Rodeo Roundup -- Summer Run On The Horizon

By Tanya Randall

This weekend will wrap up a lot of circuit rodeos for many National Finals Rodeo hopefuls from the Texas, Prairie and Southeastern Circuits as the summer runs kicks off with the Reno Rodeo on June 15. For those in the Western and northern plains circuits, the rodeo season is just starting in full force. Others, like Kellie Collier, have already headed north to Canada in hopes of dual qualifications to both the NFR and Canadian Finals Rodeo.

Kellie Collier & Jig French Truckle Kick Off Canada Run With Grande Prairie Win

Kellie Collier of Hereford, Texas, and Jig French Truckle ("Muffin") topped the Grande Prairie 'Stompede' in Alberta, Canada, for $2,745. They also placed second at the Hand Hills Lake Stampede in Craigmyle, Alberta, earning $1,117 for total weekend earnings of $3,862.

"I was in the first performance and slack was the morning before," recalled Collier. "I just went and made a good solid run. I didn't really know if it would hold up or not. That was the first place we went up here and it's a good ways up there. I am trying to make it worth my while with a good rodeo."

Collier said she actually headed to Canada a little later than she did last year.

"Last year, I came a little earlier because I was trying a horse and trying to get things figured out," she said. "I made the Canadian Finals last year, but since we came a little later, it might be a little tougher to make my (rodeo) count. (Non-residents have to attend more rodeos to be eligible for the CFR.) I'm not for sure if we're making a push for it or not. We'll just have to see how things play out."

Collier, who qualified for her first NFR last year, will have her horses split between the States and Canada.

"I'm going to be flying back and forth to some rodeos like Reno and Pleasant Grove. I'm going to keep a horse and trailer up her until after Calgary and Edmonton, possibly. I'm kind of planning my whole year around Calgary."

Muffin will stay on his old home turf. Collier purchased the 14-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Guy son RNJ Heckofafrenchman out of Dat Furr Bunny, by Whose Dat Bunny, last year in Canada.

Collier will have Streakin Easy April ("Lolo") and Sierra Hall Of Fame ("Eagle") stateside.

Jessica Routier & Fiery Miss West win Hugo PRCA Rodeo Badlands Circuit Champion Jessica Routier of Buffalo, South

Dakota, picked up $4,232 last weekend to sit 16th in the WPRCA World Standings with $31,501 from 19 rodeos.

Routier and the talented 7-year-old mare Fiery Miss West ("Missy"), owned by Gary Westergren, won the Hugo, Oklahoma, PRCA Rodeo for $1,828, were third at Bennington, Kansas for $957, fourth at the Flint Hills Rodeo in Strong City, Kansas, for $1,042, and 10th at the Old Fort Days Rodeo in Fort Smith, Arkansas, for $405.

The rancher's wife and mother of five actually started her little trip through the Prairie Circuit Memorial Weekend and ran at six rodeos over 10 days. The only one she didn't draw a check at was Cherokee, Iowa, where she was up in a performance after a rain.

With many responsibilities at home, Routier is trying do her best to juggle her children, colts and the opportunity to make her first National Finals Rodeo. She doesn't plan to take off and stay gone for months at a time. Luckily, she can get to several great paying rodeos without heading too far south or west.

"I'm still kind of trying to figure that out," said Routier of her travel plans. "I'm going to try to get to as many circuit rodeos as I can and maybe some Canadian rodeos. I'm struggling to not put 1,000s of miles on my horse, driving home every chance I get to juggle everything with my kids. Canada is actually closer to where I live than any of the Southern or Western rodeos. I'll try to fit any of the (Wrangler) Tour rodeos in that I can get to, but I just have the one horse that I'm rodeoing on right now. Everything else is

PRCA to Sanction Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo

The PRCA and the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo are proud to announce that the 78th edition of the rodeo will be sanctioned by the PRCA.

The PRCA and the PPOB Rodeo have a long-standing history, and both organizations are pleased to be coming together to provide another opportunity at big money for PRCA contestants.

“The Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo has tradition that is deeply-rooted in the PRCA’s hometown of Colorado Springs, and we are thrilled to be partnering with them,” PRCA CEO George Taylor said. “This rodeo offers the contestants tremendous hospitality, a packed crowd to compete in front of, and an opportunity to earn a large payday.”

