Anita Ellis Banks $151,776 at Royal Crown Rock Springs, Wins Futurity with SGL Rico

By Tanya Randall

Blackfoot, Idaho's Anita Ellis took home an incredible $151,776 at the Royal Crown Rock Springs, Wyoming, event.

Ellis topped the $600,000-added Futurity plus the South Valley Equine Open Futurity with the 4-year-old gelding SGL Rico for an incredible $122,878 including open carryovers. She finished second in the $100,000-added Derby and South Valley Equine Open Derby aboard her 5-year-old mare A Dash Of FlingNFame ("Jessie") for a grand total of $28,898.

"I'm so on Cloud 9 still!" said Ellis. "It was amazing! It was dream for me! I had a great week!"

Ellis had already wrapped up the two Derby Reserve Championships on Jessie and was more than able to carry the good vibes into the second go of the Futurity.

"I really love running my futurity colt, Rico," she said. "I was really looking forward to the Futurity. He's a joy to me. My derby mare is a little intense and my horse Axe (multiple futurity champion) RV Two Dash Ta Vegas is very intense, so to ride Rico is a breath of fresh air. He's a little easier for me. He's really chill and nice. He's super fun for me."

Ellis said Rico's only problem is his destructive tendency to chew on everything, which necessitates using two lead ropes when tied to the trailer.

"He's like a dog," she laughed. "He ruins all my stuff!"

Ellis purchased Rico as a yearling from Shana Gibson, who bred The Goodbye Lane gelding, out of the Winners Version mare Version Blue.

"She sent me two pictures of two different colts, and Rico was one of them," she recalled. "I was so excited that he was out of a Winners Version mare because I really wanted one. She was a little hesitant to sell him because I think she was wanting to run him too."

Erin Beukelman put 60 days on Rico and Ellis knew right away when she started riding him that he was special.

"Right away I could feel his talent," Ellis said. "He's really smart. Some horses you have to remind them of what you worked on the day before, but he remembered. He started catching the vision really early as a 2-year-old, so I was excited to run him. It was like the years couldn't go by fast enough."

Rico made his futurity debut at the Breakout Race in Salina, Utah, last November. It took Ellis some time to develop some consistency with the gelding, largely due to his massive size and power.

"I've had to get used to him because he's really big," she said of the 16.2 hand monster. "My other horses are small. He's just different and a powerhouse. I've had to learn how to ride him better because I was so used to smaller horses. The approach to the barrel and everything is different. I feel like it was my fault when he'd come out and get (a barrel) with his hip. I just wasn't giving him enough room in training. He comes back so hard, snaps back so hard, that's something that I've really had to get used to, so I don't take down barrels."

Things were really starting to come together for the pair in late spring, winning the Southwest Desert Classic in Cedar City, Utah, and taking second at the Dash For Dollars in Ogden, Utah, but they unfortunately had to miss the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie due to an accident.

THE RUNDOWN w/ Anita Ellis

SGL Rico, 16.2 h

BIT: Medium shank Ed Wright Lifter with a three-piece dogbone.

SADDLE: Pozzi Pro by Double J

SADDLE PAD: Trophy saddle pad from Run At The Rose

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Flexion on front

SHOEING: Lite rims on all four; shod by Bo Smith

FEED: Thunder Mountain pellets

HAY: Grass hay and Alfalfa pellets

SUPPLEMENTS: OsteoMax

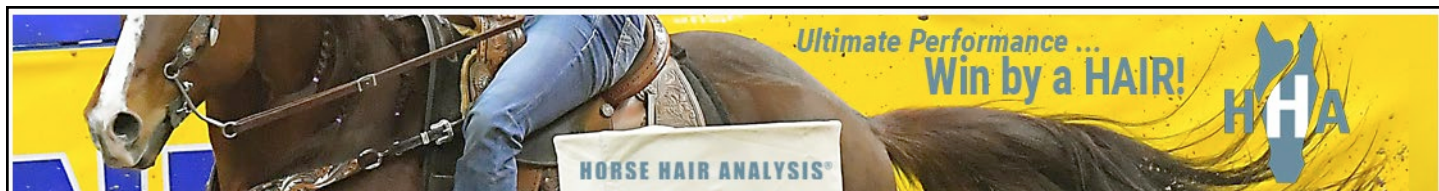

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER treatments. Chiropractic work after he was cast in this stall.

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "He has to be exercised quite a bit. I don't think that horse could be tired a day in his life. Long trotting is mostly what I do with him. With him, I keep things so simple. I don't take the barrels out of the pattern for him at all. I found with him if I do other barrel drills with him it gets confusing."

