A Needed Win For Brittney Barnett & Chicks Keen O PocoPoo at Hermiston

By Tanya Randall

Brittney Barnett got a much needed win at the $15,000-added Farm City Pro Rodeo in Hermiston, Oregon. Aboard her 12-year-old Paint mare Chicks Keen O PocoPoo ("Paint"), Barnett clocked a 17.01 on a WPRA Standard Pattern to win $6,294.

"I keep watching that run every day," said Barnett. "I'm still pretty excited about it. When I got word that the ground was deep, I was going to ride a different horse, but I chickened out and jumped on her instead."

Sid Britt, husband of former Columbia River Circuit Director Randy Rae Britt, worked the ground and had it super safe for all. Barnett and her little 14 hand mare were in the first performance, but last before the drag after five runners.

"I'd never been there before," she explained. "The alley intimidated me a little bit. I hand walked her up it right before the barrels, just so she could see it. It's long alley with walls. It was kind of tough for her because she wanted to take off from the back. It's a pretty, darn long ways down there to the first barrel, so I actually side-passed her down the wall. I was able to get her halfway down the alley before I let her take off."

The 28-year-old Bakersfield, California, native, who now calls Stephenville, Texas, home jumped from 25th in the WPRA World Standings to 19th after she won $9,877 over the second weekend in August. That was on the heels of the $6,161 she won the first weekend. She currently has $56,924 in earnings on the season.

She started her week in Jerome, Idaho, on Tuesday. On Wednesday morning, she stopped at Idaho Equine in Nampa to have Paint's foot looked at. Shortly after she purchased the mare in March, Paint cut her foot and the scar gets sore when bumps it overreaching.

"I wrap her foot every run with cotton, Vetwrap and duct tape," Barnett explained. "The vet said there's nothing you can do other than to keep doing what I've been doing."

Barnett and Paint ran at Hermiston that night before heading to Logan, Utah, where she ran another horse on Thursday night. Friday morning, she and Paint ran at the $5,000-added Missoula Stampede in Montana, where they placed fifth for $1,130 before running at Cascade, Montana, that night. Saturday morning, they ran at Bozeman, Montana, before finishing up their week at the $8,500-added Omak Stampede in Washington on Sunday, where they finished second by 1/100th of a second to earn $2,453.

This week she has the Caldwell Night Rodeo in Idaho, and Canby, Oregon, on Tuesday.

"Everybody tells me I can make it," said Barnett, who was sitting fourth in the average after her two runs in Caldwell. "I'm definitely going to try because they're both tour rodeos, I need points."

Barnett used the Wrangler Tour Rodeos in 2018 to qualify herself for the Calgary Stampede, where she and Paint picked up $11,000.

From Caldwell, she'll hit Gooding, Idaho, on Wednesday night, Kalispell, Montana, on Thursday night, Billings, Montana, on Friday night and Moses Lake, Washington, on Saturday night.

Barnett, who was residing briefly in Joliet, Montana, claimed the state as her circuit for 2019, so Kalispell and Billings will allow her to complete her rodeo count to be eligible for the Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo.

Although she has other horses on the trailer, Barnett's relied heavily on Paint, a 12-year-old mare, since the muddy first round at the Calgary Stampede. Then her main horse Frenchmans Pick (Pei) was sidelined with colic surgery.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame 2019 induction ceremony

Stars converged at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame as the Hall enshrined its 12-member class of 2019 Saturday.

The class was headlined by four-time world champion team roping heeler Allen Bach (1979, 1990, 1995 and 2006).

"I've just been reflecting on how cool our sport has been," Bach said. "Everything about my life is based around rodeo. The team roping schools I do, the business that I do. Had it not been for rodeo, I would not have anything. I've just been doing a lot of reflection on how cool it was to live this kind of life."

Bach holds the PRCA record for most qualifications (including invitations) by a team roper to the National Finals Rodeo with 30 (1978-96, 1998-2008).

"I'm not the most talented, but I loved what I did," Bach said. "I probably outworked most of the people I roped against. A lot of talented guys didn't make it as far as guys like us just because we loved it and we didn't mind working hard at it. My deal was the work ethic I learned, not just in the arena, but driving all night and persevering through dry spells in July and August. Everybody likes to hear about the winning, but you have to learn to accept losing to get to the winning."

