NOTES

The ten year old Sage Kohr claimed her second futurity title of the fall and her and got her hands on another $4K plus of prize money at the Roper Barrel Futurity. Her and Sunshine (Nother Time To Cash) have teamed up to win over $24k for the year so far and now they are headed to Oklahoma City for the BFA Derby. When asked what advice she would give her fellow youth competitors, Sage commented, "Don't give up and work really hard at it, and you will be rewarded for it!" This Dashing With Cash filly and her jockey, Kohr, may be undersized and a little underaged but they stand tall when they run into the barrel pen!

Lucky Aces N Eights, 1990-2010

The 1990 bay stallion, Lucky Aces n Eights (Ace) was euthanized Monday, November 15, 2010 due to health complications dealing with age. He was a leading Maternal Grand sire in the barrel horse world and provided one of the most successful "magic crosses" to Dash Ta Fame. Although his showcase as a barrel horse sire came later in life, Ace was an accomplished race horse himself and sire of race horses.

In 1993, He won the All American Derby Consolation at Ruidoso Downs against Dash Thru Traffic and Mr. Eye Opener. At two he also won the Four Corners Futurity Trials at San Juan Downs. His total race earnings were $58,856. His total crop race earnings were $3,442,215.

Ace was the #47 All-Time Leading Living Sire according to Speed-horse Magazine in March 2010. He was the maternal grandsire of LA Fame and Lady La Dash. LA Fame is an Old Fort Days Futurity Champion and the 07' BFA World Championship Barrel Futurity Reserve Champion. Lady La Dash was the 07' Run for the Bucks Futurity Champion and 07' Lance Graves Pro Classic BFA Futurity Champion. Both mares are by Dash Ta Fame out of LA Cassia, by Lucky Aces N Eights. Riding both of these mares Cody Bauserman became the first futurity rider to win two futurities on full sisters in the same year according to Barrel Horse News. Ace also sired Shut Up and Deal, A National High School Barrel Racing Champion and AQHA Horse of the Year with Jordan Muncy.

Shut Up and Deal's accomplishments as a barrel horse: 3X National High School Rodeo Finals Qualifier; 2X New Mexico High School Rodeo Association State Champion 2006 NMHSRA Horse of the Year; 2006 National High School Finals Rodeo National Champion Barrel Racing; 2006 National High School Finals: AQHA Horse of the Year; 3X College National Finals Rodeo Qualifier (lowest of three years placing: 5th in nation); 2X Central Plains Region (National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association); Barrel Racing Champion; 2009 Central Plains Region Horse of the Year

Cared for at Aces n Eights Equine Station in Kirtland, New Mexico. Ace has left a lasting impression on those who cared for him on a daily basis. Those individuals, namely, Shane and Gwen Hatch, Chuck and Lori Webb, and Max and Rose Webb will always remember him as a great horse with tons of personality.

PRCA Rolls Out Red Carpet for World Champions

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) announced today it has partnered with The Mirage Hotel & Casino and Rodeo Vegas to bring The Official Wrangler NFR World Champion Awards Show and 10th Night After-Party to Las Vegas Saturday, Dec. 11, immediately following the last performance. The trio will host an unforgettable night featuring the presentation of awards to the 2010 PRCA World Champions on stage and recognition of all WNFR contestants.

The evening will include live performances by select country music artists, exclusive prize giveaways, celebrity appearances and more.

The PRCA 10th Night After-Party will begin with a red carpet experience for the world champions as they roll up to the Mirage in their own limousines, and enter through a special entrance for media interviews.

The PRCA 10th Night After-Party will also be shared with millions of rodeo fans through a special premiere broadcast on Great American Country (GAC) scheduled to air on Thursday, Dec. 16 at 9:30 p.m. EST.

"The 10th Night of the Wrangler NFR is one of the most exciting nights in all of professional sports, and now, thanks to our partnership with the Mirage and Rodeo Vegas, ProRodeo has a true signature event and after-party to honor our new world champions and all of the amazing WNFR contestants," said PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman. "This event will be a tremendous opportunity for all of the ProRodeo community, including our loyal PRCA fans who fill Las Vegas each December, to come together and celebrate the 2010 WNFR and the accomplishments of our world champions. We are also excited that, thanks to our friends at GAC, millions of rodeo fans will have the opportunity to be part of the 10th Night experience and to understand the excitement of ProRodeo."

"Rodeo Vegas was started to give the fans access to the contestants of the PRCA and the Wrangler NFR, and to treat the WNFR qualifiers like 'rock stars on the Las Vegas strip,'" said Rodeo Vegas creator and five-time WNFR qualifier, K.C. Jones. "This 10th night event takes the after-party experience of Rodeo Vegas to a whole new level and we could not be more excited to team with the PRCA and The Mirage to throw a world-championship ProRodeo party."

of competition?

