Record-Breaking Field Set for the 2018 National Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

The richest group of Top 15 barrel racers in the history of the Women’s Professional Rodeo Association will compete at the 2018 National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas.

For the first-time ever, a record-breaking seven barrel racers are going into the NFR with more than $100,000 in earnings. With the 15th hole already at a record-breaking $86,947, it’s highly likely that for the first time in history, the entire Top 15 will also go past $100,000 in earnings.

The battle for the final few positions in the Top 15 was epic. Going into the last weekend, a couple of ladies outside the “bubble” had a legitimate chance to overtake the coveted qualification spots. However, from 12th on down the biggest concern was not dropping out, rather than gaining ground.

Mother of two, Jessie Telford of Caldwell, Idaho, had the week pinging out, rather than gaining ground.

Telford, who graciously chronicled her experience for The Cowboy Journal (www.thecowboyjournal.com), started her final run at Kansas City with Shu Fire, owned by Connie McCormick, where she placed 11th for $261. Her next run was at Omaha, where they also finished 11th for $359.

From Omaha, she flew to Mona, Utah. After her commercial flight was canceled, Telford was able to track down a private plane and enough cowboys—Ryan Jarrett, Blanc Cox, Rhen Richard and Quinn Kessler—to split the flight costs to make it Utah. Back aboard her home-raised and trained Famous Cool Whip, Telford finished second for $1,139.

Then it was an all-night drive with steer wrestlers Blake Knowles and Nick Guy—both of whom survived the bubble to make the NFR too—to Poway, California, where she finished second for $1,409. On Saturday night, she won San Bernardino for $1,609.

That’s when the tears started.

“After San Bernardino, I was thinking I was pretty safe,” she said. “I had been doing the math and there was only so much money left to be won come Sunday. After winning (Saturday), I called Jake and had my tearful ‘Holy *, I think it’s going to happen moment.’ I was at the trailer, horses still saddled, letting the tears flow.”

Afterward, she caught a flight back for Stephenville, Texas, where she had a good run on Shu Fire, but didn’t place.

Telford never really expected to be in this position. Her goal was to be high enough in the standings to go to the winter rodeos in 2019. Yet, when it came time for the final push, Telford pulled out all the stops and had a good time doing it.

“Anybody will tell you when you’re on a hot streak, placing and winning, it doesn’t matter the amount of pressure, it’s fun,” she said. “It’s definitely fun when you’re winning. I had great people around me. The flight was a blast. Those four were incredibly fun. The two days in California with Blake and Nick—they’re great people and very positive. They’re just winners. All of that on top of doing well made it an amazing trip. It was a good trip.”

Making the qualification extra special is having done it largely thanks to the efforts of her creation—Cool Whip.

By Dash Ta Fame, Cool Whip, 7, is out of Telford’s high school and college rodeo horse Had A Kinita, by Docs Rocky Top. The gelding went through her husband Jake’s cowhorse training program, turning back and tracking cattle as a 2-year-old before ever seeing a barrel. Telford had originally thought to campaign Cool Whip as a 5-year-old, but she had Playguns Fame at the time and decided to haul the two in the same year, so he ran as a 4-year-old. As a 5-year-old, Cool Whip placed at a few pro rodeos and qualified for the Wilderness Circuit Finals last year as a 6-year-old.

“It’s an amazing thing to accomplish, whether you’ve raised it and trained it, or bought it and figured out how to ride and win on it,” said Telford of raising her NFR qualifier. “We definitely have a personal connection. I love him more than any horse that I’ve ever had.”

She, too, had the challenged of learning to win on something else, when she borrowed Shu Fire from McCormick. The 8-year-old daughter of Dash of Royal Gold out of the Fire Water Flit mare Fire Water Flyer was a huge help, winning close to $20,000.

Paint barrel racers win big in the 2018 World Show PBRIP Sweepstakes

By Mary Cage

Dirt flew as Paint Horses’ carried their riders at top speeds and around tight turns during the 2018 APHA World Championship Show’s RAM Paint Barrel Racing Incentive Program competition. With a total of $11,350 on the line, the events were split between the 4D PBRIP Sweepstakes and the 4D PBRIP 4- & 5-Year-Old Futurity Jackpot.