The rest of the 2019 ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductees included Commotion, one of the greatest bucking horses of all time; stock contractors Elra Beutler and his son, Jiggs, posthumously; two-time world champion steer wrestler Dean Gorsuch (2006, 2010); world champion bull rider Doug "Droopy" Brown (1969); world champion bareback rider Larry Peabody (1984); notable Jerome Robinson; the Cody (Wyo.) Stampede Rodeo; contract personnel Tommy Lucia, posthumously; and three Women's Professional Rodeo Association inductees – barrel racers Jimmie Gibbs Munroe and Sammy Thurman Brackenberry and notable Florence Youree.

In addition to the inductees, Guy Elliott, a former arena director for the National Western Stock Show and Rodeo in Denver and the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo and a number of others, received the Ken Stemler Pioneer Award, which honors individuals in recognition of their groundbreaking, innovative ideas and forward thinking.

Jimmie Gibbs Munroe – Barrel Racer

While Gibbs Munroe initially made a name for herself in the rodeo arena, winning a world title in 1975, her love and commitment to the association cemented her legacy in the sport.

"It's just a tremendous honor to be included in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame because it's the only hall that's solely dedicated to the sport of professional rodeo and I'm just so excited that women have a place now and can be included in the Hall thanks to the PRCA," Munroe said.

Munroe was an 11-time NFR qualifier and WPRA president from 1978-93.

"I spent a lot of years in the sport of professional rodeo and it was certainly good to me," Munroe said. "I was very fortunate in what I was able to do and achieve in the sport."

"It's exciting to be able to join my husband who was inducted as competitor in the Hall (Dan "Bud" Monroe, a 12-time NFR qualifier, 1986 PRCA World Champion Saddle Bronc Rider and 2007 inductee), that's really something and means a lot."

Sammy Thurman Brackenbury – Barrel Racer

Brackenbury was also an all-around talent, even roping and winning money in PRCA rodeos. Brackenbury qualified for the NFR 11 consecutive times, winning the world title in 1965.

During her career she served as the California Circuit Director, All-Events Director, vice president of the Association and in 1975 served as the president of the Girl's Rodeo Association.

"I'm very proud to be honored, and I'm glad to be here," Brackenbury said. "Everyone has been really good, and I'm proud to be inducted with the other barrel racers."

"My dad rodeoed, and my grandfather even rodeoed. It was a way of life for me. I grew up going to rodeos with my dad and mom – it was my life, it always has been my life, and I was very proud to win the world."

Florence (Price) Youree – Notable

Youree is the first notable inducted under the WPRA umbrella into the Hall of Fame.

Youree was among the Top 15 six times and won the WPRA all-around title in 1966. But it was her services to the GRA/WPRA in an administrative capacity that landed her induction.

Youree served the association as a director, then president from 1960-64 and then secretary-treasurer, where she made the biggest impact. It was during that time that Youree worked to get the barrel racing included at the NFR as it is today.

"This is the biggest honor I could ever receive," Youree said. "I couldn't believe it (when they told me I was going to be inducted). When you do things that you really enjoy doing, you really don't think you're doing anything. I've had fun since I joined what was then the Girls Rodeo Association in 1951."

And, Youree truly appreciated when the NFR added barrel racing.

"We were very grateful. It was like a dream come true," she said "... I met with Mr. Stanley Draper that day and convinced him that they (the NFR) needed the girls, they needed some color."

CSU during Casper. That totally hurt me, big time! It's up to poor little Paint."

Bred by Everett Witt, Paint is by the Paint stallion Mr Dominator out of the Quarter horse mare Stylish Chick Olena by Dix Chic Olena. Paint belonged to Witt's granddaughter and Barnett's good friend Briana Benavidez, who gymkhana-ed on the mare.

When Paint was 9, Benavidez went to basic training and she sent the mare to Barnett to run. It didn't take long for the mare to go from the 3-4D to winning rodeos. She later filled Benavidez's WPRA permit and took Barnett to two California Circuit Finals Rodeos.

With Pei sidelined, Barnett said she's not confident enough to run her leased backup horses unless she absolutely has to.

"I lack confidence and I'm confident on Paint," she said. "I don't want to get on something else and not have confidence, because I want to do those horses justice, because they are very nice horses. I've tried to squeeze in jackpots, but it just doesn't work. I don't have the time."

