There's something to those Frenchmans Shake Em babies," she said. "I've rode several and every one of them has made. They all are really easy; they train easy. That's what I like about them. From day one, you just kind of have to point them in the right direction

"He's race-y looking."

BIT: Stop & Turn "Hallie Ford sent it home with me to try on another mare. That mare ended up selling, but I wanted to try it on him. It's her bit, but I'm like, 'It's working! Please don't take it from me!'" because they want to be good. This is my job and those colts make my job easy. I wish more people would get them because they're just so easy."

When Lutjen got Shaker, he was just as easy as the rest of the Frenchmans Shake Ems, but just needed time to grow into his legs.

"He was really nice colt, but super, super gangly," recalled Lutjen. "He needed time to grow, so I let the owners know. We just turned him out at my house for a while. After five or six months, I got him back up and got him to run as a 5-year-old."

Shaker had placed along all year, but he had a significant breakthrough when Lutjen made a headgear change.

"I run him in a little Stop & Turn, and he loves it," she said. "That's not typically a bridle that I love. I tried it on him one night and he was fourth in the 1D. I was like 'Alright! Let's see if this works again!' and he won the jackpot. I made some more runs on him and he kept winning. I was like 'Oh Dang! This may be his bridle!' He's just gotten so solid and consistent. He's always been a really nice colt.

"All of those Frenchmans Shake Ems always start out really good. They're pretty easy. So that wasn't really a surprise to me, but he's just got better and better. He's not a horse with a ton of confidence, so that's been something that I've had to keep making sure that I give him his confidence. Now, he's figuring it out."

Next up for Lutjen and Shaker will be the Colorado Classic. The gelding is also eligible for the 5-States Breeders Futurity, so she plans on hitting more of the northern futurities along the way.

Lutjen wanted to give a special thank you to the Fords for raising such nice horses and recommending her as a trainer. She said Una gets an extra special thank you for helping her at the race.

"I was every 10 to 15, so Una was helping me," she said. "She actually got to warm (Shaker) up. I told her I was going to send her my schedule so she could come with me everywhere!"

What's in a name? A lot actually! When you name your horse, dog, cat, goat or gold fish, it means something to YOU.

You probably wouldn't understand why, but when my cousin who knows I HATE fish, gave me one... I promptly named it "Two Ponies..." I would look at that fish every day and wonder just what in the world she was thinking!?!?

Horse names? I've never named one Stormy or Bronc or Tornado or...you get the drift. It's never been hard for me. But Mike and I just bought a new filly and KRIKEY you'd think we were naming our first born! We can't agree on a name. Ah but there is a name that we CAN agree on! JESUS!

The Bible tells us that His name is above every name that's named and EVERY KNEE will bow to that name. EVERY KNEE! So sickness, poverty, death, hell, and the grave will bow to that name. We can call on that name in time of trouble and He will hear us and that situation MUST turn around because we have authority in that name. Please read it for yourself in Phil. 2:9-11 and I John 5:13-15.

You need to see these scriptures with your own eyes so they become real and effective for you. Oh. What happened to Two Ponies? I think he died of a heart attack when I tried to clean his bowl... and no, I didn't pray for him. Sad but true. LOL! Have a great week!
