Leslie Smalygo and Gus Capture their Second $50K Payout of the Year With a Calgary Championship

By Britany Diaz

Smalygo regained her #1 spot in the World WPRA Standings with a vengeance by winning the Calgary Stampede held at Stampede Park in Calgary, Alberta on July 5-14. This pool and tournament style rodeo gave 30 girls the chance to claim the coveted title of Calgary Stampede Champion barrel racer.

Smalygo came through Pool C of the three pools, consisting of ten girls each. Each pool competed three days in a row, with the top six in each pool receiving a paycheck. The payout for first through sixth was; $7,000, $5,500, $4,500, $3,250, $2,000 and $1,000.

The top four money winners over the three days from each pool progressed to the semifinals. Out of the top twelve in the semifinals, only four made it to the final round of competition. Every competitor that made it to Championship Sunday was guaranteed a check from fifth-twelfth of; $3,000, $2,500, $2,000 and $1,000 for the remaining girls. The four that came back to the championship round were paid first through fourth; $50,000, $20,000, $10,000 and $7,500. All of the finals and shootout money counts towards world standings, but only 70% of the winnings from pool placings counts.

Smalygo from Skiatook, Oklahoma and her 14-year-old gelding, Justaheartbeattofame, better known as Gus, won second place in the first-go of competition in their pool with a time of 17.08 seconds, earning, $5,500. They finished right behind the incredible team of Hailey Kinsel and Sister. The duo came back in the second round to be even faster, running a time of 17.06 seconds and claiming the win for $7,000. Kinsel and Sister were fourth fastest that day. In the third round of the Pool C, the battle of Kinsel and Smalygo continued, with Kinsel winning the round and Smalygo finishing second with a time of 17.14 seconds and pocketing her another $5,500. In the semifinals, Smalygo and Gus ran their fastest time on a standard pattern, with a 16.99 second run. She finished second in that round behind World Champions Kinsel and Sister, who ran a 16.97. It all came down to the final round of competition, where Kinsel and Sister set the bar high, running a 16.986. Smalygo and Gus were second to run and blazed through the pattern, outrunning their personal best time they just ran earlier in the day, clocking a 16.940, earning the $50,000 and title of Calgary Champion Champion! The final round of competition was a fun round to watch. Katelyn Scott finished third and Paige Jones, unfortunately had a down barrel, finishing fourth, still an impressive paycheck.

Smalygo finished the winter rodeo run with a big win at Houston, earning her and Gus their first $50,000 paycheck with the second now being Calgary. Smalygo shared, "It just doesn't seem real. I don't know how to feel. I was pretty shocked at both of them. In Houston, I thought to myself, there is no way that I will outrun Rosa and Lisa. I felt like I was the underdog. Here it was Hailey and Sister. I have a motto, 'Expect for the worst, but hope for the best.' Don't get your hopes up, so that you won't be disappointed."

Calgary proved to be extra special this year for Smalygo. "Gus tied up in Reno a couple weeks prior to Calgary. He was at the vet with five IV bags hooked to him. I wasn't sure what was going to happen, he was just coming back and was so sore. Luckily, Robbie and Stacy Stidham flew up to work his magical, miracle hands on Gus. His SI was locked up, his pelvis was rotated and he was in bad shape. He adjusted him and he ran a 17.08 in the first round. The second day, Robbie worked on him some more and Gus went in and ran a 17.06. I was so thrilled as his times were getting faster after he had been off for a little while. On the third day he ran a 17.14, so I thought maybe this was the downhill slope. I knew Wenda, Jordan, Summer or any of the other girls in my tough set were going to pull a run off. They assured me by this time that I had probably made it. We had made the semifinals last year, but I hit a barrel to make the final four," shared Smalygo.

On Championship Sunday, Smalygo and Gus ran their fastest time on a standard of 16.99 to advance to the final four. Smalygo said, "Gus was being a fire-breathing dragon in the back, so I couldn't hear very well, but thought that Hailey had run a 16.93. I had a whip in each hand as Gus was starting to touch the second barrel and to help keep his shoulders up and off of the barrels. I pushed him the whole way through. When he ran out, I couldn't get him stopped until half way around the track. He found more in his reserves. I run him in a hackamore and he is an ex-racehorse so he was having fun. When I came back, I told Hailey congratulations. She goes, "Congratulations to you!" I thought she was a 16.93, but she was a 16.98. She had me give her my horse and hugged me. I didn't think this could be right. I was fine winning second for $20,000 as Gus got faster and faster every run. What else could I ask for? I was in complete shock and couldn't believe it. Hailey is calm, cool and collected in these situations as she has been in them before. I was like whatever happens, happens, but lighting doesn't strike twice. We were both so happy for each other." The comradery between the barrel racers is like no other. Everyone cheers for each other."

