From Round Top to the Rooftop -- Taci Bettis & Bogie Is A Smash Win Estes Park

By Tanya Randall

Taci Bettis, who hails from the small Texas antique-rich hamlet of Round Top, Texas, and Bogie Is A Smash topped the $6,200-added Rooftop Rodeo in picturesque Estes Park, Colo. The victory was worth $3,978.

"I'm just thankful to be out here," said Bettis, who is sponsored by Classic Equine, Oxy-Gen and She-Fit Apparel. "I never thought I'd be where I am this summer, right now. I just came out here for the experience. I'm just taking it all in. It's been pretty cool. It's hard being away from home, but at the same time, not many people get the chance to do this. I'm blessed to even be able to do this."

Bettis and Smash also placed on their only other run of the week at the $8,000-added Dinosaur Roundup in Vernal, Utah. They were ninth earning $674 for total weekend earnings of $4,652.

Smash, who returned to competition in March after a six-month injury-induced vacation, has won all but a few hundred of Bettis' $43,528, which has her 13th in the WPRA World Standings and leading the Rookie standings. The gritty 9-year-old gelding is by National Finals Rodeo average finalist Bogie Biankus out of Bogies Devine Smash, by Remember Smash.

After finishing up a $10,000 Fourth of July run, Bettis and her hauling partner and mentor Tammy Fischer, who is currently 11th in the standings with $47,226, laid over in Oakley for three days before running in slack at Vernal. They drove all night, taking the hour-and-a-half detour around Rocky Mountain National Park with its guardrail-less Trail Ridge Pass on Highway 34 pass—the highest in Colorado at 12,183 feet—to Estes Park for Saturday slack.

This week will find Bettis and Fischer at Casper, Wyo., Tuesday night, Sheridan, Wyo., on Wednesday night, Colorado Springs on Thursday, Gunnison, Colo., on Friday and hopefully back to either the short rounds at either Colorado Springs or Casper, preferably Colorado Springs with $26,000 up for grabs in their "Shootout."

"The other guy (Bogies French Bug) will probably get some runs this week, because it's so long and flows into next week," noted Bettis. "Bugs" is a 6-year-old gelding by Frenchmans Bogie, a grandson of Bogie Biankus, out of Really A Wrangler, by First Wrangler. Bettis and the young gelding picked up their first pro rodeo check at North Platte, Neb., in June.

The following week gets as hectic as the Cowboy Christmas with the Cheyenne Frontier Days, Nampa, Idaho, Spanish Fork and Salt Lake City, Utah. The Days of '47 in Salt Lake City is another mega-payout rodeo with a guaranteed purse of $125,000 with a $50,000 first-place check for the Finals winner. Bettis made the automatic cut into Salt Lake as the leading WPRA rookie.

"These next few weeks big things can happen, whether it be good or bad. We're trying to map out which direction we want to go. We're on a win-fast, go-home schedule," she laughed.

Cowboys and Cowgirls Ready to Go For Gold in Salt Lake City

The field for the much anticipated Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo is set with a great mix of current and former world champions as well as the new kids on the block trying to etch their names into the PRCA and WPRA record books.

The Komatsu Equipment Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo presented by Zions Bank, July 19-22 and 24, will take place at the all-new, $16 million, state-of-the-art Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fairpark. The venue—an outdoor arena located in the heart of Salt Lake City—features 10,000 stadium-style seats.

"We are excited to welcome these world class athletes to the new Days of '47 Arena and watch them compete for a share of $1 million," said Days of '47 Rodeo General Manager Tommy Joe Lucia. "Looking at our list of athletes combined with our exciting new format, at our brand-new stadium, we anticipate a highly competitive event that fans will enjoy and a life-changing rodeo for the cowboys and cowgirls."

A total of 32 contestants each in bareback riding, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding, along with 32 teams in the team roping have earned the right to compete in the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo.

All current PRCA world champions will compete in one of the first three performances as they look to add a Gold Medal to their 2016 World Champion Gold Buckle.

"It would be pretty outstanding," said 2016 PRCA World Champion Tie-Down Roper Tyson Durfey, when asked what it would mean to add a Gold Medal to his collection. "I have won some pretty cool prizes in my career over the last decade, but never have I ever won a Gold Medal."

"I won a car in Brazil one-time at a big competition, won a rifle, buckles, spurs and all that stuff, but never won a Gold Medal."