The former California State Brand Inspector plans on sticking it out until the season's end.

"I've been ready to go home," she laughed. "I told my dad two weeks ago that I was coming home. I was over it. It's been a lot on my little paint horse and I don't want to get on anything else. I had a great week the week before and then I won $9,800 this week, I was like I guess I should probably stay on the road!"

Regardless of the outcome, Barnett has likely accomplished two of her goals for the year.

"My first goal was to make the circuit finals in Montana, which I've got that made after these two rodeos this weekend," she said. "My second goal was to get into Houston, which I didn't get to go to last year. I want to run her at Houston so bad. I think she would love it in there. She can stand up on anything!"

THE RUNDOWN w/Brittney Barnett

Chicks Keen O PocoPoo, "Paint" 14 hands, "She's tiny. She wears a Triple O shoe."

BIT: Twisted wire ring snaffle

SADDLE: Brazilian. "I figured I should go as light as possible. Nothing fits her, she's so little. She doesn't have any withers. Even this saddle slides back."

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine just fronts.

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four. "We're probably going to have to change her shoes because her scar, where she cut her foot, isn't doing very good. My shoer was thinking when she gets some time off we might have to put a bar shoe on her to grow that scar out."

FEED: Purina Race Ready

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Oxy-Gen XTN and Mega Oil; PreRace: switch between the Jail Break, Triple Threat, OxyO2 and Oxy-Pulmin.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: I do acuscope a lot when I can. I use Back On Track in the winter. She recently shredded her PHT blanket, so she no longer gets that.

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: At home, my daughter rides her or I just pony her. My daughter rides her a lot.

Mare Power Shines at Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale

By Tanya Randall

The annual Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale was held August 10 near Bozeman, MT at the pristine ranch with a large crowd in attendance. 69 well bred performance horse prospects and broodmares were offered to the public.

Kathy Grimes' KG Dontblevmejuswach was the high seller commanding a $32,000 bid from fellow Columbia River Circuit barrel racer Viki Friedrich. The eye catching yearling brown stallion is by National Finals Rodeo sire A Streak Of Fling, an Equi-Stat All-Time Leading Sire with earners of nearly $4 million.

KG Dontblevmejuswach is loaded with mare power. He is out of Grimes' NFR qualifier, two-time Columbia River Circuit Champion and 2018 American Semifinals Reserve Champion KG JusticeWeExpected ("Issy"), a daughter of Judge Cash, a leading barrel horse sire and maternal grandsire of Equi-Stat's All-Time Leading Barrel Horse An Oakie With Cash. Issy is out of Do It For Beau, a multiple 1D winner and pro rodeo earner and producer of four barrel racing earners of more than $25,000 including NFR qualifier KG Blazin Nine Oh, futurity champion and pro rodeo winner KG Jet O A Go Go, and pro rodeo winner KG Cashin In On Beau. Do It For Beau, by Beaus Scoop Of Sun, is out of proven barrel horse and pro rodeo winning producer Jodalito Cielo, by Gold Sun Spot.

Issy's yearling bay gelding by NFR sire Frenchmans Fabulous was also a Top 10 high seller. KG Fab Expectations sold for $20,000 to Casey Crowther of Florida.

Three horses sold for $30,000. They represented the second through fourth high-sellers.

The Andrea Cline-trained 2020 futurity hopeful Sweet Stinson sold to Rockin J R Ranch of California for $30,000. Consigned by Todd Matte and Cline, the pretty moving 3-year-old daughter of NFR sire Eddie Stinson, an Equi-Stat All-Time Leading Sire, out of Sweet Willow Bay, by Tux N Rolls, was being hauled and exhibited prior to the sale.

Bubblin Up, a striking 2-year-old bay filly, sold for $30,000 to Spur Cross, LLC. The home-bred Copper Spring Ranch consignment is by Prime Talent, sire of 2019 RAM National Circuit Finals Champion Prime Diamond, ridden by Lisa Lockhart. Bubblin Up is out of CSR BubblyFrenchGirl, a daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of Follys Turbo Jet, a barrel racing money earner and pro rodeo winning producer. Follys Turbo Jet is a full sister to Josey Jr World Champion Smooth My Feathers, dam of NFR qualifier Smooth My Credit.

