RS Bumble Bee Sting & Hilary Hilzendeger Take Flight at Diamond Classic Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Greg Olson Memorial Futurity Champions RS Bumble Bee Sting and Hilary Hilzendeger captured a $60,824 Futurity Championship at the inaugural Diamond Classic Main Event, held April 12-21 in Abilene, Texas. They also placed fifth in the Open average, earning an additional $11,515.

Hilzendeger, who was riding for the mare's owners Kenny and Julie Strickland, was out first in the second round and had to wait from the remainder of the 178 entries to see if her two-run aggregate held.

"I had to sweat it all day, through the whole futurity, to see how we ended up!" she laughed. "When there were five left and I was like, 'Oh my gosh! We could actually win this whole thing!' And she got it done!"

It was an extremely tight race with Hilzendeger and Bumble Bee taking the championship by just .008 over multiple futurity champions Tricia Aldridge and Adios Pantalones.

The futurity victory paid $42,573 to the Stricklands and $18,251 to the 70 Ranch Performance Horses, who own the slot in the Diamond Classic to make Bumble Bee eligible for the incentive program. The open paid $8,060 to the Stricklands and $3,455 to 70 Ranch, who own Bumble Bee's sire Feel The Sting.

Bred by Ronna Smelser, Bumble Bee is out of DC Patti Cat, by two-time champion racehorse and NFR sire Dashin Is Easy. Smelser leased DC Patti Cat, a half-sister to NFR sire Darkelly and futurity finalist Kates Always First, from Sherry Wingfield.

The Stricklands had previously purchased Bumble Bee's sister

THE RUNDOWN w/ Hilary Hilzendeger

RS Bumble Bee Sting, 15.1-15.2 h, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Elliot Spur Up 02 with 08 S-T mouthpiece (four piece with smooth on the other links, twisted wire on the internal two) on a headstall with the braided mane of her late sister Shawne Firewater. "That's the only headstall I've ever ran on her. Her sister is with her every single run. It's been a very lucky headstall so far."

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips — SADDLE PAD: 3S Equine

LEG GEAR: Lonestar

SHOEING: Eventers all the way around

FEED: Complete Pro Equine — HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP's Gastro-Plex, Amino 15x and Levelor

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT and Back On Track, body work from Buck Sprague and Jace Blackwell Muscle Conditioning.

CONDITIONING/TRAINING: "Most of the time I just try to keep her long trotted out good and loped out good. I might walk and trot the barrels only. She really doesn't need the fast work. I just try to keep the foot work the same and keep her soft and correct. She's now to the point that I don't have to work her much; it's just keeping her footwork the same."

SPONSORS: Robbie Phillips, 3S Custom Equine, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals, South Grove Tack, Complete Pro Equine, Double C Western Supply

THANK YOU: Husband Cody — "Without him, we would have not done as well at Diamond. I know that for fact."

Shawne Firewater, a Firewaterontherocks daughter of DC Patti Cat, from Smelser and placed her in training with Hilzendeger. They took the same path with Bumble Bee, who entered Hullender's barn as a coming 4-year-old after coming home from the colt starter.

After just a month of training, Bumble Bee was ready to exhibition and Hilzendeger was left wondering what she was going to do with the mare all summer.

"The half-sister to her was exactly the same," said Hilzendeger, referring to Shawne Firewater, whom they lost to colic last fall. "Bumble Bee has a lot more attitude than the other one, but she loves to have a job and likes to do a job. When I put her on the barrels she was so serious about it. She just made it so easy. She has an extremely great work ethic."

Hilzendeger spent a lot of time riding the mare outside of the arena and her husband Cody, started roping on her.

"Her 4-year-old year I hauled her to exhibition twice before I took her to Arizona," she recalled. "I took her with me to the Run At The Rose and Colorado Classic and exhibitioned both times. Then she didn't go anywhere until Arizona. When I got to Arizona (in November), I exhibitioned her and was like 'Oh OK! I guess you were way more ready than I thought you were!'"

At her very first race at the Horns & Hooves Arena in Morristown, Arizona, Bumble Bee finished just out of the 1D money. Hilzendeger immediately called the Stricklands.

"I told them, 'I think we have a very special horse, right here,'" she said. "Since her very first run, she's just been amazing."