This will be the first time in the history of the PRCA/WPRA that contestants will have an opportunity to compete for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals at a regular season rodeo. The previous two times were in conjunction with the Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988) and Salt Lake City (2002), when rodeo was part of the Cultural Olympiad. The medals that will be awarded at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo will be produced by OC Tanner, the same company that made the Olympic medals for the champions of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

This will be an international event with contestants not only from the United States and Canada but also Brazil, Australia and France.

Utah rodeo fans will be treated to the "Wright" show in the saddle bronc riding with brothers Cody, Jake, Jesse and Spencer along with brother-in-law CoBurn Bradshaw and Cody's sons, Rusty and Ryder, all vying for the $50,000 that will be awarded to the champion on July 24. Other family duos that will be looking to spoil the Wright's celebration will be Jacobs and Sterling Crawley and Cody and Heith DeMoss.

Bull riding fans will be treated to a field that includes three-time world champion Sage Kimzey of Strong City, Oklah. Kimzey recently added $20,000 to his bank account after conquering leading PBR World Champion Bull contender Pearl Harbor, owned by Chad Berger, for 92 points in an exhibition showdown on July 1 in Mandan, N.D. Kimzey will face more stiff competition in Salt Lake City with Utah brothers Joe and Josh Frost of Randlett and Tim and Tyler Bingham of Honeyville. They will all be trying to leap frog current world standings leader Garrett Smith of Rexburg, Idaho.

The WPRA Barrel Racing qualifier race on July 18, will christen the new arena with the top four finishers qualifying for the Days of '47 Cowboy Games & Rodeo for the Saturday night performance. These ladies will face some fast competitors led by WPRA World Standings leader Tiany Schuster who has already won $163,433 in 2017, along with 2016 reserve world champion Amberleigh Moore, and two-time world champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, who won the most money of any WPRA member over the Fourth of July week, known in rodeo as Cowboy Christmas.

The top two in each discipline from each day will advance to the Gold Medal Round on July 24. The Gold Medal Round, featuring the top eight in each discipline, will compete in a sudden-death format with the winner collecting a Gold Medal and $50,000 cash that will count towards the PRCA and WPRA world standings that determine Wrangler NFR qualifiers and world champions. This payout marks the largest one-day payout in the PRCA regular season and will be the most anticipated stop on the Road to Vegas.

The July 24th Gold Medal Round will be televised on CBS Sports Network. Tickets are still available starting as low as $14 each at smithstix.com. For more information on the event visit www.days-47cowboygames.com.

Triangle's 38th Fall Event Features Premier Barrel Horse Selections in Shawnee

Triangle Sales is bringing on the barrel horses during the 38th annual Fall Sale, October 27-29, in Shawnee's Heart of Oklahoma Expo Center. The multi-day event will feature the Shawnee Barrel Classic Session Saturday, October 28, as part of the Fall Sale line up, and will continue Sunday, October 29, with a full day exclusively for the second annual Future Fortunes Select Sale.

Shawnee Barrel Classic sale demonstrations will follow roping demonstrations, beginning at 8 a.m. on Saturday the 28th in the adjacent International Youth Finals Rodeo arena (IFYR). The sale will feature finished riders and prospects for barrel horse competition, as well as breeding stock.

Sale consignments are currently open through September 1, for the Future Fortunes Select Session and through September 14, for the Shawnee Barrel Classic Session.

The Future Fortunes Select sale demonstrations will begin at 10 a.m. on Sunday the 29th, also in the IFYR arena. A jazz brunch will

Kricket Gintner & Dial A Little Fame Pocket $5,990 on Great Lakes Run

By Tanya Randall

Just a week into his return to the arena from a ligament injury, Dial A Little Fame ("Jax") was back winning big for Kricket Gintner of Eau Claire, Wis.

Gintner and Jax picked up $5,990 during the lucrative Great Lakes Run, featuring $7,150-added Heart of the North Rodeo in Spooner, Wis., and the $6,550-added at the Hamel Rodeo and Bull Ridin' Bonanza and $3,000-added at the 41st Annual Isanti Firefighters Rodeo in Minnesota. They won Spooner for $3,350 and took second to Laura Kennedy and Hopes Money Boy in Hamel for $2,640.

"It's definitely a jump start for us...having him back and being able to do that," said Gintner. "He definitely showed that he was ready to be back. I did a lot of crying this weekend, happy tears. It was just very humbling and nice to see everyone so happy that I was back on Jax. Everyone was very encouraging."

