Emily Beisel & Namgis D 33 Cash in at Clark County Fair & Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Five-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Emily Beisel won the second biggest check of her 2024 season with a $8,452 victory at the $18,500-added Clark County Fair & Rodeo in Logandale, Nevada.

"I like that rodeo," she said. "I like the single run, big added money format. I like the one-run and going back home."

It also plays to her personal strengths in the arena.

"I'm always struggling with keeping the barrels up," she admitted. "Ever since I was a little girl, I've struggled with that mentality—either hero or zero! If you ain't first, you're last! Even my college rodeo coach told me, 'If you would back off and try to win second more often, I guarantee you would win first place more often.' That's been me since I was little. So, those averages are a little tougher for me to do well at. Rodeos like Logandale seem to fit me a little bit better. You've just got to go where your strengths are."

Perhaps, Beisel's greatest strength is knowing which of her talented horses to run where. For Logandale, she chose Namgis D 33 ("Chongo") for the one-run rodeo, which is tailor made for the pair. Although he's been known for his stellar NFR performance, the 14-year-old Bucks Hancock Dude gelding, out of Track Goddess, by Eyesa Special, is a "ton of fun outdoors."

"Chongo, I truly believe, is a first place horse if he's given the opportunity," said the dental hygienist from Weatherford, Oklahoma. "He's that caliber."

Chongo had one outdoor run at Tucson earlier in the year, advancing Beisel to the short go. However, she had sent the gelding home thinking she would be bumped. She finished the rodeo on her former mount Biddin On Fame ("Beau"), who is now winning for new owner Grace Gardiner.

"I try to be smart with my runs on him because he's 14," she said. "He's been on the road for five years, well seven, because I had him on the road with me in 2018 when I didn't make the Finals. This will be our seventh season rodeoing together. I just try to make sure I take him to places that count."

Beisel's young mare Ivory On Fire ("Liza") did the heavy lifting in the winter building rodeos.

"Liza had a great winter," said Beisel, who sits No. 8 in the WPRA

World Standings with $40,520. "She won more money for me this winter than Chongo ever has. She was outstanding. I was really proud of her because that was her first time to all those rodeos."

While Chongo fans may have been disappointed not to see the gray at the winter building rodeos, Beisel plans on exploiting his strengths outdoors the rest of the season.

“With the change in my team this year, I felt like his talents will be better utilized in the big outdoor pens this summer,” she said. “I’m just trying to be smart and conserve him for the important runs that I really need him for.”

Beisel is also saving her team for the long season ahead by opting out of the California spring run. With the Northwest run and the Tour Finale Rodeos in Puyallup, Washington, and Sioux Falls, South Dakota, having a large impact on the standings, it’s important to have them strong come fall.

“My rodeo schedule has shifted priority a little bit because we want to make sure we have a strong team of horses in September,” she said. “We’ll take a chill pill and relax these couple of months. Keep them sharp but keep them fresh.

“This is the slowest time of the year for me. I get to take a deep breath, make sure my horses are ready and spend time with family. Once we leave at the end of June, we’re gone for a really long time.”

Miller Time—Mother, Daughter Duo Excel at Barrel Daze, Take Open Futurity & Maturity Titles

By Tanya Randall

The mother, daughter duo of Kelsie and Skye Miller carried nearly $53,000 back to their Dry Mountain Ranch in Riley, Oregon, after two great weekends in Moses Lake, Washington. They won all but the Stallion Incentive Program Futurity at the 46th Annual Valley Girls Barrel Daze, this past weekend after running one, two in the Sand Cup Futurity the prior weekend.

Newly crowned Sand Cup Futurity Champions Kelsie Miller and SP Haydays Choice (“Tommy”) won a second straight title with a $9,179 championship in the $40,000-added, 111-entry Open Futurity.

“He was outstanding,” the elder Miller said of the 4-year-old gelding, owned by Tera McQuirk and her mother Sharla Gerhardt. “He comes to work every time and I kind of faltered a little.”

Miller and Tommy, a Sherry Cervi-bred by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Smign, by A Regal Choice, were a little long in the first round after she lost her reins on the backside of the second barrel but came back to win the second and the average, as they had done for the Sand Cup.