Bumble Bee won her first futurity, the Greg Olson Memorial, after winning the second round with a 16.9 on a WPRA Standard Pattern. She placed fourth in the incentive and third in the open futurities at the Royal Crown in Arizona before taking the reserve championship at the Dixie Classic in Utah. According to QData, the mare had $29,277 won before the Diamond Classic.

After the Dixie Classic, Bumble Bee got a few weeks off before Hilzendeger matriculated to Llano, Texas, where her husband had been staying and roping with Rich Skelton. After having a little trouble with the ground at a few Texas jackpots leading up to the Diamond Classic, Hilzendeger asked her husband to run a few steers on the mare.

"He roped two pens of steers on her, and it was the best thing for her," she said.

She said having her husband rope on her horses is her secret weapon because it keeps her horses backed off but using themselves properly.

"I think it's that they have to run hard and learn how to rate but remain moving," she said. "For her...she really doesn't need the barrel work, so it gives her something to do. It's kind of the same but not. You want them to do a lot of the same moves but it's on a steer not a barrel.

It has helped her so much.

"Even him roping the sled makes her give you that little bit of extra moving up into a turn. You just squeeze her, and she just stays moving up and forward and stays collected. I think a lot of that comes from him roping steers on her, making her get on her hind end but stay up and forward. I think that's helped that mare tremendously."

At Abilene, Hilzendeger and Bumble were second in the first round with a 15.421.

"The first run she worked really good," Hilzendeger said. "She nailed her first barrel. The ground in Texas is a little different than what we're used to. It has way more give. She really likes to bury up, so going to second I knew I needed to keep her feet moving and driving forward so she wouldn't get on her butt as much. She had a couple deals at a couple of jackpots where she was slipping so I thought I needed to free her up a little bit and get her up and around. She worked great!"

They were 15.666 for 14th in the second round.

"She wanted to start her turn a little soon at the first," Hilzende-

FAVORITE BITS

This past weekend Rs Bumble Bee Sting & Hilary Hilzendeger picked up their 2nd futurity title of the year winning the inaugural Diamond Classic Futurity! With breeders money and all included the pair picked up an amazing $72,339 for their win!

THE RIDER: In the north, Hilary Hilzendeger (Van Gerpen before marriage) has been winning for years. The last several years she has traveled more and right away started winning at the biggest events in the country. According to Equistat she had lifetime earnings of $425,583 (4/23/24) without her Diamond Classic earnings added in which will put her right around $500k in lifetime earnings!

THE SIRE: The Diamond Classic Futurity Champion is by Feel The Sting, the NFR qualifying stud that is sired by All Time Leading Barrel Sire Dash Ta Fame ($33.4 Million Sire) and out of the 2 Time World Champion Mp Meter My Hay (Stingray). Feel The Sting is now the sire of over $755k (QData) plus the over $72k that Rs Bumble Bee Sting picked up this past weekend putting him over $827k in offspring earning with just a handful of colts to hit the arena the past few years.

THE DAM: The dam of Rs Bumble Bee Sting is Dc Patti Cat, a Dashin Is Easy, Pure D Dash, Shawne Bug mare who has produced over $200k in barrel earners if you include the Diamond Classic. Prior to the Diamond Classic, Rs Bumble Bee Sting had already earned $29,277 (per QData) and with the $72,339 she will now be at $101,616. Dc Patti Cat's next biggest earner is Shawne Firewater $51,621 (by Firewaterontherocks); then Dashin Chicado $45,395 (by Chicados Cash) & she also produces a race winner, Feminine Feline (by Relegate) who won $37,104 and earned a 99 speed index on the racetrack.

ger recalled, "and I picked her up and she moved. She's so honest. She had a great first barrel, but we were just a little off of our first time. She's so fast and she tries so hard."

After their $72,339 haul from Diamond Classic, they head into this week's Ruby Buckle with $101,616 in earnings.

About Hilary Hilzendeger

Hilary Hilzendeger and her husband Cody operate CH Performance Horses out of Avon, South Dakota, during the summer and Wittmann, Arizona, during the winter.

After getting her first barrel horse at the age of 12, Hilzendeger moved up in horses until she started training her own. After graduating college, she was introduced to the futurity industry.