Having won the American Qualifier in Winona, Minn., Gintner and Jax had traveled to Texas in January to get some runs in before the Semifinals Rodeo in Fort Worth. While there, Jax had kicked the fence and injured a ligament in a hind leg, which forced Gintner to borrow a horse for the Semifinals. Meanwhile, Jax had a stem cell treatment to foster correct and quick healing.

"We had it done down there just so we could get a head start on his recovery," Gintner explained. "He got a clean bill of health earlier this summer. They were having us just build him up back into his workouts. Manawa (over July 1) was first official rodeo back."

Their second weekend of competition started at Thursday morning slack in Hamel. Rain had hampered the footing. Gintner's mother, multiple Great Lakes Circuit Champion Tammy Whyte, had been keeping a watchful eye on the first set and developed a strategy for the challenging conditions.

"There were deep spots in the middle and they had packed around the barrels to keep it drier, so the ground was really hard around the barrels," Gintner recalled. "The first drag didn't go the greatest, so she told me to get on one of our backup horses. I had switched and then she heard them tell the tractor driver to stay around the barrels and get it broke up some, so she came and switched me back to Jax. She said, 'Here's the game plan—we're going to try to stay as close as you can to the barrels and on the way home from the third stay to the left of the barrel to avoid the sinking spots.' He did phenomenal. Even though we left winning it by a lot, we didn't know if that would get us through all the performances."

They were up in Spooner the next morning.

"It was his normal nice run," said Gintner. "I ended up losing my hat in that one. I actually did the whole run trying not to lose my hat. My mom was like, 'Why did you do that?' I was under the assumption that the hat fine was like $50 and I was trying to save money by not losing it!"

Their last run was at Isanti and they caught the first barrel.

"I was lucky enough to be on top of the drag, but it was just so deep that when we got around to finish the first barrel I just brushed it and it came with me a little bit. I just pulled up and let him coast. It was the third day and I had already tipped, so I just let it go. He was feeling really good. He came out safe after all three runs, so I couldn't really ask for anything more than that."

Bred by Kay and Tom Gunderson of Altoona, Wis., Jax is by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Little John Dial mare Dialalena Leo. He joined the Whyte herd about four years ago.

"He actually belongs to my mom," said Gintner. "He was being ran at NBHAs and stuff before we got him. We had him in to sell and we ended up buying him ourselves."

After a little tweaking, Gintner's sister Brandi Brzezinski started riding Jax at the rodeos. The gelding was a challenge to season because he was scared of cattle and the rodeo atmosphere. Now, the gelding has won pro rodeo checks for both sisters and their mother.

Gintner, a "very, very part-time" radiology technician, is a mother of two children, ages 2 and 5 with her husband Mike.

"I love my job," she said. "It's worked out that I can stay very part time with that this way I get to stay at home with the kids and ride horses with my mom."

Still with the children, hitting the road for a Great Lakes Circuit qualification is a challenge. The circuit is one of the largest in terms of distance between rodeos.

"I still have a lot of work to do," she said. "We pick and choose which ones we go to. We don't go to all of them, especially with the kids; it makes it hard to be gone all the time. We definitely need to make the ones count that we do get to go."

Gintner also wants to qualify for The American again.

"We are planning on trying for The American again at Winona this coming weekend," she said. "We just kind of taking it in stride. Our main priority is keeping (Jax) healthy. We're just doing the things that mean the most to us. We're not trying to run his legs off by any means."

Simple Solutions, Scientifically Proven®

CHALLENGE:

- Lethargic in workouts
- Not firing on the pattern
- Sore, stiff muscles

SOLUTION:

Elevate® Maintenance Powder

Highly bioavailable source of all-natural vitamin E

- Maintains healthy nerves and muscles so horses perform at optimal levels.
- Provides equine athletes with essential antioxidants missing from the diet.
- Reduces the occurrence of sore, stiff muscles.
- Supports healthy muscle development.

"I trust Kentucky Performance Products' supplements to keep my horses healthy and sound throughout their competitive lives."

Crowther Cracks Out New Stick at Southern States Triple Crown

By Tanya Randall

Recently crowned Old Fort Days Derby Champion Margo Crowther topped the $10,000-added Saturday race at the Southern States Triple Crown NBHA Super Show in Perry, Ga., on her very first run aboard her new horse Famous Perkfection ("Sanford").