For the second straight weekend, they finished just ahead of the younger Miller and KG Shock N Awe (“Shocker”), a 5-year-old gelding by Feel The Sting out of Kathy Grimes’ great NFR mare KG Justiceweexpected.

“She had another great weekend,” Miller said of her 20-year-old daughter Skye. “If the Feel The Sting hadn’t gotten by the first barrel, she’d have won it. We were 5/1000ths apart in the average. He was just running hard.”

Skye said that she and Shocker just went to take a look at the poster of his maternal grandsire Judge Cash that was down the pen at the first barrel.

“After that I thought just keep going,” said Sky. “He’s freakishly fast. He’s a lot, but he’s been a lot of fun too.”

Skye and Shocker won $8,018 for the gelding’s owners Pansy Peters and Viki Friedrich.

The younger Miller also won $1,188 for placing eighth in the SIP Futurity on Plain Blazin Fame, owned by Friedrich’s sister Vanda Chess.

She said the 5-year-old Blazin Jetolena gelding, out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Plain Jane Fame, struggled with the ground both weekends, but still tried.

“With his style, he really uses the ground,” she said. “It just didn’t work for him. He tries so hard. He does the same thing every time. He’s been fun.”

The big “full circle moment” came when Skye swept the Open

2 IN A ROW FOR MILLER

For the 2nd week in a row, Sp Haydays Choice & Kelsie Miller were champions in the Northwest! Last week the Sand Cup Futurity; this week the Barrel Daze Futurity (VGBRA)! Sp Haydays Choice is a 2020 gelding by $7.58 Million Barrel Sire (per QData) Pc Frenchmans Hayday and out of the speedy 102 speed index mare Smign by A Regal Choice. The gelding was bred by 4 Time World Champion Barrel Race, Sherry Cervi, whose family owned Pc Frenchmans Hayday, and is owned by Tera McQuirk and her mother Sharla Gerhardt. The dam sire A Regal Choice is a full brother to Royal Quick Dash who is the sire of Royal Shake Em, the dam sire of the All Time Leading Barrel Horse Dm Sissy Hayday ($2.8+ Million) who is also by Pc Frenchmans Hayday. With that pedigree tie in, it is pretty much a sure thing that Sp Haydays Choice will have a big rodeo career in front of him when he is done with the futurities and derbies.

and SIP Maturities on the family’s homebred mare DMR Im Kinda Special (“Lolo”). They also won the Open average for total earnings of $8,985.

“That derby was as tough as I’ve ever seen it up there,” said the elder Miller. “To see that many horses run that close of times with the .2s and .3s. I didn’t think she had a chance. That mare got better every run. She was a .419, .400 then she went to a .3 last run at Sand Cup. She came back and ran a .3 on Saturday and .2 on Sunday (at Barrel Daze). She got stronger the longer she went. That was really cool.”

Lolo, 6, is by Ima Special KindaGuy out of Skye’s peewee and junior rodeo horse A Short Night (“Shorty”), by Short Oak.

Originally trained and shown in the reined cowhorse by Miller’s uncle Ron Wiemers, the mare set to be sold as a non pro horse when Wiemers was killed in a motorcycle accident.

“The day he was killed, he actually had some non pros come try her,” recalled Miller. “It went really well, and they thought it was a done deal. That evening he was killed. This was the last horse we had in the family that my uncle had a hand in, so my aunt kept her and sent her to Oregon with us.”

When Skye’s current peewee mount was injured in the trailer on the way to an event, she got to ride Shorty for the first time. She continued to ride the mare up to through her first two years of high school.

“She was a nice mare,” said Miller. “Very level headed. She’s built really strong, low to the ground. Built like a bulldog. Everything was good but she wasn’t very fast.”

A client recommended Ima Special KindaGuy. Her husband had got to rope off the stallion when the Myers had him in Arizona and had marveled at his quick speed. Lolo has turned out to be just like her mother, but with her sire’s quickness.

“She’s so much like her mom it’s crazy,” said Skye, who had won the Barrel Daze peewee class on Shorty years ago. “You just know what you’re going to get every time. She’s fun.”