The 78th PPOB Rodeo will take place July 11-14 at the Norris-Penrose Event Center. The exciting action will include performances each of the four days in which the top 2 competitors from each event in each of the four perfs will qualify for the July 14 Championship Round. There will be a minimum of $35,000 added per event.

“We have a long history with the PRCA and we’re excited to see this next chapter unfold,” said Jeff Renehan, President, Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo Board of Directors. “We consider ourselves PRCA’s hometown rodeo and we’re proud of this. It is truly a win-win situation for us both. We can continue the championship format that our fans love, while our contestants can earn top prize money that will count toward the world standings, and their quest for the National Finals.”

The top 38 competitors in the PRCA RAM World Standings will be qualified for the PPOB Rodeo. The additional two spots will be filled by the 2016 and 2017 PPOB champions in each event. The July 11-13 performances will begin at 7 p.m., with a matinee at 12:30 p.m. on July 14, followed by a 7 p.m. Championship Round.

That round will feature the top 8 contestants/teams vying for a spot in the finals, in which the top 3 from the Championship Round vie for the big money.

All eight finalists will earn a check, with the lion’s share of the prize money - $15,000 - going to the champion of the finals, while second place will earn $5,000 and third place will take home $2,000.

young and inexperienced. I don't want to run her legs off. I'll just see how she'll handle it. She's really tough, but I don't want to burn her out in the first month."

Bred and raised by Westergren, Missy is by Firewater Frenchman, a son of Fire Water Flit out of a full sister to WPRO World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday and four-time WPRO World Champion French Flash Hawk. Her dam is Frenchmans Bo Dashus, by racing champion Royal Quick Dash out of PC Frenchmans Bo-jet, whose female line traces back to the Hall of Fame mare Caseys Ladylove.

Routier will head to her first Canadian rodeos this weekend with Brooks, Rocky Mountain House and Marwayne. I'm entered in Canada pretty much through the Forth with Ponoka and Airdrie. Then I'll hit some of our circuit rodeos over the Forth and Livingston and Red Lodge. It's nice because I can go up to Canada and be back home during the week.

Cheyenne Kelly & Running Ta Dash Cash In at Old Fort Days

Although Cheyenne Kelly could conceivably make the NFR this year, her focus is setting herself up for a run in 2019.

"One of my goals was to make the Texas Circuit Finals," said Kelly. She's currently sitting second in the circuit standings and likely has those finals in hand. "My other goal was to stay in the Top 40 to make San Antonio and Houston—the bigger rodeos." She aided her cause with a $2,700 Old Fort Days Rodeo Championship in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Kelly, who hails from Hallettsville, Texas, and her 13-year-old mare Running Ta Dash ("Bendi") were out in the Monday night performance—the first of the weeklong rodeo.

"It was a little nail biting," said Kelly of the wait to find out how she finished.

Bendi, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of the Streakin Six mare Dont Laugh At Me, was out nearly three years with an injury.

"She was injured a few years ago and need surgery," explained Kelly. "Then while she was recovering, I decided to breed her while I went back to school."

Kelly started running the mare again before the WPRO World Finals in Waco, Texas, last October.

"I'm going to do quite a bit of traveling the next couple of months," said Kelly, who currently sits 24th in the WPRO World Standings. "Hopefully, I'll keep my mare sound and running. I'll be picky and choosy where I run her because I only have the one horse."

After three Texas pro rodeos this weekend, Kelly will head to Carlsbad, New Mexico, where her fiancé has a home. She'll hit Silver City, New Mexico, on her way to Reno for the kickoff of her summer run.

Nellie Miller & Rafter W Minnie Reba Continue to Make Their Runs Count

WPRO World Champion Nellie Miller of Cottonwood, California, has spent much her spring taking weekend trips to rodeos in her home circuit. Her weekend ventures have been profitable as she currently leads the California Circuit by $7,000.

"We have a good circuit rodeos going on in the spring, so I've been home a lot," said Miller. "I've been going each weekend, to one, two or three, whatever they're having. We've done pretty good, but it's been pretty low key. Nothing huge, but we've been plugging along."

