Eggstraspecial Wins for Abby Phillips and VF Expensive Taste for $9,557

By Tanya Randall

Abby Phillips is laser focused on qualifying for the National Finals Rodeo this year, but she wasn't about to pass up a great opportunity to run for "big money" just 10 minutes from her home in Marshall, Texas.

Phillips and her talented mare VF Expensive Taste ("Andi") made one run to win $9,557 at the 2 Heart Spring Spectacular Eggstraspecial Too, held March 28-30 in Marshall. The victory in the Big Stakes slot race paid $8,430, while the open carryover win was worth $1,127.

"The Slot Races are a really cool deal," said Phillips. "I think it's good for the industry that they're popping up everywhere. My horse is in all the incentives, but with my schedule, I'm not going to be running at them. It's nice not to have to plan so far ahead and show and enter for big money.

It's also nice not to have to put a lot of runs on your horse. I try to be really picky where I run Andi. I try to only run her for big money or at something that's going toward the goal we're trying for."

As for that big goal, Phillips sits No. 7 in the WPRA World Standings with $38,856, all thanks to Andi. She came out of the fall run No. 1 in the standings after taking second at the WPRA World Finals and sharing the win at the Wilderness Circuit Finals. This winter, Phillips picked up a couple of big wins at Mercedes and Waxahachie, Texas, and stayed hooked at the building rodeos despite her mare's limited building rodeo experience.

"Honestly I didn't think of it that way until I started to head to some of the building rodeos this year," she said. "Everything we ran at last summer was outside. It's been a process of trying to season her at some of the biggest stages in rodeo, but she's done awesome. She's starting to get her groove and get comfortable."

It's been nearly a five year process to get within the Top 15 for Phillips. She got her card in 2017 and made her first summer run in 2019 with Crown Ta Fame ("Fame"). In 2020, she purchased VQ Im Buzzed ("Big P"). While she won with the geldings it wasn't until she lost Fame last summer that she was forced to season Andi—a mare that tested her patience and the strength of her arena fences. "Mom actually bought her when I had been rodeoing," she recalled. "We had wanted an Eddie Stinson. We were looking and hadn't really found anything, I knew I wanted a mare. I was just patiently waiting. My Mom called and told me, 'I think I found an Eddie Stinson!' I'm like, 'Great! Send me the papers.' Then I don't hear from her for a few hours."

When her mom did text the papers, she found an Eddie Stinson daughter out of a Southern Cartel mare Duel Fuel and Zevi (TB) on the bottom. Thinking the pedigree had too much "spice" for her liking, she texted her mom back, 'Nope! Absolutely not!'

"She texted back, '... Why?'" Phillips laughed. "I'm like, 'Have you looked at the papers?' Then she called me, and I knew something wasn't right! In the two hours I didn't hear from her, she had bought the horse, and she was on a trailer being delivered to my house!"

Andi was indeed just as spicy as Phillips had expected.

"She was spicy when she got here," she said. "They said she had 90 days of riding. The first three days she was good. The fourth day she threw me off. The fifth day was when the first dent in the fence happened. After that, she went back to the colt starter. She spent five months with the colt starter. That's how spicy she was." While that spiciness is still there, Phillips has learned how to deal with it.

"She's very quirky still," she said. "I think I'm getting better at when to challenge her and when not to. She is settling into the rodeo world a little better. I have a feeling her quirkiness will never leave; it's just a part of who she is."

Now, Phillips has Big P, a full brother to NFR qualifier VQ Sucker Punch and half brother to recent futurity winner Good Things Comin, legged up for the California Spring Run, too. In 2022, she and Big P won the Clovis Rodeo.

She said having two horses capable of winning pro rodeos is amazing.

"It takes the pressure off of one," she said. "You can split the runs or split the rig if you have to. It's going to allow me to make more rodeos. This year we can travel a little harder, which is nice given where we're sitting in the standings."