"I had just got him the day before I ran him," said Crowther. At her husband Casey's suggestion, Crowther inquired about and purchased the 4-year-old gelding by Famous Bugs out of the Dash For Perks mare Miss Sugar Perks, through the horse's trainer and her good friend Craig Brooks.

"I bought him on a whim," she said. "I've been watching him all year because Craig and I are friends. He really caught my eye at Fort Smith. My husband was like, 'Maybe you should call the owner of Sanford. I heard she wants to sell him.' I got ahold of her and when I called my husband, I said, 'I think I just bought the horse.' He was like, 'You bought him! I thought you were just calling to talk to her about him! I hope you can ride him!'"

Their first run together netted $2,988.

"I really wasn't expecting that," said Crowther, who was hoping to be out west rodeoing rather than close to home in July. After winning the Old Fort Days Derby, Crowther and her 5-year-old champion Shes Packin Fame ("Sissy") picked up pro rodeo checks at Fort Smith, Ark., Weatherford, Texas, Gladewater, Texas, and Santa Fe, NM.

"Everything was going okay," she said. "We thought I was just having big pen issues, getting our timing. She got really back sore. After Greeley, I decided it wasn't the best idea to go over the Fourth of July and do the whole five or six runs in four or five days." Crowther returned to a friend's house in Oklahoma and had Sissy worked on and rested the mare for a week and half. During her break, she got a call to replace Stevi Hillman at the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs since Hillman was at the Calgary Stampede.

"I was all excited, thinking my luck had turned around," she said. "In the meantime, I had bought Sanford and he was down in Georgia. The Southern States Triple Crown was going on and they sponsor me. I thought, 'Let's go down there and pick up Sanford and I can send my 4-year-old home because she's been on the road with me the whole time. I'll run Sissy at Triple Crown to get her confidence back and see how she feels. If she isn't 100 percent then we're already that much closer to home.'"

Unfortunately, Sissy didn't bounce back like Crowther hoped and she's home until its time to kick off the 2018 run with the WPRA World Finals in October. Crowther will also get to finish out the futurity year with Sanford and her 4-year-old mare Lulu To Fame, who picked up a $2,552 check in the 2D during Saturday's $20,000-added race.

"I want to thank Mike and his crew that put on the Triple Crown show," she said. "I really made it a point to get down there because they sponsor me. They're such good people. I'm so proud to be sponsored by them. It was a really great show."

be available just prior to sale time in the sale arena.

The Future Fortunes Sale brings together a collective line up of some of the country's top yearlings, 2 and 3-year-old barrel prospects, as well as breeding stock. This year's sale yearlings are eligible for the 2019 John Read Foster Challenge.

The Future Fortunes group includes some of the country's most elite stallions for breeding and incentive opportunities within the barrel horse industry. Since its inception in 2004, more than 17,000 horses have enrolled. In 2018, there is a total eligible payout of more than $950,000 in cash from 83 venues across the U.S. and Canada.

Triangle Sales' inaugural Future Fortunes Select Sale was held in Ardmore, Oklahoma, last year with great success. Eighty-five of 99 horses sold, averaging an impressive $9,150 per head, equating to a Top Ten average of $24,650. Buyers and sellers from 17 states and Canada attended.

Mary Ellen Hickman is the founder of Future Fortunes and has been instrumental in collaborating with Triangle Sales owner Jim Ware for the Future Fortunes Sale. She says the benefits of the incentive program have been far-reaching, even into the sale environment.

"Really good horses always have an opportunity to hold their market value and sell well," Hickman said. "The Future Fortunes incentive program provides added value to all enrolled horses through its expanded opportunities."

Hickman said the success of last year's sale is fueling excitement for the upcoming sale.

"Everyone wanted to see how the first sale was going to go, which was very successful," Hickman said. "We have had lots of calls, and we're looking forward to an even better turnout this year in terms of horses available for purchase and buyer interest."

The Triangle Fall Sale schedule begins Thursday night October 26, at 6 p.m. with a complimentary buyer and seller dinner. Sales kick off Friday morning with the Select Cutting/Cow Horse Session, followed by the 2 and 3-year-old Cutting/Cow Horse Exchange.

Saturday's sale will include various sessions throughout the day, including the Select Barrel Session. Other sale groups that day include the Select Reining Session and the Shawnee Session, which offer a select mix of ranch horses and quality roping horses for nearby audiences attending the final weekend of the United States Team Roping Championships occurring concurrently in Oklahoma City.