"I had no idea about futurities," she admitted. "I had colt that I bought from my friend Amy Schimke. I was exhibiting him and she said, 'Don't enter him!' I said, 'Why?' She said, 'You have to wait until December (November 15 today).' I didn't understand so she had to explain to me what was going on. I futurited him a little in 2012 and he placed in quiet a few futurities and then his derby year he did REALLY well. Ever since then I've been hooked. I've been doing this full time."

SBWFeelinThePressure & Blaise Bercegeay Collect $45,799 & Diamond Classic Derby Championship

By Tanya Randall

SBWFeelinThePressure (“Gauge”) and Blaise Bercegeay picked up $45,799 after winning the Derby and taking reserve in the Open at the inaugural running of the Diamond Classic Main Event, held April 12-21 at the Taylor County Expo Center in Abilene, Texas.

“That’s my biggest payday ever!” said Bercegeay, a lifelong barrel racer from Summit, Mississippi.

Of the $45,799, $21,929 in the derby and $10,132 was awarded to Gauge’s owner and breeder Stephanie Wheeler, and $9,398 from the derby and $4,342 from the open was awarded to the Matthews family’s Mission Ranch, who purchased a slot in the program to make horses from their program eligible to compete.

“I really need to thank Stephanie for letting me ride him and potentially buy him,” said Bercegeay. She also wanted to thank Kim Matthews for putting Mission Ranch in the program, her sponsor Master Saddles and her significant other Brian Wheeler, Stephanie’s son, for training Gauge.

The 5-year-old gelding, by million dollar sire No Pressure On Me is out of Matthews’ mare FeelinTheFirewater, by JL Dash Ta Heaven. FeelinTheFirewater (“Sissy”) has more than $220,000 in career earnings and is a full sister to Taycie Matthews’ IPRA World Champion and NFR qualifier Heavenly Firewater (“Bud”). Both Bud and Sissy are out of the great Fire Water Flit mare Firewater Fanny that carried Amanda (Clayman) to the 2004 NFR and later produced earners of nearly $800,000. He was bred in Wheeler’s name after she and Matthews swapped embryos.

Gauge ran out nearly $65,000 as a futurity horse with Brian Wheeler last year. They were the BFA Juvenile Reserve Champions and were finalists at the Jingle Bell Classic, Lucky Dog, Ruby Buckle Central and East, Betty Leek Memorial, Ardmore and BFA World Futurity.

Bercegeay started riding Gauge last December.

“I actually qualified an extra horse—that I didn’t have—to Brandon Fortney’s slot race at the Christmas In Dixie in Jackson,” she said. “I’d never ridden him before. Brian wouldn’t even let me lope circles on him. He just told me to trot some straight lines. I went in there and won the second go and ran a 13.9, my fastest time ever in Jackson. It was the craziest thing. It was like we just fit from the git-go.”

Bercegeay hasn’t made many runs on the gelding, 15 at the most, but they’ve been successful since the start.

“He’s such a happy horse,” she said. “If you look at his face, he just likes to go to a barrel race. I like his personality. I like his roundness (in a turn). I really just think I fit behind Brian—every one of them (SBW) Copy Cat, Bonnie (SBW Heavenly Peach), all of them. They just seem to fit. He seems to put all the buttons on them, and I mash the gas and it works.”

Bercegeay said she likes the older horses because she’s not a trainer.

“I don’t consider myself a trainer at all,” Bercegeay said. “I like derby horses. I like them when Brian is done with them after their first year. I like them when they’re 5- and 6-years old. That’s why Brian and I both work, because we both don’t try to be trainers. When he’s done with them the first year, I’ll take them the next. That way we both have something to enter and be serious about when we get there. I don’t like just sitting in the stands!”

In Abilene, Bercegeay and Gauge were tenth in the first go after a bobble at the first barrel.

“The first go I got a little straight going to my first barrel,” she said. “It was a tiny, narrow alleyway. It just made my first barrel real difficult. He’s a bigger horse and takes a bit of room. He needed a bigger pocket and I just cut it off. I was a 15.6 the first go. I really did feel I had a lot of time out there, but I didn’t expect to run a .2 the next day.”

They won the second round with one of the fastest times of the event, a 15.232, after coming up with a solid game plan for the first barrel.