Preslie Reid & Cool To Be In Heaven Hang On For a Win at Huntsville

By Tanya Randall

Preslie Reid and her backup horse, turned No. 1 Cool To Be In Heaven (“Neveah”) held on to the lead from early in slack through two performances to win the Walker County Fair & Rodeo, held March 29-20 in Huntsville, Texas.

“I was saying my prayers and crossing my fingers until the last girl ran in the perf,” said the 32-year-old barrel racer from San Angelo, Texas. “I always knew she could do it.”

Reid was extremely pleased with the dainty-built mare’s 17.4 in the big, sandy outdoor pen.

“I was really happy it was a big outdoor pen, but I wasn’t so happy that I was bottom of the drag and it’s super deep,” she said. “Usually deep ground isn’t her forte, but she worked absolutely perfect.”

The victory—Neveah’s first—helped Reid maintain her position in the WPRA World Standings. She currently sits No. 12 with $29,498.

Neveah caught everyone’s attention when she stepped into the limelight at Rodeo Houston after Reid’s main mount Streakin French Star (“Carlos”) went out with an injury between her Super Series and the Semifinals.

“She’s always just been there with the talent, but I’ve never let her shine,” said Reid. “We’d always hit barrels to win something, and Carlos is so honest.”

Reid purchased Neveah, now 10, from Renee Spiller as a 3-year-old. The mare was from Jud Little’s famed breeding program. Her sire and dam were both raised by Little as well. She is by the great JL Dash Ta Heaven out of Cool To Be Famous, a daughter of Sun Frost and multiple futurity finalist Gabardine Fame, by Dash Ta Fame.

“I really wanted a JL Dash Ta Heaven mare. I thought they were extremely athletic. I put on Facebook ‘ISO a JL Dash Ta Heaven mare,’ and Renee Spiller messaged me.”

Neveah was a tad on the spicy side and Spiller had planned on breeding her to Triple Vodka, who she owned at the time.

Once Reid got the mare home, she spent months desensitizing and restarting the mare.

“She had a few rides, but not very many,” she noted. “It took a long time. I don’t think she ran at her first rodeo until she was 7. I did run her some her 6-year-old year. She definitely showed that she

THE RUNDOWN w/ Preslie Reid

Cool To Be In Heaven (“Neveah”) 15.2 h, 1,000 lbs “She’s built like a Greyhound.”

BIT: Schoneberg with a three-piece smooth mouthpiece with no curb strap

SADDLE: Coats

SADDLE PAD: “She’s been wearing Carlos’ 5-Star for good luck.”

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Flexion on all four

SHOEING: Rim on all four

FEED: One cup of Omolene 500 so she eats her supplements

HAY: Free choice alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Equine Omega Gold Oil, Race Today, Purina Super Sport, Kombat Boots, electrolytes

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Runs in a Flair Strip. “She is happiest turned out, untouched, unbothered, and dirty. She doesn’t like anything. Honestly, I don’t do much with her. She doesn’t like to wear any kind of blanket. She doesn’t like to wear magnetic boots. She doesn’t like Soft Rides. The less you do with her, the happier she is.”

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “It depends on which mood she’s in that day.

If she’s in a good mood, I ride her. I only slow work the barrels at a walk. I ride her out quite a bit. If she wants to long trot we trot. If she wants to walk, we walk. There’s some days that I get on her and she’s in a really bad mood, I’ll get off and longe her. There’s no routine. It’s just what side of the bed she wakes up on that day!”

SPONSORS: Coats Saddlery, Equine Omega Gold, Twisted Media Company, Zesterra by Pro Animal Health, Grogan’s Farm & Ranch, Double X Equine, Schroeder Brothers, Blackfoot Barrel Horses and THP Operating, LLC.

had the talent and speed, but it was a lot of getting her to where she was running and then slowing her back down.”

Neveah spent the latter half of 2022 and early part of 2023

recovering from stifle surgery and deep digital flexor tendon injuries. She went with her (Reid) for the summer run, placed at Belle Fourche, South Dakota, over the Fourth of July but then hit barrels at three straight rodeos to win or place very well.