THANKS: My family, especially my husband Brandon, they've sacrificed a lot for me to be on the road. Royal Crown, I love their races. They are the best to work with and the payouts are so amazing. South Valley Equine for their care of A Dash Of FlingNFame.

"He was cast in stall in Salina and hurt his leg, so I didn't get to take him to the Ruby Buckle (in Guthrie)," Ellis said. "I was really disappointed about that because I felt he was coming on really well.

But he needed about three weeks off from that.”

She was really excited to run Rico at the Royal Crown in Rock Springs. To prepare, Ellis focused a lot on her mental game.

“I think the mindset has so much to do with this,” she said. “I worked on my mindset so much before the Royal Crown. I was listening to books and imagining a clean run. Every time I’d get on him to do a time only I was imagining the actual run, positioning him exactly where I wanted him even though I was going slow. I feel like that helped me feel so much calmer.”

She said that Rico exceeded her expectations with his third place run of 15.091 in the first round.

“It felt really smooth,” she said. “There were so many people that commented to me that it looks like he has another gear because he makes it look really easy. When he runs a clean run like he did I know it’s going to clock because it looks deceiving that he’s not running very fast.”

For her second run, Ellis wanted to change her approach to her first barrel. So rather than set him in the middle of the alley to run, Ellis opted to lope around the corner, something that she stopped doing earlier in his career because it confused him.

“I think he thought he already turned something,” she noted. “Most of the year I’ve been setting him in the arena, but the first round I went into the first barrel a little steeper than I like to do with Rico. I like to give him a little bit more space, so I wanted to change that for my second run just to make sure he wasn’t going to come in too close to the first.

My first run he went a little steep into the first. I get nervous watching the video every time even though I already know the outcome!”

Ellis got the exact approach she wanted and posted a victorious 15.134 to win the aggregate over Kassie Mowry and Goodbye Sophie by .11.

Unfortunately, she didn’t have long to enjoy her victory as she had a Wilderness Circuit rodeo to get to in Logan, Utah, that evening.

“That was crazy!” she chuckled. “I wanted to get (win) pictures with Rico really bad and they didn’t do it until they were giving out awards during the peewee. I ran in there and got my picture and awards and then I got in my truck and left at 6:25. I was texting my friend that had ran at Logan, ‘What time did the barrels run?’ She was like, ‘I want to say it was 9:45.’ Well, it’s three hours and 10 minutes from Rock Springs to Logan!”

“I’m driving a different pickup while mine is getting worked on and it has a smaller fuel tank. I ended up buzzing into the Maverick in Brigham City and had to put $20 in diesel just so I could make it. Barrels were like 20 minutes after I got to Logan!”

RV Two Dash Ta Vegas came through with a check for himself before Ellis finally made it home at 1:30 in the morning.

“It was a long day, but a good day,” she said, “but I don’t want to do that to myself again!”

Jordynn Knight & Heza Swift Spyder Pocket $44,071 at Royal Crown Derby

By Tanya Randall

Heza Swift Spyder gave high school senior Jordynn Knight her second Royal Crown Derby Championship for the year at the Rock Springs, Wyoming, event.

Jordynn, 17, and 8-year-old "Mater" won both the $100,000-added Royal Crown Derby and South Valley Equine Open Derby for $29,590 and $8,170, respectively. They also collected Open, Youth and Slot Race checks for total earnings of $44,071.

"It was super exciting," said Jordynn, who topped the Royal Crown Derby in Buckeye, Arizona, earlier this year on Dashing French Belle.

Of their Rock Spring earnings, $5,326 was awarded to the connections of Mater's sire, The Goodbye Lane, and $3,550 went to the gelding's breeder Clay Peck.

Brad and Karly Knight purchased Mater for their daughter as a 3-year-old and sent him to Stacy Glause for training. Glause ran Mater through his 5-year-old futurity year and Jordynn took over in June of his first derby year.

"I feel like we clicked instantly," said Jordynn. His first barrel is kind of hard, but I had been running a Winners Version gelding that was kind of similar. I just got on him and we started doing pretty good."

At Rock Springs, Jordynn and Mater were second in the first round with a 15.238 and fifth in the second with a 15.219 to win the aggregate by .028 over Anita Ellis and A Dash Of FlingNFame.

"The first round I really didn't know what to expect," said Jordynn. "He sometimes does good in certain pens and other times he doesn't. I didn't send him in super hard, I kind of just let him roll, which is still super-fast for him. He hunkered down and turned first, which he sometimes won't, so that kind of set up our whole run. His second two are pretty easy. You just ride to the hole, and he smokes those two most of the time.

"The second run I sent him to his first a little harder and we got probably a stride past it but he came back hard. The second two he stayed more on top of the ground than he usually does because it was a little wetter and deep. He still worked those two really nice.

He ended up being a little faster because he ran a little harder.”