Richman: Listen to your horse. Go to what you think would be the best for your horse and you would have the best chance of doing well. It doesn't really matter how much money is added if your horses doesn't do well there, it hurts your confidence and their confidence as well.

BRR: What have you learned through the 2010 rodeo season?

Richman: Every year I think I learn a lot more of what rodeos to skip and which rodeos you should go to, no matter how much money is added. Also, because my horse has tied up during the year, I have learned how to manage and feed my horse better.

Thank You's: Thank you to my family and everybody who has been kind enough to let me camp at their house in between rodeos along the way.

Supplements: Finishline Ultrafire

Saddle: Caldwell saddle

Pad: 5 Star Wool Pad

Boots: V Tech Professional's Choice on front and polos behind

Bit: Goostree Simplicity 2 with the 3 piece copper mouth

BRR: How do you plan to maintain your horse(s) through the 10 runs at the WNFR?

Tolbert: Start with a very fit horse. Cleo (RF Firefly) will have Dr. Simper from So. Valley Equine (her veterinarian from home) evaluating her performance and making necessary adjustments.

BRR: What was the high point of your 2010 season?

Tolbert: Winning Sisters, Or. I was last out and the ground was incredibly deep, judging by times posted in similar draw positions, we had poor odds. As we went in the gate I told her I was sorry (for the deep ground) and this wasn't going to be easy. She was fantastic; it was one of those runs that makes your eyes bug out and takes your breath away. She has never tried harder for me than she did at Sisters. It was that moment when I realized how special she was. I was all smiles for weeks.

BRR: What one tip would you give the average competitor wanting to raise their level of competition?

Tolbert: To get better mentally and physically you have to get out of your comfort zone and enter something you consider a little scary. Because really, what's the worst thing that can happen?

BRR: What have you learned through the 2010 rodeo season?

Tolbert: I've learned to slow down, take time, have fun and be relaxed. You will be a happier person for it and your attitude will carry to your horse's performance. It will also sustain you through the lows.

BRR: What was the high point of your 2010 season?

Williams: Probably doing well at Salinas. My winnings there pushed me towards the NFR and it was just kind of a relief to know I had made it over the hump.

BRR: What one tip would you give the average competitor wanting to raise their level of competition?

Williams: Go where you know your horse is going to do well at. Picking the rodeo that your horse does best at saves you and your horse from getting burned out.

BRR: What have you learned through the 2010 rodeo season?

Williams: I didn't travel as hard through the winter and that kept us fresh through the rest of the year. I then had a good attitude and was ready to keep rodeoing throughout the rest of the year.

Boots: Classic Equine

Bit: Fast An Gold, 3 Piece Snaffle Gag bit

BRR: How do you plan to maintain your horse(s) through the 10 runs at the WNFR?

Lockhart: Number 1, I will do my best to keep them rested and happy. I will keep them off the grounds in an environment as close as I can to home so they are the best rested they can be. Beyond this, whatever kind of therapy is necessary, I will use. Hopefully, they are in great shape and we don't have to do anything major, but we will just have to play it by ear as we go.

BRR: What was the high point of your 2010 season?

Lockhart: Winning Rodeo Austin, Ponoka and the Badlands Circuit Finals average were all high points and qualifying for the Canadian Finals Rodeo and running at that kind of money is always exciting as well. There are lots of ups and downs through the year and I think for everyone just qualifying the NFR is probably a high point.

BRR: What one tip would you give the average competitor wanting to raise their level of competition?

Lockhart: Desire and attitude can make you or break you. It doesn't matter who you are it is possible for anybody. I would encourage anyone who wants to do it, do it, and let the chips fall where they may because you just never know what you can accomplish. With hard work and dedication you can accomplish anything!

BRR: What have you learned through the 2010 rodeo season?

Lockhart: To never take anything for granted. It can all be taken away from you in a heartbeat. I think losing one of my horses this year really brought this into focus for me. Also, the older you get, the more you realize how precious life is and you should enjoy it while you can because you never know what tomorrow will hold.

We have decided to do a "toys for tots" fundraiser at Mattox Arena. It started out being just for the bull riding on Dec 4th.....bring a toy and get $1 off your gate admission....BUT when I started thinking about how we could raise more toys I have decided to involve our Friday Night Winter Series! If you bring a toy worth donating to Toys for Tots I will take $1 off your open entry fee (this is for the open only). The Marines have dropped off the box so we will start this next Friday and this will run every friday night until the week before Christmas. Tracy Hockett

Bo Duke Dash, a 3-year-old gelding by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame, commanded a bid of $30,000 to top the 2nd Annual JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Sale.