"It is a lot of a blur. I felt like I was babbling up on the big stage for the award presentation. I just shared what was on my heart. The crowd at Calgary loves rodeo so much and makes me want to work harder to prove that I can be there. It was heart-warming and emotional because even though I am not from Canada, they were still so happy for me. It just meant so much. I prayed over Gus every night, praying for us to stay safe and for Him to write our story," said Smalygo.

Calgary is definitely a bucket list rodeo for not only the competitors, but spectators as well. Smalygo said, "All the excitement, the chuckwagon races, Indian relay races and the crowd are all some of my favorite things about Calgary. It is one of the few places that we get to stay in one spot together and actually communicate with each other. We always see each other in passing, but we actually got to sit down and have a conversation here. It is more of a family setting."

Smalygo and Gus are a very successful team. Both of them come from backgrounds outside of barrel racing. Smalygo grew up around horses in western pleasure and English riding/showing. "I grew up in the show pen. My adopted dad, Hank Freeder, took me everywhere to compete and we worked together. After he passed from prostate cancer, it got too hard and I couldn't bring myself to go anymore. It wasn't fun anymore, so I woke up one morning and decided to run barrels. I turned my reining horse into a barrel horse,” said Smalygo. Gus was a racehorse until he was three. Smalygo shared, “Gus has the determination that I have never seen another horse have. He knows what it is like to win. He came off the racetrack, making him so competitive amongst himself. If he knows he hit a barrel or had a bad run, he will not take a treat from me. He is disappointed in himself. He is more competitive than I am.”

“Gus doesn’t back down. I have more confidence and faith in him than I do in myself. When I bought him as a 3-year-old, I was able to back him off the trailer and get on him bareback. We could do a little western pleasure and within a week, I started him on the barrel pattern. I only had to show him once. He retains everything so well and has spoiled me. He loves to show off and runs better in loud performances with a crowd. He doesn’t try as hard in slack. Away from the arena, you would never know he is a barrel horse as he is so chill, but he turns into a fire-breathing dragon when you get him close. He loves to work cows.”

There is a lot of rodeo left in the 2024 season. Although Smalygo has the NFR made, she still plans to go. She shared, “I don’t like to sit at home while other people are still going. I feel like I am getting behind and don’t want to be left out. I will run him at the bigger rodeos like; Salt Lake, Cheyenne, Nampa and a few others. Gus loves Cheyenne, he can free up more in those big pens. I will use the smaller rodeos as an opportunity to season my colt and give Gus a break. I am trying to look ahead to the next rodeo and not hang onto the Calgary win. It is hard out here and horses wear out. I have to play it smart and if the chips fall right, then great, but it is ok if they don’t. I have already had an unbelievable year that most dream of.”

Smalygo has a strong support group behind her. She is thankful for her sponsors: Master Saddles, Flyaway Shavings, XLR8, Equi-Resp, PEMF Complete, Fudge Equine Dental, National Trailer Source, Pyranha, IF Branded/Iron Faith Clothing, Stidham Equine Chiropractic, ReVita +, ProVizion Probiotics and Next Level Health and Wellness.

The Amazing Missy & Jessica Routier Repeat as NFR Open Champions

At the 2024 NFR Open in Colorado Springs, CO from July 9-13; a legendary horse and rider added another win to their long list of accomplishments. After just missing Showdown Sunday on a tiebreaker at the Calgary Stampede, Fiery Miss West (better known as Missy) and Jessica Routier used the opportunity to win big at the NFR Open, winning the championship for the 2nd year in a row and gathering up a $16,750 payday.

The NFR Open consists of 2 barrel racers from each of the ProRodeo circuits. The contestants are all then split up into 3 Pools with 2 runs each. Each of the 3 Pools (A, B and C) carried the top 3 in the average of their two runs for a total of 9 to the Finals. The Finals was then sudden death.