Kaela Murphy & GitItGotItGo Fast at Valley Girls Barrel Daze Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kaela Murphy and her homegrown 5-year-old GitItGotItGo (“Mack”) were the best of the 82-entry, $40,000-added Stallion Incentive Program Futurity, held April 12-14 at the Valley Girls Barrel Racing Association’s 46th Annual Barrel Daze in Moses Lake, Washington.

Murphy and Mack collected $6,538 for the SIP victory and earned another $4,748 for fourth place in the Open Futurity. They collected $1,516 from Future Fortunes for winning the 2D of their open bonus and $280 from the Open 2D on Saturday. Their total earnings were $13,082.

The civil engineer from Helena, Montana, couldn’t believe that she won the futurity. Immediately following her second run she met her traveling partner Cally Goyins back at the stalls. Goyins asked her if she knew how she was sitting. When she replied, ‘No,’ Goyins encouraged her to look up the live standings on Saddlebook.com. “I looked and I was winning it!” she exclaimed. “I got goosebumps! I was in disbelief! Cally said, ‘I think they give a saddle.’ I was like, ‘No way! I just couldn’t believe it! The saddle is one I’m going to ride and with the money...it doesn’t get much better! It was just a fabulous weekend.”

Murphy raised Mack, by the late Furyofthewind out of her great college rodeo horse Bogies Miss Get Go, by NFR sire Bogie Biankus.

“Wanda was the first horse I won a saddle on,” Murphy explained. “To have success on her and now her baby like this is pretty rewarding. It’s pretty exciting to see the fruits of your labor coming to fruition. It’s just been a really fun journey. I’m just really excited to run him and see where this all goes.”

Murphy had a lot of success on Wanda, who she got during her sophomore year of college, too. They won the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association’s Big Sky Region twice and finished reserve once to Tenley Epperson and Bar Blue Lass, the future dam of Lisa Lockhart’s NFR Champion Promise Me Fame Guys (“Levee”). They also qualified for multiple Montana Circuit Finals, winning second once.

When it came time to breed Wanda, Murphy didn’t have to look far, having worked at Copper Spring Ranch in Bozeman, Montana, while finishing her degree at Montana State University. Her first pick was Firewater Canyon, which resulted in a futurity finalist Firewater N Pearls. Wanda’s second foal was Mack.

“Wanda was great but really ratey and I thought crossing her with some run would be phenomenal, so I thought, let’s give Furyofthewind a try,” she said. “Well, quite frankly, I think it was a good choice.”

Mack spent the later months of his second year with Bill Fischer, who started the legendary An Oakie With Cash (“Louie”). Fischer told her the gelding was talented and trainable, but a bit of a handful.

“If you saw him tied to the fence you probably wouldn’t want to get on him,” she laughed. “I guess he’s afraid he’s going to get left somewhere. He loves his friends and doesn’t want to be alone.

“If you have six horses tied at the trailer and you undo the lead rope of one—not even take it—he starts to whinny and prance. We’ve never left him anywhere, but he thinks we are.

“He’s such a character. He’s very friendly. He’s the first one to meet you. He’s in your pocket. Loves people. He’s almost a little annoying. I’ve always had a bond with him. He’s always been like the pest at the house that no one else can stand, but I’ve always loved him.”

She said training Mack was “pretty easy.” Once she started entering him, she decided to switch his first barrel.

THE RUNDOWN w/ Kaela Murphy

GitItGotItGo “Mack” 15.1-15.2 h, 1,300 lbs

BIT: Simplicity with a two-piece twist

SADDLE: Bob Marshall

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Eventers all around; shod by her father Matt Murphy

FEED: Bluebonnet

HAY: Alfalfa 24/7

SUPPLEMENTS: Equinety, Full Bucket Probiotics

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: He just gets exercised during the week. We might mess around on the barrels before we go somewhere, but it’s pretty much just to keep him in shape and keep him rode down. He’s got a lot of energy. If you don’t ride him for a week, you’ll know it when you get on him.”

