Wrangler Million Dollar Tour Ends September 7

The Wrangler Million Dollar Tour, presented by Justin Boots, showcases the PRCA's top cowboys in a seven-month, nationwide series of rodeos that includes two of the top three prize money rodeos sanctioned by the PRCA, the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo and Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days.

There are two levels of competition in the revised format being used this year, with eight of the 17 participating rodeos designated as Gold rodeos – those with a committee purse of at least $20,000 in each event – and the remainder being designated Silver rodeos, with a committee purse of at least $10,000 in each event.

For the third year in a row, the Tour will culminate with an elimination playoff system that will play out at two elite PRCA events, in Puyallup, Wash. and Omaha, Neb.

Total prize money for the regular season and playoffs is projected to exceed $6 million.

The Wrangler Million Dollar Tour standings will count 15 of each contestant's 17 results in the race to reach the Justin Boots Playoffs system. All eight of the Gold tier events will be counted for everyone, along with seven of nine in the Silver tier – the worst two automatically being dropped.

After a year in which Tour standings were kept using a points system, the PRCA's Wrangler Million Dollar Tour, presented by Justin Boots, will return to standings based on total earnings. The Tour began Feb. 5-7 with the Black Hills Stock Show & Rodeo in Rapid City, S.D., and will continue on through 12 states before concluding the regular season with the Ellensburg (Wash.) Rodeo, Sept. 4-7.

The Trevor Brazile Watch

With three more all-around titles over the weekend – at Sikeston, Mo.; Lovington, N.M., and Lawton, Okla. – Trevor Brazile kept his bid for a record-tying seventh all-around world championship on track.

Brazile earned $10,871 at the three rodeos to push his season total to $182,926. This gives him a lead of $81,485 over second place Curtis Cassidy and is $4,030 ahead of Brazile's pace when he set the single season earnings record of $425,115 in 2007.

Headin' For Home

By Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If people only realized how powerful their words are, they'd be very careful of what comes out of their mouths. God spoke our world into existence. His word was so powerful that Jesus caused a fig tree to wither up and die. He healed people with His words and restored life to them even when He sent His word from a distance.

Jesus said whoever believed in Him would do greater works than He did (John 14:12) and He used the spoken word to change things. Words are containers that can carry good things or they can bring all sorts of junk we don't want and then we wonder where it all came from.

Don't go around saying things like I'm dying to do this or that. Don't say I'm tickled to death or I'm scared to death. Don't say I'm sick and tired of this. Don't say your horse is a jughead or your kids are driving you nuts. Don't open the door for satan to get in and make a real mess of your life.

Don't say you're not going to make it because that sets you up for failure. Don't speak condemnation on yourself or others.

Rancher friends of mine had a calf born without the sucking instinct. They used a stomach tube to pour milk into it to keep it alive. They tried to make it suck a bottle and this went on for days. They complained about having to go out and feed "Dummy" and then they realized what they were saying and began "speaking that which be not as though it were". They changed the calf's name to "Smarty" and it wasn't very long until they went out to the barn and found the calf up nursing the mother cow!

Proverbs 18:21 says life and death are in the power of the tongue. Jesus said in Matthew 12:36 that we will have to give an account for every idle word we speak on the day of judgement for by our words we are justified or condemned.

Be aware of what comes out of your mouth. It does make a difference!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own non-denominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