In their Pool B at the NFR Open Missy & Routier just tried to be smooth and make the Finals. "Our plan was to just keep the barrels up in the first two rounds, to try to make it to the finals," said Routier. "She did exactly what I wanted her to but I knew we could tighten up our turns a little to be faster in the finals. Since the finals is sudden death, our only concern in that run was going fast."

In the very stacked Finals featuring multiple NFR Qualifiers Emily Beisel & Lisa Lockhart along with Routier, Missy was ready for the sudden death format, laying down the fastest run of the whole week; a 16.59.

Even after 9 years of running Missy and the pair winning over $1 million together, Missy still impresses Routier, "Our run in the finals was probably one of the most perfect feeling runs we've ever made. It was smooth and every step just felt like it was exactly where it needed to be." With all the winning this pair has done that is really saying something!

Their 2nd straight championship at the NFR Open was another highlight to a 9 year run for Missy & Routier that has included 6 straight NFRs (2018-2023), 5 Badlands Circuit Finals and over $1 Million in earnings to put them in the discussion as one of the greatest pairs to run barrels in history.

"I actually set a secret goal a few years ago to get Missy to a million dollars in earnings," shared Routier, "I just think that she deserves to have her name on a list like that, and it's something that will keep her being remembered for a long time. She's worked hard for every penny she earned to get there and I couldn't be more grateful for all the places she has taken me in doing so!"

For Routier, Missy isn't her first once in a lifetime horse! Routier has had actually had two once in a lifetime horses so far; Missy (Fiery Miss West) and Smoothie (Especials Smoothie). Smoothie & Routier also won a circuit title, the CNFR and a numerous rodeos and titles for many years before Missy came along. Anyone who has actually ran barrel horses knows what an amazing accomplishment it is to have two barrel horses running for decades like Routier.

When asked how Routier keeps her horses running at such a high level for such a long period of time she shares, "My main priority with both Missy and Smoothie was always just keeping them happy. They both were born to be winners in that they would try their guts out for you every single run, no matter what the circumstance. I think that is something you just find by luck. So my only job is to make their lives as good as they can be. I try to let them be horses as much as possible. Take them out to graze any chance I can while on the road, turn them out as much as possible. They live with other horses at home but they get to be the boss. If ever a horse started acting more dominant than them they got moved to a different pen. Of course regular vet/chiro/massage checkups keep them feeling their best but both were very low maintenance that way too. They just were born with really big hearts!"

When asked what similarities her two amazing mares shared beyond their big hearts and desire; Routier explained, "They are about the same size; both under 15 hands but everyone thinks they look bigger than that when they run. Their running styles are very different though. Smoothie was very free and turned more on her front end, while Missy is ratey and turns hard on her hind end. But both could stand up on just about any kind of ground. Both were very versatile. They'd do just about anything you asked, on the ranch or in the arena."

Missy and Routier are just getting warmed up for their patented late summer run to the NFR. As of the time of writing this article, Jessica Routier sits #35 in the world with $30,856 not including her Calgary or NFR Open earnings. With her $16,750 from the NFR Open and 70% of her $9,750 won at Calgary ($6,825) added together with her current earnings she should be close to the Top 15 with the pairs' favorite rodeos coming up the next month!

Dona Kay and High Valor Cash in at Central Wyoming Fair and Rodeo

By Hope Raley

4 Time WNFR qualifier Dona Kay Rule and 2019 & 2020 Purina Horse of the Year, High Valor, are making a comeback in 2024 after a sudden end to their 2023 season after a fall at Calgary sent them home to rest.

“Valor” and Dona Kay are back to firing on all cylinders, claiming the championship at the Central Wyoming Fair and Rodeo in Casper, WY and reserve honors at Sheridan WYO Rodeo in Sheridan, WY, cashing in over $19,000 this past weekend!

Valor, who is 15 years old this year, “feels better than he has in a few years,” explained Dona Kay.

Dona Kay and Valor are a fan favorite no matter where they go and have stolen the hearts of rodeo fans and competitors alike since first dipping their toes (hooves) in the pond of professional rodeo back in 2019. Since then, they have won and placed at some of the biggest rodeos in the country, but this was their first Central Wyoming Fair and Rodeo win.