“Me and Brian and I talked about it,” she explained. “I felt like I needed to go a little further down the alley before I start and start him on the right side and try to push him out in the middle of the arena to get my first barrel right.”

She said it almost felt like Gauge was falling down on the other two barrels.

“I don’t know if he was just trying too hard or what,” she said, “but he clocked good.”

Bercegeay and Wheeler are at the Ruby Buckle this week.

“Honestly,” Bercegeay quipped, “after the Diamond Classic, if we don’t win a dime here, it will still have been a good trip!”

Wenda Johnson And Steal Money Win Big Money At San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo

By Britany Diaz

Wenda Johnson and Steal Money were all business at the San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo held in the Foster Communications Coliseum on April 5 through the 19th. The duo won the first round of competition, which was held in the 1st Community Credit Union Spur Arena as slack on April 1, with a time of 15.66 seconds. They were 3/10ths faster than the rest of the competition, earning $6,163 for that win. The duo proved tough in both arenas by splitting second in Round 2, running a time of 14.05 seconds, winning another $4,842. In the final round, Wenda and Steal Money finished 7th, running a 14.29. When the dust settled, the duo had the fastest combined time on three runs with 44.00 seconds to win the aggregate and another $9,244. The San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo Championship title added a total of $20,249 to their 2024 season standings.

Johnson and Steal Money, better known as 'Mo', are no strangers to the winners circle. The team has won numerous one run rodeos and three NFR go-rounds, but this is their first average title. Johnson has had great success at the San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo, making the finals every year, but once since 2019. In 2020 and 2022, Johnson was Reserve Champion on Macgyver Moonflash, also known as Mac. In 2021, Johnson and Mac took the championship title. Johnson has had great success in San Angelo on three different First Moonflash offspring. "The great thing about San Angelo is that first run in a barrel racing set-up. The ground is usually very good in the Spur Arena. Then we get to come into the rodeo set-up in the coliseum, with good, consistent ground, and have a chance in there as well," shared Johnson about her success at this rodeo. "I love that this rodeo is open to everyone so that anyone that has a great horse running right now can have a chance to win a big rodeo. I am so thankful for these big rodeos and Mo for trying so hard and giving me some leeway to capture the title. He stumbled in the finals and pulled a shoe, but never quit trying. He compensated so well and kept going."

"Coming into San Angelo, my goal was to ride to my spots, make clean runs and to be successful together," shared Johnson. "A big win in San Angelo helps set up the rest of the year. To capitalize on a big rodeo win early on, I won't have to enter a bunch of smaller ones later down the road. It is ideal for me to be able to spend more time at home and for Mo to have more time to rest between runs and feeling his best."

8-year-old gelding, owned by Highpoint Performance Horses, consistently shows his talent in every type of situation. Johnson shared, "Mo is very versatile for his size. We have had success in both large and small pens. Any pen that allows Mo to give me his speed is a benefit for him." She described him as a perfect combination as both push-style and a free runner. "He can be wide open, but if I need to make a correction, he gives it to me very quick. He is sensitive and responsive and with every cue, the timing has to be impeccable and then I have to release and give it back to him." Johnson said, "Mo has quite the personality, he is a character. He is serious to some degree, wanting what he wants when he wants it. He can also be so kind and loves attention and cookies. Every time I am around him, I make sure his needs are met. Then together, we get to go have so much fun. This is our fun time. At home, it is all work and consistency, doing the daily ins-and-outs. Wenda Johnson has become a household name in barrel racing. The four-time NFR Qualifier, wears a number of hats, balancing being a professional barrel racer with being an ER nurse practitioner, mother of two daughters, a wife, a volunteer at her church, all while staying active in her Pawhuska, OK community. She shared some advice for younger girls thinking about a career in rodeo, “I like to let my horses run and know they can go in there and do this on their own. They don’t need to be whipped or kicked so hard. They will go in there and do it if they love their job. These horses are special.”