Of the 80 consignments, 77 walked through the ring for a gross of $354,000, and 60 head, or 78 percent, changed hands for a net of $270,200. The sale was overwhelmingly dominated by yearling consignments averaged an impressive $4,503 in a tough economy.

The top 10, three of which were by JB Quarter Horse's race winner Hot Corona, sold for $107,450 and averaged $10,475. JB stallions Chasin Firewater and One Hot Jose also had get among the Top 10.

High-seller Bo Duke Dash was consigned by Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sue Smith, Blackfoot, Idaho. A full brother to two-time futurity champion Daisy Duke Dash, Bo Duke Dash is out of the Floyd De Great mare Midnight Moon JC, a stakes finalist on the racetrack and barrel futurity finalist in the arena. Cecil Loftin signed the ticket on this handsome gelding.

Loftin also got a Denise Langley tooled and painted leather halter and SafeGuard Power Dose de-wormer with his purchase of the sale's high seller.

Smith purchased the high-selling yearling and JB Quarter Horses owned and bred consignment. Mr JB 0944, a buckskin gelding, is by rodeo and 1D winner Chasin Firewater out of the Invisible Injun mare Invisible Wind and brought $11,500.

For purchasing the highest-selling JB-owned consignment, Smith received a year's supply of Purina feed, a Denise Langley leather halter and a SafeGuard Power Dose de-wormer.

The second-high selling JB Quarter Horse consignment was Miss JB 0721, a 3-year-old daughter of Hot Corona out of the proven performance mare Dallas Cowgirl, by cutting horse sire Dallas By Six. Miss JB 0721 was trained and demonstrated on the barrel pattern by Kassie Mowry and purchased for $9,800 by Miriam Conner, Columbus, Texas.

Also among the top sellers was Miss JB 0733, a 3-year-old daughter of One Hot Jose out of Invisible Wind. Trained and demonstrated by Calgary Stampede Champion Savannah Reeves, Miss JB 0733 sold for $9,500 to Donald Bland.

All buyers of JB-owned consignments received Classic Equine sheets and hay bags, embroidered nylon halters, EZ-All and SafeGuard Equi-Bites de-wormer.

Corona Cartel Gelding Named Supreme Champion

The 7-year-old gelding Cartel Caliente has joined an elite group of only 48 horse in the history of the American Quarter Horse Association to earn the title of open supreme champion.

Cartel Caliente is a homebred gelding by champion sire Corona Cartel out of the Dash For Cash mare Sweet As Cash, and is owned by AQHA Past President Walter Fletcher.

For an open supreme championship, a horse must register a speed index of at least 90 in two races and must earn at least 40 points in the show ring in halter and performance classes.

Cartel Caliente won two of 18 starts during a two-season career, with three thirds and three seconds and earnings of $50,077. He earned a career-high speed index of 101 while finishing third in the 2006 Remington Park Derby (G2). He was third in the Kansas Derby (G3) and was also a finalist in the Rainbow Derby (G1).

Cartel Caliente has 15.5 points in halter, including two grand championships, 38 points in heading, three in heeling, 13 in barrel racing, three in hunter under saddle and a half-point in pole bending.

The gelding is a half brother to the Grade 2 winning Dashin Is Easy mare None As Easy.

In AQHA's history, only 47 horses before Cartel Caliente have achieved the distinction. The most recent was Mr Joe Im Kool in 2008. -- Courtesy of www.AQHA.com

Headin' For Home

By Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We are just a few days away from Thanksgiving and, like Christmas, these holidays generally bring warm, fuzzy feelings of good times and good things...we tend to look forward eagerly to celebrating with family and friends!

This year, I want to try to think outside the box, For me personally, that could be a gear stripping ordeal! I want to have a thankful heart for the blessings that are mine every day. Those things that only I can know are a blessing, not what others think about or what the news media would have me to believe...but a real personal thankfulness that no one else anywhere in the world could duplicate.

However, there is ONE blessing that we can all have in common....Jesus. Who else would die for you and me and pay every debt owed? Who else could take a beating with a cat o nine tails so you and I can have healing in our bodies? Who else could come as a man and go through everything we do just to prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that living on this earth in victory is truly possible? I know. I have a hard time wrapping my mind around the fact that Jesus came as a man and He had all those victories as a man and not as God. Makes me fight those feelings of Inadequacy because I now have no excuse for those days when I'm unlovely. No one could be THAT nice can they? And just how DID He walk in love with those meany mutt people that He came into contact with?!?!?

He Loves you. He loves me. He died so we don't have to. He paved the way and when we read the Bible, He'll show us how it's done...with thanksgiving.

May God bless you with warm memories and happy times. And, please know how much we love and appreciate you and all you do!