THE RUNDOWN w/ Dona Kay Rule

High Valor “Valor”

BIT: Daily I use an O ring or a Little S side pull but I run in a Sherry Cervi short shank 3 piece.

SADDLE: John Rule Saddle

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Saddle Pad 7/8th thickness

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine boots on all four

SHOEING: No special shoeing, I have used the same farrier for 20+ years and we have learned a lot together.

FEED: KoolSpeed Feed

HAY: Alfalfa free choice

SUPPLEMENTS: Nano Q 10 as an Antioxidant from Kentucky Equine Research

CONDITIONING: I ride out in a pasture as often as I can. If I need to work on bend or flexion, I will work on that with trees, bushes etc. I rarely go to the arena or work the barrels on Valor.

SPONSORS: Express Ranches, 5 Star, Classic Equine, Hart Trailers, KoolSpeed, Kentucky Equine Research, Deanna Harrison (Deanna’s Oils), Flair Strips, Turnin3Ranch, Shorty’s Caboy Hattery, Bimeda Equine, Mahindra Roxor.

THANKS: I want to say thank you to the Casper committee for the wonderful ground and the very special gift they honored Valor and I with. I am grateful for everything – from the beginning to now!

“It was a very special win,” said Dona Kay. “But honestly every win is special no matter if it’s a $10,000 added rodeo or a $1,000 added rodeo. I don’t take any run for granted, especially here lately. Winning Casper was extra special though because they presented me with a beautiful necklace from Montana Silversmiths that I will cherish forever.”

After their incident at Calgary last year, Dona Kay did not know what the future held for her and Valor. But after several months off and the best care possible, Valor was ready to make a comeback. They had a good winter, placing at several big rodeos and unfortunately hitting a few costly barrels as well. This past weekend of check winning runs will likely kick them into the top 10 in the WPRA World Standings.

“My goal is to make the NFR one more time and I think Valor agrees. After trying to find a backup horse for so long, I think that God is showing me that I have the horse that I need right here and he will carry me where I am meant to go. As long as Valor is happy and healthy, we will keep trekking on. It is all in God’s plan.”

NFR Qualifier Write It Thelma Passes

Recently the 2013 NFR Qualifier Write It Thelma passed. The 1998 daughter of the Dash For Cash stud Write It down and of Thelma Thistle the daughter of Stormin Man. She was bred by Dave & Beth Bashor and was ridden her whole career by Sabrina Ketcham. Below is a write up from Sabrina Ketcham's Facebook Page about this very special mare:

"Write it Thelma was a 1998 model, raised by Dave and Beth Bashor. When I was 14, I lived with the Bashor's and rode colts. Uno's mother was one, I have ridden 4 generations since.

Write it Thelma showed up in my pens sight unseen in the middle of the night. A scrawny 3 yr old track flunk out with nothing but a brand paper that read "1 sorrel mare." She'd then forever be known as Uno.

She went on to win futurities, open rodeo's, and 1D's across the country. She filled my WPRA permit in 2003 and I rodeoed on her for the next 12 years. Her hard running, gritty style and uncanny ability to read the ground and adjust earned us countless rodeo titles, numerous circuit finals qualifications and short go appearances at nearly every major PRCA rodeo. She won 2 trailers and was a prominent factor in my NFR qualification. Following over $300,000 in earnings, we have raised 4 foals. 3 are proven winners and the last will run in 2026. I'm fortunate to have trained and won on each.

Uno spent the last several years enjoying her retirement with my great friends Shawn and Kirk , she had impeccable care, green grass, and a lake with a big tree where she spent her afternoon's napping. To them, I'm forever grateful.

Life changing is the easiest way to describe what that big pretty sorrel mare did for me. I went places I never dreamed I'd go, accomplished things I didn't know were possible. My horse program today, as well as many life long friends is because of what she built for me. A little bit of a bronc, hated nearly all people and a pure bad ass. She never missed a first barrel no matter where they put it, there was nothing like sending her down the alley. Her story continues through her colts, I was blessed to have been her person.