Johnson has a great team behind her to keep her and her horses feeling good on the road. “Highpoint Performance Horses has been amazing by being supportive and keeping Mo ready to compete and getting him safely down the road. Our vet, Dr. Tony Rocconi, at Mid-South Equine has been so impressive and helps keep Mo feeling his best,” shared Johnson. “We plan to start our summer run in Clovis, CA this weekend. Mac won that rodeo last year and I am excited to go back on Mo. I will have both Mo and a young horse, Inspired Drifter, with me. The young horse is stepping up and has already placed at a couple rodeos.” It will be fun to cheer Wenda and her team on. With the tragic loss of Mac in late July of 2023,

ON THE MOVE

Johnson & Steal Money on the move! The San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo marks the last of the big building rodeos of the winter. Whoever captures the title always puts themselves in great position for the California spring run and summer run. Steal Money & Wenda Johnson captured the San Angelo title and $20,249. This big win combined with a great winter pushed them to #2 in the World just $4k behind Rodeo Houston champ Leslie Smalygo. Johnson now has $64,286 won at just 15 rodeos!

Johnson is a 4 time NFR Qualifier and Steal Money is a 3 time NFR Qualifier and round winner. According to QData $468,349 as of their last reporting. With the San Angelo and other recent earnings Mo is pushing $500k in lifetime earnings! The pair is well on their way to another NFR qualification in 2024!

Johnson has proven how great of a horsewoman she is by allowing the other stars in her trailer to shine. It takes talent to do what Wenda does.

Kylee Scribner & Firewater Cartel Set New Arena Record at Xtreme Waco

By Tanya Randall

Kylee Scribner's Firewater Cartel ("BB") loves the Extraco Coliseum in Waco, Texas. At the inaugural running of the Xtreme Million Waco, April 16-21, the duo bested their own arena record of 15.345 from the 2020 Elite Extravaganza and WPRA World Finals with a 15.250 on the last day of the Xtreme to take the top prize and $23,172.

"I thought it was a really great production," Scribner said of her first Xtreme experience. "That team was very, very nice. They were very helpful and very accommodating. The ground was phenomenal all week. They were there for four days and there was a 15.4 or faster run every day. I really enjoyed it."

Scribner, who rides and trains for 4M Equine in Decatur, Texas, was able to fit in the race to a crazy schedule that saw her make nearly 30 runs in five days between running seven head at the Diamond Classic mid-week, running BB at the San Angelo Rodeo and then six head at Waco on Saturday.

When she returned home Saturday night, she was winning good money with a 15.601 but she just knew she needed to go back and make one more run on Sunday.

"I went home and thought, 'I can enter again,'" she explained. "But I was going to have to get up at 4:30 to go again. I was really contemplating going back. I just don't know if I have energy to go because I'm exhausted from the last two weeks. I suckered myself into it and it paid off!"

BB was her only bullet on Sunday.

"I was sitting to win five or six grand for the week, but I knew he could be right there with them," she said. "I obviously knew he could be faster because he's run a .3 in there and he had a .6 the first day. I more or less didn't want to leave the opportunity on the table because I knew how much money could be won out there. I can't run him at Ruby Buckle, so I knew I was going to be off of him this week. I figured there was a lot of money to be won and he would be off the rest of the week, so I might as well go." She said the biggest difference between the two runs was BB's first barrel.

"He cleaned up his first a little bit," she said. "He got just a step past the first the first day. I really think that was the biggest difference, although he probably ran a little harder since it was the second run in that pen."

Scribner purchased BB as a 4-year-old from his breeder Leroy Pritchard. The 2015 gelding is by Firewater Frost out of the SC Chiseled In Stone mare DNA Awesome Chrystal and was trained by Pritchard's wife Holly. BB was just a futurity horse when he set the arena record in Waco in 2020.

In 2021, they won the WPRA's Rookie title, but they soured to the rodeo road a little along the way.

"Why are we going this hard on ourselves when I can make twice as much and stay home?" she questioned.

In late 2022, they hit a major road bump.

"Right around Thanksgiving (2022), he bucked me off really bad," Scribner said. "Like mid run, broke in two, bucked me off and knocked me out. It was a really big ordeal. We couldn't figure out what was going on. We knew he was sore, but we just couldn't figure it out. It ended up being his feet."

BB had negative plantar angles, meaning the heel portion of his rear coffin bones were lower than the toe, which causes strain on multiple structures.

"We figured out we were going to have to do his feet cycles a little differently," Scribner said. "He was going to need to be done sooner than six weeks because he was getting negative on us sooner than we expected him to."