She said the runs have been good for Sister, her 9-year-old home-bred mare by KS Cash N Fame out of Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike.

"She doesn't like to sit still for too long. She actually could use the runs with the way we've been going. It's good to keep her in shape."

She added to her circuit lead with a $2,547 Championship at the Santa Maria Elks Rodeo. She won the rodeo by 3/10ths with the only sub-17-second run of the rodeo.

Miller and Sister have Livermore, California, and Sisters, Oregon, before heading to Reno. Their out in the second set, starting July 10, at the Calgary Stampede, so her Forth of July run will consist of Prescott, Arizona, and the rodeos in Oregon—St. Paul, Molalla and Eugene.

"Other than that, it will be a pretty low-key Forth of July," said Miller. "We're not going to far."

Miller currently sits second in the WPRO World Standings with $76,878 won at 15 rodeos.

Venture A Little More -- Dona Kay Rule & High Valor Win Flint Hills Rodeo

Dona Kay Rule, who most barrel racers might know as the event judge at some of the larger barre races, like Diamonds & Dirt and the BBR World Finals, picked up $3,506 on the weekend.

Aboard High Valor, a 9-year-old gelding, Rule won the Flint Hills Rodeo in Strong City, Kansas, for $1,567, was second at Hugo, Oklahoma, and eighth at Bennington, Kansas, for $255.

Her week started at slack at Hugo on Wednesday.

"I had been battling a little bit of back soreness," explained Rule, who hails from Minco, Oklahoma. "I had him worked on and he seemed to be feeling better. He made a pretty good run there, but he really felt good the rest of the weekend."

Next was Bennington, Kansas.

"I had a bit of an equipment failure there," she laughed. "I was a little bit embarrassed. It was a rookie mistake. My cinch felt a little bit loose. It startled me, so I didn't ask him for his heart going home. That was kind of a gift to place there. I accept gifts, so that's fine!"

They saved the best for last at Strong City.

"He just felt so good and so much better, I just dropped the hammer and let him and asked him to work," she said. "It was awesome."

Rule, who has long been on the production side of things, praised all three rodeo committees for their efforts.

"Everybody had worked on the ground," she said. "They went above and beyond to get the ground right for us. I don't know if we thank them enough. It's no easy task and it's really nice."

Rule was forced to turn to Valor when her pro rodeo winner A Juicy Venture was injured in a freak non-competition accident at a rodeo a little more than a year ago. Valor, who was bred by former NFR qualifier Lana Merrick Bailey, is by Valiant Hero and out of the Rare Form mare Rare High.

"Valor just stepped," said Rule. "I'm just a Slo-Mo-Joe, not a futurity girl. I can bring one along slow and give one confidence. I guess I must have done that for Valor because when the light bulb came on for him, he was like 'Oh, I can do this!' That was fortunate because he picked up the slack and went to work."

She said if hadn't of been for Juice's injury, Valor may have never got his chance.

"Honestly, I would probably would have just dragged him along and bored him to tears," she said.

As for Juice, he's got veterinary clearance to run again, but Rule is hesitant.

"He's doing really good," she said. "He's ready to go make a run. I'm just too chicken. I'm worried that I'm going to hurt him. He sure looks good running around and playing. If he hurts himself playing that's one thing, but if he does it while I'm running him, I'd just be devastated."

Rule has plans to make the Prairie Circuit Finals, but she'll also venture out a little more.

"I'd like to go a little more," said Rule. "I'm over 60 and it's hard to find someone to go. The younger ones want to go way more than I do. Plus, I'm hesitant to enter up a bunch with one horse. I've got a barn full of colts and a grandson that plays ball too."

She did, however, enter the Greeley Independence Stampede over the Forth of July.

"My husband is an artist and they have an art show," she laughed. "Then I found out the art show is the week before rodeo! We're never going to get to hang out!"

A Heavenly Win for Patrick and Flit Ta Heaven

By Hope Raley

Racehorse trainer and barrel racer Cindy Patrick was grinning from ear to ear when she drove away from the No Bull Grand Slam #4 race held in Fletcher, North Carolina this past weekend. Patrick and her 6-year-old gelding Flit Ta Heaven pocketed over $9500 in three days for their impeccable showing on the cloverleaf pattern.