“I knew that she could win but she couldn’t keep it together most of the time,” Reid said. “Her 8- and 9-year-old years, I ran her at several rodeos, and I hit barrels over and over again to win them or be second. I have a whole book full of her woulda, coulda, shouldas.”

Now with Carlos out for several months with deep digital flexor tendon injuries, Neveah is left to carry the load.

Reid, who co-owns THP Operating and serves as the company’s accountant, has slack at Levelland, Texas, on Wednesday and is out at Andrews, Texas, on Friday. She has her second run in San Angelo on Sunday before heading West for the WPROA Western Regional and California spring run.

“I think this is what she needed because it’s been really hard for me to get off of Carlos,” she said. “He’s just so honest and he wins. I think if this hadn’t happened, she would have just continued to be the backup horse. Honestly, I think she’s loving being my No. 1 horse. She’s enjoyed going and has hauled well. It seems like she’s happier having a job than sitting at the trailer the whole time. I’m really excited.”

WCRA and Kid Rocks Rock N Rodeo, Million Dollar Team Competition

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) has announced they will join forces with PBR (Professional Bull Riders) for the revolutionary new Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo, a reimagined rodeo produced by PBR in partnership with Kid Rock. Six teams, each led by a legendary rodeo head coach, will compete in bracket-style competition at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas on May 17 for a $1 million purse.

To make the six teams in the new rodeo, five will be drafted by the coaches from any and all eligible rodeo contestants. The only path for non-drafted contestants to compete is by declaring eligibility through the WCRA's state of the art Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) and earning a leaderboard position in the top 20 at Rodeo Corpus Christi on May 8-11, 2024.

The 2024 WCRA Team, "The Free Riders", will qualify to the team as the first and second place athletes from Rodeo Corpus Christi. The draft for the remaining five teams will take place in February-March 2024.

The six teams comprised of two athletes per discipline will go head-to-head in barrel racing, bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, team roping, steer wrestling, and breakaway roping in a team format, competing in a bracket-style competition featuring Kid Rock live in concert. Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo, scheduled for Friday, May 17, will lead into PBR World Finals – Championship at AT&T Stadium on May 18-19.

"Our latest move to introduce a team format will open more opportunities for any rodeo athlete to compete as part of a team for a $1 million payout," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "Our goals when launched were to improve rodeo, increase the payouts, and increase the sport's exposure. After five years and nearly $17 million in payouts, we believe this new direction with our major events can continue to do just that and introduce rodeo to a whole new market and mainstream media."

The $1 million purse for Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo will be broken out with $450,000 going to the winning team, and the remaining $550,000 will be paid out to competitors in various ways.

"The new teams format will benefit more athletes than the Triple Crown, while the payout and competition at WCRA majors will remain great," said Mote. "This reimagined vision of rodeo and rock and roll will be a rodeo experience like no other. The rodeo format features simultaneous head-to-head competition in AT&T Stadium in a tournament-style bracket for a million-dollar purse."

Each discipline will be showcased as the teams battle through the first three rounds of competition. All teams will go head-to-head in a randomly seeded Round 1, with the winning team from each showdown automatically advancing. The top performer of the three losing teams will earn a Wild Card berth in Round 2. The four advancing teams will then compete head-to-head in Round 2, with the winners earning a spot in the final round, determining the discipline victor – each discipline finish earns points for each team to qualify to the ultimate TEAM SHOWDOWN – the Top 2 Teams competing one final time for the Team title.

WCRA will also announce four last-chance qualifiers for the 2024 event in the coming months.

Nominations for the May 8-11 Rodeo Corpus Christi are open now and will close on April 7, 2024, at 11:59 p.m. For information on how to nominate and earn a position, visit wcrarodeo.com.

WCRA will change its focus from The Triple Crown of Rodeo format to the teams rodeo format beginning in May 2024. All athletes currently eligible for the Triple Crown of Rodeo will qualify until their TCR run ends at 2024 Rodeo Corpus Christi. No current TCR-eligible athlete (event champions from WCRA Rodeo Carolina) has more than one win.

