Taking Care Of Business – Kassie Mowry & Force The Goodbye win $15,737 at Bremerton & Kennewick

By Tanya Randall

Kassie Mowry's Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") has won nearly $38,000 the past two weeks. Albeit the 6-year-old gelding had a little help last week from his paternal half-sister, Mowry's homebred 4-year-old futurity horse Goodbye Sophie at Caldwell, Idaho, when her two go-round runs weren't far apart.

"He's just going out there and doing it," Mowry said. "He's just a different horse. He's always been a good horse, but to run this many 16s on a (WPRA) Standard.... I've never had a horse that could consistently do that in so many different arenas with so little help from me."

Since hitting the rodeo road after the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming, Mowry and Jarvis have won Gooding, Idaho and Canby, Oregon. This past weekend in Washington state, they won Bremerton's $17,000-added Kitsap Stampede for $6,039 and Kennewick's $23,000-added Horse Heaven Roundup for $9,698 after winning the first round, short go and aggregate.

"I'm just hanging on this ride he's taking me on," said Mowry of The Goodbye Lane gelding that's now won more than $1 million. "It's been very emotional for me and he's just carrying me through all of this. I'm just proud of him."

"He's just so chill. He never gets uptight. He handles things and thinks his way through. He just has a good attitude about everything. He's so confident now. I get on him and he literally marches to the arena. There's no zig zag. It's just let's do this! He doesn't care that Sophie's at the trailer hollering at him. He's on a mission to go to that arena. He just feels so ready when I swing on him. He's so comfortable with it and that makes it a lot of fun for me."

While legions of her fans would see her chase a WPRA World Championship as she is so close—now No. 3 in the WPRA World Standings with $151,283—but Mowry has other matters to attend to as well. Both Jarvis and Sophie are qualified for the lucrative Breeders Challenge Finale in Fort Worth, Texas, September 11-14.

The Cinch Playoffs in Puyallup, Washington, with its $73,000 barrel racing purse are September 5-8.

"I do plan on going to Puyallup and mounting out," Mowry explained. To be eligible to enter in the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls at the end of September, contestants have to compete in Puyallup. "Several girls have offered me some really good horses... I didn't want to be a hassle for anyone, so several of the girls that were going to be there already offered me their backup horses, which was really nice. That should be a lot of fun."

Mowry's eligibility for Sioux Falls requires that she either finish in the Top 4 in Puyallup or be in the Top 8 in the Playoff Tour Standings. While she has a lot of points already in hand, others will be chasing more points at rodeos like Ellensburg and Walla Walla, Washington, Albuquerque, New Mexico, Pendleton, Oregon, and Abilene, Texas, when she's prepping for or running at the aged events.

"There's not a lot of information on these (Sioux Falls and Puyallup) ahead of time so it's really hard to plan," Mowry lamented. "They didn't send out the rules on Puyallup until a week or two after I entered Abilene. I entered Abilene for the only time that I could (It's going on during Breeders Challenge), thinking I could trade at Puyallup. No, you can't trade at Puyallup so now I'm going to be deducted points (for turning out of Abilene)...It's really hard

Tiany Schuster & Show Mance Showoff at Tremonton's Golden Spike Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Tiany Schuster is set up to make her third National Finals Rodeo. While many of her equine team members have changed over the years, one constant has remained.

Show Mance.

The 14-year-old gelding helped Schuster set records during her first NFR run in 2017. He was the main player for her qualification in the COVID shortened 2020 season. That same year, they clocked the only sub-17 second run to win the $7,000-added Golden Spike Rodeo in Tremonton, Utah. This year, they didn't win with a sub-17 run, but the payoff was tremendously better with the $18,000-added rodeo paying $6,819.

"Every time I go there it's always been really good to me," said Schuster, who is No. 7 in the WPRCA World Standings with $115,230. "This is the second time I won it, and it would be easy for me to say the ground was good. It's just one of those rodeos that I look forward to every year."

She also praised the rodeo's hospitality.

"The hospitality was so good," said the Krum, Texas, barrel racer. "I'm not saying it was the best steak I've ever had in my life, but it was definitely top three!"

While Show Mance might not be the top money earner in her trailer—that honor goes to Show Mance's hauling buddy of the last six years, Famous Mic Guy Ver—he definitely has the top spot in her heart.

"Everyone should have a horse like him once in their life," she said. "He's not a once-in-a-lifetime horse because of what he's done; he's my friend."

The gelding, by First Smart Money, is just wired differently

"He's very animated," Schuster explained. "We have a refrigerator in the barn and his apples are in there. If you open that refrigerator to get a Diet Coke or put your lunch in there, he gives you these eyes. Think of the cat in Shrek, how he would give you the big bulbus eyes. If you open that fridge, he'll give you the big eyes, 'Oh please, give me an apple.' None of the other horses will give you that look. You just have to be around that horse. I've never been around a horse that expresses so much emotion."

Making each rodeo victory with Show Mance extra special is the fact that his career was almost over after a nasty wreck at the NBHA Open World Finals in Perry, Georgia.

"He came out packing a leg," Schuster recalled. "I thought he broke a sesamoid. Show Mance just landed wrong. He did something funky in the back end and then we think he rolled his ankle in the front end."

Dr. Cliff Honnas at Texas Equine found three chips and cartilage damage early that December. Schuster thought Show Mance was done at the time, but with a lot of time off and treatment, he's won a few rodeos this year.

"I didn't even run him much at the beginning of the year," she said. "I took him to Belton (Texas) and he was so obese and fluffy. He won Belton. It was like dancing with Fred Astair. It was the most fun, easiest run."

Schuster, who also won Baker, Montana, the weekend prior on Show Mance, said it's her "A-Team" protocol of Arthramid and Adequan, RenoVo and Back On Track wraps that's keeping Show Mance winning. It's also knowing her horse and picking her battles.

"I don't run him when it doesn't matter," she said.

She also avoids nearly all closed gate arenas so Show Mance doesn't have to turn off at the end of a run.

"I think it just plays into knowing your horse, where to put them and when not to," she said. "If it comes down to the NFR and running Show Mance, we're not running Show Mance. The Finals are important but it's not more important than the horse."

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm not a great singer. But at church the other night, I wanted to tell a funny story and you had to sing in it. Let me preface this with, I asked for grace and mercy from the people FIRST. As expected, it wasn't perfect but it was funny!

After church, we had a back to school ice cream social and it was there I found out just how NOT perfect it was. One of my favorite kids, Selah, came up to me and said, "Um, you need to work on your singing..."

I didn't laugh. I wanted to. She was deadly serious! Then she ran over to her mom and came back and said, "My mom said it's okay if you come to our house and we'll help you practice! Just text her and see what time works." Lord have mercy!

I am ALWAYS taken with kids. They tell the truth and they won't back down. Sometimes it's brutal. But they see no reason to sugar coat what needs to be said. And, in their minds, your part is to receive it and change! In her mind, I had a problem, she pointed it out BUT THEN she had the solution. Problem solved!

Ephesians 4:15 tells us to speak the truth in love. She did. If we all were like children, we wouldn't be afraid to speak the truth. And we'd have a solution when we did.