Write it Thelma ~ Uno 1998-2024"

Standout Barrel Sire Deep Sixum Passes

On July 8, 2024 leading barrel sire Deep Sixum passes away at his home, Triple N Ranch, with his beloved owner Jeanette Nelson by his side. The striking seal brown 1990 born stud was bred by Wayne Epsteen. He was a neat cross of old school barrel/race blood of Six Fols, Lady Bugs Moon and Azure Te. Deep Sixum is a son of Fols Blue Six out of the Send The Bug mare, Bug Em Deep. Deep Sixum earned a 94 speed index on the track before becoming a leading barrel sire on the east coast. His progeny have been a constant for years in the results coming from the east coast. With just 49 runners Deep Sixum sire the earners of $671,321 for an average of $13,700 per earner (per Equistat). His top 3 earners are Sixums Lady Luck ($114,751), NNN Sixums Firewater ($97,764) and Deep Laughing ($91,412). His legacy will be carried on for years moving forward through his daughters.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame inducts star-studded 2024 class

Kaycee Feild, who set the gold standard for PRCA bareback riders, winning an event record six PRCA World Championships, headlined the 2024 ProRodeo Hall of Fame class inducted Saturday.

Feild, who won consecutive PRCA World Championships in 2011-14, and 2020-21, is joined in the class by contestants – team roper Art Arnold, a 1968 RCA World Champion; the late bull rider, Blue Stone, a PRCA World Champion in 2001 and 2002; stock contractor Sammy Andrews; bullfighter Darrell Diefenbach, who worked the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo 12 times (2001-12), notable J.D. Yates, who made the NFR as a team roping header and heeler; standout bull Mr. T of Burns Rodeo Company (1986

Barrel racer Marlene Eddleman McRae joins HOF

Marlene (Eddleman) McRae significantly impacted the WPRA in and outside of the arena, and because of her accomplishments she was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

The Ordway, Colo., barrel racer qualified for the National Finals Rodeo 10 times (1983-91, 2000), won the world in 1983 and the NFR Average twice (1983, 1988).

After retirement, McRae gave back to rodeo by serving two stints on the WPRA Board of Directors in 1990 and 2016.

"It was great to hear it from Jimmie. That was outstanding in itself," McRae said upon learning of her induction from WPRA president Jimmie Munroe. "This is a dream come true. Rodeo has made so many of my dreams come true and I would have to say this tops the cake. This was probably the final dream that I have dreamed of for my rodeo career."

McRae finished as the reserve world champion three times behind the legendary Charmayne James (1987-89). She also finished as the reserve champion at the Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo (1988-89).

McRae also won the most Calgary Stampede titles (5 in 1984-85, 87, 89-90) of any barrel racer and the gold medal at the Olympic Command Performance in conjunction with the Winter Olympic Games in Calgary in 1988.

"Being from Colorado, I am really glad WPRA members are now part of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame," McRae said. "It means a lot to me because I have been around the Hall the majority of my life. I wish both my parents were still alive to see it, but they will see it happen from heaven."

For more than 30 years, McRae has been an innovator, developing her own line of saddles and tack, including introducing the first carbon fiber saddle tree.

Last but not least, she served two different terms on the WPRA Board of Directors, first as a Circuit Director and then as the Director of the Futurity and Derby program.

As a clinician from 1980-2015, she personally taught and shared her knowledge at over 500 clinics across not only the United States but the world. She also published a book, Barrel Racing 101, and created the Millennial Series video program to help those unable to attend one of her clinics.

She was honored in 2018 with the Calgary Pioneer Award, the first American female to receive this honor. In 1995, McRae was inducted into the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame, and now she can add ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductee to her list of accomplishments.

The WPRA first began inducting members to the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2017 and since that time a total of 14 members (including this year's class) have been inducted along with two world champion horses (doesn't include Scamper as he was inducted in 1996).

Barrel Racing World Champion Jeana Day can now call HOF home

Jeana Day, the 1974 WPRA Barrel Racing World Champion, was filled with emotion when she received word of her selection from WPRA president Jimmie Munroe.

"I was just blown away when I got the news from Jimmie (Munroe)," stated Day upon learning of her induction. "I was overwhelmed and speechless and for those that know me it takes a lot for me to be speechless. I feel so honored and blessed to be receiving this (honor)."

Day qualified for the National Finals Rodeo six times and finished as reserve champion four times before capturing the gold buckle.