More information can be found about Future Fortunes and terms of eligibility for incentives at www.futurefortunesinc.com. For more information about this and other Triangle Sales events, visit www.trihorse.com.

Jeremy Sparks to hold book signing at Hall of Fame

Jeremy Sparks, a 10-year member of PRCA, is coming to town with his Amazon No. 1 Best Selling book, Go West.

On July 21, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., the Turn 'em Out book tour will stop at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. Sparks, a now retired PRCA bullfighter, is also an officer in the U.S. Air Force, having earned his commission following the terrorist attacks on 9/11. Endorsed by the Pentagon, Sparks fought bulls at prestigious events such as Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days, the Cody Stampede, the RAM Mountain States Circuit Finals and RAM First Frontier Circuit Finals.

"The PRCA is the premier rodeo organization in the world, and from the time I was 14 years old my goal was to earn the title of professional cowboy," Sparks said.

Elevate Publishing recently released Go West - 10 Principles That Guided My Cowboy Journey which captures Sparks' stories of strength and service. His remarkable and illustrious journey began at a young age when he received a God-given calling to become a rodeo bullfighter. Early into his career, he suffered a near-fatal electrocution, which, but for his faith in God, would have ruined his dream.

Ultimately, Jeremy accomplished his goal and had a long and distinguished career, culminating as the youngest cowboy ever enshrined in the Cheyenne Frontier Days Hall of Fame.

With God at the center of this fascinating story, Go West shows how anyone can follow God's calling, even if they stray off the path at times.

"Having received a specific vision, I realized I had been given a unique gift," Sparks said. "So I devoted my life to establishing goals that served as milestones, marking my path to completion. Yet, quickly, the path became a journey - a long, hard, peaks-and-valleys type of adventure."

Kent Sturman, Director of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, said, "Go West is a rare find. It shows us that if we walk with God, we can realize our dreams."

For more information on the book, visit www.jeremysparks.com. Questions can be emailed to Elevate Publishing at rae@elevatepub.com.

Nominations open for 2017 Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year: Deadline Sept. 1

PRCA members and rodeo committees may nominate a veterinarian, who displays extraordinary dedication and commitment to the well-being of professional rodeo livestock, for the eighth annual Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award. Nomination forms are available by clicking here or by e-mailing jpugsley@prorodeo.com. All nominations received by Sept. 1 will be submitted to the selection committee. The selection committee will consider each nominee's overall dedication to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock, extent of involvement in the sport of rodeo, community involvement and letters of recommendation.

The recipient of the Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year award will be presented a beautiful Montana Silversmiths buckle during the PRCA Awards Banquet Dec. 6 in Las Vegas Nev.

"Together, the PRCA and Zoetis are proud to recognize the veterinarians who volunteer their time and expertise on behalf of rodeo livestock nationwide" said Jed Pugsley, PRCA Livestock Program Administrator. "The Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year program enables the sport to give back to these great individuals and show how much we appreciate the job they do."

PRCA members and rodeo committees are encouraged to tell the stories of these dedicated veterinarians by nominating them for this prestigious award.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Most of us are familiar with what an ambassador is. They represent the US in foreign countries. An ambassador is taken care of by the US. If they have a need, it is met by our government. The land/house/estate that they live in, though on foreign soil, is considered US property. I personally do not know our ambassadors, but I would assume they would have to be quality individuals that bring honor to the US.

Read 2 Corinthians 5:14-21. It talks about when we are in Christ, old things have passed away and all things have become new in us. And then in verse 21 it says we are 'ambassadors for Christ'.

As such, we RE present (represent) Jesus to people around us. How are we doing? Are we quality individuals that won't steal, cheat or lie? Do we bring honor to God through our actions? By the same token, do you know that when you asked Jesus to be Lord, you became children of God and your new home is in the kingdom of God? God meets our needs according to His riches in glory. Phil.

4:19. So we ask Him for what we need and He meets it. I John 5:14-15.

Let's practice being ambassadors for Jesus. Let's place ourselves on the sovereign soil of Christianity. And let's defend that soil by taking authority over the devil and running him off our finances, our health and our relationships. With our God, we have all the weapons we need to defend and RE present who we are in Jesus. And if we do it well, it will draw people to Him, just like those who are looking for asylum in the US.