Looking ahead to the 2025 Kid Rock's Rock N Rodeo, a nomination process on the VRQ will be used, similar to the qualification process for the Women's Rodeo World Championship and The Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo. The 2025 Free Riders will be made up of the champions from the 2024 WCRA Rodeo Carolina on October 3-6 and 2025 Rodeo Corpus Christi.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $16,800,000 in new money to rodeo athletes.

Open Entry for the 2024 Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo Available

The WCRA Division Youth (WCRA DY) and the Lazy E Arena have announced that the Open Entries are now available for the Cinch World Championship Junior Rodeo presented by Montana Silversmiths (WCJR) in Guthrie, Oklahoma. The event will take place from July 23-27, offering over $200,000 in guaranteed added money. It is open to any youth athlete aged 19 or under (as of the first day of competition). In 2023, the WCJR paid more than $407,000, creating the richest youth event in over two decades.

Entries for the youth world championship event opened on April 1 at 8 a.m. CT and will close on July 10. Entry fees for the Junior Division (ages 19-13) will be $350, while Youth Division (ages 15-10) will be $250 per entry. Athletes must submit a copy of their Birth Certificate and W-9 when entering. Birth Certificates and W-9 can be uploaded as part of the entry process through nextgenrodeo.com.

All athletes participating in the event through Open Entry will begin their competition in the qualifying rounds.

Athletes who enter one or more disciplines between April 1 and May 10 will be eligible to spread their entry fee payments across 3-4 payments based on the date they enter within the Payment Plan window. Athletes are not required to use the Payment Plan feature and may opt to pay the entry fees in full at the time of entry.

In 2023, each discipline champion earned the following:

Breakaway Roping: $58,920; Tie Down Roping: $32,280; Team Roping - Header: $44,320; Team Roping - Heeler: $44,320; Barrel Racing: $50,480; Pole Bending: $30,640; Goat Tying: $29,800; Steer Wrestling: $18,960; Bareback Riding: $10,840; Saddle Bronc Riding: $11,960; Bull Riding: $17,280; World Champ Bonuses: $22,000; World AA Champ Bonuses: $15,000; Event AA Champ Bonuses: $9,000; IronMan Payout: $11,400

Youth athletes can also get to the WCJR by earning a top 16 position in the 2024 WCRA Division Youth Leaderboard. Those leaderboard athletes will be seeded into the Semi-Final Round and earn a complimentary entry fee. Athletes can nominate their rodeo efforts and earn leaderboard points and positions until Sunday, June 26, at 11:59 p.m.

Athletes can earn a generic qualification to the WCJR by competing in a designated Qualifier Series event. The highest-placing nominated athlete at a Qualifier Series event earns a generic qualification to the 2024 WCJR regardless of leaderboard position.

All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the WCJR can visit WCJRodeo.com.

The 2024 event is open to youth athletes competing in 11 disciplines, which include – Bareback Riding, Ladies Breakaway Roping, Saddle Bronc Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping Heading, Team Roping Heeling, Tie-Down Roping, Ladies Barrel Racing, Ladies Pole Bending, Ladies Goat Tying, and Bull Riding. WCJR athletes can enter only one age division and once per discipline. Roughstock events are Junior Divisions only.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Some of you who are reading this are horse trainers. You have learned to read a horse. You can see things coming. You have experience in overcoming all sorts of situations.

Mike and I have a white board in the arena, and years ago we wrote on it, "Ask yourself what happened before what happened happened!" When we're paying attention, that statement has served us well. When we aren't... you know! LOL!

I'm sure that no matter what you do, the same rules can apply. It's the same for our walk with the Lord. We are muddling along in the world, getting beat up. We need help. We ask Jesus to be our Lord and NOW we have help on the inside of us to overcome all the attacks of the enemy.

At first, we are just ignorant. We don't know all the benefits promised us in Psalm 103. Oh, but as we grow and practice His Word, we are double tough! We are LION TAMERS now! I Pet. 5:6-9. We have, and know how to use, all the armor God gave us in Eph. 6:11-17. We know how to overcome problems.

What a great place to be! But wait! There's more! Let's use what we have learned to help someone else!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