SPONSORS: RenoVö Equine, Flair Equine Nasal Strip, 3S Custom Equine Pads, OE Nutraceuticals, Outlaw Equine Hospital & Rehab Center, JD Morrow Custom Bits, Driven PCR, Delicious Horse Treats of Texas, B-Free Of Flies, Master Saddles, Fenoglio Boots, REO Ranching Equine Operations Insurance Agency, CB Branded, Southern Star Feeds, Rodeo Now and 4M Equine.

She also admitted it took her a bit to trust him again.

"It took me a while to get comfortable on him again," she said. "It wasn't a little buck and pull up, it really was an ordeal. That took me some time to get over. Once we got all that lined out, I went back to running him at the big stuff."

While she still rodeos to some degree, BB gets saved for the big money runs that he likes, and with the numerous open slot and high stakes races popping up, he's easily made $50,000 in 20 runs or less.

"He's phenomenal," she said. "I have been going more in the last month because April's just a busy month. I've just been running him a couple of times a month at whatever big runs I can find. I'm just trying to make sure they're worth running him at."

Roster Announced for 2024 Rodeo Corpus Christ & Steph Fryar's Attempt to become the 1st Female Overnight Millionaire in Western Sports

Ahead of the WCRA's (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) Rodeo Corpus Christi hosted on the bayfronts of Corpus Christi, Texas, May 7-11, the organization today announced the 189 athletes who will compete at the final Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) event. Barrel Racer Stephanie Fryar (Waco, Texas) approaches the event as the final competitor eligible to win the $1 million WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo bonus, poised to become the first female in rodeo history to become an overnight millionaire.

The Triple Crown of Rodeo is an annual bonus that pays $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win any three consecutive WCRA Major rodeos. Fryar is the final contender for the Triple Crown of Rodeo program. Fryar won consecutive WCRA Majors in October 2023 in Mill Springs, North Carolina, and in January 2024 in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

"An athlete earning $1 million or more in a single night is a rare occurrence in the sport of rodeo, and this is only the second time in the sport a woman has been in sole contention for such a cash bonus," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "She has won $750,000 in her professional career, and the $1 million check she could earn on May 11 will exceed her 18+ year career earnings combined."

If Fryar wins Rodeo Corpus Christi, she would be crowned the second and final champion of the coveted WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo, presented by Lazy E Ranch and Arena. In December 2022, bareback rider RC Landingham (Hat Creek, California) become the first, and to date only, winner of the Triple Crown of Rodeo Bonus, That $1 million check equaled his 14-year career earnings combined.

Fryar is also just the second woman to reach this stage in the bonus progression. In May 2022, breakaway roper Tacy Kay Webb (Midway, Texas) advanced to Rodeo Corpus Christi in contention for the $1 million but was unable to clinch the win in the Lone Star State.

Fryar is the fifth athlete, joining Landingham, Webb, tie-down roper Riley Webb (Decatur, Texas), and saddle bronc rider Isaac Diaz (Desdemona, Texas), to be in contention for the Triple Crown of Rodeo.

Alongside the $1 million WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo Bonus contender Fryar, the field of more than 200 accomplished Western sports athletes will feature the return of Landingham, who has not ridden in the WCRA since his landmark victory due to injury.

In 2022, when Landingham won the Triple Crown of Rodeo Bonus, it marked just the fourth time in rodeo history an athlete became an overnight millionaire.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A hhhh spring! When all things become new! A sure sign of spring in Wyoming is.....more snow! LOL!
No, seriously, it's meadowlarks! When I go out in the morning and I hear one, I have been known to yell, "THANKS FOR SINGING!" Seems like no matter what happens after that, when you hear them singing, spring is officially here. It can look like winter, smell like winter and FEEL like winter, but it's spring.

Did you know that that's what happens when we ask Jesus to be our Lord and we get 'born again'? 2 Corin. 5:17 tells us, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

Sometimes we don't feel new, but according to the Word of God, we are. If we fall short and sin, all we need to do is ask God for forgiveness and move on! We might have looked, acted, and smelled like sin, but we are a NEW CREATION!

God made a way for us to always be new, just like spring. 1 Jn. 1:9 promises us that if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Go ahead, run outside and yell, "THANKS FOR FORGIVENESS!"