The Woodward, Okla., native accomplished all this aboard Poco Excuse, an unlikely WPRA World Champion. He was small, just 1,000 pounds, and not expected to have much speed with only cow horse breeding. However, his outstanding heart took him and his jockey to new heights and even led to the formation of one of the WPRA's most coveted awards — the Horse with the Most Heart Award.

Day also served 11 years on the WPRA Board of Directors during a pivotal time in the association's history, as it took a stand for equal money in barrel racing. She served two different terms (1975-1979 and 1986-1991).

She got her math degree from Southwestern Oklahoma State University and taught high school math in Fargo, Okla., until her retirement in 2023.

In 2016, she was the parade grand marshal for the Woodward (OK) Elks Rodeo, her hometown rodeo.

Richest Rodeo East of the Mississippi Returns to the Carolinas and Tryon International Oct. 3-5

This October, the WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) will bring the richest rodeo east of the Mississippi — Rodeo Carolina — back to the Tryon International Equestrian Center & Resort (Tryon International, TIEC) in Mill Spring, North Carolina. Rodeo Carolina, will take place from Oct. 3-5. During which, dozens of accomplished Western sports athletes will compete for their share of the $400,000 purse and a shot at qualifying for the first spot in each discipline at the 2025 Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo. Located in a region with deep roots in Western Sports, the inaugural event in 2023 featured 39 competitors from the Carolinas.

Tickets for Rodeo Carolina are on sale now and start at $20, taxes and fees not included. They can be purchased at the Tryon International Box Office or online at tryon.com, PBR.com, and wcrarodeo.com.

Rodeo Carolina is held at one of the most renowned venues across WCRA's 2024 schedule. Tryon International is the ultimate destination for all who love horses, outdoor living, and an active lifestyle. TIEC offers first-class facilities for equestrian events of all levels and disciplines as well as world-class entertainment. Located in the Blue Ridge Foothills of Mill Spring, North Carolina, the competition experience is complemented by a variety of onsite restaurants and shops, relaxing lodging getaways, family entertainment, and more.

Rodeo Carolina will mark the third event in the WCRA Major Rodeo trilogy. WCRA Major Rodeos not only feature increased prize purses but also afford athletes the opportunity to earn a spot at the 2025 Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo.

The most recent WCRA Major was held in Corpus Christi, Texas in Mid-May. Rodeo Corpus Christi fielded the WCRA team — Free Riders -- that delivered a blistering performance at the first-ever, $1 million Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo. After the WCRA team won an unprecedented three gold medals in the opening round, they clinched the first-ever team rodeo victory when they won four disciplines in the championship round. In addition to being crowned Champions, the WCRA team also earned the $500,000 winner's payout.

Rodeo Carolina, the richest rodeo east of the Mississippi, will begin on October 3, showcasing more than 200 athletes competing in each of the nine rodeo disciplines: bareback riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping (heading and heeling), tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding. A collective $400,000 will be on the line, with each champion leaving North Carolina with a minimum $15,000.

This landmark event will begin nightly at 7:30 p.m. CT from Thursday, Oct. 3-Saturday, Oct. 5. Up to 11 athletes per discipline will go head-to-head in the long rounds (Oct. 3-4), with the Top 8 best runs and rides advancing to the Championship Round on Saturday, Oct. 5.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $18.2 million in new money to rodeo athletes. All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the WCRA should be directed to wcrarodeo.com.

Be an encourager.

The world has plenty of critics already.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Recently, there was a report of a preacher that had fallen. Of course, then there are many questions from the church about why. In discussing this with our vice-president, he asked, "It wasn't Jesus was it?????" I laughed and said, "No!" He said, "Then we're good. Keep going!" For me, that really summed it up! And it humbled me, too. Wish I would have thought to answer like that!

Friends, we all have fallen and come short of the glory of God. Romans 3:23. The Bible also tells us in Hebrews 12:25-29 in part, that what can be shaken, will be shaken. And God will start with His children. We are in the end times. We do not want to be half-hearted. Or lukewarm. Rev. 3:15-16. We want to be ready for His return.

And we aren't comparing our sin to anyone else's, right? We want a clean slate. I John 1:9 says if we confess our sin, He is faithful and just to forgive us and to clean us up! That's my paraphrase. Let's repent, get forgiveness, look to JESUS as our example and KEEP GOING!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