Knight followed her older sister into the arena.

“My parents really didn’t have anything to do with horses,” she said. “We had a next door neighbor that would barrel race, and my older sister would watch her through the window. We’re in deep now.”

Locked & Loaded -- Andrea Busby & Jets Top Gun Win Hermiston & Logan Rodeos

By Tanya Randall

Leading barrel horse breeder Andrea Busby has been rapidly climbing the WPRA World Standings in recent weeks. After surging into the Top 15 last week, a $15,495 week aboard WPRA World Champion mount Jets Top Gun ("Benny") has her gaining ground on the Top 10 in the world.

"He's definitely a gift sent straight from God," the Brock, Texas, barrel racer said of the highly decorated 9-year-old gelding that she and her husband Jeff raised.

After winning The Famous Preston Night Rodeo in Idaho and placing seventh at the Mountain Valley Stampede in Heber City, Utah, last week, Benny got to rest at Kathy Grimes' while Busby headed back south for more rodeos.

Busby didn't have any luck on her southern swing. Her reins flipped over Famous Heartbreaker's head at Loveland, Colorado. Deep footing in the first performance took away any chance she and RC Black In Famous ("Pickles") had of drawing a check at Lovington, New Mexico. At Lawton, Oklahoma, she tipped a barrel on Heart.

Back in the Northwest, a rested Benny was unstoppable, winning the $25,000-added Farm-City Pro Rodeo in Hermiston, Oregon, for $8,845 and $15,000-added Cache Co. Fair & Rodeo in Logan, Utah, for $6,650.

"He's firing hard and feeling good," she said of the gelding that did the lion's share of winning for Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi's record-breaking 2023 WPRA World Championship. "I feel like I've finally gotten confident on him now."

She wanted to thank Tonozzi for doing a great job getting him seasoned and solid for her.

"I struggled with him when I first got him, to turn the first outside," Busby said. "(Tonozzi) struggled with him and it took her until the beginning of (last) summer to get it figured out with him at the rodeos. Once they did, he never looked back, and that's why I have been able to step right on and go to winning. That says a lot about her abilities."

Busby had originally hoped to run Benny earlier this year, but his post NFR break got extended after he developed a keratoma, a non-cancerous tumor made of keratin, in his hoof. Surgery to remove the keratoma meant waiting for hoof tissue to grow back, so Benny didn't make his first run of 2023 until late June when Tonozzi cruised him through at a jackpot in Castle Rock, Colorado. Busby's first run on Benny didn't come until the Fourth of July run.

"I literally made my first run on him at Killdeer (North Dakota) the first of July," said Busby. "I think he's literally won money every time I've run him."

In July, they were fourth at Killdeer, third at Cody, Wyoming, fourth at Livingston, Montana, eighth at Spanish Fork, Utah, sixth at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and they've won three of their four rodeos in August.

Busby said Benny's not hard to ride, but he's very strong.

"The first time I ran him I thought he pulled the muscles off my sternum," she said. "I was like, 'Oh my God! He's so strong. He's so honest so it's not the entry that's hard; it's leaving the turn. Staying with him and ahead of him leaving at turn is the challenging part.'"

Busby, too, if finally feeling well. Last June, a bad fall at Woodward, Oklahoma, nearly cost her life, when Blazing With My Dude ("Tito") fell and stepped on her head. The effects of the injury lingered with her throughout the year as her brain slowly healed.

"I didn't know I was sick until I started to feel better," said Busby. "You can't see it. It's not like a cut or a broken arm. I had a lot of short term memory loss. People would say something and go,

'Don't you remember' and I would have no memory of it. I probably shouldn't have been rodeoing last summer."

She also had to get her courage back.

"I had a lot of confidence issues, especially running to the third barrel because that's where Tito fell with me," Busby explained. "It took a long time to not be thinking about that and be thinking about running barrels. Now it doesn't even cross my mind when I ride into the arena."

Busby said she leaned hard on Tonozzi, whom she's hauled with the past three years.

"I didn't realize how much I leaned on Brittany last year to just tell me where we were going and what we were doing," she said. "She really had to carry the load. I was just happy to be going where we were going."

She credits the three-time world champion with teaching her how to rodeo.

“Brittany, without a doubt, taught me how to rodeo,” she said. “I don’t think there’s anyone better. She’s been doing this for 20 years. I didn’t know you could go to this many rodeos until I went with her! She taught me to truly rodeo and manage my horses on the road. Taking care of them on the road is an art in itself. I wouldn’t be in this position if I hadn’t been rodeoing with her the last three years.”

Although they still haul together some, Busby’s main travel partner this year has been her husband Jeff. “Jeff has been a trooper this summer,” she said. “He’s been with me the whole time. He’s driven way more miles than I have. It’s the first year he’s stayed out here and hung with me the whole time.