TRHeavensIlluminated, a keen looking yearling sorrel stallion, sold to Tracy Lambert of Texas, for $30,000. The Thomas Ranch consignment is by NFR qualifier and sire JL Dash Ta Heaven, an Equi-Stat Leading Sire with earners approaching $2 million, out of two-time NFR Average Champion and two-time WPRA Reserve World Champion TR Dashing Badger, by Mr Illuminator. TR Dashing Badger is the producer of four barrel racing money earners of more than $150,000, including Heavens Illuminator, an earner of more than $40,000 also owned by Lambert.

Rounding out the top five high sellers was Sweet Chyld Of Mine, selling to Gary Jolley for $25,000. Consigned by Bill and Cheryl Kennedy's Smoke Creek Quarter Horses, Sweet Chyld of Mine is a 2-year-old chestnut colt by Equi-Stat's All-Time Leading Barrel Horse Sire Dash Ta Fame out of Bullisa, Bully Bullion's winningest daughter on the track with earnings of more than $188,000.

The Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale saw 69 of 71 consignments walk through the ring for a sale's gross of $1,107,100. With 54 (78 percent) changing hands, the sale netted $808,100.

Copper Spring Ranch's 23 prospect consignments sold for $310,900, an average of $13,517 and median of $12,500. The nine by Prime Talent sold for $143,000 with a $15,888 average and $14,500 median. The 10 offspring of the late Furyofthewind, sire of 2019 Old Fort Days Futurity Champion Mystery In The Winds, brought $125,000 for an average of $12,500 and median of $12,750. Their junior sire Firewater Canyon, who has his first limited crop competing this year, had four selling for $42,700, an average of $10,675 and median of $10,600.

2019 Fulton Family Performance Horse & Production Sale

The 2019 edition of the Fulton Family Performance & Production Sale was held Friday, August 9, in the James Kjerstad Event Center at the Central States Fairground in Rapid City, SD in front of a big crowd of buyers, family, and friends. The sale featured 39 horses going through the ring carrying some of the top bloodlines in the business.

All of the high sellers were by A Streak Of Fling, a multiple NFR sire with offspring earnings nearing $4 million. He is the No. 4 Equi-Stat Leading Barrel Horse of All Time.

The elegant, silky-moving bay filly, GiveAWinkToStreaker, was a sale favorite that sold to Fred Lenertz for $20,000. She is out of Rachael Myllymaki's pro rodeo winning mare and NFR Qualifier, Give Me A Wink, by Doc O Dynamite. Give Me A Wink earned more than $400,000 and is the daughter of Myllymaki's first NFR horse Miss Wayne Page. GiveAWinkToStreaker is a full sister to Streakin Winkin Doc, a multiple futurity finalist and pro rodeo winner.

Paddys Lena Streak, a brown filly, also is heading home to Minnesota with Fred Lenertz for $20,000. She is out of Paddys Lena Whiskey, a daughter of Paddys Irish Whiskey out of Easy April Lena, a full sister to Myllymaki's NFR qualifier and Calgary Stampede Champion Easy Does It Doc. Easy April Lena is one of the foundation mares of the Fulton broodmare band, her and her daughters have produced rodeo winners in multiple events.

A Easy Streak, a good looking, rodeo-built bay roan full sister in blood to Paddys Lena Streak, was the fourth high-seller, bringing a $19,000 bid from John Jacobi. A full sister to StreakinIrishWhiskey, the 2018 Nebraska High School Rodeo Champion Barrel Horse, A Easy Streak is out of Easy April Whiskey, a full-sister to Paddys Lena Whiskey.

Guest consignor Stephanie Wheeler brought her striking palomino stallion, A Peacharita Fling, who commanded $21,000 and sold to Candace Volmer-Waln. A Peacharita Fling is out of SX Dr Peacharita, by Dr Nick Bar. A former BFA Derby Champion and Open 1D Champion at races such as the All-American Youth and NBHA Youth World, SX Dr Peacharita has earnings in excess of $250,000. She is half-sister to current pro rodeo winner Fames To Blame, who helped Ivy Conrado qualify for the 2018 NFR. SX Dr Peacharita is out of futurity champion and proven producer SX Frenchmans Peach, by Frenchmans Guy.