"I am not real young anymore," laughed Patrick, "So it is fun when I get to beat the younger's!"

Flit Ta Heaven "Mouse" is by JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of Flitin Firin Cash by Cash Not Credit. A product of the Jud Little breeding program, "Mouse" was bred to be a superstar. JL Dash Ta Heaven needs no introduction, and for those who don't remember, Flitin Firin Cash helped carry Kassie Mowry to the NFR in 2005 when Mowry was training for Little.

"My husband Gary bought him for me as a surprise birthday present when Mouse was just 3. Everything about Mouse has been easy since day 1. He was easy to train, he is easy to ride, and he absolutely loves to run barrels!"

Racehorse trainers by trade, the Patrick's spend their winters in Brooksville, Florida and their summers in Pendleton, Indiana, where they race their horses at Indiana Grand.

"I wake up every morning at 4 and head to the racetrack, and we don't get home some nights until close to midnight. We have 40+ horses in training at our barn in Pendleton and we train anywhere from 20-25 horses a day," explained Patrick.

When asked what her weekly riding schedule was like with "Mouse" she replied, 'very inconsistent'.

"Some nights I get home and ride him, other days I use him as a pony-horse on the track. It truly depends on how the day at the barn goes if I will get time to ride my barrel horse when I get home," Patrick said. "It varies day to day and week to week! I try to

Able to get away for the weekend, Patrick made the almost 8-hour trek to Fletcher where she and "Mouse" had a very successful weekend.

In the first round of the No Bull Grand Slam #4, Patrick won 2nd in the open with a 13.915 behind Leslie Willis and Champion-of-the-house's run of 13.876.

"He made a very smooth run in the first round and I was very pleased with how he worked."

In the second round, Patrick and "Mouse" took an extra step past the first barrel which cost them some time, but still landed them 9th in the 1D with their time of 14.076.

The short go was Sunday and there were close to 250 horses coming back for redemption. Running slowest to fastest, Patrick ran 3rd from the end.

Posting their fastest run of the weekend of a 13.829, Patrick was leading the field with only two racers left.

"I was nervous watching but knew we had made a good run, and had given it our best shot," explained Patrick.

Sitting on pins and needles, Patrick watched as Willis and Champion-of-the-house posted a very respectful run of 13.880, and a barrel fell for Carly Taylor and Diva Dinero.

As the dust settled and the curtain came to a close on the weekend, it was Patrick's 27.744 average time that secured her the win.

"I love the No Bull races, and I had a lot of fun this weekend in Fletcher," said Patrick. "I need to thank my husband and my daughter for their continued love and support. I couldn't do it without them!"

Silver Charm is also the dam to several big money earners in the barrel pen, including JL Fourtafame, JL Third Times A Charm, and JL Takin On Fame. Reddy is a maternal half brother to JL Tularosa (JL Sirocco×BF Silver Charm), ridden by Danyelle Campbell. Tularosa banked over $15,000 competing in the BFA Juvenile Futurity and Kindercup. Reddy is a nice outcross to DTF and FG mares. His first foal crop came in 2017 and they all have beautiful, sloping shoulders, short, strong backs and float when they move.

JL SHERIFF

2015 Stallion by Judge Cash×Solara, Band Of Azure
Eligibilities: Glacier Chaser Classic and VGBRA will be enrolled in others as foals come of age

His dam, Solara, is also the dam of JL Sirocco and JL Seraphina. His sire, Judge Cash is recently deceased and his progeny have earned over $1.34 million barrel racing. Sheriff is 15 hands. He is very kind and has been easy to train. His first foals are due this spring. I don't know of many Judge Cash sons standing at stud, so here's an opportunity to try a different cross.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi & Ima Famous Babe Sweep Copper Spring Ranch Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi's homebred and trained 5-year-old Ima Famous Babe ("Katniss") picked up her third futurity title of the season with a $9,618 Championship at the $15,000-added Copper Spring Ranch Futurity in Bozeman, Montana, June 2-3.

Brittany and the Dash Ta Fame mare swept the Futurity, topping the average by 6/10ths.