“Without sounding corny or cliché, he’s my true north. If I start to get stressed or have anxiety...he takes a load off me. Rodeo ... there’s no way to explain how hard it is. It’s not just getting entered and riding your horse. There’s so much more to it.

“There are your tires, your generators, your rigs. He’s taken the load off, like we stopped and grabbed some tires that fit my trailer just in case because one was looking a little wonky. It’s staying ahead of things like that. He’s found places to service my generator before it quits. There’s no explaining how much pressure that takes off. “I’m a planner and overthinker and probably my own worst enemy. Just having someone out here ... as a spouse he’s invested in this as much or more so than I am. He has my back 100 percent. Having him right here has taken a huge weight off my shoulders in a lot of ways.”

Busby is entered up solid until the Tour Playoff Rodeo in Puyallup, Washington. She said that her husband is keeping track, but they don’t really talk about the standings, and she doesn’t want to either.

“I just want to keep my head down, ride my horses and do my work,” she said. “It’s God’s timing. What will be, will be. We’re going to take it day by day.”

HORSEPOWER

Andrea Busby has two rigs on the road loaded with horse power. In the Northwest, she has her homebred Jets Top Gun ("Benny"), who carried Brittany Pozzi Tonzzi to the 2023 WPRA World Championship, and aged event stand out Born On Derby Day.

Benny, 9, is by Busby's late stallion Blazin Jetolena out of the GL Famous First Lady, a daughter of Dash Ta Fame and Canadian Champion Lady Perks, by Dash For Perks.

"I try to limit Benny's runs," said Busby. "I try to put him on the best ground for the biggest money. That's why I didn't take him Dodge City this year. I felt like I could make less runs at Preston and Heber, which were one run for bigger money. For a horse like him, I felt that was a wiser path."

Derby, a 7-year-old mare, is by NFR qualifier Freckles Ta Fame out of KR Last Fling, by A Streak Of Fling.

"I think you could set the barrels on the moon and she's going to go turn them," Busby said. "She's gritty and will stand up on anything, not that I would purposely put her on bad ground."

Her second trailer has NFR qualifier Famous Heartbreaker and RC Back In Famous ("Pickles").

Heart, who took Syndi Blanchard to the NFR, is a 14-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Lady Oh Raylene, by Shawne Bug.

"She did have a pretty significant injury a couple of years ago, so I don't run her a lot," Busby said.

Pickles, a 9-year-old mare, is by Famous Gold Coin out of NFR qualifier and champion producer RC Back In Black, by Ninety Nine Goldmine.

"I've mostly run her in more closed in set ups and I chose to run her at Lovington," said Busby. "I was pleasantly surprised. The ground was just too heavy in our perf to do anything."

Busby recently added a fifth horse to her quartet with Blazing With My Dude's return from injury. "Tito," a 9-year-old mare is by Blazin Jetolena out of NFR qualifier Dasher Dude, by Texas High Dasher.

"Tito fell in the short round at Fort Worth (in early February) and chipped her knee," Busby explained. "We took that out and she's had time off and rehab. We sent her to Conquer (Equine) with Codi McCorkle and she's got her legged up and ready to go. I just got her yesterday. If I need her she's here and ready to go."

Ironically, many of Busby's closest competitors are riding horses that she and her husband Jeff raised including Lisa Lockhart (Blazin Ta Betty), Carlee Otero (Blingolena) and Jordan Briggs (Famous Lil Jet). Blazin Ta Betty ("Sasha") and Famous Lil Jet ("Rollo") are full siblings by Dash Ta Fame out of a Blazin Jetolena, Lady Perks mare.

"It's fun to watch," said Busby. "It's pretty crazy. At one point Benny was for sale. He could have been bought for $25,000 as a yearling. We've always tried to make good horses, produce a good product. It's very rewarding to see people go be successful on something that you've worked very hard at."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There are many people, I'm one, that have no trouble speaking their mind. Usually, they are not afraid of confrontation. That doesn't mean we are wrong, we may just need tempered a bit.

When I hear a sermon, I always ask myself if that is something I need to change. It's a checklist for me.

Well, the other day I heard a pastor say, "Leave the unlovely unsaid." What??? Even if it's TRUE??? Yes, even if it's true. The Word says in Luke 6:35, 'for out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.' That is wonderful if we are full of the Word of God. If we're full of the world, the news, the devils' lies, then it's not so wonderful.

Shortly after I heard the first pastor, a second one said, "Don't say whatever comes into your head! Run it by the Word before you open your mouth." And just when I think I'm pretty grown up in the Word, I find I have a lot to change.

Let's all consider what's coming out of our mouth and replace the wrong with the right!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