PBRIP 4- & 5-Year-Old Futurity Jackpot

Young Paints battled it out in the futurity jackpot, with Famous French Pistol and Teresa Watson of Nowata, Oklahoma, clocking a 16.154 to take the 1D championship and $450. Famous French Pistol is a 2013 bay tobiano mare by French Too Fame (QH) and out of HH Classy Robin. Famous French Pistol was bred by Jim and Mari Masters of Scott City, Kansas.

“I didn’t start running her until late December to keep her eligible,” Teresa said. “I knew she was probably a year behind, but she’s got all the potential in the world. I knew if I just sat up and rode her, she would make a nice, smooth run. I’m very happy to have the opportunity to come to the World Show and compete against some really tough horses. It seems to get tougher and tougher each year, which is a good thing for the Paint Horse world. Since the PBRIP first began, I’ve seen more and more Paints running, and it’s good to see the growth.”

Sixteen-year-old Madison Harrison from Park City, Kentucky, earned a $300 check aboard Catching Fire, taking the 2D futurity championship. Catching Fire is a 2014 red roan overo gelding by Dos Poruno and out of Kiss This Chrome; he was bred by Steven B. Wright of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

PBRIP Barrel Racing Sweepstakes

Taking home the 1D PBRIP Sweepstakes title with a time of 15.182, Shelton Headley of Port Gibson, Mississippi, and Speedin For Cash also earned the PBRIP World’s Fastest award, presented to the team with the best average time in the PBRIP Sweepstakes and any Open APHA world championship class at the show. Speedin For Cash also took home world championships in the Amateur Barrel Racing and the Senior Barrel Racing—both with Shelton’s father, David Headley, in the saddle. Speedin For Cash claimed the World’s Fastest award with a combined time of 30.840 between the Senior Barrel Racing and PBRIP Sweepstakes.

“She’s easy to ride—there’s no tricks to her,” Shelton said. “All I did was aim down the alleyway and give her rein. With her, you just point, kick and hold on. Running a fast time is fun—I don’t get to do it very often.”

Speedin For Cash is a 2012 sorrel tobiano mare by Got Caught Speedin (QH) and out of Cash Sign. She was bred by Carol E. Waters of Red Rock, Oklahoma. With these wins, Shelton also took home a trophy barrel saddle, courtesy of Elite Custom Saddles, and trophy jacket, courtesy of Cinch—along with a host of additional prizes.

2D Champion—15.745: Mr Tapestry Moon and Katti Pinnix-Breaux
3D Champion—16.193: Nicinizer and Candice Miner
4D Champion—17.262: Suntan Showgirl and Sue Williams

Finalists named for 2018 PRCA Veterinarian of Year Award

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association is proud to announce and recognize the finalists for the 2018 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award.

Created in 2010 to spotlight and honor veterinarians who have dedicated time, talents and efforts to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock, the award allows the opportunity to give back to these deserving individuals. Membership of the PRCA nominate a veterinarian whom they feel has shown extraordinary commitment to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock. Nominations are considered by a review and selection committee comprised of industry experts and advocates who carefully reviews each nominee’s specific contributions to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock. Additional criteria, including the extent of involvement in the sport of rodeo and community involvement, also are considered by the committee. The recipient of the 2018 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award will be announced in mid-October and will be honored at the PRCA Awards Banquet at the South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa in Las Vegas, Nev., Dec. 5. The following six distinguished veterinarians have been selected as finalists.

- Dr. Benjamin Espy, San Antonio, Texas
  Nominated by the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo
- Dr. Troy Ford, Clovis, Calif.
  Nominated by the Clovis Rodeo Association
- Dr. Charles Graham, Elgin, Texas
  Nominated by Dr. William C. Anderson, DVM
- Dr. Michael Harms, Canby, Ore.
  Nominated by Clackamas County Fair and Rodeo, Canby Rodeo
- Dr. Chris Ray, Bozeman, Mont.
  Nominated by Bruce Keller
- Dr. Heather Schneider, Hudson, Iowa
  Nominated by Cheyenne Frontier Days

“There’s no way I would have qualified without her,” said Telford. “He got a huge abscess later this fall and she really stepped up to the plate. Early this spring, he had over-reached and cut his heel—both of those two scenarios, I would have been sidelined at home. She stepped up and went to winning. When I needed her, she was there.”