"She ran really fast in the first round," said Brittany. "The second round, I just made sure I got around the barrels. She got in a little tight on me at the second barrel, so I held her off a little extra. I maybe held her off a little extra at the third. Honestly, she's so fast. If I just go in there thinking make a smooth run, and not try to be fast, she clocks really fast."

A product of Brittany's stellar breeding program, Katniss won the 5-Year-old Futurity at the Lance Graves International Barrel Racing in Guthrie, Oklahoma, in February and followed it up with a championship at The Patriot Futurity in Fort Worth, Texas. She was ninth at the Dufur Quarter Horses Futurity at the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic in Waco, Texas.

Most recently, she won the first and third open at the Formula 707 Challenge at Loveland, Colorado, prior to her Copper Spring Ranch Championship.

Brittany also picked up checks on Babe On The Run, Katniss' 4-year-old half-sister by her stallion Be A Magnolia Runner. Babe On The Run placed in the first round and finished just one hole out of the average.

Both mares are out of Brittany's blue-hen producer Streakin Six Babe, by Streakin Six.

"After next year, I'll have two for every year," said Brittany, who had her year-old daughter Tinlee cooing in the background. "I have six or seven frozen embryos, maybe eight. Streakin Six Babe stays at Royal Vista and we don't let her go a cycle without putting semen in her. We bred her back to Dash Ta Fame this year."

Brittany also purchased an older full sister to Katniss from Char-mayne James. She's raising colts out of that mare as well.

Aside from her winning breeding and futurity program, Brittany is still in the hunt for another National Finals Rodeo qualification. The Sunday following her Futurity win, she was placing second at the Elizabeth Stampede in Colorado on her World Champion Yeah Hes Firen ("Duke"), who has recently returned to competition following a near career-ending tendon injury a few years ago.

Brittany is currently ninth in the WPRA World Standings with $43,150. She has two circuit rodeos this weekend in Monticello and Cortez, Colorado. She has North Platte, Nebraska, next weekend along with the Colorado Classic Futurity.

"Garrett's going to head out to Reno with the horses," Brittany explained. "I'm going to stay here and go to the Colorado Classic and then fly out to Reno."

Brittany will have a busy Fourth of July and has plans to make more rodeos than she did in 2017. She's not planning on splitting rigs though. It will just be her and Garrett as Tinlee will be getting spoiled at Garret's parents.

"We're following a similar path as we did last year," she said. "We'll do all the big ones, but we're not going to Canada and we're not going to the Northwest (for St. Paul, Eugene and Molalla)."

In the meanwhile, the futurity horses will get a break until the late summer early fall. Brittany said she has tentative plans to make the Glen Wood Memorial in Salina, Utah, and Fizz Bomb Classic in Gillette, Wyoming.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are comforts in our lives that are special to each of us. I love old denim jeans, the smell of sagebrush, puppy breath, babies and horses. Not necessarily in that order. Guys may enjoy a 454 engine, a John Deere tractor, or their favorite fishing hole. And even when you've been away from them for a while, when started again, they are easily picked up.....like there hadn't been an interruption.

When my mare got hurt early last year, it put an end to the barrel racing. I had lots of young ones to ride, but there wasn't any traveling. Bummer of a year. So when I finally got entered in a barrel race last weekend, for some dumb reason I was really nervous.

I even had thoughts that I might fall off!! The first day was weird. My mare was nervous. Couldn't even hold a lead. I felt like a newbie. It didn't go real bad. We were in the 8D I think. LOL!

But the next day, we both relaxed and enjoyed the day. Our time was faster. Made it to the 7D! But I loved being there! It all came back and was enjoyable.

I know that sometimes we walk really close to the Lord. We read our Bible, we pray, we go to church. But then, the devil gets us distracted with life or problems and we drift away. A slow move away from the Lord, just trying to manage on our own.

But then, one day, we realize that we are swimming upstream and we look back to God. When we do, He's right there waiting to help us. We pick our Bible back up, we pray and get our bottoms back to church! When we do, things start falling back into place and turning around to go the right way. Pressure comes off and we enjoy the journey with Him! It's the best place to be.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
