An Etbauer double at Woodward, OK

The 150-mile trip across Oklahoma from their home in Edmond to the Woodward Elks Rodeo turned out to be well worth the trouble for the Etbauer clan. Five-time World Champion Billy Etbauer won the saddle bronc riding with an 84-point ride on Beutler & Son's Popeye, and wife Hollie Etbauer won the barrel racing in 17.07 seconds for combined earnings of $4,248. Billy's check for $2,155 brought his career earnings to $2,998,602, leaving him just $1,398 away from joining Trevor Brazile as the only cowboys to surpass $3 million and $2,733 from becoming the first rodeo contestant to earn $3 million in a single event. (He has $1,335 in team roping money). --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

College Rodeo Standouts Top Cheyenne Leader Board

CHEYENNE, Wyo. ---July 26, 2010--- Sam Spreadborough is originally from Australia but came to the U.S. to compete in college rodeo.

He has now made his home in Snyder, Texas, where he attended school at Western Texas College and qualified for the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) four consecutive years. Spreadborough is a talented bronc rider that showed rodeo fans he could compete with the best at the third performance of the Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo. He had an 86-point ride on Harry Vold Rodeo's horse named Fergie to take the lead in the first round of competition.

The saddle bronc riding here has been tough and will get tougher. With just two sets of contestants having made their first round appearance, it is already taking nearly 80 points to place. South Dakota's saddle bronc riding world champions Chad Ferley and Jeff Willert also competed here Monday. They were 83 and 79 points respectively. Willert holds the eighth place position with that 79.

In the bareback riding it was Caleb Bennett from Bluffdale, Utah, that took the lead. Bennett, a Utah Valley University student has made the trip to Casper, Wyo., to compete at the CNFR for the past three years. He is hoping for his fourth in 2011. Bennett got on a horse named Up the River owned by J Bar J Rodeo and scored 81.

Tie-down roper Tuf Cooper has the fastest time at the rodeo so far with a 12.2 run here in the first round. Cooper has placed here the past two years and would like nothing better than to win his first Cheyenne Frontier Days Championship buckle this year.

Team Roping has a tie for first place in the round with two 8.2-second runs. Delon Parker from Worden, Mont., and Justin Viles from Cody, Wyo., along with brothers Brady and Riley Minor are the best here so far.

Lindsay Sears, the 2008 Cheyenne Frontier Days barrel racing champion took the lead in the second go round and the over-all standings. She was riding her great horse Martha and stopped the clock in 17.40 seconds, the fastest run of the rodeo here to date. She has a total time of 35.24 and is over one-fourth of a second faster than the woman in second place, Sue Smith from Blackfoot, Idaho.

#1 TRAINING OR RIDING TRIP: At the rodeos on horses like mine, I try not to override them. When you are in the futurity ground you can do that, but at the rodeos the horses have to learn to stand up and take care of themselves, so I have had to learn to just sit on my horses better. I have been pushing her but keeping from going so fast and hard that she gets herself in trouble.
 I try to take things step by step with my horses as I introduce them to the rodeo conditions.

HORSES GREATEST QUALITY: She is a gritty, tough mare. She tries really hard every time you run her. She is also really good minded.

Quick Question with Kenna Squires

Last week we caught up with top 4D and Rodeo rider Kenna Squires to get her thoughts on moving a 4D horse into being a rodeo horse. Just two of Kenna's standout horses include Dash To The Flame and Rambling For Fame. Dash To The Flame with Kelly Yates aboard split 5/6 in the first round of the 2010 Cheyenne Frontier Days and Rambling For Fame swept both rounds and the average at Sheridan Pro Rodeo last weekend with Kenna aboard.

Q: What is the key to moving from 4D races to rodeos with your horses?

A: I have to work on myself more than my horses. I have to make myself ride them to the same position out in these big, many times hard, pens as I would any other arena. Its hard for me to overcome the fear of injuring my horse, but often it makes things worse if I change the way I ride. It confuses the horse! I'm still working on getting my "rodeo legs" under me while on the road. But that's why I like to go out every summer and try to sharpen up my riding.

Headin' For Home

By Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The same way a heavy load can handicap a horse in a timed event, people can also be hampered in this life by negative feelings. Feelings of resentment, offense, unforgiveness, bitterness and jealousy can burden a person down and even destroy their lives.

It's been said that harboring unforgiveness is like drinking poison and hoping another person will get sick. Well, it doesn't work that way. The only one who is really affected is you if you're the one with the wrong feelings. Even a very small person can carry a huge grudge but that's nothing to be proud of. It can produce bad consequences, get prayers blocked, cause a person to make bad choices and affect your health.

Mark 11:25-26 says we have to forgive others if we want God to forgive us for our wrongdoings. Jesus taught us how to pray in the Lord's Prayer which asks our Heavenly Father to forgive us as we forgive others. The Bible is filled with examples and admonitions to walk in love, pray for and do good to our enemies. Read Luke 6:28 and Matthew 5:44. Those are just two Scriptures but there are many more that show the benefits of forgiving and doing good to those who maybe have mistreated you in some way.

It's not easy or fun to forgive and forget when someone has hurt you badly. But you can do it with the help and grace of God. You'll have to talk to God and tell Him you choose to forgive even when you don't feel like it. Ask Him to "create in you a clean heart and renew a right spirit within you." (Psalm 51:10)

With practice, it will get easier to not take offense or carry grudges. Don't let the sun set on your wrong feelings. The peace from God you'll get is worth it!!