Telford will head into her first NFR in 14th with $88,342 from 79 rodeos.

Ironically, Telford, who was making the 20-plus hour trip home from Texas during this interview, will be flying back to Texas to support her husband at the Snaffle Bit Futurity.

Leading the pack to Vegas is current Thomas & Mack Arena Record Holders Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday (“Sister”). Mindful of her 7-year-old mare’s mental and physical health, the Cotulla, Texas, barrel racer made the most of the big paying rodeos with the freakishly-fast Sister, which allowed the mare to have breaks throughout the season. Kinsel also made the most of her backup horse Thunder Stones, who would be a No. 1 mount in anyone’s barn.

Defending WPRA World Champions Nellie Miller and Rafter W Minnie Reba (“Sister”) made the most of the high-paying rodeos. Their success at Rodeo Houston, Reno and Cheyenne allowed them to pick-and-chose and have quality down time throughout the season. They have the smallest rodeo count of any qualifier at 30.

Two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi cracked out a legend and seasoned futurity colts to the rodeo life and still managed to put herself in contention for a World Championship. The Victoria, Texas, barrel racer’s top two earning mounts were KissKiss BangBang (“Mona”) and Yeah Hes Fire (“Duke”). They helped her to a few others including Pozzi Tonozzi’s current futurity standout Ima Famous Babe (“Katniss”), who won three futurities plus a pro rodeo during the 2018 season, and Steele Magnolias, Pocket Fulla Pozzis & Babe On the Chase.

Lisa Lockhart made the most of her dual Buckskin threat, winning $123,515 in just 42 rodeos, to qualify for her 12th-straight NFR. The two-time reserve world champion’s earnings are split fairly evenly between her unicorn An Oakie With Cash (“Louie”) and Alan Woodbury’s Rosas Cantina CC (“Rosa”). While Louie got the call at mega rodeos like Houston, Cheyenne and Calgary, Rosa got more runs and proved to be a solid closer as she finished up the Stampede for a lucrative payday.

Stevi Hillman had a slow start to the season, but poured it on through the summer, winning $110,232. A strong Fourth of July run, capped by a Ponoka Stampede Championship, helped send the Weatherford, Texas, barrel racer to her third straight NFR. Cuatro Fame (“Truck”), owned by Jason and Melissa Mouton, did 90 percent of the heavy lifting this season with just colts to back him up.

Taci Bettis of Round Top, Texas, took an early season lead in the World Standings through her hometown rodeo of Houston. She and her gelding Bogie Is A Smash were solid through the Fourth. Unlike last year where the Rookie of the Year spent the latter part of the season securing her first NFR qualification, Bettis was able to come home after Calgary and turn Smash out for two months. They finished up the season with a seventh-place finish at Omaha, Nebraska.

A fun aside, Bettis not only qualified for her second NFR, but Bogies French Bug, her backup horse that she trained and sold early this year, qualified his new owner Angela Lanter to the Canadian National Finals Rodeo.

Kylie Weast continued the Youree-Ward barrel racing family legacy, joining her sister 2003 WPRA World Champion Janae Ward Massey, her mother Renee Ward and grandmother Florence Youree as an NFR qualifier. Riding the fast, young family-raised Hell On The Red (“Reddy”), Weast catapulted into contention through the WPRA World Finals and a Fort Worth Rodeo Championship. Incidentally, her grandmother was one of the key figures in lobbying for a WPRA-approved barrel race at Fort Worth.

Weast’s young mare—who is by JL Dash Ta Heaven, the son of her sister’s world champion mount, Dynas Plain Special—proved equally talented in the outside, and Weast was able to cut her summer out west short and rodeo closer to home from the remainder of the season.

Weast finished the season placing at Stephenville with Reddy and Apache, aboard her very capable backup, Namgis D 15 (“Wolfe”), for $1,798. She leads to the NFR with $101,715 from 60 rodeos. Super mom Jessica Routier parlayed circuit finals success into her first NFR qualification. The horse trainer and mother of five at the call at mega rodeos like Houston, Cheyenne and Calgary, Raya was solid through the Fourth.

While a stellar Calgary Stampede seemingly sealed the deal for Kelly Bruner’s first NFR qualification, the busy veterinarian’s limited rodeo schedule made it a race until the end. She had a stellar final week of the regular season, picking up $2,976 aboard her gelding...