A pair of $18,000 purchases wrapped up the top 5. Dynamites Last Fling, a 2-year-old bay roan, out of the Doc O Dynamite mare Dynamites Last Chex, sold to Don Hoffman. John Jacobi purchased the Melissa Brandt consignment, a yet-to-be-named weanling bay roan colt out of Silky French Pie, the 2006 leading five-year-old futurity horse and pro rodeo money earner, by Frenchmans Guy.

Overall, the 21 head by A Streak Of Fling sold for $261,750 with a $12,464 average price overall and $12,000 median. The 14 2-year-olds by A Streak Of Fling averaged $13,518, while the two yearlings averaged $9,625 and two weanlings averaged $13,500. The two 2-year-olds by CS Flashlight brought $9,750 and $9,500 for an average of $9,625. The five 2-year-olds by Fulton junior sire A Dash Ta Streak sold for an average of $8,100 and a median price of $8,750.

national book of mares in Brazil via frozen semen, Schiller Ranch of College Station, Texas, has announced Epic Leader's 2020 stud fee will be set at $4,500. The Equi-Stat Leading Sire's books will open on October 1.

"Everyone wants a winner in their barn, and we'd love for everyone to have an Epic Leader," said Kristi Schiller. "However, we want to protect the value of his foals and keep them some of the most sought after horses in the industry. We wanted to keep his fee affordable for those looking to raise their dream horse but keep the demand high for those looking to market their foals."

As of August, Epic Leader has sired earners of more than $520,000 as tabulated by Equi-Stat. Halfway through the 2019 season, Epic Leader is the No. 2 Futurity Sire behind Dash Ta Fame. At just 11 years of age, Epic Leader is the youngest stallion within the top 15 futurity sires.

Jeremy Barwick, owner of Western Bloodstock, Ltd., and Shadow Oak Ranch and co-owner of Brazos Valley Stallion Station in Stephenville, Texas, where Epic Leader will stand for the 2020 season says that Epic Leader is an incredible value given the number winners he's sired from his early, but limited, foal crops.

"Epic is an extremely young horse to be having this much success already," said Barwick. "If you look around at barrel horse studs, most of them are 20 years old before they're this proven. With Epic, it's just colt after colt after colt that's winning. I'm really anxious to see after the fall futurities where he does go with this foal crop."

Some of Epic Leader's current superstars include 2019 Elite Extravaganza and Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic Reserve Futurity Champion Epic Guy ($124,190, 2019), 2019 LG International Slot Futurity Champion CP He Will Be Epic ($96,996), multiple pro rodeo winner and former futurity finalist So Epic ($75,608, 2019), 2019 Sand Cup and Copper Spring Classic Reserve Futurity Champion Wicked Little Leader ($49,741, 2019) and pro rodeo winner and former Cornhusker Futurity Champion Epic Two Ks ($35,959, 2019).

Epic Leader is the complete package, a proven performer backed by an impeccable pedigree with a talent he is able to pass on to a variety of mares. By BFA Derby Champion and leading sire Confederate Leader, Epic Leader is out of the blue hen producer Firewater Fiesta, an aged event champion that later went on to earn WPRA Reserve World Championships by the great Fire Water Flit. A multiple futurity champion and the Equi-Stat Leading Futurity Stallion in 2012, Epic Leader exited the arena with $170,000 in earnings. In his short tenure in the breeding shed, Epic has sired winners out of daughters of Frenchmans Guy to Sixarun.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Since we aren't hermits and don't live by ourselves on the top of a mountain somewhere, this week let's talk about playing well with others! Groan...I know...there are just some people that rub us the wrong way! Why is that?

After all, to know us is to love us, right? The number ONE reason is because God made each and every one of us unique. Romans 11:29. Romans 12:6. And somehow that has become politically incorrect.

But if we can look at that 'difficult' person like God does, and really look at the gifts in them, we will find that chances are we don't have that gift.

I believe it's a grand design to cause us to have to rely on each other. (Most people shudder here, especially us 'self-sufficient' thinkers.) Think about it.

Why are we attracted to someone? And then marry them. And then 6 months later find out the very thing that attracted us to them is now driving you up the wall. YOU NEED THAT GIFT, THAT'S WHY!!

This week, let's look for the good in everyone. Romans 12:10. Let's talk to someone who has seemed unapproachable to us. We may find that they may be our new best friend! And better yet, we get to use OUR GIFT to be a blessing to someone new!