THANKS: Her sister Mattie Murphy—“She’s my biggest fan. She listens to my crazy breeding ideas. She’s the first person I call to tell how I do. She goes with me sometimes. She’s into this stuff more than I do. She keeps tabs on everything. She’s so invested in what I’m doing,” her traveling partners Mary and Cally Goyins—“They’re the ones that got me into futurities,” her fiancé Dillon Doane and her father Matt Murphy—both shoe her horses; and Lisa Anderson with Copper Spring Ranch.

“I had trained him to the right barrel,” she explained. “I made a few runs on him and thought I needed to switch him to the left barrel. He just wasn’t coming around that left handed turn as well as he does to the right.”

With winter limiting her options to season Mack, the duo headed to the Washington futurities with about 10 runs of experience.

“We have some very small local jackpots to go to up here,” she said. “He’d only made 8 to 10 competitive runs before we went to

Washington. Even then, it was one or two in November and maybe one in December, a couple in January, maybe one in February. It's very inconsistent given the nature of the weather up here. I don't have the ability to travel everywhere because of my job.

"In all honesty, he's never made two runs in one weekend until Washington. It was kind of fun to get some consistent work on him because I never had the opportunity to do so."

Taking off work to go to the Sand Cup Futurity and Barrel Daze was a really big deal for Murphy. Thankfully, Mack made it worth it.

Murphy used the Sand Cup to let Mack "see the sights" and have the experience of making two runs in a row. He rewarded her with a sixth place finish in the Sand Cup average and earned $1,556.

For Barrel Daze, Mack stayed consistent, placing second in the first round with a 15.801.

"I thought he worked really good," Murphy said. "He was very consistent. He's a Furyofthewind and can really run. I think once he finds out how fast he can run it's going to be a little scary. He went out there and worked great. I'm kind of a chicken. I know he can run, and you know when you have a young one that can run you get to worrying they'll like it a little too much when you do? I made a really smooth run the first go and I was super tickled with him.

They were second in the next round with a 15.620.

"I thought if I just go make another solid run, I might get a little sniff of the average," she said. "I got a little excited and let him roll to the first barrel. He must have been running a little harder all together because he clocked a couple of tenths better. Overall, I was super happy with him. I couldn't have asked him to do too much more."

UNDER THE RADAR

Want to know who the best under the radar horse in the country is? Red Man Jones! Red Man Jones and his jockey/owner Randee Prindle dominate wherever they go. They have won everywhere from 3 day open races to rodeos and everything in between. If you keep a close eye on our Barrel Racing Report, you will see them placing every week or two somewhere in the center of the country. This past weekend at the Lucky Dog Barrel Race in Starkville, MS, the pair broke the arena record on Sunday with a 14.644 at the Horse Park Arena which was set in 2016. According to QData, Red Man Jones has earnings of $657,334. Red Man Jones is out of the Jud Little Ranch's Brownie Jones and out of the blue hen mare Dinkys Purple Rain by Dinky's Red Man.

Calgary Stampede — Here We Come

This past weekend the WPRA Western Regional Calgary Qualifier was held in Salina, UT. There were 2 Rounds with the Top 2 in the Average getting the nod to compete at Calgary. Chelsea Moore & Katelyn Scott grabbed the top spots and will chase the $50k finals prize money at Calgary. With the $50k check to win the Finals along with the lucrative preliminary round payouts, a good Calgary can almost insure a trip to the NFR! Below is the current Calgary Qualifiers per WPRA.com as of April 15, 2024. Calgary Stampede Qualifiers as of April 15, 2024

Womens Rodeo World Championship Announces Expanded Opportunities for 2025 Event

The Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC), the world's richest women's rodeo, recently announced an expansion of exclusive opportunities for female rodeo athletes, including an updated classification tier and the launch of the Women's Rodeo Championship.

The Women's Rodeo Championship (WRC) will now oversee the Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC), and as a part of this change, all athletes will be required to purchase a $150 WRC ID Card, declaring their classification. Before any nomination towards the 2025 WRWC is submitted, athletes must purchase a WRC ID Card, which can be obtained from Nextgen Rodeo by clicking on this link: HERE.

The 2025 WRWC nomination period (W25) will run from April 15th, 2024 to April 13th, 2025. The top 20 teams from the pro and challenger leaderboards in each discipline will qualify for the 2025 event.

The Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRC) is expanding its event payout to include a new Barrel Racing and Breakaway Roping classification. The 2025 event will feature a $42,000 payout designated to "Limited" classified athletes. Limited is designed for athletes who aspire to compete at the WRWC but have yet to be classified as Pros or Challengers and have not earned more than a designated amount of earnings ($20,000 in barrel racing and $5,000 in breakaway roping) in their lifetime. Full details on the Limited Classification are available HERE.

The organization also announced updates to the Challenger classifications. Challengers will be reviewed three times throughout the 2024-25 season (July 31, October 31, January 31). After January 31, 2025, all athletes will remain on their respective leaderboards for the 2025 WRWC event. All challenger information can be found HERE.

The 2024 Women's Rodeo World Championship event is part of the second Women's Rodeo World Championship Week, the richest women's-only week of competition in Western sports, held during the 2024 PBR World Finals. The more than week-long schedule of events is slated to pay out $1.145 million in prize money, allowing more than 800 women's competitors to compete for life-changing payouts.

Since launching in May 2020, the WRWC has awarded more than $3 million in new money to women's rodeo athletes. For more information about the WRWC visit wrwc.rodeo.

Utah's Pioneer Week Top Hands Recognized at Utah State of Sport Banquet

Every July the State of Utah celebrates Pioneer Week the third week of July with the culmination of the celebration being July 24, marking the day when Brigham Young and a determined company of Mormon pioneers realized their dreams upon entering the Great Salt Valley. Rodeo has long played a part during this celebration with the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo, the Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo and the Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo all being contested during this time.

In 2023, these three PRCA rodeos joined together to offer nearly $2 million in payouts— all happening within a 5-day span and within a 100-miles of each other. In addition to these record payouts during Pioneer Week in Utah, there was an additional bonus of $15,000 for the top earning female and male athlete each across these three rodeos. This particular part of the program known as the Pioneer Week Top Hand Award was officially recognized and awarded during the annual Governor's Utah State of Sport Banquet at the Delta Center in Salt Lake City on April 10, 2024.

Winning the inaugural bonus was WPRCA Barrel Racer Jordon Briggs, who won the silver medal at the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo and placed third at the other two rodeos, and PRCA Team Ropers Tyler Wade and Wesley Thorp, who won Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo and Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo in 2023.

"Utah has always supported the Western lifestyle that harkens back to the pioneer heritage and history," stated Tommy Joe Lucia, Executive Director of Utah Days of '47 Rodeo. "We are honored to continue to keep this front and center in today's society in collaboration with our fellow Pioneer Week rodeos. To be able to recognize these rodeo athletes alongside Olympic and professional athletes is a true honor."

Created in 2012, the Governor's State of Sport Awards celebrates Utah's sports industry and honors excellence in high school, collegiate, adaptive, professional, Olympic and Paralympic sports. The Utah Sports Commission is the proud host of the Governor's State of Sport Awards which has honored Utah's finest athletes, teams, coaches, events, and numerous Utah sports icons.

Utah is known as the State of Sport — and for good reason! Through the years of appreciation for adventure, Utah has carved out a distinct reputation as the premier sport destination for Olympic, professional, amateur and action sporting events. By leveraging their world-class venues and awe-inspiring backdrops, Utah also has an established reputation as a top international sports destination.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When we asked Jesus to be our Lord, He filled us with Himself and we became wall to wall light on the inside! No darkness at all. That's amazing! However, if we aren't watchful, we can get sloppy and lazy and start inching over toward the dark again. What is the fascination with evil? I think it's because it looks so inviting, just like the devil intends it to.

Everywhere we look, someone is getting away with something evil. They aren't really, but it sure looks like it. People watch whatever they want to on tv, hang out with evil companions, (even though the Bible tells us in I Cor. 15:33 not to do that.). What's a few drinks? A little gossip? It's all designed to trap us. To cause us to stumble and fall. And then, guess what? God will get the blame. "Why'd God let that happen to me?"

He didn't let it... we did. Some Christians walk so close to the edge of evil that, with a little tiny shove, they're quickly in over their heads, desperate for help.

That's not us, right? We let our light shine and are a beacon for those who need set free! Matthew 5:15.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