Suzy Tres Seis. They finished second at Kansas City and won Apache on their final run of the season to head to the NFR in 11th with $90,515 from 63 rodeos.

Saturday night in Omaha, there were hugs, cheers and maybe a few tears at the trailer of Tracy Nowlin. With a $2,870 victory at the River City Rodeo, Nowlin punched her ticket for her first NFR. The Nowata, Oklahoma, barrel racer won $4,856 to move to 12 in the standing with $90,496 from 79 rodeos. Her gritty, little mare DJG Madison (“Dolly Jo”) was her sole money earner.

A $1,254 fourth-place check at Kansas City was good enough to send Amber Moore and CP Dark Moon (“Paige”) to their third straight NFR. No strangers to the bubble, Moore and Paige set a 15th hole earnings record two years ago at $79,068. This year, the Kiser, Oregon, duo started out strong and were in the Top 4 in the World when Paige bruised her feet at Rodeo Houston. Moore was without Paige from April until August. Even though she could have run at Calgary in July, Moore opted to continue to allow Paige to heal. By putting Paige first, Moore heads to Vegas in 13th with $89,127 from 46 rodeos—the third fewest of the Top 15.

Rounding out the Top 15 is the lone Canadian entry, Carman Pozzobon of Aldergrove, British Columbia. Pozzobon, who was seemingly a shoo-in following her win at Strathmore was without her great mare Ripn Lady at the end of the season. With Rip resting in Canada, she finished the year stateside on a borrowed mount. Her $86,947 is the new record for 15th spot in the WPRA World Standings. The current Canadian Champion Barrel Racer will defend her title north of the border before making her first trip to Las Vegas.

SALE SESSION 2 • FRIDAY, OCT. 26, 2018
Heart of Oklahoma Expo • Shawnee, Oklahoma
39th TRIANGLE FALL SALE

AUCTION NOTE: JB Quarter Horses and their friends and neighbors suffered incredible loss in 2017 as the eye of Hurricane Harvey took direct aim at their area. The priorities of so many have changed as a result of the devastation. JB lost many fine horses, ceased training operations and breeding plans were interrupted. After much “soul searching” a decision has been made to sell this great group of horses with incredible barrel genetics. A few of the older stallions are being retained along with personal riding favorites. Everything else sells without reserve. Fifteen years of selective breeding will be available for your enjoyment.

HOT CORONA SI 91
2002 brown stallion (Corona Cartel x Dashing Idea, by Dash For Cash). Proven 1-D barrel sire!

533 MISS JB 101
2010 sorrel mare (Hot Corona x Firewater Fiesta, by Fire Water Flit). Bred to Mr JB First And Famous. Daughter of the legend – Firewater Fiesta ($800,000+); 1-D barrel money earner.

545 MS BAY DILLON
2005 bay mare (Confederate Leader x Pass The Belle, by Pass The Bars). Bred to Mr JB First And Famous. Earner of $15,000 with Kassie Mowery. 3 OF HER DAUGHTERS SELL!
• Miss JB 148 – palomino mare by Chasin Firewater - Training by Kassie Mowery & Kelly Allen
• Miss JB 159 – 2015 brown by Chasin Firewater
• Pending – 2018 brown by Dallas Fuel

525 MR JB IM FAMOUS TOO
2012 sorrel gelding (Dash To Fame x Miss JB 055, by Fire Water Flit). Has run some 1-D time. Patterned by Kassie Mowery

TM GAME CHANGER
2015 bay stallion (Confederate Leader x Dr Snickers Bar, by Dr Nick Bar). Hurricane interrupted his training but a definite futurity and stallion prospect!

Cullins, Weaver & RR Mistakelly Have a Lot to be Happy About

By Amy Wilson

Brandon Cullins is nearing the million dollar mark in career earnings, and RR Mistakelly “Mister” has now won $293,182. The Ardmore Barrel Futurity in Oklahoma contributed to those impressive numbers as Cullins and Mister earned the Futurity championship and $10,738 after placing fourth in round one with 14.989 and second in round two with 15.065. “It’s one I always like to go to. I think I’ve been there about every year. I like the arena and the whole place,” Cullins said about the Hardy Murphy Coliseum. The September 26-30 event had $52,500 in total added money and also featured a derby and the open. “They always pay pretty well, and it’s run really good,” Cullins said pointing out that he earned nearly $20 thousand dollars total. “We had eight horses there but we were running around moving some. I ran two in the futurity, one in the derby, and then I brought Suckerpunch. Emily [Efurd] had her’s in the derby. The rest were brood mares and colts we had picked up,” he explained.

VQ Suckerpunch placed second in The American qualifier with 14.870 and A Cornerstone was fourth with 14.904 to earn Cullins a couple spots to his fourth semi finals, with the ultimate goal of making the Final Four round at The American which he’s already done twice. Plus, those times earned them second and fifth in Sunday’s $10,000 added open. Dona Kay Rule and High Valor won the qualifier and Sunday’s open with a time of 14.828.

Cullins keeps 15-20 horses in his program in Clements, Maryland. Depending on their level of training, he rotates the days they ride each one, typically riding 10-15 a day. Although it doesn’t make the job itself harder, being so far away from most of the futurities requires lots of driving. “We left at noon Sunday because we bought a couple at the sale so we had to get all that organized. We stopped in Memphis overnight, and then got home about 11pm on Monday. There’s a lot of other things I could’ve been doing for two days besides driving,” he said with a laugh. But he likes his place which includes a 15 stall barn with runs and a big arena that he built on his family’s farm. “They have a trucking company and all kinds of equipment so if my ground gets too hard, there are three big tractors I can use to drag the arena and break it back up. If I need something hauled, I can grab a truck and haul it. So it’s kind of hard to leave all that, but the driving does get old.”

One thing that will never get old is the incredible talent Mister continues to showcase. The 4 year old brown stallion is by Darkelly and out of Mistys Dash of Fame, a mare who has proven to be quite a producer. “I don’t think she’s ever made a bad one from what I’ve seen. The only other one I’ve rode out of her was KN Fab’s Mist Of Fame, that Jolene [Montgomery] trained and won Fort Smith on in 2012 for Robin [Weaver],” Cullins said. “That mare was actually the first horse I qualified for The American on,” he added, also pointing out that KN Fab’s Mist Of Fame is a full sibling to KN Fab’s Gift Of Fame “J-Lo” who just helped Ivy Con-rado qualify for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo again this year. “That mare is just a producer,” Cullins said about Mistys Dash of Fame. As the dam of two that’s he ridden, he described what they had in common, “I’ve never sat on horses that had so much power behind and push off and leave.” That’s also were Cullins thinks Mister can get ahead of other horses, “He hits a point on the backside, and when he leaves, he leaves strong. You better be holding on or he’ll leave you behind. That mare (KN Fab’s Mist Of Fame) is the same way. She gets to a point on the backside and she just comes. It’s all power. They’re running from the backside of the barrel. They don’t turn it and then start running, they’re running before they even leave the barrel.” That’s a move Cullins trains all of his horses to do, but for Mister, it comes natural. “He really excels at it. I like that move on the backside where they break through the ribs and they curl around the barrel and they’re pushing off as they get straight. That’s something I always work on, but I do think it suits him too so that’s why it works so well.”

Cullins and Mister’s owner, Robin Weaver know he loves to run barrels, so as Weaver is starting to get the contracts out for the 2019 breeding season where Mister will be standing in Salado at Brazos Valley, she’s also considering running him if his breeding schedule allows. “She talked about wanting him to derby a little bit or run some more because he really enjoys it,” Cullins said. Then he explained, “He can be full of himself – not bad, but after you run him and you're walking back to the barn, it's almost like he's on a high, just chill. It's the weirdest thing. He's kind of like that if he hasn't been rode in awhile and you take him out and ride him, and then when you come back he's just laid back and happy.”

The multiple championships and big money won are proof that Cullins, Weaver, and Mister have a lot to be happy about including their most recent win at the Ardmore Barrel Futurity. Ashley Schafer also had a great weekend in Oklahoma. She finished second on Blazin Blurry Fame and third on Guys Bankin On Fame in the Futurity, and won over $19,000 total.

2018 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale Results

By Hope Raley

The Jud Little Ranch is a household name in the barrel racing industry. For many years they have provided some of the best genetics when searching for your next champion. Located just south of the Arbuckle Mountains, the Jud Little Ranch develops their champion barrel racing bloodlines in Springer, Oklahoma, near Ardmore.

Little built his program with the dynamic mares Dynas Plain Special and Nonstopwithcredit, and proven barrel horse sires Cash Not Credit & Brownie Jones. The blood of all these horse runs through the entire program. The World Champion, Dynas Plain Special, is also the dam of NFR Qualifier and $1.2 million barrel sire, J.L. Dash Ta Heaven.

Today, the Jud Little Ranch is home to one of the industry's leading stallion J.L. Dash Ta Heaven as well as other remarkable stallions Bug In My Frosty, Bugemforcash, NFR Qualifier Chicados Cash, Fiester Dynasty, Hes Downnirte Special, No Mas Corona and One Frosty Corona.

On September 29th, the Jud Little Ranch hosted the 2018 edition of its Annual Production Sale at the ranch with 56 of their best prospects were offered to the public. 45 head were sold for a total of 444,400.00, averaging $9,875.56 per horse. The lineup consisted of a diverse group of seven broodmares, three 4-year-olds, four 3-year-olds, twenty-two 2-year-olds and eleven yearlings. The J.L. Dash Ta Heaven get of all ages averaged $11,977 and the Bug In My Frosty horses of all ages averaged $10,100. The average on the 10 Chicacho Cash get of all ages that sold was $6,640. Bugemforcash and Hes Downnirte Special get of all ages both averaged $5,000.

The highest seller of the sale was lot #3 Heavenly Red. The striking 2-year-old sorrel filly is by the crown jewel of The Bar Nothin barn, J.L. Dash Ta Heaven, and out the 2006 AQHA World Show Reserve Jr. Champion Pole Bender, Reneoni, by Rene Dan Jet. She stole the show in the ring and brought a final bid of $26,000.

The second-high seller was lot #39 Dube Darlin who sold for $24,000. The gorgeous yearling palomino filly is by J.L. Dash Ta Heaven and out of Imanonstop Princess by Letta Hank Do It. Imanonstop Princess won over $42k in Equistat from futurity and open events and another $200,000+ with Jackie Jatzlau at rodeos. Dube Darlin is a maternal sister to futurity standout Imanonstop Fame, futurity and rodeo winner of $156,112, and Good To Be The King who has rodeo, open, and futurity earning of $115,000.

Especially Frosted rounded out the top-three high sellers for $23,500. The 7-year-old mare is by Bug In My Frosty and out of Especially Phoebe by Special Effort. The second dam is the blue hen race mare, Dashing Phoebe, dam of All American Futurity winner Heartswideopen and Furyofthewind. The talented palomino mare won over $42,000 as a futurity horse in 2015 and was the Champion of the Future Fortunes Juvenile Sires Slots. She sold in foal to J.L. Dash Ta Heaven.

The 4th & 5th high-sellers of the sale were lot #41 Dancin Ta Heaven and lot #22 Heavens View. Dancin Ta Heaven is an elegant jet black 2-year-old filly by J.L. Dash Ta Heaven and out of Ima Cash Dancer by Cash Not Credit. Heavens View is a well built 2-year-old sorrel gelding by J.L. Dash Ta Heaven and out of Views Reck by Reckless Dash. Both lots brought $20,000.

Headin’ For Home

Last week I had to endure two funerals...I threw away my favorite denim jeans AND my favorite denim shirt. They were old, tired, worn, had holes in them and felt like a million bucks!

To me, there is nothing better than soft, old denim. But when assorted parts of my anatomy started showing, it was frightening and it was time. Interestingly, I was listening to a Bible message the same day and the preacher said, “If you have a Bible that is worn, chances are, YOU ARE NOT.”

I have two Bibles in my office that are so worn and written in that I just can’t bear to let them go. My Christian life is in them somehow. When I first asked Jesus to be my Lord, I latched on to Phil. 4:6 about not worrying. Boy did that help me. I was a great worrier. I wrote in each one of them. In the margins, at the top, at the bottom and even writing my name in some scriptures so they were more personal. My old Bibles are more valuable than my old denim.

I’ve spent a lot of time in both of them, but God’s word is life. I trust you are spending time in your Bible. My friends, you will find great victory there!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor “Church at the Barn” in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
